Why have we been created? What is our purpose in life? Some people believe that this world is only a place of fun and joy. They live to eat, drink, and enjoy life. As Muslims, we believe that our life on earth is to prepare for our everlasting life in the hereafter. Every human being has to believe in Allaah and lead his life according to His commands. We are going to be questioned about all our doings on earth. Our real and permanent life is in the Hereafter. Those who pass the test of this life will be rewarded with an everlasting life in Jannah, while those who fail the test will be punished in Jahannam.
1. Allaah created this world for a limited time.

2. Everything in this world is created for the benefit of man.

3. Man has been created to worship Allaah.

4. This world is a place of trial and test. Our test is to believe in Allaah or to reject Him.

5. Allaah tests some people with money, while others are tested with poverty.

6. Allaah tests some people with health, while others are tested with sickness.

7. All our deeds are recorded by Allaah.

8. Man will have to answer for his deeds in the court of Allaah.

9. Those who believed and obeyed Allaah will be rewarded with an everlasting life in Jannah.

10. Those who rejected Allaah will be punished with an everlasting life in Jahannam.

Islaam

The founder of Islaam is the Almighty Allaah. Islaam is not named after Nabee Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم because he is not the founder of Islaam. The first Prophet of Islaam was Nabee Aadam عليه السلام. Islaam is not a new religion. It was the religion of all previous Ambiyaa. They were all Muslims. Nabee Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم came to perfect and complete the message of the previous Ambiyaa.

1. “Islaam” means to accept the Law of Allaah تعالى.
2. When a person accepts the Law of Allaah he is called a “Muslim”
3. All previous Ambiyaa were Muslims. The Qur’aan states that: “Ibraheem was not a Jew or Christian, but he was an upright Muslim.”
4. A Muslim does not only believe in Nabee Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم, he believes in all the Prophets sent by Allaah تعالى.
5. Islaam is not the religion of a particular race group. It is not the religion of Arabs or Indians. It is the religion for all mankind.

6. The Shariah (religious laws) of previous Ambiyaa عَلَيْهِمْ السَّلَامُ were for a particular time. The Shari’ah (religious laws) of Nabee Muhammad صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَیهِ وَسَلَّمُ is for all times up to the Last Day.

7. Islaam is not a religion among other religions. It is the only true religion.

8. Muslims are commanded to invite all peoples of the world to Islaam.

9. Islaam teaches us to believe in only One Creator, Who deserves to be worshipped and obeyed.

10. Islaam teaches us to believe in Prophet Muhammad صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَیهِ وَسَلَّمُ as the final and last messenger of Allaah ﷺ.

There are three common principles taught by all the Ambiyaa; from Aadam علیه السلام to Muhammad صلی الله علیه و سلم. The teachings of each Nabee were based on these three principles although their shariah (laws of zakaah, fasting, salaah, etc.) were different from ours. The Shariah of Nabee صلی الله علیه و سلم cancelled the Shariah of the previous Ambiyaa.

The three common principles were:

1. Tawheed - Belief in the oneness of Allaah تعالی.
2. Risaalah - Belief in the Prophets of Allaah تعالی.
3. Aakhirah - Belief in the life hereafter.

2. Name the three common principles.

3. Although the principles were common what did they differ in?

4. Give 2 examples to show they were different in certain aspects.

5. What does Risaalah and Aakhirah mean?
Beliefs of a Muslim

Our faith is based on seven articles of faith. A person has to believe in each one of them and declare: “that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and Muhammad صلی الله علیه و سلم is His messenger.” A person cannot be a true Muslim until he loves Nabee صلی الله علیه و سلم more than he loves his parents, his children, and the whole of mankind.

The seven articles of faith are:

1. Belief in Allaah
2. Belief in Angels
3. Belief in Divine Books
4. Belief in His Messengers
5. Belief in the Last Day
6. Belief that all good and bad is from Allaah

These seven articles are mentioned in the seventh kalimah (Imaan Mufassal).

Major Sins

It is a great sin to treat any Law of Allaah تَعَالَى lightly. A sin whether major or minor always remains haraam. It is an act of kufr (disbelief) to consider any sin to be permissible. However, there are certain sins regarded as major sins because they can destroy the faith of a person and cause great harm to the community.

Some of the major sins are:

1. To make an equal or partner with Allaah تَعَالَى.
2. To disobey your parents.
3. To kill an innocent person.
4. To practice black magic.
5. To eat the wealth of an orphan.
6. To accuse an innocent woman of adultery.
7. To steal.
8. To take intoxicants - liquor, drugs, etc.
9. To run away from the battlefield.
10. To miss salaah intentionally.

Allaah chose certain men to be His Messengers. They were all human beings who were protected by Allaah from committing sin. They were pious, honest, and humble servants of Allaah. They spent all their lives inviting people to Allaah. They never said or did anything without the permission of Allaah. Allaah granted them the power to perform many miracles.

1. We believe that all the Ambiyaa were His true and pious servants.

2. Belief in the Ambiyaa does not mean practicing their shariah (laws). All laws of previous Prophets have been cancelled by the shariah (laws) of Nabee Muhammad .

3. Ambiyaa are human beings and have human needs and feelings.

4. Nabee Eesaa was born without a father, and was not killed on the cross.
5. He will come down before Qiyamaah and die a natural death.

6. One who rejects even one Nabee is not a Muslim.

7. Nabee Aadam عليه السلام was the first Nabee of Allaah and Nabee Muhammad صلی الله عليه و سلم is the final and last Nabee.

8. Only Allaah تعالى chooses a person to be a Nabee. No one can become a Nabee on his own.

9. Our Nabee - Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has the highest position among the Ambiyaa عليه السلام.

10. Allaah تعالى has protected the Ambiyaa عليه السلام from committing sins.
The Great Liar

Musailamah visited Nabee صلى الله عليه وسلم and accepted Islaam. When Musailamah returned to his land, he decided to become a prophet. So he wrote a letter to Nabee صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, “From now on You and I are going to share the prophethood.”

Nabee صلى الله عليه وسلم had a letter written to him informing him that such a thing was impossible, and that Musailamah must recite the Kalimah again to become a Muslim for having made such a claim. However, soon after that Nabee صلى الله عليه وسلم passed away, and now Musailamah said that he alone is the new prophet. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه sent an army to fight Musailamah who was finally killed. He became known as Musailamah, the great liar because he falsely called himself a prophet.
Questions

1. What is our belief about the Ambiyaa ﷺ؟

2. Who is the first Nabee and who is the final Nabee?

3. How does a person become a Nabee?

4. What will you say about a person who claims to be a prophet after Nabee Muhammad ﷺ ﷺ؟

6. Why do the Ambiyaa ﷺ not commit any sins?
On the Day of Qiyamaah, every human being will have to give an account of his deeds. In this world, a thief or murderer may be able to get away. A person who does wrong may never get caught. A wrong doer can never hide from Allaah تعالى, who records every deed of a person in his Book of Deeds. On the Day of Judgment our Book of Deeds will be laid open before us to read. Even different parts of our body will speak about the wrong we did. We will have to answer for our doings in the court of Allaah تعالى.

1. The Angels record everything we do in this world.

2. No deed, big or small can be hidden from Allaah تعالى.

3. Whether we commit a sin in the darkness of the night or in the brightness of the day, Allaah تعالى sees and knows our doings.
4. Allaah تَعَالَى may forgive us or punish us for our wrong deeds.

5. The only sin Allaah تَعَالَى will not forgive on that Day is shirk (making partners with him)

6. Allaah تَعَالَى will have no difficulty in taking account of all His creation.

7. The reckoning for a Believer will be as short as two rakaahs salaah.

8. The reckoning for a non-Believer will seem like one hundred thousand or fifty thousand years.

9. Nabee صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهَ وَسَلَّمُ has taught us to make the following du’a: “O’ Allaah! Grant me an easy reckoning”.

10. Allaah تَعَالَى is Merciful and Just. He would not deal unjustly with any of His creation.
Story

Al-Haseeb  ﷺ

On the day of Qiyamah, a person with many evil deeds will be brought before Allaah.

He will have no excuses for his bad deeds and it will be said that he must be thrown in to Jahannam. Allaah will say "Wait, we have one good deed for him". A small paper with ‘la-ilaha-illAllaahu Muhammadur Rasoolullah’ will be brought out and it will be said that he had recited this in his lifetime. this single deed will cause his forgiveness.

The Acceptor of Repentance

Nabee صلی الله علیه و سلم has said: " Every human being commits sins. The best of sinners are those who make tawbah (seek His forgiveness) Allaah تعالی is Merciful and loves to forgive His servants. Nabee صلی الله علیه و سلم was free from sin, yet he made tawbah more than seventy times a day. (Bukharee)

We make Tawbah from a particular sin by:

1. Staying away from that sin.
2. Regretting our wrong-doing.
3. Promising never to commit that sin again.
1. One who makes tawbah is like one who has not committed a sin at all.

2. Allaah تَعَالَى becomes greatly pleased with us when we turn towards Him seeking forgiveness.

3. Allaah تَعَالَى is so forgiving that He stretches out His hand of forgiveness at night so that the sinners of the day can seek forgiveness.

4. Allaah تَعَالَى stretches out His hand of forgiveness during the day so that the sinners of the night can seek forgiveness.

5. Allaah تَعَالَى is more merciful towards us than a mother is towards her child.

6. When we make tawbah, Allaah تَعَالَى changes our bad deeds to good deeds.

7. We make tawbah by begging Allaah تَعَالَى to forgive us.
8. We make tawbah by changing our bad habits.

9. We make tawbah by accepting that we have done wrong.

10. Allaah is Tawwaab - He accepts the tawbah of His slaves.

One Who Accepts Repentance

A man killed ninety nine people and felt very bad thereafter. So he asked a priest if there was forgiveness for him. The priest replied “No there is no forgiveness”. The man, feeling very helpless, killed the priest also. He then went to a pious Aalim and asked him if Allaah will forgive him for killing 100 people. The Aalim replied, “yes, if you make Tawbah.” The Aalim also told him to leave this town and go to another town. On his way to the other town he passed away. Allaah forgave him.
