EDITOR'S PREFACE

All praise is due to Allāh ﷻ, Rabb of the Universe. May peace and salutations be upon Rasūlullāh ﷺ, his pure family and noble companions ﷺ.

The beautiful way of life, Islam, that billions around the globe subscribe to, adhere to and hold onto, was conveyed to us by the unflinching efforts and striving of Rasūlullāh ﷺ, his pure family and companions. May Allāh ﷻ reward them on behalf of the entire ummah as is deserving of them. Āmīn

Love for Rasūlullāh ﷺ, his pure family and noble companions is a branch of īmān and carries immense reward. It is through love for them that a Muslim could acquire their company in the lofty stages of Jannah, as Rasūlullāh ﷺ promises us, ‘A person will be with whom he loves.’

In this day and age, where Muslims are seen to be generally weak throughout the world, and the enemies of Islam add salt to their wounds by reviling and insulting Rasūlullāh ﷺ, his pure family and noble companions ﷺ, we find it best to inform and educate the entire ummah of the lofty status and virtues of these noble personalities to remove misunderstanding and enhance the love in their hearts for these special souls that have been guaranteed Jannah.
It is by enhancing the love in our hearts for them and following in their beautiful ways that we will acquire the love and pleasure of Allāh, as well as His forgiveness. Through the grace and mercy of Allāh, we came across this collection of 40 Aḥādīth, of Hāfiz Jalāl ud Dīn Suyūṭī, and could not contain our joy. This joy manifested itself in the idea of presenting it as a gift to the ummah in English. May this gift serve the course of building love in our hearts and the hearts of the entire humanity for all the saḥābah, especially Sayyidunā ‘Umar. We hope that through this, Allāh will forgive us and grant us entry into Jannah, īnshā Allāh. May Allāh bless this work and effort with widespread acceptance and protect it from the evil of the jealous. We seek protection with Allāh from the evil of our shallow intentions and lowly souls.

May Allāh reward our friends, Maulānā Ayaaz Angamia and Maulānā Abdullah Pandor for their immense support and lofty ideals. Āmīn.

نحمده ونصلي على رسوله الكريم

All praise is due to Almighty Allâh, the Sustainer and Nourisher of the universe, peace, blessings and salutations be upon our beloved master and leader, Nabi Muhammad Mustafa ﷺ. Allâh ﷺ informs us in the Noble Qur’ân, قُلْ إِن كُنتُمْ تُُبُّونَ اللّهَ فَاتَّبِّعُونِِ يُُْبِّبّْكُمُ اللّهُ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ وَاللّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

Say, [O Muhammad ], "If you love Allâh, then follow me, [so] Allâh will love you and forgive you your sins. And Allâh is Forgiving and Merciful." (3:31)

وَالسَّابِقُونَ الأُولُونَ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَالأَنْصَارِ وَالَّذِينَ أتَبَّعُوهُم مِّبِّيِّبَانِ رَضَى اللّهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ وَأَعَدَّلَ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتٌ تَغْرُبُهَا الْأَنْهَارُ جَنَّاتٌ عَظِيمَةً

And the first forerunners [in the faith] among the Muhâjireen and the Ansâr and those who followed them with good conduct – Allâh is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him, and He has prepared for them gardens beneath which rivers flow, wherein they will abide forever. That is the great attainment. (9:100)

Without a shadow of doubt, Sayyidunā ‘Umar is one of the As-Sābiqīn A-Awwalin, and we find that he has so many merits and distinctions, no other person on the face of the earth has such distinctions.

Firstly, all came, ‘Umar was invited. All the saḥābah came, but for Sayyidunā ‘Umar, a special du’ā’ was made, “O Allāh, grant honor to Islām through ‘Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb or ‘Amr ibn Hishām.”

‘Amr Ibn Hishām turned out to be Abū Jahl and ‘Umar became ‘Umar. He was the first person to be known as Amīr ul Mu’minin. In Sahih al-Bukhārī, Rasūlullāh states that ‘Umar was that person whose view was in harmony with that of Allāh. What he said on land and sand, Allāh sent revelation from the heavens. In many places, he said, “O Rasūl of Allāh, let us perform Salāh behind Maqām Ibrāhīm” and Rasūlullāh said, “We have to wait for revelation.” Allāh revealed, ‘make Maqām Ibrāhīm a place of Salāh’ (2:125)

We see Sayyidunā ‘Umar during the period of his rule, 10 years, he was a ruler of justice. An authentic Hadith of Tirmidhī states, “Follow these two after me” and he indicated to Sayyidunā Abū Bakr as-Siddīq and Sayyidunā ‘Umar al-Fārūq.” Similarly, “Hold onto my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the rightly guided khulafā’ after me.” [Ibn Majah]

So we find that the virtues of Sayyidunā ‘Umar  are so great. Alhamdulillah, Mufti Abdullah Moolla has completed the edit and typesetting of this book on the virtues and merits of Amīr ul Mu’minin Sayyidunā ‘Umar , the second greatest person to walk on this earth after the Ambiyā’ ﷺ. The greatest after the Ambiyā’ was Sayyidunā Abū Bakr as-Siddiq . May Allāh ﷻ increase our love for all the sahābah ﷺ, especially the Khulafā’ e Rāshīdīn. Those who are the detractors, May Allāh ﷻ guide them. If guidance is not decreed for them, may Allāh ﷻ destroy them.

May Allāh bless you. Āmīn

فاصل في فضائل عمر

أخرج الإمام أحمد والبزار والطبراني عن عبد الله بن مسعود رضي الله عنه قال: فضل عمر بن الخطاب الناس بأربعة: بذكرى الأسرى يوم بدر أتهم بقتلهم فأنزل الله عز وجل لولا كتاب من الله سبق لمسكم فيما أخذتم عذات عظيم، وبذكر الحجاب أمر نساء النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم أن يحتجبن فقالت له زينب: وإنك علينا يا ابن الخطاب والوحي ينزل في بيوتنا فأنزل الله عز وجل وإذا سألتموهن متناقا فن سألومه من وراء حجاب، وبدعوة النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم اللهم أيا الإسلام بعمر ورأيه في أبي بكر كان أول من بيعه.

وأخرج الطبراني عن طارق بن شهاب قالت أم أيمن يوم قتل عمر: اليوم وهى الإسلام.

وأخرج أيضًا عن عبد الله بن مسعود رضي الله عنه قال: إن كان إسلام عمر لفتحا وهجرته لنصر، فإمارته رحمة والله ما استطعنا أن نصلي عند البيت حتى أسلم عمر. وفي رواية: ما استطعنا أن نصلي عند البيت الكعبة.

وفضائله رضي الله عنه أفضل من أن تحصر، وأشهر من أن تذكر، وإنما أردت أن أترك بخدمته رضي الله عنه بهذه الصلاة، وامتع من لا يعرف كثيرا من مناقبه ببعضها يجاج إمامه والله ولي التوفيق وحسننا الله ونعم الوكيل، الحمد لله أولا وآخرا وباطنا وظاهرا، وصلى الله على رسوله ونبيه سيدنا محمد وآله وصحبه وشيعته وحريته آمين، والحمد لله رب العالمين ثم الكتاب العزيز بحمد الله وعونه.
Abdullah ibn Sayyidunā all report that Sayyidunā Abdullah ibn Masud said, "The virtue of ‘Umar ibn Al-Khattāb over the people is because of four things; when he spoke about the captives of the battle of Badr he gave the opinion that they be killed and Allāh revealed, "Had it not been for a previous ordainment from Allāh, a severe penalty would have reached you." (Al-Anfal 8:68).

By his mention of the instruction for the Hijab for women by Rasūlullāh. Zaynab said to him, "You are with us O son of Al-Khattāb and revelation descends in our home." Then Allāh revealed, "And when you ask of them anything, ask it of them from behind a curtain." (Al-Ahzab 33:53).

By the supplication of Rasūlullāh said, "O Allah grant honour to Islam through ‘Umar." There is an opinion that this was before Abū Bakr took allegiance. Tabrānī reports from Tariq ibn Shihab that Umm Ayman said on the day ‘Umar was killed, "The day Islam was weakened."

Also reported (by Tabrānī) is that Sayyidunā Abdullah ibn Mas’ud said, "If the Islam of ‘Umar was an opening, his migration was a victory and his leadership a mercy. I swear by Allāh that we were unable to pray at the Ka'ba until ‘Umar became Muslim." Or in another narration, "We were unable to pray at the Ka'ba publically."

His virtues, may Allāh be pleased with him, are more than can be counted. The most famous we have mentioned. I only wished to bless myself by serving him, may Allāh be pleased with him, by this remnant to benefit he who does not know much of his virtues by the ignorance before him.

And Allāh is the giver of success; Allāh is sufficient for us and a blessed protector. All praise belongs to Allāh, the first, the last, the internal, the external and may Allāh bless his Messenger, his Nabī, our master Muhammad صلی‌الله علیه ورسالہ, his family, his companions, his group and his party; O Allāh, accept. All praise belongs to Allāh master of the universe.

This mighty book is complete with the praise and support of Allāh.

`Abd al-Rahman ibn Kamal al-Din Abi Bakr ibn Muhammad ibn Sabiq al-Din, Jalal al-Din al-Misri al-Suyuti al-Shafi`i al-Ash`ari, also known as Ibn al-Asyuti (849-911), the mujtahid imam and renewer of the tenth Islamic century, foremost hadith master, jurist, Sufi, philologist, and historian, he authored works in virtually every Islamic science.

Born to a Turkish mother and non-Arab father and raised as an orphan in Cairo, he memorized the Qur'an at eight, then several complete works of Sacred Law, fundamentals of jurisprudence, and Arabic grammar; after which he devoted himself to studying the Sacred Sciences under about a hundred and fifty shaykhs.

Among them the foremost Shafi`i and Hanafis shaykhs at the time, such as the hadith master and Shaykh al-Islam Siraj al-Din Bulqini, with whom he studied Shafi`i jurisprudence until his death; the hadith scholar Shaykh al-Islam Sharaf al-Din al-Munawi, with whom he read Qur'anic exegesis and who commented al-Suyuti's al-Jami` al-Saghir in a book entitled Fayd al-Qadir; Taqi al-Din al-Shamani in hadith and the sciences of Arabic; the specialist in the principles of the law Jalal al-Din al-Mahalli, together with whom he compiled the most widespread condensed commentary of Qur'an in our time, *Tafsir al-

Jalalayn; Burhan al-Din al-Biqa`i; Shams al-Din al-Sakhawi; he also studied with the Hanafi shaykhs Taqi al-Din al-Shamni, Shihab al-Din al-Sharmisahi, Muhyi al-Din al-Kafayji, and the hadith master Sayf al-Din Qasim ibn Qatlubagha.

He travelled in the pursuit of knowledge to Damascus, the Hijaz, Yemen, India, Morocco, the lands south of Morocco, as well as to centers of learning in Egypt such as Mahalla, Dumyat, and Fayyum. He was some time head teacher of hadith at the Shaykhuniyya school in Cairo at the recommendation of Imam Kamal al-Din ibn al-Humam, then the Baybarsiyya, out of which he was divested through the complaints of disgruntled shaykhs which he had replaced as teachers. He then retired into scholarly seclusion, never to go back to teaching.

Ibn Iyas in Tarikh Misr states that when al-Suyuti reached forty years of age, he abandoned the company of men for the solitude of the Garden of al-Miqyas by the side of the Nile, avoiding his former colleagues as though he had never known them, and it was here that he authored most of his nearly six hundred books and treatises. Wealthy Muslims and princes would visit him with offers of money and gifts, but he put all of them off, and when the sultan requested his presence a number of times, he refused.

He once said to the sultan’s envoy: "Do not ever come back to us with a gift, for in truth Allah has put an end to all such needs for us." Blessed with success in his years of solitude, it is difficult to name a field in which al-Suyuti did not make outstanding contributions, among them his ten-volume hadith work Jam` al-Jawami ("The Collection of Collections"); his Qur'anic exegesis Tafsir al-Jalalayn ("Commentary of the Two Jalals"), of which he finished the second half of an uncompleted manuscript by Jalal al-Din Mahalli in just forty days; his classic commentary on the sciences of hadith Tadrib al-Rawi fi Sharh Taqrib al-Nawawi ("The Training of the Hadith Transmitter: An Exegesis of Nawawi's `The Facilitation'"); and many others.

A giant among contemporaries, he remained alone, producing a sustained output of scholarly writings until his death at the age of sixty-two. He was buried in Hawsh Qawsun in Cairo. In the introduction to his book entitled al-Riyad al-Aniq on the names of Rasūlullāh ﷺ he said: "It is my hope that Allah accept this book and that through this book I shall gain the intercession of Rasūlullāh ﷺ. Perhaps it shall be that Allah make it the seal of all my works, and grant me what I have asked Him with longing regarding the Honorable One."

The editors of the Dalil Makhtutat al-Suyuti ("Guide to al-Suyuti's Manuscripts") have listed 723 works to al-Suyuti's name. Some of these are brief fatwas which do not exceed four pages, like his notes on the hadith "Whoever says: `I am knowledgeable,' he is ignorant" entitled A`dhab al-Manahil fi Hadith Man Qala Ana `Alim; while others, like the Itqan fi `Ulum al-Qur'an or Tadrib al-Rawi, are full-fledged tomes.
Al-Tabarani stated that the hadith "Whoever says: 'I am knowledgeable,' he is ignorant" is not narrated except through the chain containing al-Layth ibn Abi Sulaym, who is weak. Al-'Ajluni in Kashf al-Khafa' states that this hadith is narrated by al-Tabarani in al-Awsat from Ibn `Umar rather than Rasūlullāh ﷺ, and that al-Haytami said in his Fatawa Hadithiyya that it is actually a saying of (the Tabi`i) Yahya ibn Kathir. For his part, Ibn Kathir cites it from `Umar in his Tafsir in commentary of the verse: (Have you not seen those who praise themselves for purity?) (4:49) Three narrations are indeed mentioned from `Umar in Kanz al-`Ummal, but all are weak. Al-`Iraqi in his al-Mughni said that the part actually attributed to Yahya ibn Kathir is: "Whoever says: 'I am a believer,' he is a disbeliever," while al-Haythami in Majma` al-Zawa'id cites it from Yahya ibn Kathir with a weak chain as follows: "Whoever says: 'I am knowledgeable,' he is ignorant, and whoever says: 'I am ignorant,' he is ignorant. Whoever says: 'I am in Paradise,' he is in the Fire, and whoever says: 'I am in the Fire,' he is in the Fire." Al-Haytami further said: "It is established from countless Companions and others that they said they were knowledgeable, and they would not commit something which Rasūlullāh ﷺ had blamed. A greater proof yet is Yusuf's statement: 'I am a knowledgeable guardian' (12:55)." However, the narration of al-Layth is confirmed by the hadith of Rasūlullāh ﷺ: "Islam shall be on the rise until traders take to the sea [carrying it], and horses charge in the cause of Allah. After that a people will come and recite the Qur'an, saying: Who recites it better than us? Who is more knowledgeable than us? Who is wiser than us?" [35]
Then he turned to his Companions and asked: "Is there any good in such as these?" They said: "Allah and His Rasūl know best." He said: "Those are from among you, O Umma! Those are fodder for the Fire."

What reconciles the two views is that the hadith of Ibn Abi Sulaym applies to those who claim knowledge either undeservedly, or proudly, and not to those who act out of sincerity and obligation. Ibn `Ata' Allah said in his Hikam:

The root of every disobedience, forgetfulness, and desire is contentment with the self, while the root of every obedience, vigilance, and continence is your dissatisfaction with it. That you accompany an ignorant who is not pleased with his self is better for you than to accompany a knowledgeable person who is pleased with his self. And what ignorance is that of one who is dissatisfied with himself? And what knowledge is that of one who is satisfied with himself?

Imam al-Sha`rani in al-`Uhud al-Muhammadiyya ("The Pledges We Made to Rasūlullāh ﷺ") said something similar:

Rasūlullāh ﷺ took our pledge that we should not claim to possess knowledge except for a licit cause, and that we should never say: "We are the most knowledgeable of people" - not with our mouths, and not with our hearts. How could we say such a thing when we know full well that in our country, let alone our region, there is one who is more knowledgeable than we? But if it is one day ordained for us to claim knowledge, then we must immediately follow this with repentance and ask forgiveness lest punishment descend on us. This is a problem which no wise person ever faces, for there is no science which one has looked up except the scholars of knowledge anticipated him and wrote books about it - scholars whose pupil he might not even deserve to be.

Al-Suyuti's student and biographer Shams al-Din al-Dawudi al-Maliki - the author of Tabaqat al-Mufassirin al-Kubra - said: "I saw the shaykh with my own eyes writing and finishing three works in one day which he himself authored and proofread. At the same time he was dictating hadith and replying beautifully to whatever was brought to his attention." Sakhawi reproached him for his plagiarism of past books, and others said that the profusion of his works made for their lack of completion and the frequency of flaws and contradictions in them. This is a charge commonly laid at the door of prolific authors, such as Ibn al-Jawzi and Ibn Taymiyya. Note also that there was some animosity between al-Suyuti and his shaykh al-Sakhawi, as shown by the former's tract al-Kawi fi al-Radd `ala al-Sakhawi ("The Searing Brand in Refuting al-Sakhawi") and his unflattering mention in the poem Nazm al-`Iqyan fi A`yan al-A`yan.

His chain of transmission in tasawwuf goes back to Shaykh `Abd al-Qadir al-Gilani, and al-Suyuti belonged to the Shadhili tariqa, which he eulogized in his brief defense of tasawwuf entitled Tashyid al-Haqiqa al-`Aliyya. In the latter book he states: "I have looked at the matters which the Imams of Shari`a have criticized in Sufis, and I did not see a single true Sufi holding such positions. Rather, they are held by the people of innovation and the extremists who have claimed for themselves the title of Sufi while in reality they are not." In the Tashyid he also produces narrative chains of transmission proving that al-Hasan al-Basri did in fact narrate directly from `Ali ibn Abi Talib – رضي الله عنه. This goes against commonly received opinion among the scholars of hadith, although it was also the opinion of Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal.

When one of his shaykhs, Burhan al-Din Ibrahim ibn `Umar al-Biqa`i (d. 885), attacked Ibn `Arabi in a tract entitled Tanbih al-Ghabi ila Takfir Ibn `Arabi ("Warning to the Dolt That Ibn `Arabi is an Apostate"), al-Suyuti countered with a tract entitled Tanbih Al-Ghabi fi Takhti'a Ibn `Arabi ("Warning to the Dolt That Faults Ibn `Arabi"). Both epistles have been published.

In his reply al-Suyuti states that he considers Ibn `Arabi a Friend of Allah whose writings are forbidden to those who read them without first learning the technical terms used by the Sufis. He cites from Ibn Hajar's list in Anba' al-Ghumr, among the trusted scholars who kept a good opinion of Ibn `Arabi or counted him a wali: Ibn `Ata' Allah al-Iskandari (d. 709), al-Yafi`i (d. 678), Ibn `Abd al-Salam after the latter's meeting with al-Shadhili, Shihab al-Din Abu al-`Abbas Ahmad ibn Yahya al-Malwi al-Tilimsani (d. 776), Siraj al-Din Abu Hafs `Umar ibn Ishaq al-Hindi al-Hanafi (d. 773) the author of Sharh al-Hidaya and

Sharh al-`Ayni, Najm al-Din al-Bahi al-Hanbali (d. 802), al-Jabarti (d. 806), the major lexicographer al-Fayruzabadi (d. 818), Shams al-Din al-Bisati al-Maliki (d. 842), al-Munawī (d. 871), and others. Of note with regard to the above is the abundant use of Ibn `Arabi's sayings by al-Munawi in his commentary of al-Suyuti's Jami` al-Saghir entitled Fayd al-Qadir, and by Fayruzabadi in his commentary on Bukhari's Sahih.

Al-Suyuti was Ash`ari in his doctrine as shown in many of his works. In Masalik al-Hunafa' fi Walidayy al-Mustafa ("Methods of Those with Pure Belief Concerning the Parents of Rasūlullāh ﷺ") he says:

Rasūlullāh ﷺ’s parents passed away before he was sent as a Messenger and there is no punishment for them, since (We never punish until We send a messenger (whom they reject)) (17:15). Our Ashʿari Imams among those in kalam, usul, and fiqh agree on the statement that one who dies while daʿwa has not reached him, dies saved. Some of the fuqaha’ explained that the reason is, such a person follows fitra or Primordial Disposition, and has not stubbornly refused nor rejected any Messenger.

Al-Suyuti was taken to task for his claim that he was capable of independent scholarly exertion or ijtihad mutlaq. He explained: "I did not mean by that that I was similar to one of the Four Imams, but only that I was an affiliated mujtahid (mujtahid muntasib). For, when I reached the level of tarjih or distinguishing the best fatwa inside the school, I did not contravene al-Nawawī’s tarjih. And when I reached the level of ijtihad mutlaq, I did not contravene al-Shafi`is school." He continued: "There is not in our time, on the face of the earth, from East to West, anyone more knowledgeable than myself in hadith and the Arabic language, save al-Khidr or the Pole of saints or some other Wali - none of whom do I include into my statement - and Allah knows best."

He also said of himself: "When I went on hajj I drank Zamzam water for several matters. Among them: (I asked) that I reach, in fiqh, the level of Shaykh Siraj al-Din al-Bulqini and in hadith, that of the hafiz Ibn Hajar."
