Hadhrat Maulana Mufti Sa’eed Ahmad Palanpuri

Shaykh ul Hadeeth, Dar ul Ulum Deoband

The reformation and success of this Ummah lies in following the Qur’aan and Sunnah. Rasulullaah ﷺ has left two such things among people that they will never go astray as long as they hold firmly to it. One is the book of Allaah and the second is the Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ, i.e. his way. Allaah commanded Nabi ﷺ to tell the people that if you love Allaah, then follow me. Allaah will love you and He will forgive your sins. [Aal Imraaan:31] It is only possible to follow Rasulullaah ﷺ if we know of his Ahaadith, we are aware of his pure life and we also know the conditions of his companions. If we follow this example with a true heart then our lives will be made.

Hadhratji Maulana Muhammad In’aam ul Hasan ﷺ has compiled a good work looking at Da’wah and Tabligh and the objective of reforming the creation, in which he has chosen eight chapters from

Mishkaat Sharif that will create the temporary nature of the world and conviction in the Aakhirat. First it was published in Arabic by the title of ‘Muntakhab Abwaab’. The Arabs took a lot of benefit from it. Then, experience brought its benefit to the fore so a need was felt for it to be translated into Urdu so that those who do not know Arabic could also benefit from it.

It is greatly pleasing to note that the son of the tongue of Tabligh (Hadhrat Maulana Muhammad Umar Palanpuri ﷺ), Hadhrat Maulana Muhammad Yunus Palanpuri has devoted his attention to it and undertaking 2 years of significant effort he has put it into Urdu. Translating the Qur’aan and Hadith is a very delicate work, at every step there is danger of slipping and the purport can change with this slight error. Therefore Maulana Muhammad Yunus handed the work of editing to a high ranking teacher of Dar ul Ulum Deoband, Hadhrat Maulana Mufti Muhammad Ameen Palanpuri. Mufti Saheb is teaching MISHKAAT in Dar ul Ulum Deoband for a long time now, specifically volume 2 – the chapters of this book are mainly from volume 2, he has taught these repeatedly. He has not looked at it only superficially but he has made a detailed study of the translation and instead of relying on himself, he kept the old version of Mazaahir e Haq before him. The translation of Mazaahir e Haq was done by Hadhrat Shah Muhammad Is’haaq Dehlawi ﷺ. He has done such an apt translation that ones nature is astonished when reading certain places. Mufti Saheb has added a heading before every Hadith so that the readers can easily understand the purport of the Hadith. I looked at the headings and I looked at the translation in various places. The headings are apt and are the crux of the Hadith. The translation is very easy and is reliable. It is hoped that if these chapters are studied and people will make their tongues accustomed to it then change will come about in their lives.
Selected Chapters (MunTakah Abwaab) Part 1

Our hands are stretched in Du’aa’ that may Allaah accept the efforts of these three people of this compilation and may He raise the stages of Hadhratji Ṣa‘eed Ahmad Palanpuri in Jannah. May He grant the translator ability to do more works of goodness and may He bless Mufti Saheb with specific and general acceptance and may He let the ummah benefit from the munificence of this book. Ameen, O Rabb of the worlds.

Introduction:

Hadhrat Maulana Mufti Muhammad Ameen Palanpuri

الحمد لله رب العالمين والصلاة والسلام على سيد الأنبياء والمرسلين

Mishkaat ul Masabeh is a very reliable and famous book of Hadith. It is taught in all the Arabic institutions. The Ahadith of eight chapters¹ of this book have been compiled by Hadhratji Thaalith Maulana Muhammad In’aam ul Hasan Kandehlawi Ṣa‘eed Ahmad Palanpuri upon the indication of Hadhrat Maulana Muhammad Ilyaas Kandehlawi Ṣa‘eed Ahmad Palanpuri. It has been published with the name Al Abwaab al Muntakhabah. The people of knowledge and Arabic speaking people are benefitting greatly from it.

This Al Abwaab al Muntakhabah has been translated into Urdu by the elder son of Hadhrat Maulana Muhammad Umar Palanpuri ﷺ, Hadhrat Maulana Muhammad Yunus Palanpuri Mazaahiri, which is before you. It contains a clear translation of 2320 Ahadith and a concise explanation has been provided in brackets.

This lowly one has deeply studied the translation from beginning to end and has edited it completely. A heading has been given for every Hadith and notes have been provided where the need arose. While editing, we had Mishkaat before us. Therefore, if a Hadith is not found in Al Abwaab al Muntakhabah, then it will be in Mishkaat. Also, all praise is due to Allaah, I am teaching Mishkaat at Dar ul Ulum Deoband for 25 years and I was studying Mazaahir e Haq Qadeem. Where the need arose, I studied the translation together with Mazaahir e Haq. Therefore, I can safely say that this translation is very good, correct and can be generally understood.

The publishers (Al Ameen Kitabistaan, Deoband) has placed diacritical marks making it easy for Urdu speakers. Therefore, Allaah willing, this translation will prove to be beneficial for all, special and general.

Moreover, if the students of Arabic institutions study this translation repeatedly and do it with the intention of their reformation, then Allaah willing, it will prove to be a good guide. May Allaah make this translation a means of reformation and success for the Muslim ummah, Ameen, O Rabb of the worlds.

Foreword:

Hadrat Maulana Muhammad Yunus Mazaahiri

The book of Allah and the Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ is the fountainhead of the Islaamic Shari’ah. Rasulullaah ﷺ gave his ummah these two things. As long as the ummah hold on to these fountainheads firmly, they will remain on the path of truth. Rasulullaah ﷺ - the guide to the universe – said, ‘I have left two things with you. As long as you practise upon them, until then you will not go astray. The book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Rasul-messenger.’ [Mu’atta Imam Maalik]
Looking at the importance of the Sunnah of Rasulullah ﷺ, a large group of the scholars of Deen have remained involved in bringing it into vogue and preserving it. Through lectures and writing they protected it in every era. Consequently, the amount of the Sunnah of Rasulullah ﷺ found in Islamcic literature today, no other religion or nation can present the like of it. Looking at the importance of the Sunnah in the Shari’ah, in carrying out the order of the caller to Allaah, Hadhrat Maulana Muhammad Ilyaas ﷺ, Hadhratji Thaalith Maulana Muhammad In’aam ul Hasan Kandehlawi ﷺ did a great favour to the ummah and compiled Al Abwaab al Muntakhabah. This Al Abwaab al Muntakhabah is a collection of selected chapters of the famous Hadith work Mishkaat Sharif.

Therefore, this lowly one placed his reliance on Allaah and on 8 Dhul Qa’dah 1425, corresponding to 20 December 2004, Monday, in front of the Noble Raudah in Madinah Munawwarah, the translation of Al Abwaab al Muntakhabah was started. Two and quarter years of continuous effort, on 2 Muharram 1428, corresponding to 22 January 2007, on Monday, through the mercy and grace of Allaah, this work was completed, All praise is due to Allaah!

This lowly one is grateful to Hadhrat Maulana Mufti Muhammad Ameen Palanpuri – teacher of Hadith and Fiqh at Dar ul Ulum Deoband for despite his various engagements in teaching, he accepted my request and edited the work and accepted responsibility for publishing it.

May Allaah ﷺ bless him with the best reward in this world and in the Aakhirat, may He accept the translation of the advises of Rasulullah ﷺ just as He accepted the original. May He make it a continuous charity for me, my parents and a means of salvation. Also, may He make it a means of reformation and success for the ummah, Ameen, O Rabb of the worlds.
Note:
The readers are requested that while studying the book, if they see any error in it, they should inform the writer. May Allaah have mercy upon the one who informs us of our shortcoming and showed us the correct path.
In search of the pleasure of Allaah

An important request

Every reader is requested that they should never study the blessed Ahadith solely as a knowledgeable quest, but with the intention in order to refresh and make firm ones Imaani relationship with Rasulullaah ﷺ, to practise and attain guidance. Also, while studying, the honour and respect for Rasulullaah ﷺ should be created in the heart and it should be studied with devotion and respect or heard in this way as though he is in the blessed gathering of Rasulullaah ﷺ and he is speaking and we are listening. If this is done, then Allaah willing, we will be blessed with its light and blessings.
The only accepted action is the one done for Allaah

1. Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “All actions are based upon their intentions and a person gets the fruit according to his intention. Therefore, the person who migrates for Allaah and His Rasul (with a sincere intention), then his migration will be for Allaah and His Rasul, and the one who migrated in order to attain the world or in order to marry a woman, then his migration will be for that which he migrated for.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
Note:
This Hadith does not mean that if a bad deed is done with a good intention, then it will become good because a bad deed will always remain bad. In fact, it means that if a good deed is done with a bad intention then its consequences will be bad.

Hadeeth e Jibreel

2. Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab ﷺ narrates that one day we (the Sahabah) were sitting in the gathering of Rasulullaah ﷺ when suddenly a person came before us whose clothing was very white and his hair was extremely black. There was no sign of travel on this person (that he undertook a journey and came, he was understood to be a stranger) and none of us recognized him. (This means that he was not a local nor was he the guest of anyone) Anyway, this person came and sat so close to Rasulullaah ﷺ that his knees joined his knees. Then he placed both his hands upon his thighs (like a fortunate student sitting in front of his great teacher and devotes himself to listening to the lecture of his teacher)

The reality of Islaam

After this he enquired, “O Muhammad! Tell me of the reality of Islaam.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Islaam is that you attest this reality and testify that there is no deity but Allaah and Muhammad (ﷺ) is the Rasul of Allaah, perform Salaah with punctuality, (if you have Nisaab then) give Zakaat, fast the month of Ramadhaan and if you have provision for the journey, then make Hajj of the Baytullaah.” Hearing this, the person said, “You have spoken the truth.” Hadhrat Umar ﷺ says that upon this (contradiction) we were surprised that this person (like someone ignorant) is asking him, then he verifies the answer (just as he had knowledge of it from before).

The reality of Imaan
The person then said, “O Muhammad! Now tell me of the reality of Imaan. Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, “(Imaan is that) you believe in Allaah, His angels, His books, His messengers and the Day of Qiyaamat, from the heart and you also accept that whatever good or bad happens is all in the predestination of Allaah.” Hearing this, the person said, “You have spoken the truth.”

What is Ihsaan?

He then said, “Well, now tell me what is Ihsaan?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Ihsaan is that you worship Allaah in such a way that it is as though you see Him and if this is not possible (i.e. if a person cannot concentrate his heart in this way) then (he should concentrate on this that) He is seeing you.”

Note:

The meaning of Ihsaan: to beautify, make good, i.e. to make Imaan and Islaam good and the method of making Imaan and Islaam good is that every form of worship of Allaah and every command of His should be obeyed in this way and a person should fear retribution in such a way as though He is before us and He is seeing our every movement and stationery action.

When will Qiyaamat occur?

The person then said, “Tell me about Qiyaamat (when will it occur)?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The asked is not more knowledgeable than the questioner.” (i.e. regarding knowledge of when Qiyaamat will occur, my knowledge is not more than yours, I know the same amount as you)

A few signs of Qiyaamat

After this, the person said, “Tell me of its (Qiyaamat) signs.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A slave girl will give birth to her master (i.e. disobedience of parents will become common) and bare footed, naked, bankrupt and poor shepherds will begin to build high buildings, and they will compete with each other in it.”

The objective of the coming of Jibreel ﷺ

Hadrat Umar ﷺ says that after this the person went away and I (I did not ask regarding him immediately) waited a while. Then he asked me, “Umar, do you know who the questioner was?” I said, “Allaah and His Rasul know best.” He said, “He was Jibreel ﷺ, (in this way) he came to teach you your Deen-religion.” [Muslim]

This narration is also narrated from Hadrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ with variations in wording. The last words of his narration are, Rasulullaah ﷺ said in reply to the signs of Qiyaamat, “When you see barefooted, naked and deaf and dumb (from speaking and listening to the truth) people ruling the world. (Then understand that Qiyaamat is close). Qiyaamat is one of the five things which no one but Allaah knows.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then recited this verse, (إن الله عنده علم الساعة وينزل الغيث) to the end.

Verily the knowledge of Qiyaamah is only with Allaah. He sends the rains and knows what is in the wombs. A soul does not know what it will earn tomorrow and neither does it know in which land it will die. Undoubtedly Allaah is All Knowing, Informed. [Bukhari, Muslim]

The foundation of Islaam is upon five things

وعن ابن عمر قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " بني الإسلام على خمس : شهادة أن لا إله إلا الله وأن محمدًا عبده ورسوله وإقام الصلاة وإيتاء الزكاة والحج وصوم رمضان " ( متفق عليه )

3. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Islaam is based upon five things. To verify in the heart and attest that that there is no deity but Allaah and Muhammad (ﷺ) is the servant and Rasul of Allaah, to establish Salaah, to give Zakaat, to perform Hajj, and fasting Ramadhaan.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The branches of Imaan

وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " الإيمان بضع وسبعون شعبة فأفضلها : قول لا إله إلا الله وأدنها : إمالة الأذى عن الطريق والحياة شعبة من الإيمان " ( متفق عليه )

4. Hadhrat Abu Hurayarah  says that Rasulullaah  said, “Imaan has more than seventy branches, the highest branch from them is to verify with the heart and tongue that there is no deity but Allaah and the lowest branch is to remove a harmful object from the road and shame is an important branch of Imaan.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Who is a complete Muslim and a real emigrant?

وَعَنْ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَّرَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: "الْمُسْلِمُ مَنْ سَلَمَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ مِنْ لَسَانِهِ وَيَدِهِ وَالْمُهاِجِرُ مَنْ هَاجَرَ مَا نَهَاهُ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ"، هَذَا لفظ البخاري ولمسلم قال: "إِنْ رَجُلًا سَأَلَ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ صَلِيَ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: أَيُّ الْمُسْلِمِينَ خَيْرٌ؟ قَالَ: مَنْ سَلَمَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ مِنْ لَسَانِهِ وَيَدِهِ" (متفق عليه).

5. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A (complete) Muslim is he from whose (harm of) hands and tongue other Muslims are safe. A (real) emigrant is he who leaves all that which Allaah has forbidden.

These are the words of Bukhari. Muslim has narrated it with the following words, ‘A person asked Rasulullaah ﷺ as to who is the best Muslim? He ﷺ said, “He from whose (harm of the) tongue and hands other Muslims are safe.”

Who is a complete believer?

وَعَنْ أَنْسِ رضي الله عنه قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: "لَا يُوْمِنُ أَحَدُكُمْ حَتَّى أَكْوَنَّ أَحْبَبَ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ وَلَدِهِ وَأَبِيهِ وَالْإِنْسانِ أَجْمَعِينَ" (متفق عليه).

6. Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik  says that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “None of you will be a (complete) Mu’min until I do not become more beloved to him than his parents and his children and all people.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

When will one experience the taste of Imaan?

وعن أنس رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم " ثلاث من كن فيه وجد بهن حلاوة الإيمان : من كان الله ورسوله أحب إليه مما سواهما ومن أصحاب عبد لا يحبه إلا لله ومن يكره أن يعود في الكفر بعد أن أنقذه الله منه كما يكره أن يلقى في النار " ( متفق عليه )

7. Hadhrat Anas   explains that Rasulullaah  said, “The person who has three things will find the sweetness and enjoyment of Imaan; the first is that Allaah and His Rasul is more beloved to him than everything of the world, second is that he loves a servant of Allaah solely for (the pleasure of) Allaah, third is that after Imaan, he hates returning to Kufr just as a person will dislike being thrown into the fire.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

8. Hadhrat `Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib   narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The person who is pleased with Allaah as His Rabb, Islaam as his Deen and Muhammad () as his Rasul has tasted Imaan.” [Muslim]
It is necessary for salvation that one believes in Rasulullaah ﷺ

وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "والذي نفس محمد بينه لا يسمع بي أحد من هذه الأمة يهودي ولا نصراني ثم يموت ولم يؤمن بالذي أرسلت به إلا كان من أصحاب النار " . رواه مسلم

9. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By the Being in whose control the life of Muhammad is, no person of this ummah, whether he be a Jew or Christian hears of my Nubuwah and dies without believing in the Shari’ah brought by me, except that he will be a dweller of the fire.” [Muslim]

Three people will get double reward

وعن أبي موسى الأشعري قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "ثلاثة لهم أجران : رجل من أهل الكتاب آمن بنبيه وآمن بالحدي ثاب المولى إذا أدى حق الله وحق مواليه ورجل كانت عنده أمة يطؤها فأعدها فأحسن تأديبها وعلمتها فأحسن تعليمها ثم اعتقه فتزوجها فله أجران " (متفق عليه)

10. Hadhrat Abu Musa Ash’ari ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Three people get double reward. (1) The Jew or Christian who (first) believed in his Nabi then he believed in Muhammad ﷺ (2) The slave who fulfils the rights of Allaah and also fulfils the rights of his master (3) The person who had a slave girl, he used to have relations with her, he then taught her etiquettes and taught her well, he then freed her and married her, he has also become worthy of a double reward.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
After Imaan and actions, the internal matters are handed over to Allaah

وعن ابن عمر رضي الله عنهما قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " أمرت أن أقاتل الناس حتى يشهدوا أن لا إله إلا الله وأن محمدا رسول الله ويقيموا الصلاة وبؤثوا الزكاة فإذا فعلوا ذلك عصموا مني دماءهم وأموالهم إلا بحق الإسلام وحسابهم على الله . إلا أن مسلما لم يذكر " إلا بحق الإسلام " ( متفق عليه )

11. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I have been commanded by Allaah to fight the (disbelieving) people until they testify that there is no deity but Allaah and Muhammad (ﷺ) is the Rasul sent by Allaah and they establish Salaah, give Zakaat, then when they do this, their blood and wealth will be protected from me. The questioning will remain regarding the rights which are under Islaam. After this, their internal matter is handed over to Allaah (He knows whether the person accepted Islaam with a true heart or whether he did it for show in order to protect his life and wealth).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Do not break a promise/contract made to a Muslim

وعن أنس أنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من صلى صلاتنا واستقبل قبلتنا وأكل ذبيحتنا فذلك المسلم الذي له ذمة الله وذمة رسوله فلا تخفروا الله في ذمته " رواه البخاري

12. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who performs our Salaah, faces our Qiblah and eats of our slaughtered animals is a Muslim. He is in the promise and protection of Allaah. So do not break a promise with the person who is in the promise and protection of Allaah.” [Bukhari]
Actions that take a person to Jannah

وعن أبي هريرة قال: أتى أعرابي النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال: دلني على عمل إذا قمت به دخلت الجنة. قال: "تعبد الله ولا تشرك به شيئا وتقم الصلاة المكتوبة وتؤدي الزكاة المفروضة وتصوم رمضان". قال: والذي نفسي بيده لا أزيد عليه شيئًا ولا أنقص عنه. فلم يل ممن قال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من سره أن ينظر إلى رجل من أهل الجنة فلينظر إلى هذا" (متفق عليه).

13. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that a Bedouin came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, tell me of such an action, the practise of which will take me to Jannah.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Worship Allaah, do not ascribe any partner to Him, perform the obligatory prayers, give the obligatory charity and keep the fast of Ramadhaan.” (Hearing this) the Bedouin said, “By the Being in whose control my life is, I shall not do more than this, nor less than this.” When the Bedouin went away Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whoever wants the good fortune and happiness of looking at a dweller of Jannah should look at this person.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

14. Hadhrat Sufyaan bin Abdullaah Thaqafi  says that I asked Rasulullaah , “O Rasul of Allaah, tell me something of Islaam that I shall not ask anyone regarding it after you.” In one narration, “Besides you, there will be no need to ask anyone else.” Rasulullaah  said, “Believe in the heart and say with the tongue that I believe in Allaah, then remain steadfast on this affirmation.” [Muslim]

The obligatory duties of Islaam

15. Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah  says that a person from Najd came to Rasulullaah . His hair was disheveled. We heard the muttering of his voice but (due to being at a distance) we could not understand what he was saying, until he came close to Rasulullaah . We heard that he was asking about the obligatory duties of Islaam. Rasulullaah  replied, “There are five Salaah obligatory during the day and night.” Hearing this, the person said, “Is there any other Salaah that is obligatory besides these?” Rasulullaah  said, “No, but you have the choice to perform optional prayers.” Rasulullaah  then said, “The fasts of the month of Ramadhaan are obligatory.” The person said, “Are there any other fasts besides this that are obligatory?” Rasulullaah  said, “No, but you have a choice to keep optional fasts.” The narrator says that Rasulullah ﷺ mentioned Zakaat after this. He said, “Besides this, is there any other charity that is obligatory upon me.” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “No, but you have the choice of giving optional charity.”

After this, the person went away saying, “By Allaah, I shall not increase in this nor decrease in it.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “If this person spoke the truth he has attained success.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The action that differentiates between truth and falsehood

16. Hadhrat Ibn ‘Abbaas  narrates that when the delegation of Qays came to Rasulullaah ﷺ to Madinah, then Rasulullaah ﷺ asked them, “Which people are these?” or he asked, “Of which tribe is this delegation?” The people replied, “The individuals of the tribe of Rabi’ah.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Welcome, and (because you happily accepted Islaam and came) there will be no disgrace for you in the world nor will you be put to shame in the Aakhirat.” The delegation said, “O Rasul of Allaah, due to the fact that between us and you there are the tribe of disbelievers of Mudar (famous fighters) are located. Therefore we cannot come to you repeatedly. We can only come during the months in which fighting is forbidden. Therefore, show us the action that differentiates between truth and falsehood, upon which we can practice and we can inform those whom we left behind at home, and by practicing upon it we will enter Jannah.” They also asked about the utensils (in which Nabidh is made, that which ones can be used and which ones cannot). Rasulullaah ﷺ commanded them four things and prohibited them from four things.

Rasulullaah ﷺ commanded them to believe in the oneness of Allaah and said, “Do you know what is the meaning of believing in the oneness of Allaah?” They replied that Allaah and His Rasul know best. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Testifying that there is no deity but Allaah and Muhammad (ﷺ) is the Rasul of Allaah, establishing Salaah, giving Zakaat and fasting in the month of Ramadhaan.” (Besides these four, after this Rasulullaah ﷺ) also commanded giving of the fifth share of the booty.
He prohibited them from using four utensils, “Green earthen utensils, hollowed gourd, utensils made of the root of the tree, oiled utensils.” He said, “Remember this and inform those Muslims as well whom you have left behind at home.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Note:

The utensils prohibited in this Hadith are those in which people used to keep liquor. When liquor was forbidden, then these utensils were also forbidden. When a certain amount of time passed, and the evil of liquor became firm in the hearts of the people, then people were permitted to use these utensils. Therefore this prohibition is abrogated.

The Sahabah pledge allegiance to Rasulullaah

وعن عبادة بن الصامت قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وحوله عصابة من أصحابه: " بايعوني على أن لا تشركوا بالله شيئا ولا تسرقوا ولا تزنوا ولا تقتلوا أولادكم ولا تأتوا ببهتان تفترونه بين أيديكم وأرجلكم ولا تعصوا في معروف فمن وفى منكم فأجره على اللہ ومن أصاب من ذلك شيئا فعوقب به في الدنيا فهو كفارة له ومن أصاب من ذلك شيئا ثم ستره الله عليه في الدنيا فهو إلى اللہ : إن شاء عفا عنه وإن شاء عاقبه " فبايعناه على ذلك ( متفق عليه )

17. Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit narrates that one day Rasulullaah was sitting and a group of Sahabah were sitting around him. (Addressing them) he said, “Pledge allegiance to me upon this that you will not ascribe any partner to Allaah, you will not steal, you will not commit adultery, (under fear of poverty) do not kill your children, you will not wilfully accuse anyone and whatever rulings of Shari’ah are given to you, you will not disobey them. Whoever of you fulfils this pledge, his reward is the responsibility of Allaah (that He will grant him favours in the Aakhirat). Whichever person gets involved in any sin (besides Shirk), then he will get the punishment of the sin in this world (like Hadd being implemented), then this punishment will be expiation for his sin. And if Allaah hides any of the sins done by him (and he does not get punishment in this world) then it will be left to the pleasure of Allaah, whether He wishes to overlook it in the Aakhirat (through His grace and kindness) or whether to punish him.” (The narrator says that) we pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah ﷺ (upon all these things). [Bukhari, Muslim]

The command to women to give charity and the reason behind it

وعن أبي سعيد الخدري قال خرج رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم في أضحى أو فطر إلى المصلى فمر على النساء فقال يا معشر النساء تصدقن فإني أريتكن أكثر أهل النار فقلن وبم يا رسول الله قال تكثرن اللعن وتكفرن العشير ما رأيت من ناقصات عقل ودين أذهب للب الرجل الحازم من إحداكن قال وما نقضان ديننا وعقلنا يا رسول الله قال أليس شهادة المرأة مثل نصف شهادة الرجل فالت ذلك من نقصان عقلها أليس إذا حاضت لم تصل ولم تصم قلن على قال رأيت ذلك من نقصان دينها (متفق عليه)

18. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once came out for the Eid ul Adha Salaah or Eid ul Fitr Salaah to the Musallah, he passed by a group of women (that were gathered for Salaah in a separate corner) and addressed them saying, “O group of women! You should give charity because I saw that most of the dwellers of the fire are you.” (Hearing this) the women said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “You curse a lot and you are disobedient and ungrateful to your husbands. I have not seen anyone that is deficient in intellect and Deen that can make an intelligent man foolish more than you.” (Hearing this) the women said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what deficiency is there in our intellect and Deen?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Is the testimony of a woman not half of that of a man?” (i.e. is it not such that in the Shari’ah the testimony of two women is equal to the testimony of one man?) The women said, “Yes, it is so.”

Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This is on account of the deficiency in the intellect of women. And is it not such that when a woman is in her menstrual cycle, she does not perform Salaah or fast?” The women said, “Yes, it is so.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This is on account of deficiency in her Deen?” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Man belies Allaah and speaks ill of Him

وعن أبي هريرة قال : " قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم قال الله كذبني ابن آدم ولم يكن له ذلك وشتمني ولم يكن له ذلك أما تكذيبه إياي أن يقول إنني لن أعيده كما بدأته وأما شتمه إياي أن يقول اتخذ الله ولدا وأنه الصمد الذي لم ألد ولم أولد ولم يكن لي كفؤا أحد ( لم يلد ولم يولد ولم يكن له كفؤا أحد ) وفي رواية عن ابن عباس : " وأما شتمه إياي فقوله : لي ولد وسبحاني أن اتخذ صاحبة أو ولدا"

19. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah says that the son of Aadam (man) belies Me and this does not befit him and he speaks ill of Me whereas this is not appropriate for him. His belying Me is that he says that just as Allaah created me the first time (in this world), in this way, He (on the Day of Qiyaamat) will never be able to create me whereas creating the second time is not difficult compared to creating the first time. His speaking ill of me is that he says that Allaah has taken a son whereas I am alone and independent, I did not give birth to anyone nor did anyone give birth to Me nor is there anyone equal to Me.”

In the narration of Ibn ‘Abbaas , “His swearing Me is that he says that Allaah has a son whereas I am pure of taking a spouse or son.” [Bukhari]

Man gives difficulty to Allaah

 وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " قال الله تعالى : يؤذيني ابن آدم يسب الدهر وأنا الدهر بيدي الأمر أقلب الليل والنهار " ( متفق عليه )

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Allaah says that the son of Aadam (man) gives me difficulty (in this way that) he speaks ill of the time whereas time (is nothing, it) is Me. All workings are in My control and the movement of day and night is through My command.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Allaah is tolerant

 وعن أبي موسى الأشعري قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " ما أحد أصير على أذى يسمعه من الله يدعون له الولد ثم يعاقبهم ويرزقهم " ( متفق عليه )

Hadhrat Abu Musa Ash’ari  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “There is no one more patient and tolerant than Allaah upon hearing words that give difficulty, people stipulate a son for Him, upon this as well (He does not take them to task but) He grants them safety and makes provision reach them.”

22. Hadhrat Mu’aadh narrates that (while mounted on a conveyance on a journey) upon the donkey he was seated behind Rasulullaah ﷺ. The back part of the palanquin was between Rasulullaah ﷺ and myself. Rasulullaah ﷺ said to me, “Mu’aadh! Do you know what is the right of the servants upon Allaah?” I said that Allaah and His Rasul know best. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Upon the servants it is the right of Allaah that they worship Him and do not ascribe any partner to Him and upon Allaah it is the right of the servants that the one who did not ascribe any partner to Allaah he should not be punished.” (Hearing this) I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, Shall I give this glad tidings to the people?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not give this glad tidings to the people because they will trust in it and be complacent (and they will leave out actions).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

A true believer will definitely get salvation

وعن أنس بن مالك أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم ومعاذ رديفه على الرحل قال:
"يا معاذ بن جبل قال لبيب يا رسول الله وسعديك قال يا معاذ قال يا رسول الله وسعديك ثلاثا قال ما من أحد يشهد أن لا إله إلا الله وأن محمدًا رسول الله صدقًا من قلبه إلا حرمه الله النار قال يا رسول الله أفلا أخبر به الناس فيستبشر قال إذا يتكلوا وأخبر بها معاذ عند موته تأثما" (متفق عليه)

23. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that one day Rasulullaah (on a journey) was mounted and Mu’aadh was sitting behind him, he  said, “O Mu’aadh.” He replied, “I am present, O Rasul of Allaah.” Rasulullaah then said, “O Mu’aadh.” Mu’aadh replied, “O Rasul of Allaah, I am present.” Rasulullaah then said for a third time, “O Mu’aadh.” Mu’aadh said again, “O Rasul of Allaah, I am present.” After addressing Mu’aadh like this three times, Rasulullaah  said, “Whichever servant of Allaah testifies with a true heart that there is no deity but Allaah and Muhammad (ﷺ) is the Rasul of Allaah, Allaah forbids the fire of hell upon him.” (Hearing this) Mu’aadh said, “O Rasul of Allaah, shall I tell this (glad tiding) to the people so that they may become happy when hearing it?” Rasulullaah  said, “No, people will trust in it and sit back.” Hadhrat Anas  says in his final days before his demise
Mu’aadh explained this Hadith fearing the sin of hiding (a Hadith). [Bukhari, Muslim]

24. Hadhrat Abu Dhar  narrates that once I came to Rasulullaah ﷺ. He had a white cloth over himself and was sleeping. (This time I returned) Then I came a second time to Rasulullaah ﷺ when he awoke. (Looking at me) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who says with a true heart ‘there is no deity but Allaah’ (i.e. he verifies and attests to the oneness of Allaah with a true heart) and he passes away on this belief he will definitely enter Jannah.” “Even if he steals and does adultery (major sins like these)?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes, even if he steals and commits adultery.” I asked again (in surprise), “Even if he steals and commits adultery?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes, even if he steals and commits adultery.” I then said (a third time out of astonishment), “Even if he steals and commits adultery?” (The third time as well) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes, even if he steals and commits adultery, no matter how much Abu Dhar may dislike it.” (The narrator says that) whenever Hadhrat Abu Dhar  would narrates this Hadith, then (out of honour) he would definitely narrate this last line, ‘no matter how much Abu Dhar may dislike it.’ [Bukhari, Muslim]
Explanation of Imaaniyyaat

وعن عبادة بن الصامت رضي الله عنه عن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : "من شهد أن لا إله إلا الله وحده لا شريك له وأن محمداً عبده ورسوله وأن عيسى عبد الله ورسوله وابن أمته وكلمته ألقاها إلى مريم وروح منه والجنة والدنار حق أدخله الله الجنة على ما كان من العمل " ( متفق عليه )

25. Hadhrat Ubaadhah bin Saamit .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who testifies to this (i.e. he testifies with the tongue and believes in the heart) that there is no deity but Allaah and He has no partner and undoubtedly Muhammad (ﷺ) is the servant and Rasul of Allaah and (he also testifies that) ‘Isa (is also) the servant and Rasul-messenger of Allaah and he is the son of the servant of Allaah (Maryam) and His word which He put into Maryam and he is the soul sent by Allaah and (he also testifies that) Jannah and Jahannam are true, then Allaah will definitely enter him into Jannah, no matter how his actions may be.”

26. Hadhrat Amr bin ‘Aas ﷺ narrates that (when Allaah enlightened my heart and mind with the light of Islaam) I came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, stretch your hand, I want to pledge allegiance of Islaam.” (Hearing this) When Rasulullaah ﷺ stretched his hand out, I drew mine’s back. Rasulullaah ﷺ said (surprised) “Amr, what is this?” I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, I want to place a condition.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “What is the condition?” I said, “(I want that) all my sins be forgiven (that I committed before Islaam).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “O Amr, do you not know that Islaam wipes out sins that were done before Islaam and migration wipes out all the sins done before it and Hajj wipes out all the sins that were done before it.”

Actions that take a person to Jannah and save him from Jahannam Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal narrates that he said, ‘I asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, tell me of such an action that will take me to Jannah and will protect me from the fire of Jahannam.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Undoubtedly you have asked a great thing but for the one whom Allaah makes it easy, it will be very easy for him.” He then said, “Worship Allaah and do not ascribe any partner to Him, establish Salaah, give Zakaat, keep the fast of Ramadhaan, perform Hajj of the Ka’bah.”’ After this he said, “O Mu’aadh, shall I not show you the door of goodness? (Listen) fasting is a shield (which saves from sin and the fire of Jahannam) and spending in the path of Allaah wipes away sin like water extinguishes fire and (similarly) a Mu’min performing Salaah at night (wipes away sin).” He then recited the verse, ‘Their sides part from their beds, they make du’aa to their Rabb in fear and hope and they spend from what We have provided for them. No soul knows what pleasures are hidden for him as a reward for the deeds he carries out.’ [Surah Sajdah, 16, 17] Rasulullaah then said, “Shall I not tell you of the head of this (Deen) and its pillar and its hump?” I said, yes, O Rasul of Allaah, definitely tell us. Rasulullaah said, “Shall I not tell you of the root of these things?” I said, yes, O Rasul of Allaah, definitely tell us. Rasulullaah took hold of his tongue and (indicating towards it) said, “Keep it closed.” I said, O Rasul of Allaah, will we be taken to account for the words that our tongues utter?” Rasulullaah said, “Mu’aadh, may your mother lose you, (know well that) the evil uttered by this tongue is what flings people into Jahannam on their faces or noses.”” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

31. Bayhaqi in Shu’ab ul Imaan has this added to the narration of Hadhrat Fudhaalah  that a (complete) Mujaahid is he who places himself in difficulty in obedience to Allaah and (a real) migrant is he who leaves all major and minor sins.

The importance of trustworthiness and fulfilling ones promise in Islaam

32. Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah rarely gave a sermon except that he said in it, “The person who does not have trustworthiness does not have (complete) Imaan and the one who does not fulfill his promise, his Deen is not (complete).” [Shu’ab ul Imaan]
The fire of Jahannam is forbidden upon the complete Mu’min

"عن عبادة بن الصامت رضي الله عنه قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول : "من شهد أن لا إله إلا الله وأن محمدا رسول الله حرم الله عليه النار"

33. Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah  saying, “The person who with a true heart testifies that there is no deity but Allaah and Muhammad () is the Rasul of Allaah, Allaah forbids the fire of Jahannam upon him.” [Muslim]

mmm

The person whose end was upon Imaan will definitely go to Jannah

" وعن عثمان رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "من مات وهو يعلم أنه لا إله إلا لله دخل الجنة". رواه مسلم

34. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The person who passes away having the (firm) belief that there is no deity but Allaah, he will definitely enter Jannah.” [Muslim]

mmm

Things that make Jannah and Jahannam compulsory

" وعن جابر رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "ثنتان موجبتان. قال رجل : يا رسول الله ما الموجبتان؟ قال : (من مات يشرك بالله شيئا دخل النار ومن مات لا يشرك بالله شيئا دخل الجنة) (روااه مسلم)

35. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Two things make (Jannah and Jahannam) compulsory.” A companion asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, what are the two things that make (Jannah and Jahannam) compulsory?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(The first is that the person who dies in the condition that he ascribed partners to Allaah he will go to Jahannam and the second thing is that) the person who dies in this condition that he did not ascribe any partner to Allaah he will go to Jannah.” [Muslim]

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: كنا قعودا حول رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم معنا أبو بكر وعمر نفر من أظهرنا في نفر فقام رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم من بين أظهرنا فأتقنا أن يقتل دوتنا وفزعنا فقمنا فكانت أول من فزع فخرجت أبتغى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم حتى أتبت حائطًا للأنصار لبني النجار فدربت به هل أحد له بابا فلم أجد فأربع يدخل في جوف حائط من بئر خارجة والريع الجدول فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب فدخلت على رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال: كنا قعودا نفر من أظهرنا قطعاً حتى أتبت حائطًا فأربع يدخل فلم أجد فأربع يدخل في جوف حائط من بئر خارجة والريع الجدول فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس فإني فتولى أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه عبودي أذهب بنعلي هاتين فمن لقيت من أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلب وهؤلاء الناس ورائي فقال يا أبا هريرة وأعطاني نعليه قلت: قد كنت بين أظهرنا فقمت فأبطأت علينا وخشينا أن تقتطع دوننا وفزعنا فكنت أول من فزع فأتيت هذا الحائط فاحتقنت كما يحتفظ الثعلb
36. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that one day we were sitting with Rasulullaah ﷺ and with us was Hadhrat Abu Bakr  and Hadhrat Umar . Suddenly, Rasulullaah ﷺ got up and went away somewhere outside. When some time had gone by (and he did not return) we had a strong feeling that it should not be that in our absence an enemy has harmed Rasulullaah ﷺ. (With this thought) we became worried and got up. Because I was the first to get worried, therefore I was (the first) to come out in search of Rasulullaah ﷺ. Looking for him I reached the garden of an Ansaari of Banu Najjaar. (Thinking that he is inside) I (in order to enter) looked for a door on all four sides but (in worry and confusion) I could not see the door. Suddenly I saw a canal that was going from a well outside into the garden. I therefore crawled through the canal and reached Rasulullaah ﷺ. (Looking at me coming suddenly in this way, out of astonishment) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Abu Hurayrah! You?” I said, “Yes, O Rasul of Allaah.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “What is wrong?” I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, you were present with us then got up and went away. When much time passed we became worried that (Allaah forbid) in our absence you suffer some accident and worry came over me first, so searching for you I reached this garden. (I did not see a door here), so I crawled like a fox (through the path of the canal) and came inside. The rest of the people are coming behind me.” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ removed his shoes, gave it to me and said, “O Abu Hurayrah, go and take these shoes with you (so that the people outside know that you have come from me) and whichever person outside this garden you meet testifies with complete conviction that there is no deity but Allaah, then give him the glad tidings of Jannah.” (Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  says that I came out with this message of Rasulullaah ﷺ), the first person I met was Hadhrat Umar . He asked me, “Abu Hurayrah, how do you have these shoes?” I said, “These are the shoes of Rasulullaah ﷺ, he gave them to me (as a sign) and sent me so that whichever person I meet that testifies with a true heart and complete conviction that there is no deity but Allaah, I should give them the glad tidings of Jannah.” (The moment he heard this) Umar hit me on my chest so hard that I fell on my buttocks. He then said, “Abu Hurayrah, go back.” So I returned to Rasulullaah ﷺ and cried uncontrollably. Here the fear of Umar was upon me now I see that he is also behind me. (Looking at this condition) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Abu Hurayrah, what happened?” I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, (I came out with your message and) the first person I met was Umar. I gave him your message, (the moment he heard it) he hit me on my chest such that I fell to the ground on my buttocks and he told me to return.” After this, Rasulullaah ﷺ asked Hadhrat Umar , “Umar, why did you do this?” He said, “O Rasul of Allaah, my parents are sacrificed for you. Did you definitely send Abu Hurayrah with your shoes that whoever he meets that says with a true heart and complete conviction that there is no deity but Allaah he has the glad tidings of Jannah?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes.” Umar  said, “O Rasul of Allaah, do not do this, I fear that people should not have hope in this glad tiding and sit complacent (and leave out actions). Therefore, leave them to practice (as much as possible).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(If this is your counsel) then leave people to practice.” [Muslim]

The keys to Jannah

عن معاذ بن جبل قال: "قال لي رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم مفاتيح الجنة شهادة أن لا إله إلا الله". رواه أحمد

37. Hadhrat Mu’adhdh bin Jabal  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, “Testifying (with a true heart and firm conviction) that there is no deity but Allaah is the keys to (all the doors of) Jannah.” [Ahmad]

The method of attaining salvation from whispering

عن عثمان بن عفان رضي الله عنه قال : إن رجالاً من أصحاب النبي صلى الله صلى عليه وسلم حين توفي النبي صلى الله صلى عليه وسلم حزناً عليه حتى كاد بعضهم يوأس. قال عثمان و كنت منهم فبينا أنا جالس في ظل أطم من الآطم مر علي عمر رضي الله عنه فسلم علي فلم أشعر أنه مر ولا سلم فانطلق عمر حتى دخل على أبي بكر رضي الله عنه فقال له ما يعجبك أن مرت علي عثمان فسلمت عليه فلم يرد علي السلام وأقبل هو وأبو بكر في ولاية أبي بكر رضي الله عنه حتى سلماً على جميعاً ثم قال أبو بكر جاعلي أخوك عمر فذكر أنه مر عليه السلام فلم يرد عليه السلام فما الذي حملك على ذلك قال قلت يا نبي أمي قلت وأيماً لا شعرت أنك مرت ولا سلماً ود عثمان و قد شغلك عن ذلك أمر قلت أجل قال ما هو فقال عثمان رضي الله عنه توفي الله عز وجل نبيه صلى الله عليه وسلم قبل أن نسأل عن نجاة هذا الأمر قال أبو بكر قد سألته عن ذلك قال قالت إليه فقلت له بابي أنام وأمي أنت أحق بها قال أبو بكر قلت يا رسول الله ما نجاة هذا الأمر فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم من قبل مثي الكلمة التي عرضت على عمى فردها فهي له نجاة. رواه أحمد

38. Hadhrat Uthman bin Affaان  narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away then many companions were so grieved that there was a danger regarding some of them that they would fall into doubt (i.e. they would fall prey to this whisper that when Rasulullaah ﷺ has left this world, then the Deen and Shari’ah will be finished). Hadhrat Uthman  says that I was one of them. Consequently, (on account of a great incident that put me into being an idol of severe worry and grief), I was sitting and Hadhrat Umar passed by me and greeted with Salaam, (due to not being in my senses) I did not even know (when he passed by me and when he greeted). Hadhrat Umar  complained of this to Hadhrat Abu Bakr . Hadhrat Abu Bakr  came with Hadhrat Umar  to me and both of them greeted me. Hadhrat Abu Bakr  asked me why I did not reply to the Salaam of my brother Umar. I said that this did not happen (i.e. I do not know that Umar came to me and greeted with Salaam and I did not reply). Hadhrat Umar  said that yes, by Allaah, it so happened (that you did not reply to my Salaam). Hadhrat Uthman  says that I said by Allaah, I definitely do not know that you came to me and I do not know that you greeted me. Hadhrat Abu Bakr  said that Uthman is speaking the truth (but it seems that) something has kept you away (that you did not know Umar came to you nor did you reply to his Salaam). I said that it could be the case. He asked regarding it. I said that Rasulullaah ﷺ has left the world but we could not ask Rasulullaah ﷺ regarding this matter (i.e. whispers and doubts and reservations about Deen), that what is the method of salvation from it. Abu Bakr said, “(Do not be grieved), I asked Rasulullaah ﷺ regarding this already.” (Hadhrat Uthman  says that) I (involuntarily) stood up and said, “My mother and father be sacrificed upon you, definitely, you (on account of being so close and out of desire to seek knowledge) are worthy of having asked regarding this. Hadhrat Abu Bakr  said, “I asked, ‘O Rasul of Allaah, what the way of salvation from this?’” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who (with a sincere heart) accepted the Kalimah of Tauheed from us, the one I presented to my uncle (Abu Talib) and he did not accept, then that Kalimah will be responsible for the salvation of that person.” [Ahmad] from this Hadith it is learnt that the person who has doubts and reservations about Deeni matters, he should recite Kalimah Tauheed and he should accept it from the depths of his heart. This is a means of salvation from doubts and reservations.

Note:

The talk of Islaam will definitely be elevated

عن المقداد بن الأسود قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " يقول لا يبقى على ظهر الأرض بيت مدر ولا وبر إلا أدخله الله كلمة الإسلام بعز عزيز أو ذل ذليل إما يعزهم الله عز و جل فيجعلهم من أهلها أو يذلهم فيجعلهم من أهلها أو يذلهم فيجعلهم من أهلها

39. Hadhrat Miqdaad bin al Aswad .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(In the Arabian Peninsula) no house on earth, whether made of sand or a tent will remain in which Allaah will not enter the Kalimah of Islaam into it, with the honour of the honourable and the disgrace of the disgraced (subsequently, those who accept this Kalimah with happiness and a true heart) Allaah will honour them and they will be made worthy of it and those (who do not accept it with happiness) Allaah will disgrace them and they will be forced to become obedient to the Kalimah (i.e. they will pay Jizyah and live under Islaamic rule).” (Hearing this) I said, “Then the Deen of Allaah will prevail on all four sides.” [Ahmad]
The importance of good actions together with Imaan

عن وهب بن منبه قيل له : أليس لا إله إلا الله مفتاح الجنة قال بلى ولكن ليس مفتاح إلا له أسنان فإن جئت بمفتاح له أسنان ففتح لك وإلا لم يفتح لك . رواه البخاري في ترجمة باب البغال

40. Hadhrat Wahb bin Munabbih  narrates that someone asked him, “Is ‘there is no deity but Allaah’ not the key to Jannah?” Wahb said, “Indeed, but teeth are necessary in a key as well. So if you come with such a key which has teeth, then (definitely) the doors of Jannah will open, otherwise the doors of Jannah will not open for you.”[Bukhari]

Note:

the meaning of teeth is good actions. Therefore the person who comes with good actions along with Imaan, the doors of Jannah will open immediately otherwise the doors of Jannah will not open immediately.

mmm

The reward and recompense of the good deeds of a Mu’min

 وعن أبي هريرة قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : إذا أحسن أحدكم إسلامه فكل حسنة يعملها تكتب له عشر أمثالها إلى سبع مائة ضعف وكل سيئة يعملها تكتب له بمثالها " ( متفق عليه )

41. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “When any of you (with a true heart and sincere intention) makes his Imaan good, then whatever goodness he does, then it is written in his record of deeds from 10 to 700 the like of it and whatever bad he does, then only the like of it is written in his record of deeds until he meets Allaah.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The sign of Imaan and the sign of sin

وعن أبي أمامة أن رجلا سأل رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: " ما الإيمان قال إذا سرتك حسنتك وساءتك سيئتك فأنت مؤمن قال يا رسول الله فما الإثم قال إذا حاكم في نفسك شيء فدعه " . رواه أحمد

42. Hadhrat Abu Umaamah .. narrates that a person asked Rasulullaah ﷺ, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is (the sign of) Imaan?” Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, “When your good deeds please you and your bad deeds displease you, then you are a Mu’min.” The person then asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is (the sign of) sin?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When something creates doubt in your heart (then understand that it is a sin), therefore leave it.” [Ahmad]

A few important questions and their answers

عن عمرو بن عبسة قال: أتيت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم فقلت يا رسول
الله من تبعك على هذا الأمر قال حر وعيد قلت ما الإسلام قال طيب الكلام
وإطعام الطعام قلت ما الإيمان قال الصبر والسماحة قال قلت أي الإسلام أفضل
قال من سلم المسلمون من لسانه ويده قال قلت أي الإيمان أفضل قال خلق حسن
قال قلت أي الصلاة أفضل قال طول القنوت قال قلت أي الهجرة أفضل قال أن
تهجر ما كره ربك عز وجل قال قلت فأي الجهاد أفضل قال أن
أهريك دمه قال قلت أي الساعات أفضل قال جوف الليل الآخر . . . رواه أحمد

43. Hadhrat Amr bin Abasah .. narrates, “I went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, ‘O Rasul of Allaah, (in the beginning of the call of Islaam) who is with you in this Deen-religion (Islaam)?’ Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A free man (Abu Bakr) and a slave (Bilal).’ I said, ‘What is Islaam?’ He said, ‘Pure speech and feeding the poor.’ I said, ‘What is Imaan?’ He said, ‘Patience and generosity.’ (i.e. staying away from evil and remaining firm upon obedience) I said, ‘Which Muslim is the best?’ He said, ‘He from whose tongue and hands (their harm) Muslims are safe.’ I said, ‘What is the best thing in Imaan?’ He said, ‘Good character.’ I said, ‘What is best in Salaah?’ He said, ‘Standing for a long while.’ I said, ‘Which migration is the best?’ He said, ‘That you stay away from that which Allaah dislikes.’ I said, ‘Who is best in Jihaad?’ He said, ‘The person whose horse dies and he is martyred as well.’ I said, ‘Which time is the best?’ Rasulullaah ﷺ said, ‘The middle part of the last portion of the night.’” (i.e. the fifth part of the night if divided into six parts) [Ahmad]

Glad tidings for the one who refrains from Shirk and is punctual upon the obligatory duties وعن معاذ بن جبل قال سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول : "من لقي الله لا يشرك به شيئا يصلي الخمس ويصوم رمضان غفر له قلت أفلا أبشرهم يا رسول الله قال الرسول مسلم "رواه أحمد.

44. Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal  narrates that he heard Rasulullahaah  saying, “He who meets Allaah such that he did not ascribe any partner to Him, performed the five times Salaah and fasted in Ramadhaan will be forgiven.” I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, shall I give the glad tidings to the people?” Rasulullahaah  said, “Leave them on their condition so that they can continue to practice.” [Ahmad]

The best characteristics of Imaan

وعن معاذ أنه سأل النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم عن أفضل الإيمان قال : "أن تحب الله وتبغض الله وتعمل لسانك في ذكر الله قال وماذا يا رسول الله قال وأن تحب الناس ما تحب لنفسك وتركره لهم ما تكره لنفسك "رواه أحمد.

45. Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal  narrates that he asked Rasulullahaah , “What are the best characteristics of Imaan?” Rasulullahaah  said, “Your love (for someone) is for the pleasure of Allaah and your hatred and enmity is also for Allaah and you keep your tongue busy in the remembrance of Allaah (with presence of heart).” Mu’aadh asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, what else (besides these)?” Rasulullahaah  said, “Like for others what you like for yourself and what you dislike for yourself you should also dislike for others.” [Ahmad]

Major sins and the signs of hypocrisy

The greatest sin

عن عبد الله بن مسعود قال : قال رجل: يا رسول الله أي الذنب أكبر عند الله قال أن تدعو لله ندا وهو خلقك ثم أن تقتل ولدك خشية أن يطعم معك قال ثم أي قال ثم أن تزاني بحليلة جارك فأنزل الله عز و جل تصديقها ( والذين لا يدعون مع الله إلها آخر ولا يقتلون النفس التي حرم الله إلا بالحق ولا يزنون ومن يفعل ذلك يلق أثاما ) الآية ( متفق عليه )

46. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  says that a person asked, ‘O Rasul of Allaah, which is the greatest sin before Allaah?’ Rasulullaah  said, “It is that you ascribe partners to the Allaah that created you.” The person then asked, “Which is the greatest sin after that?” Rasulullaah  said, “It is that you kill your children with the thought that they will eat with you.” He then asked, “Which is the greatest sin after that?” Rasulullaah  said, “That you commit adultery with the wife of your companion.” (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  says that) in verification of this is the verse, ‘Those who do not call to another Ilaah with Allaah, who only kill a soul forbidden by Allaah with a warrant and who do not fornicate. Whoever commits these shall meet with a grave punishment.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

47. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The major sins are; ascribing partners to Allaah, disobedience to parents, killing without right and making a false oath.” [Bukhari] In the narration of Hadhrat Anas , instead of ‘a false oath’ it is ‘false testimony’.

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Seven sins that destroy

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : " اجتنبوا السبع الموبقات قالوا يا رسول الله وما هن قال الشرك بالله والسحر وقتل النفس التي حرم الله إلا بالحق وأكل الربا وأكل مال اليتيم والتولي يوم الزحف وقذف المحصنات المؤمنات الغافلات " (متفق عليه)

48. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “(People), stay away from seven things that destroy.” It was asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, what are the seven destructive things?” He said, “Ascribing a partner to Allaah, to do black magic, unlawfully killing a person that Allaah has forbidden, eating the wealth of the orphan, eating interest, fleeing from the enemy during battle, accusing chaste, believing, unaware women of adultery.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The light of Imaan does not remain when major sins are committed

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه إن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : " لا يزني الزاني حين يزني وهو مؤمن ولا يشرب الخمر حين يشربها وهو مؤمن ولا يسرق السارق حين يسرق وهو مؤمن ولا ينتهب نهية ذات شرف يرفع الناس
إليه أبصارهم فيها حين ينتهبها وهو مؤمن ولا يغل أحدكم حين يغل وهو مؤمن
فإياكم إياكم " (متفق عليه )
وفي رواية ابن عباس : " ولا يقتل حين يقتل وهو مؤمن " . قال عكرمة : قلت لابن عباس : كيف ينزع الإيمان منه ؟ قال : هكذا وشبك بين أصابعه ثم أخرجها
فإن تاب عاد إليه هكذا وشبك بين أصابعه وقال أبو عبد الله : لا يكون هذا مؤمنا تاما ولا يكون له نور الإيمان . هذا لفظ البخاري

49. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṣ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The adulterer, his Imaan does not remain when he commits adultery, the thief, his Imaan does not remain when he steals, the drinker, his Imaan does not remain when he drinks, and the mugger when he mugs and the people see him (openly) – his Imaan does not remain and the one who misappropriates, his Imaan does not remain when he misappropriates. So stay away (from these sins).”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

This is also mentioned in the narration of Ibn ‘Abbaas Ṣ that ‘a murderer when he unlawfully kills, his Imaan does not remain.’ Ikramah says that I heard this Hadith from Hadhrat Ibn ‘Abbaas Ṣ and asked that how is Imaan separated from a person? He said, “In this way.” (Saying this) he placed the fingers of both his hands into each other and then separated them. After this he said, “If he repents then Imaan comes back to him in this way.” (Saying this) he again placed his fingers into each other. In addition, Abu Abdullaah (Imam Bukhari Ṣ) said that (this Hadith means that) the person (while committing sin) does not remain a complete Mu’min and the light of Imaan does not remain in him. [Bukhari]
Three signs of a hypocrite

وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " آية المنافق ثلاث " . زاد مسلم : " وإن صام وصلى وزعم أنه مسلم " . ثم اتفقا : " إذا حدث كذب وإذا وعد أخلف وإذا أعتم خان "

50. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The signs of a hypocrite are three, even though he performs Salaah, fasts and claims to be a Muslim; he lies when he speaks, he breaks his promise when he makes one, when a trust is placed with him he misappropriates.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Four characteristics of hypocrisy

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : " أربع من كن فيه كان منافقا خالصا ومن كانت فيه خصلة منهن كانت فيه خصلة من النفاق حتى يدعها إذا أعتم خان وإذا حدث كذب وإذا عاهد غدر وإذا خاضم فجر "

51. Hadhrat Abdullah bin Amr رضي الله عنه narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Four characteristics are such that if they are in a person he is a clear hypocrite and the one in whom there is one of them, he has a characteristic of hypocrisy until he leaves it. (The four characteristics are) when a trust is placed with him, he misappropriates, when he speaks he lies, when he promises he breaks it and when he argues he swears.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]
The example of a hypocrite

وعن ابن عمر عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "مثل المنافق كمثل الشاة العائرة بين العينين تعير إلى هذه مرة وإلى هذه مرة". رواه مسلم

52. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that rasulullaah  said, “The example of a hypocrite is like the goat that seeks a male and roams between two flocks, sometimes inclining towards this one and sometimes towards the other.” [Muslim]

Nine clear commands

عن صفوان بن عسال قال : قال يهودي لصاحبه اذهب بنا إلى هذا النبي فقل صاحبه لا تقلنبي إنه لو سمعك كان له أربعة أعين فأتيت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فسألنا عن تسع آيات بينات فقال لهم : " لا تشركوا بالله شيئا ولا تسرقوا ولا تزنوا ولا تقتلوا النفس التي حرم الله إلا بالحق ولا تمشوا بريءا إلى ذي سلطان ليقتله ولا تسحروا ولا تأكلوا الربا ولا تفتقروا محصنة ولا تولوا الفرار يوم الزحف وعليكم خاصة اليهود أن لا تعتدوا في السبت " . قال فقبلوا يده ورجله فقالا نشهد أنك نبي قال فما يمنعكم أن تتبعوني قالوا إن داود دعا ربه أن لا يزال في ذريته نبي وإنا نخاف إن تبعناك أن تقتلنا اليهود . رواه الترمذي وأبو داود والنسائي

53. Hadhrat Safwaan bin Assaal  narrates that (one day) a Jew said to his companion, “Come, let us go to this Nabi.” His companion said, “Do not say Nabi because if he hears (that the Jew calls me a Nabi) then he will get four eyes (i.e. he will not be able to control his joy), anyway, they both came to Rasulullaah  and asked him about nine clear commands. Rasulullaah  said, “Do not ascribe any partner to Allaah, do not steal, do not commit adultery, do not unlawfully take the life that Allaah has forbidden, do not take an innocent person to the ruler to be killed, do not do black magic, do not eat interest, do not accuse a chaste woman of adultery, do not show your back to the enemy in the battlefield, and O Jews, and especially for you, do not overstep the (divine command) regarding the Sabbath.” The narrator says that (hearing this) both Jews kissed the hands and feet of Rasulullaah ﷺ and said that we testify that you definitely are a Nabi. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(When you have conviction in my Risaalat then) who is preventing you from following me?” they said, “Dawood made Du’aa’ to his Rabb that there should remain a Nabi in his progeny. Therefore we fear that if we follow you, the Jews will kill us.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawood, Nasa’i]

وعن أنس بن مالك قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " ثلاث من أصل الإيمان الكف عمن قال لا إله إلا الله و سلم : " (1) The one who testifies to ‘there is no deity but Allaah’ – stay away from (giving him trouble), do not call him a disbeliever on account of a sin, and do not take him out of the fold of Islam on account of some action. (2) Ever since Allaah made me a Rasul and sent me Jihaad is in vogue until the last person of this Ummah will fight Dajjaal, the oppression of an oppressor will not stop Jihaad nor will the justice of a just person finish it off. (3) Believing in Taqdeer.” [Abu Dawood]

54. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Three things are the root of Imaan. (1) The one who testifies to ‘there is no deity but Allaah’ – stay away from (giving him trouble), do not call him a disbeliever on account of a sin, and do not take him out of the fold of Islam on account of some action. (2) Ever since Allaah made me a Rasul and sent me Jihaad is in vogue until the last person of this Ummah will fight Dajjaal, the oppression of an oppressor will not stop Jihaad nor will the justice of a just person finish it off. (3) Believing in Taqdeer.” [Abu Dawood]
The ill effect of adultery

وعن أبي هريرة قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إذا زنى العبد خرج منه الإيمان فكان فوق رأسه كالظلة فإذا خرج من ذلك العمل عاد إليه الإيمان". رواه الترمذي وأبو داود.

55. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a person commits adultery, his Imaan leaves him and remains suspended above his head like a shadow. When he comes out of the sin, then Imaan returns to him.”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawood]

Ten important bequests

عن معاذ قال: أوصاني رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في عشر كلمات قال لا تشرك بالله شيئا وإن كنت قتلبت ولا تعقل والديك وإن أمرتك أن تخرج من أهلك ومالك ولا تترك صلاة مكتوبة متعمدة فإن ترك صلاة مكتوبة متعمدا فقد برت منه ذمة اللهم لا تشربوا خمرها فإنه رأس كل فاحشة وإياك والمعصية فإن بالمعصية حل سخط الله عز وجل وإياك والفرار من الزحف وإن هلك الناس وإذا أصاب الناس موتان وأنت فيهم فاتثبت وأنفق على عيالك من طولك ولا ترفع عنهم عصاك أدبا وأخفهم في الله. رواه أحمد.

56. Hadhrat Mu’aadh  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ made a bequest of ten things to me. Subsequently, he said, “(1) Do not ascribe any partner to Allaah even though you are killed and burnt (2) do not be disobedient to your parents even if they command you to leave your family and wealth (3) do not wilfully leave any obligatory prayer because Allaah is... free of obligation towards the one who wilfully leaves Salaah (4) do not drink, for liquor is the root of all sins (5) stay away from disobedying Allaah and sin because the anger of Allaah descends by disobedience to Him (6) never show your back to the enemy in Jihaad even if all your companions are destroyed (7) when death (in the form of calamity) spreads among people and you are present among them, then remain firm (i.e. do not run from fear of death) (8) carry on spending upon your family according to your ability (9) do not move your cane from them with the objective of nurturing (i.e. keep your control over them and warn them appropriately when they are negligent and careless) (10) carry on warning them regarding the matter of Allaah (i.e. warn your family and explain to them about the punishment of Allaah upon going against the Shari’ah).” [Ahmad]

Knowledge of hypocrisy in belief is impossible now

 وعن حذيفة قال : إنما كان النفاق على عهد النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم فانما هو الكفر بعد الإيمان . رواه البخار

57. Hadhrat Hudhayfah  narrates that knowledge of hypocrisy (in belief) was possible in the time of Rasulullaah . Now it is either Kufr or Imaan. [Bukhari]

Note:

Today too, hypocrisy in action can be known through the signs explained in the Ahadith but knowledge of hypocrisy in belief cannot be after Rasulullaah  because whatever is hidden in the hearts cannot be known without revelation and the chain of revelation came to an end after Rasulullaah . Therefore, those involved in hypocrisy in belief today, they are Kaafir in terms of the laws of the Aakhiraat—hereafter and Mu’min in terms of the laws of the world.

Whispers (Waswasah)

Forgiveness of Waswasah

عن أبي هريرة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: " إن الله تعالى تجاوز عن أمتي ما وسوست به صدورها ما لم تعمل به أو تتكلم " (متفق عليه)

58. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed Allaah ﷺ has forgiven those whispers from my Ummah that are created in their hearts as long as they do not practise upon those whispers and do not bring them on the tongue.” [Bukhari, Muslim] وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: جاء ناس من أصحاب رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فسألوه: إنا نجد في أنفسنا ما يتعاظم أحدنا أن يتكلم به. قال: "أو قد وجدتموه" قالوا: "نعم. قال: "ذاك صريح الإيمن".
Taking Waswasah as bad is clear Imaan

رواه مسلم

59. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) a few companions of Rasulullaah  came to him () and said that we find such things in our hearts (whispers) that we find bad to bring onto our tongues. Rasulullaah  asked, “Do you definitely find it such?” (i.e. when a whisper comes then your heart dislikes it and you find it bad to bring it onto your tongue?) The companions said, “Yes.” Rasulullaah  said, “This is clear Imaan.” [Muslim]

When evil thoughts arise, then seek protection with Allaah and refresh your Imaan

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "ياتي الشيطان أحكمِ ف يقول: من خلق كذا؟ من خلق كذا؟ حتى يقول: من خلق ربك؟ فإذا بلغه ف ليستعد باه ولينته " (متفق عليه)

60. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Shaytaan comes to some of you and says that who created this? And who created that? (i.e. who created the sky? Who created the earth? Etc) then finally he says, ‘Who created your Rabb?’ when it comes to this stage, then seek the protection of Allaah and end it off.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
61. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “People will always ask until it will be said that Allaah created this creation (so) who created Allaah? So, when this type of thought and whisper is created in a person’s heart, then he should say that I believe in Allaah and His Ambiyaa-messengers.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

62. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There is none of you except that a companion from the Jinn and a companion from the angels has been appointed over you. The companions asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, for you as well? (Has a companion from the Jinn been appointed over you?) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Me too, but Allaah has helped me to face this (Shaytaan). (Therefore, not only am I safe from his plotting and trickery, but) that (Shaytaan) has become a follower of me. Therefore that (Shaytaan) also gives me counsel of goodness.” [Muslim]

The effect of Shaytaan

وحن أنس قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن الشيطان يجري من الإنسان مجرى الدم(مثقف عليه)"
63. Hadhrat Anas Narrated that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The effect of Shaytaan in man runs like blood runs in the veins.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The evil of Shaytaan when a baby is born

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "ما من بني آدم مولود إلا يمسه الشيطان حين يولد فيستهل صارخا من مس الشيطان غير مريم وابنها "(متفق عليه)

64. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Narrated that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whichever child is born among man Shaytaan touches it (i.e. he hits his finger on its hip that the child is caused harm) due to which the child screams but Shaytaan did not touch Hadhrat Maryam and her son (Hadhrat ‘Isa ♂).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

65. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Narrated that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The screaming of a child when it is born is on account of Shaytaan pressing it with his finger.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Which Shaytaan is the closest to Iblees?

 وعن جابر قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إن إبليس يضع عرشه على الماء ثم يبعث سراياه فادناهم منه منزلة أعظمهم فتنة يجيء أحدهم فيقول فعلت كما وكذا فيقول ما صنعت شيئا قال فلا شيء اشهدني. ثم يجيء أحدهم فيقول ما تركته حتى فرقت بينه وبين امرأته قال فيدنيه منه ويقول نعم أنت قال الأعمش أراه قال " فيلتزمه ".

رواه مسلم

66. Hadhrat Jaabir .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Iblees places his throne on water (the ocean). He then sends his armies off so that they may place people into trials and deviation. From his army, the one closest to him is the one who causes the most trials (fitnahs). One of them returns and says, “I caused such and such fitnah.” In reply, Iblees says, “You have done nothing.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Then one of them comes and says, “I (began to deviate a person) and did not leave him until I did not cause separation between him and his wife.” Rasulullaah ﷺ says, “(Hearing this) Iblees sits him close to himself and says, “You have done well.” (A narrator of the Hadith) A’mash says, “I think that Hadhrat Jaabir also said, “Iblees hugs him.” [Muslim]

Shaytaan continuously spreads evil and corruption amongst Muslims

وعن جابر قال سمعت النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "إن الشيطان قد أيس أن يعبده المصلون في جزيرة العرب ولكن في التحريش بينهم". رواه مسلم

67. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Shaytaan has become hopeless that those who perform Salaah (Muslims) will worship him in the Arabian Peninsula but he carries on spreading trials and corruption amongst them.” [Muslim]

mmm
Do not give evil thoughts a physical form

عن ابن عباس أن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم جاءه رجل فقال : إني أحدث نفسي بالشيء لأن أكون حممة أحب إلي من أن أتكلم به . قال : " الحمد لله الذي رد أمره إلى الوسوسة " . رواه أبو داود

68. Hadhrat Ibn ‘Abbaas  narrates that a person came to Rasulullaah  and said, “(O Rasul of Allaah), I find such (bad) thoughts in me that instead of making them apparent, I like it more that I be burnt to coal.” Rasulullaah  said, “Gratitude is for Allaah Who kept these thoughts to the limit of whisperings.” [Abu Dawood]

The workings of Shaytaan and the angels

69. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Indeed there is one control of Shaytaan over man and one control of the angels. The control of Shaytaan is that he incites towards evil and belies the truth. The control of the angel is that he encourages towards good and verifies the truth. Therefore, whichever person finds the condition of (being encouraged towards goodness) should understand that it is from Allaah, he should thank Allaah for this and whichever person finds the other condition within himself (the whispering of Shaytaan), he should seek protection from the rejected Shaytaan.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then recited this verse, ‘Shaytaan promises you with poverty and orders you to immodesty.’ [Surah Baqarah, 268] - [Tirmidhi]

The treatment for Waswasah from Shaytaan

عن أبي هريرة قال سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم يقول : " لا يزال الناس يتساءلون حتى يقال : هذا خلق الله الخلق فمن خلق الله ؟ فإذا قالوا ذلك فقولوا الله أحد الله الصمد لم يلد ولم يولد ولم يكن له كفوا أحد ثم ليتفل عن يساره ثلاثا وليستعذ من الشيطان " . رواه أبو داود 70. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  ﷺ narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “People will continue to ask until it will be said that Allaah created the entire creation so who created Allaah? When people ask this, then say that Allaah is one, Allaah is independent, He did not give birth to anyone and no one gave birth to Him and there is none equal to Him. Then spit thrice to the left and seek protection from the rejected Shaytaan.” [Abu Dawood]
Waswasah from Shaytaan

71. Hadrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “People will continue asking amongst themselves (i.e. in the form of Shaytaani Waswasah such thoughts will be created in them) that Allaah has created everything (so) who created Allaah?” [Bukhari] In the narration of Muslim, Rasulullaah  said, “Allaah  says that the people of your Ummah continue to say that what is this? How did it occur? Then finally they will say that Allaah created everything so who created Allaah?”

The method of being saved from the Waswasah of Shaytaan

72. Hadrat Uthmaan bin Abil Aas  narrates that he said, “O Rasul of Allaah, Shaytaan comes in between me and my Salaah and Qira’ah and he puts doubt in these things.” Rasulullaah  said, “This is the devil called Khinzab. When you feel (this devilish whisper) then ask Allaah for protection from him (the rejected Shaytaan) and spit thrice to the left.” Hadhrat Uthmaan  says that (in accordance to the advice of Rasulullaah ﷺ) I did this so Allaah gave me salvation from these devilish whispers.” [Muslim]

73. A person said to Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad that I continuously get doubts in Salaah (i.e. sometimes I get the doubt that is my Salaah correct or not, sometimes I get the doubt that one Rak’at has been left out), for this reason I am discomforted. He said, “(Do not pay attention to such thoughts and) complete your Salaah, because that (doubt) will go when you complete your Salaah and say that yes, I have completed my Salaah.” [Maalik]

Believing in Taqdeer

When was Taqdeer written?

رواه مسلم

74. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah wrote the Taqdeer of the creation 50000 years before the creation of the skies and earth.” He ﷺ also said, “At that time the throne of Allaah was on water.”

[Muslim]

mmm

Everything is from Taqdeer

 وعن ابن عمر قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "كل شيء بقدر حتي العجز والكيس.

رواه مسلم

75. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Everything is Taqdeer to the extent that being foolish and being intelligent is Taqdeer.” [Muslim]

The conversation of Hadhrat Aadam و Hadhrat Moosa ﷺ

Selected Chapters (MunTakhab Abwaab) Part 1

76. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(In the higher world) Hadhrat Aadam و and Hadhrat Moosa ﷺ had a debate in front of their Rabb and (in this debate) Hadhrat Aadam و defeated Hadhrat Moosa ﷺ. Hadhrat Moosa ﷺ said, “You are the same Aadam that Allaah created and He blew within you from His (created) soul, He made the angels prostrate before you and kept you in His Jannah. However, on account of your mistake, He sent people down to the world.” Upon this Hadhrat Aadam و said, “You are the Moosa that Allaah favoured with His Risaalat and conversation. He gave you the tablets in which everything was clearly explained, then He brought you close to converse. So tell me, how many years before Allaah created me was the Tauraat written?” Hadhrat Moosa ﷺ said, “40 years.” Hadhrat Aadam و asked, “Did you not find in it (the Tauraat) this subject matter written, ‘Aadam “disobeyed” His Rabb and fell into error’.” Hadhrat Moosa ﷺ said, “Yes, I find it.” Hadhrat Aadam ▲ said, “So why are you rebuking me upon this action which was written forty years before my creation that I will do this action.” Rasulullaah ▲ says that through this proof Hadhrat Aadam ▲ defeated Hadhrat Moosa ▲ (in the debate).” [Muslim]

Taqdeer was written before birth

عن عبد الله بن مسعود قال : حدثنا رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم وهو الصادق المصدق : " إن أحدكم يجمع خلقه في بطن أمه أربعين يوما ثم يكون في ذلك علقة مثل ذلك ثم يكون في ذلك مضغة مثل ذلك ثم يرسل الملك فينفخ فيه الروح ويؤمر باربع كلمات بكتب رزقه وأجله وعمله وشيقي أو سعيد فوالذي لا إله إلا يهودية إن أحدكم ليعمل بعمل أهل الجنة حتى ما يكون بينه وبينها إلا ذراع فيسبق عليه الكتاب فيعمل بعمل أهل الجنة فيدخلها وإن أحدكم ليعمل بعمل أهل النار حتى ما يكون بينه وبينها إلا ذراع فسبق عليه الكتاب فيعمل بعمل أهل النار فيدخلها " [متفق عليه]

77. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ▲ narrates that Rasulullaah ▲ - who is truthful and is verified – said to us, “The existence of each of you (comes about in this way that at the very beginning his matter of creation) in the womb of his mother for forty days is in the form of a drop (change comes about in it due to heat) then for that very number of days (40 days) it remains as a lump of flesh, then for that number of days (40) it remains in the form of a piece of meat, then (when the bones and meat assume a form) Allaah ▲ sends an angel to it with four things. Subsequently, the angel writes his actions, the time of his death, his sustenance and whether he will be wretched or fortunate. Then a soul is placed in him. So, by the being besides whom there is no deity, a person among you will do the actions of a dweller of Jannah until there will only be a hands span between him and Jannah (i.e. he will reach close to Jannah) but what is written in Taqdeer overpowers and he begins to do the actions of the dwellers of Jahannam and goes and falls into Jahannam. Similarly, one of you will do the actions of a dweller of Jahannam until there remains a hands span between him and Jahannam but what is written in Taqdeer overpowers and he begins to do the actions of a dweller of Jannah and he goes into Jannah.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Jannah will be only for the one who died on Imaan

وعن سهل بن سعيد قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن العبد ليعمل عمل أهل النار وإنه من أهل الجنة ويعمل عمل أهل الجنة وإنه من أهل النار وإنما العمال بالخواتيم " ( متفق عليه )

78. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed a servant does the actions of the dwellers of the fire but indeed he is of the dwellers of Jannah, similarly, a servant does the actions of a dweller of Jannah but indeed he is of the dwellers of the fire, in reality, (the thing that takes to Jannah and Jahannam) is the practice upon which one ends.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Do not say with conviction that any person is a dweller of Jannah

عن عائشة أم المؤمنين قالت : " دعي رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إلى جنازة صبي من الأنصار فقلت يا رسول الله طوبى لهذا عصفور من عصافير الجنة لم يعمل السوء ولم يدركه قال أو غير ذلك يا عائشة إن الله خلق للجنة أهلا خلقهم

79. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was called to participate in the Janaazah of an Ansaari child. So I said at the time, “O Rasul of Allaah, glad tidings for this child which is a bird from the birds of Jannah, he did not do any bad deed, nor did he find the age of evil.” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Ayesha, what (you have conviction of the child being of the dwellers of Jannah?) when the matter can be the opposite (i.e. do not believe with total conviction that this child is of the dwellers of Jannah because) Allaah ﷺ has created some people for Jannah and He made them Jannati when they were in the backs of the grandfathers and some people have been created for Jahannam and they were made dwellers of Jahannam when they were in the backs of their grandfathers.” [Muslim]

Do not leave good actions having trust only on Taqdeer

منا من أهل السعادة فسيصير إلى عمل أهل السعادة وأما من كان من أهل الشقاوة فسيصير إلى عمل أهل الشقاوة قال أما أهل السعادة فسيرون لعمل السعادة وأما أهل الشقاوة فسيرون لعمل الشقاوة ثم قرأ ( فأما من أعطى واتقي وصدق بالحسنى ) الآية ( متفق عليه )

80. Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ (addressing the companions) said, “None of you are such except that his abode in Jannah or Jahannam has not been written. (i.e. it has been stipulated that who is a dweller of Jahannam and who is a dweller of Jannah)” the companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, shall we not rely upon our predestination and leave actions?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(No), actions should definitely be done, for every person it will be made easy whatever he has been created for. Subsequently, the one who is among the fortunate, the actions of the pious are made easy for him and the one who is from the wretched, the actions of the wretched are made easy for him.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then recited this verse of Surah Layl, ‘as for the one who gives, who has Taqwa and who believes in the most beautiful word’ until the end.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The different forms of adultery (Zina)

عن أبي هريرة عن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن الله كتب على ابن آدم حظه من الزنا أدرك ذلك لا محالة فزنا العين النظر وزنا اللسان المنطق والنفس تنمي وتشتهي والفرج يصدق ذلك كله ويكذبه " وفي رواية لمسلم قال : " كتب على ابن آدم نصيبه من الزنا مدرك ذلك لا محالة فالعينان زناهما النظر والأذانان زناهما الاستماع واللسان زناه الكلام واليد زناها البطش والرجل زناها الخطا والقلب يهوى ويتمنى ويصدق ذلك الفرج ويكذبه " ( متفق عليه )

81. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whatever part of adultery Allaah has written for a person he will definitely be involved in it. So, the adultery of the eyes is looking (at a ghayr mahram that is not permitted for one) and the adultery of the tongue is speaking (with a ghayr mahram with incorrect objectives) and (remember), the nafs desires and hopes, and the private parts verify or belie.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

In one narration of Muslim it states that he ﷺ said, “Whatever part of adultery Allaah has written for a person he will definitely be involved in it. So the adultery of the eyes (is looking at a ghayr mahram woman), the adultery of the ears is listening (to speech that incites desire), the adultery of the tongue is speaking (with desire to a ghayr mahram) the adultery of the hands is holding (a ghayr mahram with desire) or touching the body and the adultery of the feet is walking (for evil purposes) and the heart desires and hopes and the private parts verify or belie.”

Every person does that which was written in Taqdeer

 وعن عمران بن حضين : إن رجلين من مزينة أتيا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقالا يا رسول الله أرأيت ما يعمل الناس اليوم ويكدحون فيه أشيء قضي عليهم ومضى فيهم من قدر قد سبق أو فيما يستقبلون به مما أناهم به نبيهم وثبتت الحجة عليهم فقال لا بل شيء قضي عليهم ومضى فيهم وثبتت الحجة عليهم فقال لا بل شيء قضي عليهم ومضى فيهم وثبتت الحجة عليهم (ونفس وما سواها قل يقال لها فجورها وتقواها ) ورواه مسلم

82. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn .. narrates that (one day) two people of the Muzaynah tribe said, “O Rasul of Allaah, tell us that today (in this world) the people that work and (in order to attain success) they undergo difficulty and trouble in it, is it what was written for them and is it their share of eternal predestination, which has been decided? Or, is it that thing which will happen in future and it is part of those matters that their Nabi brought to them and the proof is clear upon them?” hearing this, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “No, this is that which has been predestined for them and for whom it has been decided and verification of this is from this verse of the Noble Qur’aan, “By the soul and the One Who perfected it. And then inspired it with evil and piety.’”” [Muslim]

It is not permissible to castrate on account of fear of adultery

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال قلت يا رسول الله إني رجل شاب وأنا أخاف على نفسي العنت ولا أجد ما أتزوج به النساء كانه يستأذنه في الاختصاء قال: فسكت عنى ثم قلت مثل ذلك فسكت عنى ثم قلت مثل ذلك فسكت عنى ثم قلت مثل ذلك فقال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: "يا أبا هريرة جف القلم بما أنت لا ق فاختص على ذلك أو ذر" . رواه البخاري

83. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ‒ narrates that once I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, I am a young person and I fear that my carnal self should not become involved in adultery because I do not have the capacity to marry a woman (and fulfill my desire the permissible way).” It was as though Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ‒ (for the sake of staying away from adultery) wanted permission to castrate himself. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  explains that Rasulullaah ﷺ did not give any reply and remained silent. I asked again and Rasulullaah ﷺ still remained silent. I asked again and Rasulullaah ﷺ still remained silent. When I asked the (final time) then Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Abu Hurayrah, whatever is to happen to you is written in predestination and the ink has dried. Now, despite this, you can castrate yourself or leave it.”

[Bukhari]

Make Du’aa for obedience and servitude

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو بن العاص قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : "

"يقول إن قلوب بني آدم كلها بين إصابعين من أصابع الرحمن كقلب واحد يصرفه حيث يشاء ثم قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم الله مصرف القلوب صرف قلوبنا على طاعتك " . رواه مسلم

84. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr   narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The hearts of all people are between the fingers of Rahmaan like this, like the heart of a single person. He can turn the hearts whichever way He wants.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then made the following Du’aa’, ‘O the Rabb who turns the hearts, turn our hearts towards your obedience and worship.’” [Muslim]

Who makes a child a disbeliever?

"What is born is by nature, later on its parents make it a Jew or Christian or a fire worshipper. Like a four legged creature (when it will dwell in Jannah then) a four legged pure child will dwell in Jannah, do you find any harm in this?" Rasulullaah ﷺ then recited this verse, ‘Remain firm upon the natural state in which Allaah created people, there is no change in the creation of Allaah, this is the correct Deen-religion.’” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The grandeur of Allaah

"...a four legged pure child will dwell in Jannah, do you find any harm in this?

86. Hadhrat Abu Musa ﷺ explains that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ stood before us and delivered a sermon comprising five things. Subsequently, he said, indeed, Allaah does not sleep and it does not behove His grandeur that He sleeps, He lowers the scales and raises them, before the actions of the day, the actions of the night and before the actions of the night, the actions of the day are presented in His court, His veil is light, if He lifts this veil, then the rays of this pure Being will burn everything as far as His can see.” [Muslim]
There is no decrease in the treasure of Allaah by spending

وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " يد الله ملأى لا تغيضها نفقة سحاء الليل والنهار أرأيتم ما أنفق مذ خلق السماء والأرض ؟ فإنه لم يغض ما في يده وكان عرشه على الماء وبيده الميزان يخفض ويرفع " ( متفق عليه )

وفي رواية لمسلم: " يمين الله ملأى قال ابن نمير ملآن سحاء لا يغيضها شيء الليل والناهرا "

87. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah   narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "The treasures of Allaah are full, there is no decrease in it by spending, He spends and gives night and day, do you not see that ever since He created the sky and earth how much He spends? However, by spending, there was no decrease in it, whatever is in His treasure when ( he is spending this amount from that time when ) His throne was on water, and in His control is the scale ( of sustenance ) which He lowers and raises ( i.e. He gives someone less and someone more )."

[Bukhari, Muslim]

"و عليه قال : سئل رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم عن ذراري المشركين قال : " الله أعلم بما كانوا عاملين "
88. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ was asked about the children of the polytheists. So Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah knows best that (if they remained alive and grew up) what actions they would have done.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The pen wrote everything in Taqdeer

وعن عبادة بن الصامت قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول "إن أول ما خلق الله القلم فقال اكتب فقال ما أكتب قال اكتب القدر ما كان وما هو كان إلى الأبد " رواه الترمذي وقال هذا حديث غريب إسنادا

89. Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The first thing that Allaah created was the pen. He then commanded it to write. The pen said, “What should I write?” It was said, “Write Taqdeer.” So the pen wrote everything that happened until now and what will happen until eternity.” [Tirmidhi]

The importance of actions in spite of divine Taqdeer

خلق العبد للنار استعمله بعمل أهل النار حتى يموت على عمل من أعمال أهل النار فيدخله الله النار . رواه مالك والترمذي وأبو داود

90. Hadhrat Muslim bin Yasaar .. narrates that Hadhrat Umar .. was asked about this verse, ‘when your Rabb took out the progeny of Aadam from his back’. He said, “Rasulullaah ﷺ was also asked about this verse and (in reply) I heard him say, “Allaah Created Aadam, He then passed his hand over his back, then from his back (some) progeny was taken out and it was said, ‘I have created them for Jannah and for the actions of Jannah.’ After this Allaah ﷺ passed His hand over the back of Aadam and took out (some) progeny and said that I have created them for Jahannam and for the actions of Jahannam.” Hearing this one person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, then what is the importance of actions? Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Actions hold this importance that) when Allaah creates a servant to take him to Jannah, then (first in this world) he makes him do those actions that are of the dwellers of Jannah until the death of that person comes in such a condition of doing those actions of the dwellers of Jannah. Then on account of that action, Allaah ﷺ enters him into Jannah. Similarly, when Allaah creates a servant to throw him into Jahannam, (then first in this world) He makes him do those actions that are of the dwellers of Jahannam until the person dies in the condition where he is doing actions of the dwellers of Jahannam, then Allaah throws him into Jahannam on account of that action.” [Malik, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawood]

وقبائلهم ثم أجمل على آخرهم فلا يزداد فيهم ولا ينقص منهم أبدا فقال أصحابه
ففيهم العمل يا رسول الله إن كان أمر قد فرغ منه فقال سددوا وقاربوا فإن صاحب
الجنة يختتم له بعمل أهل الجنة وإن عمل أي عمل وإن صاحب النار يختم له
بعمل أهل النار وإن عمل أي عمل ثم قال فرغ ربكم من العباد فريق في الجنة وفريق في السعير". رواه
الترمذي وقال: هذا حديث حسن غريب صحيح

91. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin al Aas .. narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ came out (of his room) to the (Masjid). At that time in his hands were two registers.
Rasulullaah ﷺ (addressed us) and said, “Do you know what these two registers are?” We said, “O Rasul of Allaah, we do not know anything. Tell us, then we shall learn.”
Subsequently, regarding the register that was in his right hand, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This is the register of the Rabb of the worlds in which the names of the dwellers of Jannah are written, the names of their fathers and their tribes are included. Finally their scales will be tied (i.e. weighed) and there will be no name added, and no name will be taken out.”
Then Rasulullaah ﷺ said regarding the register in his left hand and said, “This is the register of the Rabb of the worlds in which are the names of the dwellers of Jahannam, their father’s names and the names of their tribes. Finally, their scales have been tied. There will not be an increase in these names or any decrease.” (Hearing this) the companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, if every matter has been decided, then what is the importance of actions?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Indeed it has been stipulated from before whether a person will be a dweller of Jannah or a dweller of Jahannam, therefore) hold firm to actions and remain engaged in attaining closeness (to Allaah) because whichever person (in the predestination of Allaah) is deserving of Jannah, his end will be on the actions of the dwellers of Jannah even though he spends his life doing whatever (good or bad) actions.
Similarly, the person who (in the predestination of Allaah) is deserving of Jahannam, his end will be on the actions of the dwellers of Jahannam even though he does whatever action.” After this Rasulullaah ﷺ moved both his hands and threw both registers behind him, he then said, “Your Rabb has completed making a decision of His slaves, one group in Jannah and one group will go to Jahannam.” [Tirmidhi]

Every action of man is predestined

 وعن أبي خزامة عن أبيه قال سألت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قلت يا رسول الله أرأيت نسترقيها ودواء نتداوي به وتقاة نتقبها هل ترد من قدر الله شيء قال: " هي من قدر الله " رواه أحمد والترمذي وابن ماجه

92. Hadhrat Abu Khizaamah narrates from his father that he said, “I said, ‘O Rasul of Allaah, the reading and blowing we do, the medicine we use for treatment and the means of protection (shields, armour etc), through which we save ourselves, tell me that can these things change the predestination of Allaah?’ Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “These things are part of the predestination of Allaah.”

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

Do not make divine predestination a subject of discussion

وعن أبي هريرة قال: خرج علينا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ونحن نتنازع في القدر فغضب حتى احمر وجهه حتی كأنما فقى في وجوهته الرمان فقال أبهذا: " أمرتم أم بهذا أرسلت إليكم إنما هلك من كان قبلكم حين تنازعوا في هذا الأمر عزمت عليكم ألا تتنازعوا فيه". رواه الترمذي وقال حديث غريب لا نعرفه إلا من هذا الوجه من حديث صالح المري وله غرائب يتفرد بها لا يتابع عليها قلت: لكن يشهد له الذي بعده

93. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) we (a few) companions (were sitting) and discussing the matter of predestination and Rasulullaah  came and (seeing us involved in discussing Taqdeer) he became so angry that his blessed face became red as though the red pomegranate seeds were squeezed onto his cheeks. Addressing us, he  said, “Have you been commanded to do this? Have I been sent among you for this? Indeed, before you (some nations) were destroyed when they began to discuss and debate this (predestination) look, I take an oath then I take an oath that (in future) do not discuss this matter.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The characteristics of the earth are found in man

 وعن أبي موسى قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: " إن الله خلق آدم من قبضة قبضها من جميع الأرض فجاء بنو آدم على قدر الأرض منهم الأحمر والأبيض والأسود وبين ذلك والسهل والحزن والطيب ". رواه أحمد والترمذي وأبو داود
94. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates that he heard Rasulullah ﷺ saying, “Allaah ﷺ created Aadam  from sand that He gathered from throughout the world. Subsequently, the progeny of Aadam were born in accordance to the land that some of them are red, some white and some black and some in between, i.e. brown. Similarly, some have a soft nature, some have a hard nature, some are impure and some are pure.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawood]

The Taqdeer of every person has been written

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم يقول : " إن الله خلق خلقه في ظلمة فألقى عليهم من نوره فمن أصابه من ذلك النور اهتدى ومن أخطأه ضل فلذاك أقول : جف القلب على علم الله " . رواه أحمد والترمذي

95. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that he heard Rasulullah ﷺ say, “Allaah ﷺ created His creation (Jinn and man) in darkness, then He placed some of His light. Subsequently, the one who got the light, he was guided and the one deprived of this light was deviated. Therefore I say that the pen has dried upon the knowledge of Allaah (i.e. whatever is to happen to a person it is predestined, now change is impossible).” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

Carry on making Du’aa to Allaah to remain firm on Deen

96. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  used to make this Du’aa’ abundantly, ‘O the turner of hearts, keep my heart firm upon your Deen.’ Subsequently, (one day upon hearing this Du’aa’) I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, we believe in you and that which you brought, then too you fear for us?” Rasulullaah  said, “Yes, in reality the heart is between the two fingers of Allaah, He turns them whichever way He wants.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

mmm

The example of the heart

وعن أبي موسى قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " مثل القلب كريشة بارض فلاة يقلبها الرياح ظهرا لبطن " . رواه أحمد

97. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The example of the heart is like a feather lying in an open field and the wind turns it around.” [Ahmad]

mmm

Four things upon which it is necessary to have Imaan

وعن علي  قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " لا يؤمن عبد حتى يؤمن بأربع : يشهد أن لا إله إلا الله وأني رسول الله بعثني بالحق ويؤمن بالموت والبعث بعد الموت ويؤمن بالقدر " . رواه الترمذي وابن ماجح

98. Hadhrat Ali  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “A person cannot be a Mu’min until he believes in four things, he testifies that there is no deity but Allaah and I am His Rasul-messenger and Allaah sent me with the true Deen-religion (Islaam), he believes in death, he believes that there is resurrection after death and he believes in Taqdeer.”

Two sects who have no relationship with Islaam

وعن ابن عباس قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "صنفان من أمتي ليس لهما في الإسلام نصيب : المرجئة والقدرية " . رواه الترمذي وقال هذا حديث غريب

99. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Two groups in my Ummah will arise that have nothing to do with Islaam, one is the Murji’ah and the other is the Qadariyyah.” [Tirmidhi]

Note:

Here Murji’ah refers to Jabariyyah. They say that man is useless and totally forced like a stone and Qadariyyah are those who reject Taqdeer. Mazaahir e Haq Qa deem]

The punishment of Allaah upon those who reject Taqdeer

وعن ابن عمر قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول : "يكون في أمتي خسف ومسخ وذلك في المكذبين بالقدر " . رواه أبو داود وروى الترمذي نحوه

100. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “In my Ummah there will be the punishment of sinking into the earth and the changing of faces and it will be among those who belie Taqdeer.”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawood]
How should one deal with a person who rejects Taqdeer?

وعن ابن عمر قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "القدرية مجوس هذه الأمة إن مرضوا فلا تعودوهم وإن ماتوا فلا تشهدوهم". رواه أحمد وأبو داود

101. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The Qadariyyah (those who reject Taqdeer) are the Magians of this Ummah. So if they fall ill do not visit them and if they die do not participate in the funeral.”

[Ahmad, Abu Dawood]

Six people who have been cursed

وعن عائشة رضي الله عنها قالت: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "لا تجلسوا أهل القدر ولا تفاتحوهم". رواه أبو داود

102. Hadhrat Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not associate with the Qadariyyah (those who reject Taqdeer) and do not make them leaders.” [Abu Dawood]

[138]
103. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There are six (types) of people who I curse and Allaah has also cursed them and the Du’aa’ of every Nabi is accepted. One who oversteps in the book of Allaah, one who rejects the predestination of Allaah, one who attains power through force in order to honour the one disgraced by Allaah and to disgrace the one honoured by Allaah, the one who takes it permissible to (kill, hunt etc.) in the Haram of Allaah, one who takes to be permissible for my progeny what Allaah has made Haraam and the one who abandons my Sunnah.” [Bayhaqi]

Man will definitely reach the place wherein death is destined for him

وعن مطر بن عكما قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إذا قضى الله علّي أن يموت برض جعل له إليها حاجة" . رواه أحمد والترمذي

104. Hadhrat Matr bin Ukamis ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When Allaah destines the death of a person in a certain land, then He also creates a need for that person towards it.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

The children of believers follow the father

 وعن عائشة رضي الله عنها قالت: قلت: يا رسول الله ذراري المؤمنين؟ قال: "من آبائهم" . قلت: بلا عمل؟ قال: "الله أعلم بما كانوا عاملين" . رواه أبو داود

105. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what do you say regarding the children of the believers (that pass away in infancy)?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “They follow their fathers (i.e. their abode is Jannah like their fathers).” (Hearing this) I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, without doing any action they will get Jannah?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah knows best what will become apparent in the form of their actions.” I then said, “Regarding the children of the polytheists (what do you say)?” Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, “They also follow their fathers.” (Hearing this) I said, “Without doing any (bad) action?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah knows best what would become apparent in their actions.” [Abu Dawood]

 وعن ابن مسعود رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : “الوائدة والموؤدة في النار.” رواه أبو داود.

106. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who buries alive and the buried will be in the fire.” [Abu Dawood]

mmm
Five things have been decided

عن أبي الدرداد قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن الله عز و جل
فرغ إلى كل عبد من خلقه من خمس : من أجله و عمله و مضجعه وأثره ورزقه ". رواه أحمد

107. Hadhrat Abu Darda .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah has completed five things regarding every servant of His creation, his end time, his actions, his abode, his parade ground and his sustenance.” [Ahmad]

mmm
The benefit of not discussing Taqdeer

وعن عائشة رضي الله عنها قالت: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول:
"من تكلم في شيء من القدر سئل عنه يوم القيامة ومن لم يتكلم فيه لم يسأل عنه". رواه ابن ماجه

108. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that she heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, “The one who discusses anything regarding Taqdeer will be questioned on the Day of Qiyaamat and the one who does not speak about it will not be questioned about it.” [Ibn Maajah]

Why is it necessary to believe in Taqdeer?

وعن ابن الديلمي قال: أتبت أبي بن كعب فقالت له: قد وقع في نفسي شيء من القدر فحدثني بشيء لعل الله أن يذهبه من قلبي قال لو أن الله عذب أهل سماواته وأهل أرضه عذبهم وهو غير ظالم لهم ولو رحمهم كانت رحمته خيرا لهم من أعمالهم ولو أنفقت مثل أحد ذهبا في سبيل الله ما قبله الله منك حتى تؤمن بالقدر وتعلم أن ما أصابك لا يكون ليخطئك وأن ما أخطأك لا يكون ليصيبك ولو مت على غير هذا لدخلت النار قال ثم أتبت عبد الله بن مسعود فقال مثل ذلك قال ثم أتبت حذيفة بن اليمان فقال مثل ذلك قال ثم أتبت زيد بن ثابت فقال: عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم مثل ذلك. رواه أحمد وأبو داود وأبن ماجه

109. Hadhrat Ibn Daylami (Tabi’i) says that I went to Hadhrat Ubayy bin Ka’b :: and said to him that regarding Taqdeer (this) doubt has been created in my heart (that if everything is from Allaah and under Taqdeer then what is the meaning of commands, prohibitions and reward and punishment?) therefore, narrate a Hadith to me, maybe through this Hadith Allaah ﷺ removes the doubt in my heart. (Hearing this) he said, “If Allaah sends punishment upon those in the sky and those on earth, then He involves all of them in punishment and He cannot be called an oppressor.

And if He blesses all with His mercy, then His mercy is much greater than their actions and (remember) if you spend gold equal to Mount Uhud in the path of Allaah, then Allaah will not accept it until you do not (completely) believe in predestination. Also, know well that whatever reaches you, it was not something that was not going to reach you and whatever you do not get, it was not something that you were supposed to get (i.e. nothing reaches you or does not reach you through your own effort but it is through divine predestination) and if you leave this world in a state where you do not believe in Taqdeer, then you will definitely go to Jahannam. Ibn Daylami says that I then went to Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. who said the same thing. I then went to Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan .. who said the same thing. I then went to Hadhrat Zayd bin Thaabit .. and he narrated a Hadith of Rasulullaah ﷺ of the same subject.”

[Ahmad, Abu Dawood, Ibn Maajah]

Those who reject Taqdeer are not safe from punishment

عن نافع أن ابن عمر جاءه رجل فقال إن فلانا يقرأ عليك السلام فقال له إنه بلغني أنه قد أحدث فإن كان قد أحدث فلا تقرأني السلام فإني سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول يكون في هذه الأمة أو في أمتي الشك منه خسف أو مسح أو قذف في أهل القدر . رواه الترمذي وأبو داود وأبى ماجه وقال الترمذي : هذا حديث حسن صحيح غريب

110. Hadhrat Naafi’ explains that a person came to Hadhrat Ibn Umar .. and said, “A particular person conveys Salaam.” Hadhrat Ibn Umar .. said, “But I know that this person has innovated something in Deen. If he has definitely innovated something, then do not convey my Salaam to him because I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, “In my Ummah.” Or he said, “In this Ummah, if the punishments of sinking into the earth, changing of forms and raining of stones has to happen, then it will happen upon those who reject Taqdeer.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawood, Ibn Maajah]

The end of the children of the believers, disbelievers and polytheists

عن علي رضي الله عنه سألت خديجة النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم عن ولدين ماتا لها في الجاهلية فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "هما في النار" قال: فلما رأى الكراهية في وجهها قال لو رأيت مكانهما لأبغضتهما قال: يا رسول الله فولدي منك قال في الجنة قال ثم قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إن المؤمنين وأولادهم في الجنة وإن المشركين وأولادهم في النار ثم قرأ رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "والذين آمنوا واتبعتهم ذريتهم بإيمان ألح قنا بهم ذرياتهم"

111. Hadhrat Ali narrates that Umm al Mu’mineen Hadhrat Khadija radhiyallaahu anha asked Rasulullaah ﷺ about her (two young) children (from her first husband and) they passed away in the era of ignorance (that what will be their end?) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “They are both in the fire (of Jahannam).” Hadhrat Ali says that (hearing this, Hadhrat Khadijah radhiyallaahu anha became grieved and sad and) Rasulullaah ﷺ saw the sadness and grief on her face and said, “If you had to see the condition and abode of those two children (that in what disgrace they are and how far they are from the mercy of Allaah) then you will begin to hate them yourself.” Hadhrat Khadijah radhiyallaahu anha said, “O Rasul of Allaah, and my (young) children (their end) that I got from you, i.e. Qaasim and Abdullaah?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “They are in Jannah.” After this, Rasulullaah ﷺ said,
The people of Imaan and their children’s abode is Jannah and the abode of the people of Kufr and their children is Jahannam. Then, as proof, Rasulullaah ﷺ recited the verse, (والذين آمنوا واتبعوا ذريتهم بإيمان أحق لنا بذريتهم). [Ahmad]

The nature of man is to forget

وعن أبي هريرة قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: " لما خلق الله آدم مسح ظهره فسقط من ظهره كل نسمة هو خالقها من ذريته إلى يوم القيامة وجعل بين عيني كل حي من بواص من نور ثم عرضهم على آدم فقال أي رب من هؤلاء قال هؤلاء ذريتك فرأى رجلا منهم فأعجبه وبيص ما بين عينيه فقال أي ربي من هذا فقال هذا رجل من آخر الأمم من ذريتك يقال له داود فقال كم جعلت عمره قال ستين سنة قال أي رب زده من عمري أربعين سنة فأعطها ابنك داود قال فأعط قد بعد داود ذريته ونسي آدم ففست ذريته وخطئ آدم رواه الترمذي

112. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When Allaah ﷺ created Aadam ﷺ, then He passed His hand over his back (i.e. He commanded the angels to pass their hands) then from his back, all the lives came out that Allaah was to create from his (Aadam’s) progeny until Qiyaamat. Then Allaah gave each person a shining light between his eyes. After this, all these souls were brought before Aadam ﷺ. Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ asked, “My Rabb, who are all these?” Allaah ﷺ answered, “All these are your children (that will be born generation after generation until Qiyaamat).” From amongst those that saw, there was a person who had great light. He asked, “O my Rabb, who is this?” Allaah ﷺ said, “This is Dawood ﷺ.” Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ asked, “My Rabb, how much age have You stipulated for him.” Allaah ﷺ replied, “60 years.” Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ said, “My Rabb, take 20 years of my life and add it to his.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When there were 40 years left of the life of Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ, then the angel of death came to him. Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ (looked at him) and said, “Are there not 40 years left for my life to be completed?” The angel of death said, “Have you not given 40 years of your life to your son Dawood?” (Rasulullaah ﷺ said), “Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ rejected this and for this reason his children also reject. And Hadhrat Aadam forgot the (order of Allaah). As a result of this, he ate of the forbidden tree and for this reason his children also forget and a mistake happened from Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ, therefore his children also fall into error.”

[Tirmidhi]

The independence of Allaah

 وعن أبي الدرداء عن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : " خلق الله آدم حين خلقه فضرب كتفه اليمنى فأخرج ذرية بيضاء كأنهم الذر وضرب كتفه اليسرى فأخرج ذرية سوداء كأنهم الحمم فقال للذي في يمينه إلى الجنة ولا أبالي وقال للذى في كفه اليسرى إلى النار ولا أبالي " . رواه أحمد

113. Hadhrat Abu Darda .. that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When Allaah ﷺ created Aadam ﷺ then on his right shoulder (through the power of Allaah or through the hand of an angel) he was hit and his children that were white and shining came out and it seemed that it was as though they were (white) ants. Then he was hit on his left shoulder and those children were taken out who were black and it seemed as though they were coal. Then Allaah ﷺ said regarding the children of Aadam that were taken out from the right shoulder that this creation will go to Jannah and it does not affect Me. Then He said regarding the children that were taken out from the left that this creation will go to Jahannam and it does not affect Me.” [Ahmad]

وعن أبي نضرة أن رجلا من أصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم يقال له أبو عبد الله دخل عليه أصحابه يعودونه وهو يبكي فقالوا له ما يبكيك ألم يقل لك رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم خذ من شاربك ثم أقره حتى تلقاني قال بلى ولكنني سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: " إن الله عز و جل قبض بيمينه قبضة وأخرى باليد الأخرى وقال هذه لهذه وهذه لهذه وهذه لهذه ولا أبالي فلا أدري في أي القبضتين أنا " . رواه أحمد

114. Hadhrat Abu Nadrah (Tabi’i) narrates that one of the companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ called Abu Abdullaah, when (he became ill and) his relatives came to visit him so (they saw that) he (on account of the fear of Allaah and reckoning of the Aakhirat) was crying. They said, “What is the matter, why are you crying? Did Rasulullaah ﷺ not tell you that trim the hair of your lips very short and remain firm on this until you meet me.” Abu Abdullaah said, “Yes, but I also heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, ‘Allaah ﷺ took a handful of His creation in His right hand and He took the other part in His left and said, “This (those in the right hand) are to go to Jannah and it does not affect Me and this (those in the left hand) are to go to Jahannam and it does not affect Me.”’ (Abu Abdullaah then said) I do not know in which handful I am.” [Ahmad]

What promise did Allaah take from the children of Aadam ₪?

وعن ابن عباس عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "أخذ الله الميثاق من ظهر آدم بنعثمان يعني عرفة فأخرج من صلبه كل ذريه ذرأها فتثرهم بين يديه كالذر ثم كلمهم قيلا قال: ( ألست بربكم قالوا بلى شهدنا أن تقولوا يوم القيامة إنا كنا عن هذا غافلين أو تقولوا إنما أشرك آباؤنا من قبل وكنا ذرية من بعدهم أتفلتنا بما فعل المبطلون ) رواه أحمد

115. Hadhrat Ibn ‘Abbaas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ₪ said, “Allaah ₪ took from the back of Aadam ₪ (all His progeny, the promise of His being the Rabb) the promise of Nu’maan, i.e. in the field of Arafah. Subsequently, Allaah ₪ took out from the back of Aadam ₪ all his progeny (that would be born until the Dat of Qiyaamat) and spread them all before Aadam ₪ like ants, then He spoke to them and said, “Am I not your Rabb? All replied, ‘Indeed you are our Rabb’. (After this Allaah said), “I made you attest to this so that on the Day of Qiyaamat you would not say that we were unaware and did not know (of Your being the Rabb and Your unity), or that you would begin to say that our forefathers adopted polytheism that was before us and because of being their children we remain behind them (as followers), so why are you throwing us into destruction based upon that which the baseless ones (i.e. our forefathers) adopted.” [Ahmad]

عن أبي بن كعب في قول الله عز و جل ( وإذ أخذ ربك من بني آدم من ظهورهم ذرياتهم وأشهدهم على أنفسهم ) الآية قال جمعهم فجعلهم أرواحا ثم صورهم فاستتطقتهم فتكلموا ثم أخذ عليهم العهد والميثاق وأشهدهم على أنفسهم أنه فائظم فاني أشهد عليكم السماوات السبع والأرضين السبع وأشهد عليكم أباكم أدام أمد عليه السلام أن تقوموا يوم القيامة لم نعلم بهذا اعلموا أنه لا إله غيري ولا ربح غيري فلا تشركوا بي شيئا وإنى سأرسل إليكم رسلي يذكرونكم عهدي وميثاقي وقلت عليهم أنا أرسلت إليكم بسماة ونجلي بين الناس ( و ذكر في الحديث غني وفقر ) وأنا أعبد الله فتفرج عن أنفسكم وأنا أحق في النعيم وأنا أحق في العذاب وكم أعظم مثقالا من المثقالين فرح بهم فجعل القرين مثقالا من نوركم أشهدتكم أنني أنا إلهكم zoals أنا إله آدم عليه السلام قلت علما أنكم لا تفطنوا ( إلى قوله تعالى )سماوي من الله ورضوي إنهم لفقراء هم ( ( و ذكر في الحديث ) فجعل عندهم مثقالا من النور خصوا بميثاق آخر في الرسالة والنبوة وهو قوله تعالى ( وأذ أخذوا من النبيين ميثاقهم ) إلى قوله ( عيسى ابن مريم ) كان في تلك الأرواح فأرسله إلى مريم فحدث عن أبيه أنه دخل من فيها . رواه أحمد 116. Hadhrat Ubayy bin Ka‘b .. narrates regarding the Tafseer of the verse ‘And when your Rabb took out from the back of Aadam his progeny’ that Allaah [] gathered them and classified them into various types (i.e. it was decided that when they will come to the world on their time, then someone will be wealthy and someone will be poor etc. He then gave them form and ability to speak. They also spoke. After this, Allaah took a promise and covenant from them (i.e. He made testify with the tongue) and making themselves witness He asked, “Am I not the Rabb of you all?” They replied, “Indeed you are our Rabb.”

Allaah said, “Upon this (promise and covenant) I make the seven heavens and the seven earths witness and I make your father Aadam also witness so that on the Day of Qiyaamat you will not begin to say that we were unaware of this (Tauheed). Know well, there is on deity but Me, there is no Rabb but Me, do not ascribe any partner to me, indeed I shall send my Ambiyaa-messengers to you that will remind you of this pact and covenant that I took from you and I shall reveal My books.” (Hearing this), they all said, “We testify and state that indeed You are our Rabb and our deity. There is no Rabb but You and we have no deity but You.” So all the children of Aadam (in this way) testified (to the oneness and Rububiyyat of Allaah) and at the time Aadam was given a high place before all in order to see his progeny take the pledge and promise. Subsequently, when he saw that (some of them) are poor and some wealthy, some have beautiful forms and others have other (ugly) forms, then he said, “My Rabb, why have you kept this imbalance and inequality amongst Your servants?” Allaah said, “In essence, I wish that My servants show gratitude to Me.” And (on this occasion) Aadam saw the Ambiyaa-messengers amongst mankind upon whom light was shining in this way like lamps (shining) and from (the Ambiyaa-messengers) there was a special promise and covenant taken regarding their Risalaat-messenger ship as Allaah states, (وإذ أخذنا من النبيين ميثاقهم ومنك ومن نوح وإبراهيم وموسى وعيسى ابن مريم). Hadhrat ‘Isa was also amongst those souls whose (soul) was (sent to the world) by Allaah (through Hadhrat Jibreel) to Hadhrat Maryam.” It is narrated from Ubayy bin Ka‘b that the soul of (Hadhrat Isa) was entered in to Hadhrat Maryam through her mouth.” [Ahmad]
A mountain can move from its place, not a habit

وعن أبي الدرداء قال بينما نحن عند رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم نتذاكر ما يكون إذ قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : إذا سمعتم بجبل زال عن مكانه فصدقوا وإذا سمعتم برجل تغير عن خلقه فلا تصدقوا به وإنه يصير إلى ما جبل عليه " . رواه أحمد

117. Hadhrat Abu Darda .. narrates that (one day) we (a few companions) were seated around Rasulullaah ﷺ talking about the events of the time and Rasulullaah ﷺ (hearing our talk) said, “If you hear that a mountain has moved from its place then believe it to be true but if you hear that the characteristic and habit of a person has changed then never give it consideration because the person born with their characteristics and habits, he will remain upon them.” [Ahmad]

Difficulty is also a part of divine Taqdeer

وعن أم سلمة يا رسول الله لا يزال يصيبك كل عام وجع من الشاة المسمومة التي أكلت قال : " ما أصابني شيء منها إلا وهو مكتوب علي وأدم في طينته " . رواه ابن ماجه

118. Hadhrat Umm e Salamah radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) she said, “O Rasul of Allaah, every year you get some difficulty or the other from the poisoned goat eaten (on the occasion of the battle of Khaybar).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whatever difficulty comes upon me, it was written in my Taqdeer when Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ was in the soil.” [Ibn Maajah]
Punishment of the grave

The answer of a believer and a disbeliever in the grave

١٨٩. حضرت براء بن عازب رضي الله عنه نARRATES THAT Rasulullaah ﷺ said that when a Muslim is questioned in the grave then he testifies that there is no deity but Allaah and Muhammad ( ﷺ ) is the Rasul-messenger of Allaah. This is the meaning of the verse, ‘Those who believed, Allaah ﷺ keeps them firm upon the truth in the life of the world as well as in the Aakhirat.” Another narration states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This verse (above) was revealed regarding the punishment of the grave. When a believer is asked (in the grave) that who is your Rabb? Then he replies that my Rabb is Allaah and my Nabi is Muhammad ( ﷺ ).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

عن أنس بن مالك رضي الله عنه أنه حدثهم أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: " إن العبد إذا وضع في قبره وتولى عنه أصحابه فإنه ليسمع قرع نعالهم. يأتاه ملكان فيقعدانه فيما وقيلان ما كنت تقول في هذا الرجل صلى الله عليه وسلم فأما المؤمن يقال أنه عبد الله ورسله صلى الله عليه وسلم وله في قبره ثم رجع إلى حديث أنس قال وأما المنافق والكافر فيقال له لما كنت تقول في هذا الرجل صلى الله عليه وسلم فأما المنافق والكافر فيقال له ما كنت تقول. إذا كنت أقول ما يقول الناس يقال لا دريت ولا تائلي وضرب بمطارق من حديد ضربة تسمعها من يليه غير الثقلين " ولفظه للبخاري.

120. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When the servant (his body) is placed in the grave and the people together (with his Janaazah) return then that (servant) hears the footsteps of (those returning), (then) two angels come to him and sit him upright. They then ask him that what do you say regarding this person?, i.e. Muhammad ﷺ (and what belief did you have?) If the person was a believer then he replies that I testify that He was the servant and Rasul of Allaah. (When he gives the correct reply) then it is said to him look, that was your abode in Jahannam which was changed by Allaah and now this is your abode in Jannah. Subsequently, the person is shown both these abodes. And when this question is posed to a disbeliever and hypocrite that what do you say regarding this person (Muhammad ﷺ), then he replies that I do not know anything, whatever the others (the believers) used to say, I used to say the same thing. (When the disbeliever and hypocrite cannot give the correct reply) then it is said to him that you did not know and recognise through your intelligence nor did you recite the Qur’aan. Then he is hit with an iron mace and he screams loud in this way that all the things close by besides Jinn and men hear it (the screams).” [Bukhari, Muslim]
People are shown their real abode morning and evening

"عن عبدالله بن عمر رضي الله عنهما أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال:" إن أحدكم إذا مات عرض عليه مقعده بالغداة والعشي إن كان من أهل الجنة فمن أهل الجنة وإن كان من أهل النار فمن أهل النار فيقال هذا مقعده حتى يبعثك الله يوم القيامة " (متفق عليه)

121. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ, “When one of you dies, then (in the Barzakh) he is shown morning and evening his (original and eternal) abode. If he was a dweller of Jannah, then the dwelling of the Jannah dwellers and if he is a dweller of Jahannam then the dwelling of the Jahannam dwellers (is shown to him). Then it is said to them that this was your original abode (remain waiting for it) until the Day of Qiyaamat when Allaah ﷺ will lift you (from this temporary abode) and make you reach there.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The punishment of the grave is true

 وعن عائشة رضي الله عنها أن يهودية دخلت عليها فذكرت عذاب القبر فقالت لها أعاذك الله من عذاب القبر فسألت عائشة رضي الله عنها رساسل الله صلى الله عليه وسلم عن عذاب القبر فقال : "نعم عذاب القبر قالت عائشة رضي الله عنها فما رأيت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم بعد صلى صلاة إلا تعود من عذاب القبر " (متفق عليه)
122. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that one day a Jewish woman came to her and mentioned the punishment of the grave. The woman then said to Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha, “O Ayesha, May Allaah save you from the punishment of the grave.” After this Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha asked Rasulullaah ﷺ about the punishment of the grave (that will there be punishment in the grave?) So Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes, the punishment of the grave is true.” Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha says that after this I did not see Rasulullaah ﷺ performing any Salaah, except that after that (in Du’aa’) he sought protection from the punishment of the grave.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Seek protection from the punishment of the grave and of Jahannam

123. Hadhrat Zayd bin Thaabit  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ was mounted on his donkey, passing the garden of Banu Najjaar and we – a few companions – were with him and suddenly his donkey jerked, in this way it jerked that it could throw Rasulullaah ﷺ off. Then there were five or six graves seen and (indicating towards those graves) Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, “Does anyone know these graves?” One person said that yes, I know them. Rasulullaah ﷺ asked that when did they die? (i.e. in the condition of kufr and shirk did they die or in the condition of Imaan?) The same person replied that in the condition of Shirk. (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In reality, they are being tested in their graves” (i.e. they are being punished in the grave) and if I did not have this fear that you will stop burying (your deceased) then I would have made Du’aa’ to Allaah that He should let you hear the sounds (from within the grave) that I am made to hear.” After this, Rasulullaah ﷺ turned to us and said, “Seek protection with Allaah from the punishment of the fire.” The companions said, and “We seek protection with Allaah from the punishment of the fire.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, “Seek protection with Allaah from the punishment of the grave.” The companions said, “We seek protection with Allaah from the punishment of the grave.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, “Seek protection with Allaah from the clear trials and those that are hidden” (i.e. seek protection with Allaah from the sins of the body and the sins of the heart).” The companions said, “We seek protection with Allaah from apparent and hidden sins.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, “Seek protection with Allaah from the trial of Dajjaal.” The companions said, “We seek protection with Allaah from the trial of Dajjaal.” [Muslim]
Detail of the comfort and the punishment in the grave

عن أبي هريرة قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إذا قبر الميت أتاه ملكان أسودان أزرقين يقال لأحدهما المنكر والآخر النكير فيقولان ما كنت تقول في هذا الرجل فيقول ما كان يعلم أنك تقول هذا ثم يفسح له في قبره سبعون ذراعاً في سبعين ثم ينور له فيه ثم يقال له نم فيقول أرجع إلى أهلي وسأخبرهم به ما كنت أقول. (وهم) وبهوه في النار لا يذكرون إلا أحب أهله إليه حتى يبعثه الله من مسجعه ذلك وإن كان منافقاً. قال: سمعت الناس يقولون: "كنا نعلم أنك تقول ذلك" ثم يسألانه مكة تئميم عليه فتلتئم عليه فتجتمع أضلاعه فلا يزال فيها معذباً حتى يبعثه الله من مسجعه ذلك". رواه الترمذي

124. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah  ﷺ said, "When the deceased is placed in the grave, then two angels that have blue eyes come to him. One is called Munkar and the other Nakeer. Both angels then ask that what did you say (in the world) regarding this person (Muhammad  ﷺ)? If the person was a believer, then he replies that there is no deity but Allaah and Muhammad  ﷺ is the servant and Rasul-messenger of Allaah. (Hearing this) the angel says, "We knew that you would say that and this (grave) is enlightened for him. Then it is said to him that sleep in joy in this place of dreams. (Hearing this) he says, "(Give me permission to) go back to my household and inform them." (Hearing this) the angel says, (No, there is no need for this) you should just sleep like a groom who only his most beloved awakens him (and) until the time (sleep) until Allaah  ﷺ awakens you from this place of dreams. If the deceased was a hypocrite, then he replies that I used to hear what other people say about this person, I said the same thing. (Besides This) I do not know anything. (Hearing this) the angels say, “We knew that you would say this. After this the land is commanded to close in upon the deceased. Subsequently, the land comes over him in this way (i.e. it pushes and squeezes him) that the ribs of right pierce the ribs of the left and the ribs of the left pierce the ribs of the right. In this way he is continuously punished until Allaah opens the place (on the Day of Qiyaamah).”

125. Hadhrat Baraa’ bin ‘Aazib  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In the grave (Barzakh), two angels come to the deceased and sit him up and ask, tell us, who is your Rabb? In reply, the (believing deceased) says, “My Rabb is Allaah.” The angel then asks, “What is your Deen?” In reply he says, “My Deen is Islaam.” The angel then asks, Tell us, who is this person who was sent amongst you? In reply he says, “This is the Rasul of Allaah.” Upon this the angel asks, “Who told you this?” he says that I read the book of Allaah, believed in it and took it to be the truth. (It is quite apparent that the person who believes in the book of Allaah, he believes in the Rasul of Allaah). This is the meaning of the statement of Allaah, ‘those people who believe, Allaah keeps them firm upon the firm word (Kalimah Shahada).’” Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, “(When the believer is successful in the questioning of the grave, then) a caller (i.e. Allaah ﷺ himself or an angel by His command) sounds this call from the heavens that this is my truthful servant, therefore for him (in this grave) spread a bed of Jannah for him, dress him in the clothing of Jannah and open a door to Jannah for him. Subsequently, for him (in the grave), a door to Jannah is opened.” And Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Then the winds and sweet smell of Jannah comes to this (believer) and the grave is expanded for him as far as the eye can see. Regarding a disbeliever, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Then his soul is returned to his body and two angels come to him, sit him up and ask him that who is you Rabb? The disbeliever says, “Oh, Oh, I do not know.” The angels then ask, “Tell us, what your Deen is?” he replies, “Oh, Oh, I do not know.” The angel then asks, “Tell us who is this person who was sent amongst you?” He replies, “Oh, Oh, I do not know. Then a caller announces from the heavens that this is a liar, spread a bed of fire for him, clothe him in fire and open a door to Jahannam for him. Subsequently, a door to Jahannam is opened up for him through which hot, scorching winds come to this (disbeliever).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Then his grave is made narrow for him until his ribs (from both sides) pierce each other. Then a blind and deaf angel is set upon him that has a mace of iron, if a mountain is hit using it, it will be reduced to dust. This angel hits the disbeliever in this way that the sound of the hit (and the screaming of the disbeliever) is heard by everything in the east and west besides man and jinn and (the disbeliever, through the hit of the mace) is turned to a pile of dust and then his soul is returned to his body.” [Ahmad, Abu Dawood]

The first stage of Aakhirat

وعن عثمان رضي الله عنه أنه إذا وقف على قبر بكى حتى يبل لحيته فقيل له تذكر الجنة والنار فلا تبكي وتبكي من هذا فقال إن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "إن القبر أول منزل من منازل الآخرة فإن نجا منه فما بعده أيسر منه وإن لم ينج منه فما بعده أشد منه قال وقيل رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ما رأيت منظرا قط إلا القبر أفظع منه " . رواه الترمذي وابن ماجه . وقال الترمذي هذا حديث غريب

126. It is narrated regarding Hadhrat Uthmaan .. that when he stood by a grave, then he used to weep abundantly to the extent that (through his tears) his beard would become wet. Someone said to him, “You do not cry when Jannah and Jahannam are mentioned, but here (at the grave of someone) you begin to cry (what is the reason?) Hadhrat Uthmaan .. replied, “The reality is that I heard Rasulullah ﷺ saying that the grave is the first stage of the Aakhirat. The person who passes this stage successfully, the rest of the stages thereafter will be easy and the one who is caught in this stage then the stages that come later will be much more difficult.” Hadhrat Uthmaan .. said that Rasulullah ﷺ also said, “I have never seen a more difficult and fearful sight than the grave.” [Tirmidhi]
Du’aa of steadfastness for the deceased after burying the deceased

وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ: كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلِّي اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا فَرَغَ مِنْ دَفِنَ الْمِيْتِ وَقَفَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ: "أَسْتَغْفِرُوهُ لِأَخِيِّكُمْ ثُمَّ سَلُوا لَهُ بِالْعُثْمَانِ فَإِنَّهُ الْآنُ يُسَأَلُ". رَوَاهُ ابْنُ دَاوُد

127. Hadhrat Uthmaan  narrates that it was the practice of Rasulullaah  that when he completed the burial of a deceased, then he remained by him (at the grave) for a little while and said (to those present) that seek forgiveness for your brother and make Du’aa’ that he remains firm because he is being questioned at this time.” [Abu Dawood]

How poisonous are the serpents of the grave?

عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدِ الْخَدَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم: "يَسَلُّطُ عَلَى الْكَافِرِ فِي قَبْرِهِ تَسَعِينَ تَنْنِينٍ تَنَاهِسُهُ وَتَلْدَغُهُ حَتَّى تَقُومَ السَّاعَةُ وَلَوْ أَنْ تَنَينًا مِّنْهَا نَفَخْ فِي الأَرْضِ مَا أَنْبَثَتْ خَضْرًا". رَوَاهُ الْدَارَمِيُّ وَرَوَى الْتَرْمِذِيُّ حَتَّى "وَقَالَ: "سِبْعِينَ بَدْلٌ تَسَعِينَ وَتَسَعِينَ".

128. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Undoubtedly there are 99 serpents set upon the grave of the disbeliever (in Barzakh) that bite him and sting him until the Day of Qiyaamat. If one of them has to spit on earth, the earth will lose its ability to grow vegetation.” [Daarimi]

The grave also squeezes the pious

عن جابر بن عبد الله قال: خرجنا مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إلى سعد بن معاذ حين توفي قال فلما صلى عليه رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ووضع في قبره وسوي عليه سبح رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فسبحنا طويلا ثم كبر فكبرنا فقيل يا رسول الله لم سبحت ثم كبرت قال: "لقد تضايق على هذا عبد الصالح قبره حتى فرجه الله عز وجل عنه". رواه أحمد

129. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Sa’d bin Mu’aadh  passed away so we went with Rasulullaah  to participate in the Janaazah. When Rasulullaah  and (us all) completed with the Janaazah Salaah, and lowered his body into the grave and made the sand of the grave level, then Rasulullaah  recited Tasbeeh (i.e. he said Subhaanallaah, Subhaanallaah). Subsequently, we all recited Tasbeeh for some time. Then Rasulullaah  recited Takbeer (i.e. Allaahu Akbar, Allaahu Akbar) so we all recited Takbeer. We then asked Rasulullaah  that on this occasion why did you first recite Tasbeeh and then Takbeer? Rasulullaah  said, “In reality, the grave became straitened for this pious person, then Allaah  (through the blessings of our Tasbeeh and Takbeer) made the grave wide.” [Ahmad]

130. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “This (Sa’d bin Mu’aadh) is the person upon whose (death) the throne shook (i.e. the creation around the throne made their happiness apparent upon the coming of the pure soul of Sa’đ), the doors of the heaven were opened and 70000 angels participated in his Janāzah and (despite this) (the grave) pressed him once then (through the blessings of Tasbeeh and Takbeer) he was given salvation from this difficulty.” [Nasā’ī]

The trial of the grave is like the trial of Dajjaal

عن أسماء بنت أبي بكر رضي الله عنها تقول قام رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم خطيبا فذكر فتنة القبر التي يفتتن فيها المرء فلما ذكر ذلك ضج المسلمون ضجة . رواه البخاري هكذا وزاد النسائي : حالت بيني وبين أن أفهم كلام رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فلما سكنت ضجتهم قلت لرجل قريب مني : أي بارك الله فيك ماذا قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في آخر قوله ؟ قال : "قد أوحي إلي أنكم تفتتون في القبور قريبا من فتنة الدجال "

131. Hadhrat Asma bint Abu Bakr radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ stood up to deliver a sermon so he mentioned the fitnāhs of the grave (the test and exam) in which a person is put through. Subsequently, when he mentioned (the details of the trial and test, i.e. the difficulty of the grave and the punishment) then all the Muslims screamed and cried (out of fear and dread). [This has been narrated by Bukhari but Nasa’ī narrates the following words of Hadhrat Asma radhiyallaahu anha as well, ] “This condition (of the Muslims screaming and crying) was a barrier in me hearing the talk of Rasulullaah ﷺ. When the sound of their screaming and crying stopped, then I asked the person close to me, ‘O person, may Allaah grant you blessings in your (knowledge and tolerance). Please tell me what Rasulullaah ﷺ said at the end of his sermon. Subsequently the person said that he ﷺ said, “Revelation has come upon me that the trial and test and exam you will be put through in your graves is very similar to the trial of Dajjaal.”

133. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṣahib narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a deceased is placed into the grave then the person (who was a pious and obedient believer) gets up and sits in his grave in such a way that he has no fear, no worry and no concern. Then when he is questioned that tells us, which Deen-religion were you upon? Then in reply (with great ease) he says, “I was on Islaam.” Then he is asked, tell me, who is this person? Then he replies, ‘This is the Rasul of Allaah, Muhammad ﷺ who came to us from Allaah with the clear proofs (of his Risalaat-messenger ship and Shari’ah), then we believed him (and had Imaan in him) then he is asked, ‘Have you seen Allaah?’ he says in reply, ‘Is it possible for anyone to see Allaah?’ then (in the grave) an opening is made towards Jahannam. Subsequently, he looks towards Jahannam that one part of it is breaking the other (i.e. the fire coming up swallows the other flames), then it is said to him, look, this is the place from which Allaah saved you. Then for him (in the grave) an opening is made towards Jannah. Subsequently, he sees the blessings of Jannah. Then it is said to him, look, this is your (eternal) abode. On account of the conviction and faith you were upon (in the world), your death came upon it and Allaah willing you will be raised (on the Day of Qiyaamat). And an evil person gets up and sits in his grave, then he is in a very fearful condition of worry and concern. When he is questioned that upon which Deen-religion were you, then he says, ‘I do not know.’ Then he is asked that who is this person? He says, ‘Whatever the people used to say, I said that.’ Then, for him (in the grave) an enlightened opening towards Jannah is opened through which he sees the greenery and the other blessings there, then it is said to him, look, this is the place from which Allaah took you away, then for him (in the grave) a window towards Jahannam is opened through which he sees that one part of it is breaking the other. Then it is said to him that this is your abode. Based on the doubt he was involved in, in this condition of doubt your death came and Allaah willing in this condition you will be raised (on the Day of Qiyaamat).” [Ibn Maajah]

Holding firm to the Qur’aan and Sunnah

Contempt for innovation (Bid’ah)

عن عائشة قالت : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من أحدث في أمرنا هذا ما ليس منه فهو رد " ( متفق عليه )
134. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who innovates something in our Deen that has no relationship with this Deen, it is rejected.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Emphasis upon holding firm to the Qur’aan and Sunnah and refraining from innovation

وعن جابر قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " أما بعد فإن خير الحديث كتاب الله وخير الهدي هدي محمد وشر الأمور محدثاتها وكل بدعة ضلاله " . رواه مسلم

135. Hadhrat Jaabir  nào расулуллаху анх и narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ (delivered a sermon before us one day and after praising Allaah in it) said, “Indeed the best speech is the speech of Allaah (the Qur’aan) and the best path is the path of Muhammad ﷺ and the worst action (in Deen) is innovation (called Bid’ah) and every Bid’ah is deviation.” [Muslim]

Three people are greatly despised

وعن ابن عباس قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " أبغض الناس إلى الله ثلاثة ملحد في الحرم وميت في الإسلام سنة الجاهلية ومطلب دم امرئه بغير حق ليهريق دمه " رواه البخاري

136. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  nào расулуллаху анх и narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The most despised people by Allaah are three; one who is not straight in the limits of Allaah, one who seeks the ways of ignorance in Islaam and one who is after the blood of a Muslim unlawfully in order to shed his blood.” [Bukhari]

The obstinate one will be deprived of Jannah

وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " كل أمتي يدخلون الجنة إلا من أبي . قيل : ومن أبي ؟ قال : من أطاعني دخل الجنة ومن عصاني فقد أبي " رواه البخاري

137. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “My entire Ummah will go to Jannah except the one who did not accept and rejected.” It was asked, “Who did not accept and rejected?” Rasulullaah  said, “The one who obeyed me and followed will be entered into Jannah and the one who disobeyed, in reality, he did not accept and rejected.” [Bukhari]

The example of Rasulullaah 

عن جابر بن عبدالله يقول جاءت ملائكة إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم وهو نائم فقال بعضهم إنه نائم وقال بعضهم إن العين نائمة والقلب يقظان فقالوا إن لصاحبك هذا مثلا فاضربوا له مثلا فقال بعضهم إنه نائم وقال بعضهم إن العين نائمة والقلب يقظان فقالوا كلمته كمثل رجل بنى دارا وجعل فيها مأدبة وبعث داعيا فمن أجاب الداعي دخل الدار وأكل من المأدبة ومن لم يجب الداعي لم يدخل الدار ولم يأكل من المأدبة فقالوا أولوها له يفقيقه فقال بعضهم إنه نائم وقال بعضهم إن العين نائمة والقلب يقظان فقالوا فالمدار الجنة والداعي محمد صلى الله عليه وسلم فمن أطاع محمد صلى الله عليه وسلم فقد أطاع الله ومن عصى محمد صلى الله عليه وسلم فقد عصى الله ومحمد صلى الله عليه وسلم فرق بين الناس . رواه البخاري

138. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that (one day) a few angels came to Rasulullaah  when he was sleeping. The angels spoke amongst themselves that an example fits your companion (Rasulullaah ﷺ). Tell him (Rasulullaah ﷺ) the example as well. Some angels said that he is sleeping (What is the benefit of mentioning the example in this case?) However, some angels said, “Indeed his eyes are sleeping but his heart is awake.” Then the angels began to say, “His (Rasulullaah ﷺ) example is like a person built a house and chose a food cloth in it. Then he (in order to call people to partake) sent a caller. So the one who accepted the caller as true entered the house and will eat the food and the one who did not believe in the caller, he will not enter the house, nor will he be able to eat food.” (After explaining this example) the angels said to one another, “Now, this example has to be clarified so that (Muhammad ﷺ) can understand it. Some angels said he is sleeping but other angels said, “Indeed his eyes sleep but his heart is awake.” Then the angels clarified that (in this example) the house is Jannah, the builder of the house refers to the being of Allaah, eating refers to the blessings of Jannah and the caller refers to Muhammad ﷺ. So, he who obeyed Muhammad ﷺ, in reality he has obeyed Allaah and he who disobeyed Muhammad ﷺ has in reality disobeyed Allaah. Indeed Muhammad ﷺ is one who separates (i.e. between a disbeliever and believer, between truth and falsehood, between the pious and sinners).”

[Bukhari]

The end result of turning away from the Sunnah

عن آنس بن مالك رضي الله عنه يقول جاء ثلاثة رهط إلى بيوت أزواج النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم يسألون عن عبادة النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فلما أخبروا كأنهم تقالوها فقالوا: ما الحال من النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قد غفر له ما تقدم من ذنبه وما تأخر قال أحدهم: أنا أصلي الليل أبداً، وقال آخر: أنا أصوم الدهر ولا أفطر، وقال آخر: أنا أعتزل النساء فلا أتزوج أبداً فجاء رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إليهم فقال: "أنتم الذين قلتم كذاك وكداك أبداً، وأنا والله إني لأخشىكم الله" [169]
139. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that (one day) three people came to the pure wives of Rasulullah ﷺ with the objective of enquiring about the condition of the worship of Rasulullah ﷺ. When they were told of his worship, then it was as though they thought theirs was little. They said amongst themselves that what is our standing compared to Rasulullah ﷺ? Allaah has forgiven his past and future sins. Then one of them said that I shall perform Salaah through the night forever, the second person said that I shall always fast and never (make Iftaar), the third said that I shall remain away from women and never marry. Then Rasulullah ﷺ came to them and said, “Did you people say this? Listen well, I fear Allaah more than you, and I refrain more than you but I fast and make Iftaar, I perform Salaah (at night) and I also sleep and I marry women. (Remember) he who turns away from my way and my Sunnah he is not of me.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Emphasis upon adopting the Sunnah

وعن عائشة رضي الله عنها قالت : صنع رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم شيئا فرخص فيه فتنزه عنه قوم فبلغ ذلك رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم فخطب فحمد الله ثم قال : " ما بال أقوام يتنزهون عن الشيء أصنعه فإني لأعلهم بالله وأشدهم له خشية " ( متفق عليه )

140. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (once) Rasulullah ﷺ did some work and he made it easy for the people regarding it but some people refrained from practicing upon the permission for ease (Rukhsat). When Rasulullaah ﷺ was informed then he delivered a sermon. (Before the sermon) He praised Allaah, then he said, “What has happened to the people who stay away from such a thing that I have chosen. By Allaah, I know (the pleasure and displeasure) of Allaah more than these people and I fear Him the most.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

It is necessary to follow Rasulullaah ﷺ in religious matters

وعن رافع بن خديجة قال: قدم نبي الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وهم يأبرون النخل فقال: "ما تصنعون" قالوا: "لحسن" قال نبي الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إنما أنا بشر" إذا أمرتكم بشيء من طاعتي فخذوا به وإذا أمرتكم بشيء من رأيي، فإنما أنا بشر. رواه مسلم

141. Hadhrat Raafi’ bin Khadeej narrates that when Rasulullaah (migrated from Makkah) and came to Madinah, then (he saw that) the people of Madinah used to make Taabeer in the date trees (they used to place the male flower upon the female flower). Rasulullaah ﷺ asked them, “What are you doing this for?” they replied, “We have always been doing this.” Rasulullaah ﷺ (heard this) and said, “If you do not do this, then it would probably be better for you.” Subsequently, (this year) the people left Taabeer and the fruits (of this year) were less. The narrator says that the people informed Rasulullaah ﷺ of this and he said, “I am also a human being. Therefore, when I command you regarding something of your Deen, then (immediately) adopt it and when (in some worldly matter) I tell you something from my intelligence, then (understand that) I am also a human being.” [Muslim]
The example of the one who believes in Rasulullaah ﷺ and the one who does not

وعن أبي م. و. س. قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إنما مثلي ومثل ما بعثني الله به كمثل رجل آتى قومًا فقال يا قوم إنني رأيت الجيش بعيني ونابي أثب التذير العريق والنجاء فأطاعه طائفة من قومه فأدلجوا فانطلقوا فنجوا وكذبت طائفة منهم فأصبحهم الجيش أهلكهم واجتاحهم فذلك مثل من أطاعني فاتبع ما جاءت به ومثل من عصاني وكذب بما جئت به من الحق " (متفق عليه)

142. Hadhrat Abu Musa Ash’ari ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “My example and the (Deen and Shari’ah) given to me by Allaah, the example of it is like the person that comes to a nation and says, “O the people of my nation, there is no doubt that I saw an army (of your enemy) with my eyes and I am a clear Warner. You people should seek a path of salvation (from the army of the enemy that will attack you at dawn). Seek a path of salvation. Subsequently, some people of the nation accepted and left their homes at night and walking with ease (reached a safe place) and were saved and some people who were the opposite did not accept the talk of (the Warner) and stayed without worry in their homes until morning. Then the moment morning came the army (of the enemy) attacked them and (seeing) they were destroyed and their foundation and basis were torn and thrown away. So this is the example of the one who accepted my talk and followed the Shari’ah brought by me and the example of the one who did not accept my talk and he belied the truth that I brought.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]
 وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إنما مثلي ومثل الناس كمثل رجل استوقد نارا فلما أضاءت ما حوله جعل الفراش وهذه الدواب التي تقع في النار يقعن فيها وجعل يحجزهن ويغلبنها فيقتون فيها فأنى أخذ بحجزكم عن النار وأنتم يقتومون فيها. " هذه رواية البخاري ولمسلم نحوها وقال في آخرها: " فذلك مثلي ومثلكم أنا أخذ بحجزكم عن النار: هلم عن النار هلم عن النار فتغلبيوني تقتومون فيها" (متفق عليه).

143. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullah said, “My example is like the person who lit a fire and when the fire lit the surrounding area, then moths and insects that fall into the fire began falling in. On this side, the person who lit the fire began stopping them but they overpowered him and (despite stopping them) they fell into the fire. So (understand my condition in the same way), I am holding your waists (and making full effort not to let you fall into the fire) but you are falling into the fire.” [This is the narration of Bukhāri and Muslim has narrated a similar narration, but the last words of the narration of Muslim are, Rasulullah said, “So this is your and my example that I am holding your waists in order to save you from the fire and I am saying that come to me, beware of the fire, come to me, beware of the fire, but you are surrounding me and are falling into the fire.”] [Bukhari, Muslim]
The example of knowledge and guidance

Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whatever form of guidance and knowledge Allaah gave me and sent me to the world, its example is like abundant rain that falls on the earth. Subsequently, the piece of earth that is good accepted the water (i.e. it absorbed it), then it grew abundant grass and crops. And the part of the earth that is hard, it stopped the rain water through which Allaah granted benefit to the people in this way that the water served for their needs of drinking and irrigation. In addition, (the rain water) also fell on such a piece of land that was a flat barren land. Subsequently, it did not stop water nor did it grow grass and crops. So, (from this) the example of the person who understood the Deen-religion of Allaah and this knowledge and guidance benefitted him that (which) Allaah gave me and sent me with. Subsequently, this person learnt the (Book and the Sunnah) on his own and taught it to others and it is also the example of the one who (adopted pride and rejection) and did not lift his head to the (Book and Sunnah) to look at it and he did not accept the guidance of Allaah which He gave to me and sent me with.”

[Al-Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm
Emphasis to stay away from deviated people

وعن عائشة قالت: تلا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم (هو الذي أنزل عليك الكتاب منه آيات محكمات) وقرأ إلى: (ومن يذكر إلا أولو الألباب) قالت: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إذا رأيت وعند من يتبعون ما تشبهه فإولا أولئك الذين سماهم الله فاحذرواهم" (متفق عليه).

145. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (once) Rasulullaah ﷺ recited the verse (هو الذي أنزل عليك الكتاب منه آيات محكمات) and he recited until the last part (وما يذكر إلا أولو الألباب). Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha says that Rasulullaah ﷺ (after reciting this verse) said, “When you see the people behind the Mutashaabih verses of the Qur’aan then (understand that) these are the people whom Allaah has named. Therefore, beware of them.

[Bukhari, Muslim]

An important cause of destruction

 وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال: هجرت إلى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يوماً قال: فسمع أصوات رجلين اختلفا في آية فخرج علينا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يعرف في وجهه الغضب فقال: "إنما هلك من كان قبلكم باختلافهم في الكتاب". رواه مسلم.

146. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr .. narrates that one day during the afternoon I went to Rasulullaah ﷺ. (At that time) Rasulullaah ﷺ heard the voices of two people that had a difference of opinion regarding a (Mutashaabih) verse. (i.e. they had a difference of opinion about specifying the meaning of the verse). Rasulullaah ﷺ came amongst us (and at the time) the signs of anger were apparent on his face. He then said, “The people before you were destroyed on account of differences in the book of Allaah. [Muslim]

Who is the greatest criminal?

وعن سعد بن أبي وقاص قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إن أعظم المسلمين في لامسلمين جرما من سأل عن شيء لم يحرم على الناس فحرم من أجل مسألته " (متفق عليه)

147. Hadhrat Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Amongst the Muslims, the greatest sinner and criminal is the Muslim who asks regarding something that has not been forbidden for the people, then it becomes forbidden on account of his questioning.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Stay away from those who narrate fabricated Ahadith

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "يكون في آخر الزمان دجالون كذابون يأتونكم بما لم تسمعوا أنتم ولا آباؤكم فإياكم وإياهم لا يضلونكم ولا يفتنونكم " . رواه مسلم

148. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In the end times, liars and tricksters will come to you with speech labelled as Ahadith which you did not hear, nor did your forefathers hear it. Beware of them and keep yourselves far away from them so that they do not lead you astray and they do not put you into fitnah.” [Muslim]

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : كان أهل الكتاب يقرؤون التوراة بالعبرانية ويفسرونها باللغة العربية لأهل الإسلام . فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " لا تصدروا أهل الكتاب ولا تكذبوهم و ( قولوا آمنا بالله وما أنزل إلينا " الآية . رواه البخاري

149. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah   narrates that the people of the book, i.e. the Jews (with their divine book) the Tauraat and they used to recite it in Hebrew (the language of their religion) and they used to explain the Arabic translation of it in front of the Muslims. Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ (looking at their action said to the Sahabah ), “Do not verify the people of the book nor belie them, but say that we believe in Allaah and in that which was revealed upon us and also in that which was revealed upon Hadhrat Ibraheem, Hadhrat Ismaa’eel, Hadhrat Is’haaq, Hadhrat Ya’qub and the progeny of Ya’qub and also in that which was given to Hadhrat Moosa and Hadhrat ‘Isa and also in that which was given to the Ambiyaa’ from their Rabb and we do not differentiate between any of them and we obey Allaah ﷺ.”

[Bukhari]
Do not narrate anything without verification

“وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "كفى بالمرء كذبا أن يحدث بكل ما سمع". رواه مسلم

150. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is sufficient for a person to be called a liar that he narrates whatever he hears (without verification).” [Muslim]

Strive to bring the disobedient ones onto the straight path

“وعن عبد الله بن مسعود أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : "ما من نبي بعثه الله في أمة قبلي إلا كان له من أمته حواريون وأصحاب يأخذون بسنته ويقتدون بأمره ثم إنها تخلف من بعدهم خلف يقولون ما لا يفعلون ويفعلون ما لا يؤمنون فمن جاهدهم بيده فهو مؤمن ومن جاهدهم بلسانه فهو مؤمن ومن جاهدهم بقلبه فهو مؤمن وليس وراء ذلك من الإيمان حبة خردل". رواه مسلم

151. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whichever Nabi Allaah sent before me, amongst whichever nation, there were a few people who were his helpers and companions who used to adopt the way and the example of that (Nabi) and they used to follow his commands. Then, after those (helpers and companions) passed away such unworthy disciples began to come that they used to say such things to people that they did not practise upon themselves and they used to command such things whose order was not found. So (in this Ummah as well such unworthy people will come about), the one who wages Jihaad against them with his hand is a believer and the one who wages Jihaad against them with his tongue is a believer and the one who wages Jihaad against them with his heart is a believer and beyond this, there is no faith equal to a mustard seed.” [Muslim]

The reward for the one who calls towards guidance and the sin of the one who calls towards deviation

وعن أبي هريرة أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : "من دعا إلى هدى كان له من الأجر مثل أجور من تبعه لا ينقص ذلك من أجورهم شيئا ومن دعا إلى ضلاله كان عليه من الإثم مثل آثام من تبعه لا ينقص ذلك من آثامهم شيئا " . رواه مسلم

152. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ٽ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who calls towards guidance and the right way, he gets so much reward equal to that received by the people who followed him and there will not be the slightest decrease in the reward of those people and the one who called towards deviation, he gets so much sin equal to those who followed him and there will be no decrease in the sin of those people in the least.” [Muslim]
Glad tidings for those who practise upon the Qur’aan and Sunnah in the latter times

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " بدأ الإسلام غريبا وسيعود كما بدأ فطوبى للغرباء " . رواه مسلم

153. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Islaam began as strange and it will return like how it was. So glad tidings be for the strange ones (for those who practise upon the Qur’aan and Sunnah).”

[Muslim]

In the end times, Deen will move to Madinah

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن الإيمان ليأرز إلى المدينة كما تأرز الحيية إلى جحرها " ( متفق عليه )

154. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Indeed Imaan will slither –go back-towards Madinah like a snake slithers into its hole.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The example of the one who calls towards Deen

عن ربيعة الجرشي يقول أتى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال : " لا تنظر إلي بعيناك ولا تسمع إلا قلبي قال فنامت عيناه وسمع تعنيه وعقل قلبي قال فنذك الله الذي أنت وأرسل داعيًا فصنع مأدبة ولم يدخل الدار ولم يعط من المأكولات وسرعان ما جاء إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال : " ادخل الدار، إنك أرسلت داعيًا، والله الذي أنت أرسلت داعيًا."
155. Hadhrat Rabi’ah Jurashi  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was shown (in a dream) that someone is saying to him that your eyes are asleep, your ears listen and your heart understands (i.e. do not look here and there. Listen properly and understand). Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “My eyes sleep, my ears have heard and my heart has understood.” (i.e. I have obeyed the command). Then Rasulullaah ﷺ explained that in front of me, as an example, it was mentioned that an owner built a house. Then he laid the food cloth and sent a caller (in order to call the people to partake of the food). So the one who accepted the talk of the caller came into the house and partook of the food and the owner became happy at this. However, the one who did not accept the speech of the caller, he did not enter the house nor did he partake of the food. Upon this the owner became angry.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “So, (in this example) the owner refers to Allaah ﷻ, the caller refers to Muhammad ﷺ, the house refers to Islaam and the food cloth refers to Jannah.”

[Daarimi]

Emphasis upon practising upon the laws of Rasulullaah ﷺ

وعن أبي رافع وغيره رفعه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " لا ألفين أحدكم متكننا على أريكته يأتهه أمر ماما أمرت به أو نهيت عنه فيقول لا أدرى ما وجدنا في كتاب الله اتبعناه ". رواه أحمد وأبو داود والترمذي وابن ماجه والبيهقي في دلائل النبوة . وقال الترمذي حسن صحيح

156. Hadhrat Abu Raafi’  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I should not find any of you in the condition that he sits laying on his bed against a pillow and a command from my commands come before him that I commanded should be done or something that I forbade and upon it he says that I do not know of it, I only accept that which I find in the book of Allaah.” [Ahmad, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

157. Hadhrat Miqdaam bin Ma’dikarib .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Know well, I was given the Qur’aan and something like it with it. Know well, (the time) is close that (when) a person with a filled belly upon his bed (i.e. lying against his pillow or sitting on his chair without worry) will be sitting and saying that take this Qur’aan as necessary for yourself (i.e. only take the Qur’aan as Deen-religion) and whatever you find permitted in it, take it to be permitted and whatever you find as forbidden, take it as forbidden, when the reality is that whatever the Rasul of Allaah ﷺ has forbidden it is also (forbidden) like that (forbidden) by Allaah. Know well, donkey is not permitted for you and predators with claws are not permitted for you. The lost item of one who took a promise is not permitted except when the owner does not worry about it. And (listen) when a person comes to a nation then it is necessary upon the people (of that nation) to host the person and if they do not host him, then it is his right to take from them the amount of his hosting.”

[Abu Dawud]

mmm

وعن العرباض بن سارية قال : قام رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال :
"أيحسب أحدكم متكأ على أريكته يظن أن الله لم يحرم شيئا إلا ما في هذا القرآن ألا وإنى والله قد أمرت ووعظت ونهيت عن أشياء إنها لمثل القرآن أو أكثر وإن الله لم يحل لكم أن تدخلوا بيوت أهل الكتاب إلا بإذن ولا ضرب نسائهم ولا أكل ثمارهم إذا أعطوكم الذي عليهم " رواه أبو داود وفي إسناده : أشعث بن شعبة المصيصي قد تكلم فيه

158. Hadhrat ‘Irbaadh bin Saariyah narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ (one day) stood up and said in a sermon, “Is any of you leaning on his pillow (resting) with the thought that whatever Allaah has forbidden, they are only the things mentioned in the Qur’aan? Beware, by Allaah, whatever I have commanded and whatever advises I have given and whatever I have forbidden, they are in the Qur’aan, in fact, there are more. Verily Allaah has not permitted you to enter the homes of the people of the book until you do not get permission, he has not permitted you to hit their women nor is it permitted to eat their fruit when they give you that which is upon them.” (This means that do not trouble the people of the book, i.e. the Jews and Christians such that you enter their homes without permission or harm their wealth and possessions as long as they give you Jizya). [Abu Dawud]

Hold firm to the Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ and the rightly guided khulafaa’

159. Hadhrat ‘Irbaadh bin Saariyah ﷺ narrates that one day Rasulullaah ﷺ led us in Salaah and (after completing Salaah) he turned and sat facing us, he then gave us such great and eloquent advises that through its (effect), the eyes were tearing and the hearts were shaking. At that time a person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, this is such advice like that of a person who is departing (that he strives to say his last words when departing very effectively and with complete comprehensiveness so that nothing is left). Therefore, (we felt that he is soon going to leave the world, therefore my request that) you give us (such a) bequest (that will serve for our success in this world and in the Aakhirat), so Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I bequest you to fear Allaah and to obey (the ruler and leader of the Muslims) even thought he (the leader or ruler) may be an Abyssinian slave. Undoubtedly, those who live after me they will soon see differences (created amongst the Muslims). (I give you special advice that at that time) hold firm to my Sunnah and the way of my rightly guided khulafaa’. Trust in it and hold it firmly with your teeth. Also, stay away from the new (things created in Deen) because every new thing is Bid’ah and every Bid’ah is deviation.”

[Ahmad, Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah, Tirmidhi]
Move upon the straight path

رواه أحمد والنسائي والدارمي

160. Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas‘ood .. narrates that (one day) Rasulullah ﷺ (in order to explain to us) drew a straight line (on the ground) and said, “This is the path of Allaah.” Then Rasulullah ﷺ drew seven (straight and crooked) lines on the right and left of the straight line and said, “These are also paths, upon each one Shaytaan (is standing) and he is calling (people) to them.” He then recited this verse to the end...(" إن هذا صراطي مستقيما فاتبعوه.")

[Ahmad, Nasa‘i, Daarimi]

Recognition of a complete believer

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "لا يؤمن أحدكم حتى يكون هواه تبعا لما جئت به " رواه في شرح السنة وقال النووي في أربعينه: هذا حديث صحيح رويناه في كتاب الحجة بإسناد صحيح.

161. Hadhrat Abdullah bin Amr .. narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “None of you can be (a complete) believer until his desires are not in conformance with the (Deen-religion and Shari’ah) that I have brought (from Allaah).” [Sharh us Sunnah]
The reward for enlivening a Sunnah and the sin for initiating an innovation

وعن بلال بن الحارث المزني قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من أحيا سنة من سنةي قد أميت بعدي فإن له من الأجر مثل أجور من عمل بها من غير أن ينقص من أجورهم شيئا ومن ابتدع بدعة ضلالة لا يرضيا الله ورسوله كان عليه من الأثم مثل آثام من عمل بها لا ينقص من أوزارهم شيئا". رواه الترمذي

162. Hadhrat Bilaal bin Haarith Muzani .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who enlivens my Sunnah (i.e. he brings it into vogue and spreads it) that is abandoned after me, then definitely he will get so much reward equal to those who practise upon the Sunnah (he will get collectively) without the reward (of those who practised upon it) decreasing in the least and he who innovates something deviated that is a cause of the displeasure of Allaah and His Rasul ﷺ then he will get so much sin equal to those who practised upon that innovation (collectively) without the sin of any of them decreasing in the least.” [Tirmidhi]

The reward for correcting the spoilt

وعن عمرو بن عوف قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "إن الدين ليأتز إلى الحجاز كما تأتز الحياة إلى جحرها وليعتقل الدين من الحجاز معقل الأروية من رأس الجبل إن الدين بدأ غريبا وسعود كما بدأ فطوبى للغرباء وهم الذين يصلحوه ما أفسد الناس من بعدي من سننتي". رواه الترمذي

163. Hadhrat Amr bin Auf .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed (in the latter times) Deen-religion will slither-go back- towards Hijaaaz (Makkah, Madinah and the surrounding area) like a snake slithers towards its hole and Deen-religion will seek protection in Hijaaaz like a goat seeks protection upon the mountaintop. In reality, Deen began strange and (in the Latter times) it will return to how it began. So glad tidings for the strange ones who will correct the spoilt which the people that came later created in my Sunnah.” [Tirmidhi]

Which group of the seventy three will go to Jannah?

وفي رواية أحمد وأبي داود عن معاوية: "ثنتان وسبعون في النار وواحدة في الجنة وهي الجماعة وإنه سيخرج في أمتي أقومي تتجارى بهم تلك الأهواء كما يتجارى الكلب بصاحبه لا يبقى منه عرق ولا مفصل إلا دخله "

164. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ーウ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There is no doubt that upon my Ummah (the time) will come like it came upon the Bani Israa’eeel, in the same way like a shoe is equal to the other shoe to the extent that among them (the Bani Israa’eeel) such a person passed who came (to do evil) openly with his mother, then definitely there will be such a person in my Ummah who will do the same. Indeed the Bani Israa’eeel split into 72 sects and my Ummah will be split into 73 sects. Except for one, all of them will go to Jahannam.” (Hearing this) the Sahabah asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, that one group (which will be saved) which is it?” It was said, “(Those who tread the path and way) upon which I and my companions were.”

[Tirmidhi] In a narration of Ahmad and Abu Dawud it is narrated from Hadhrat Mu’aadh  that “72 sects will go to Jahannam and one will go to Jannah. And this group is the ‘Jama’ah’. It is close that such a group will be created in my Ummah whose (beliefs and actions) have carnal desires (Bid’ah) ingrained in it in such a way like rabies go into the sufferer that no vein and no joint is left in which the rabies did not enter.”

The virtue of the Ummah of Muhammad 

وعن ابن عمر قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن الله لا يجمع أمتي أو قال : أمة محمد على ضلال ويد الله على الجماعة ومن شذ شذ في النار " . . رواه الترمذي

165. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Indeed Allaah  will not gather my Ummah.” Or he said, “The Ummah of Muhammad will not be (unanimous upon) deviation. The hand of Allaah is upon the group and the one who separates from the group (the dwellers of Jannah) he will separate into Jahannam.” [Tirmidhi]

Follow the large group

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " اتبعوا السواد الأعظم فإنه من شذ شذ في النار " . رواه ابن ماجه من حديث أنس

166. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Follow the large group because he who separates (from the group) he is separated (from the group of dwellers of Jannah) and will be thrown into Jahannam.” [Ibn Maajah]

The reward for choosing the Sunnah of Rasulullaah 

وعن أنس قال : قال لي رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " يا بني إن قدرت أن تصبح وتمسي ليس في قلبك غش لأحد فافعل " ثم قال : " يا بني وذلك من سنتي ومن أحيا سنتي فقد أحني ومن أحني كان معي في الجنة " . رواه الترمذي

167. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  told him, “O my son, if you have the ability to pass the morning and the evening (i.e. your every moment) in this way that there is no malice in your heart for anyone, then spend (your entire life) in this way.” He then said, “O my son, and this (i.e. not keeping any malice in ones heart at any moment) is my Sunnah and he who loves and adopts my Sunnah, in reality he has made me a friend and beloved and the one who made me a friend and beloved will be with me in Jannah.”

[Tirmidhi]

The reward for enlivening the Sunnah

" وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من تمسك بسنتي عند فساد أمنتي فله أجر مائة شهيد "

168. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah \( \text{} \) narrates that Rasulullaah \( \text{} \) said, "The person who holds firm to my Sunnah at the time of corruption and trial of my Ummah will get the reward of a hundred martyrs." [Bayhaqi]

There is no shortcoming in the Islaamic Shari’ah

وعن جابر عن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم حين أتاه عمر فقال إنا نسمع أحاديث من يهود تعجبنا أفترى أن نكتب بعضها ؟ فقال : " أمتهوكون أنتم كما تهوكت اليهود والنصارى ؟ لقد جتكم بها بيضاء نفية ولو كان موسى حيا ما وسعه إلا اتباعي " . رواه أحمد والبيهقي في كتاب شعب الإيمان

169. Hadhrat Jaabir \( \text{} \) narrates that (one day) Hadhrat Umar \( \text{} \) came to Rasulullaah \( \text{} \) and said, "We hear religious matters from the Jews that seems good to us, so do you permit us to write some (of it that seems good to us and which we do not find contradictory to our Shari’ah). Rasulullaah \( \text{} \) (hearing this, with contempt) said, “Are you confused like the Jews and Christians (regarding their beliefs and religious laws) are confused.” (Listen well) the Shari’ah I have brought to you is undoubtedly enlightened and clear and if (today) Musa \( \text{} \) was alive, then there would be no choice for him but to follow me.” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

The importance of three things

وعن أبي سعيد الخدري قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " من أكل طيبا وعمل في سنة وأمن الناس بواتقه دخل الجنة فقال رجل يا رسول الله إن هذا اليوم لكثر في الناس قال : " وسيكون في قرون بعدي " . رواه الترمذي
170. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “He who ate pure (sustenance) and practised upon the Sunnah and people are protected from his extremism will go to Jannah.” (Hearing this) a companion said, “O Rasul of Allah, today, this is found in many people.” Rasulullaah  said, “And in the times after me there will also be such people.” [Tirmidhi]

Differences in the reward of the eras of good and evil

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم إنكم في زمان ترك منكم عشر ما أمر به هلك ثم يأتي زمان من عمل منهم بعض ما أمر به نجا . رواه الترمذي

171. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  (addressed the Sahabah ☪) and said, “You people are in such an era that if one of you leave a tenth of this matter which you are commanded, then he will be destroyed. Then such a time will come that if a person from the people of that time has to practice upon a tenth of this matter which he is commanded, he will be granted salvation.” [Tirmidhi]

The ill effect of arguing

 وعن أبي أمامة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم ما ضل قوم بعد هدى كانوا عليه إلا أوتوا الجدل . ثم قرأ رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم هذه الآية : ( ما ضربوه لك إلا جدلا بل هم قوم خصمون ) رواه أحمد والترمذي وابن ماجه

172. Hadhrat Abu Umamah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “No nation was deviated after being guided except that they were accustomed to arguing.” After this Rasulullaah ﷺ recited the verse, ‘They (disbelievers) only explain before you in order to argue, in fact (in reality) they are a nation that argues.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

Do not be stern on yourself

وعن أنس بن مالك أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم كان يقول: لا تشددوا على أنفسكم فشدد الله عليكم فإن قوما شددوا على أنفسهم فشدد الله عليهم فتلك بقایاهم فی الصوامع والديار (رهبانية ابتدعوها ما كتبناها عليهم) روای أبو داود

173. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ used to say, “(Regarding Deen) do not be stern upon yourselves, it should not be that (then) Allaah ﷺ is severe upon you. The reality is that the nation (Bani Israa’eeel) was severe upon themselves so Allaah was also severe upon them. These people in the churches and monasteries are their progeny. They invented monasticism; We did not make it obligatory upon them.” [Tirmidhi]

The summary of the subject matter of the Qur’aan

هذا لفظ المصائب . وروى البيهقي في شعب الإيمان ولفظه : " فاعملوا بالحلال واجتنبوا الحرام واتبعوا المحكم "

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The Qur’aan was revealed upon five subject matters; Halaal, Haraam, Muhkam, Mutashaabih and examples. So take Halaal as Halaal, Haraam as Haraam, practise upon the Muhkam, believe in the Mutashaabih and take lesson from the examples.” [Masaabeeh, Bayhaqi]

The laws of the Shari’ah are of three types

 وعن ابن عباس قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " الأمر ثلاثة : أمر بين رشده فاتبعه وأمر بين غيه فاجتنباه وأمر اختلف فيه فكله إلى الله عز و جل (ﷺ)

رواه أحمد

Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Orders are of three types, one is that the guidance and truthfulness is clear so follow it. Second, that command whose deviation is clear and apparent so stay away. Third, the order in which there is difference of opinion. So, hand it over to Allaah.” [Ahmad]
Shaytaan is a wolf

عن معاذ بن جبل قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن الشيطان ذئب الإنسان كذئب الغنم يأخذ الشاذة والقاصية والناحية و إياكم والشعاب و عليكم بالجماعة والعامة " . رواه أحمد

176. Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The reality is that Shaytaan is the wolf of man. Just like the wolf of the sheep catches the sheep that is away from the flock and single and the one that is away from the flock and at the edge of the flock and stay away from the mountain passes (i.e. do not go into the passes of deviation leaving the main road of Islaam). In addition, make it necessary upon yourself to stay with the group and gathering.” [Ahmad]

Hold firm to the group

 وعن أبيذر قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " من فارق الجماعة شبرا فقد خلع رقة الإسلام من عنقه " . رواه أحمد وأبو داود

177. Hadhrat Abu Dharr  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Whichever person (from the people of truth) separates a hands span (i.e. for a moment), has removed the noose of Islaam from his neck.” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]
Hold firm to the Qur’aan and Sunnah

وعن مالك بن أنس مرسلا قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " تركت فيكم أمرين لن تضلوا ما تمسكتم بهما : كتاب الله وسنة رسوله " . رواه في الموطاً

178. Hadhrat Imam Maalik  narrates in Mursal form that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(O Muslims!) I leave two things with you that as long as you hold firm to them (i.e. you practice upon them punctually) you will never go astray. (one is) the Book of Allaah (Qur’aan) and (second) the Sunnah of the Rasul-messenger of Allaah.” [Muwatta]

The ill effect of initiating innovation

وعن غضيف بن الحارث الثمالي قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " ما أحدث قوم بدعة إلا رفع مثلها من السنة فتمسك بسنة خير من إحداث بدعة " . رواه أحمد

179. Hadhrat Ghudayf bin Haarith Thumali  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whichever nation innovates something, then a Sunnah like it is lifted up. So hold firm to the Sunnah, it is better than innovating actions.” [Ahmad]

180. Hadhrat Hassaan  narrates that whenever a nation or group innovates something in their Deen-religion, then Allaah ر 平安於彼 inclusive of علیه السلام snatches from them that amount of Sunnah and that Sunnah will never return to them until the Day of Qiyaamat.” [Daarimi]

Do not honour an innovator

وعن إبراهيم بن ميسرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من وقر صاحب بدعة فقد أعان على هدم الإسلام " . رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان مرسلا

181. Hadhrat Ibraaheem bin Maysarah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Whoever honours and respects one who begins an innovation or one who practises upon innovation, in reality he has helped in destroying the (building of) Islaam.” [Bayhaqi]

The best way to refrain from deviation

وعن ابن عباس قال : من تعلم كتاب الله ثم اتبع ما فيه هداه الله من الضلالة في الدنيا ووقاه يوم القيامة سوء الحساب وفي رواية قال : من اقتدى بكتاب الله لا يضل في الدنيا ولا يشقي في الآخرة ثم تلا هذه الآية : ( فمن اتبع هداي فلا يضل ولا يشقي )رواه رزين

182. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that the person who attained the knowledge of the Book of Allaah, then whatever is in the Book of Allaah he followed, then Allaah ر 平安於彼 inclusive of علیه السلام will save him from deviation in the world and keep him (firm and [196]} established) on the straight path. He will save him from an evil reckoning on the Day of Qiyaamat. In one narration it states that whoever was obedient and followed the Book of Allaah, he will not be deviated in the world, nor will he be wretched in the Aakhirat, i.e. he will be protected from the punishment in the Aakhirat. After this, Ibn Abbaas  (in proving his speech) recited this verse, ‘the one who followed My guidance (Qur’aan), he (in the world) will not be deviated and in the Aakhirat he will not be wretched’.”

[Razeen]

The example of the straight path

وعن ابن مسعود أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "ضرب الله مثلا صراطا مستقيما وعن جنبتي الصراط سوران فيهما أبواب مفتحة وعلى الأبواب ستور مرخاة وعند رأس الصراط داع يقول: استقيموا على الصراط ولا تعوجوا و فوق ذلك داع يدعو كلما هم عبد أن يفتح شيئا من تلك الأبواب قال: ويحك لا تفتحه فإذك إن تفتحه تلجه " ثم فسره فأخبر: " أن الصراط هو الإسلام وأن الأبواب المفتحة محارم الله وأن الستور المرخاة حدود الله وأن الداعي على رأس الصراط هو القرآن وأن الداعي من فوقه واعظ الله في قلب كل مؤمن ) رواه رزين وأحمد

183. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ (of the path of His Deen-religion) has explained an example in this way that there is a straight path. There are two walls on both sides of the path. In these walls the doors are open and upon these doors there is a veil hanging. There is a warner at the end of the path who is saying (look) walk straight upon the path, do not adopt moving crooked. In front of him there is another warner (standing). When a servant wants to open any of the doors then he (the warner) warns him that watch, (what are you
“Do not open it, if you open it then you will go into it (where you will get nothing but pain and worry).” After this, Rasulullah ﷺ clarified this example and said, “The path refers to Islaam (treading upon it will lead one to Jannah), open doors refer to the things forbidden by Allaah, a veil hanging refers to the limits set by Allaah, the warner at the end of the path refers to the Qur’aan and the warner who is standing further ahead is the angel giving advice from Allaah that is in the heart of every believer (placing good things).”

[Razeen, Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Bayhaqi]

Follow in the footsteps of the Sahabah ﷺ

وعن ابن مسعود قال : من كان مستنا فليسن بمن قد مات فإن الحي لا تؤمن عليه الفتنة . أولئك أصحاب محمد صلى الله عليه و سلم كانوا أفضل هذه الأمة أبراها قلوبا وأعمقها علما وأقلها تكلفا اختارهم الله لصحبة نبيه ولإقامة دينه فاعرفوا لهم فضلهم واتبعوهم على آثارهم وتمسكوا بما استطعتم من أخلاقهم وسيرهم فإنهم كانوا على الهدى المستقيم . رواه رزين

184. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. said, “He who wants to tread the path of someone he should choose the path of those that have passed on from the world because a living person (regarding Deen-religion) is not protected and safe from trials. And those (that have passed from this world) are the companions of Muhammad ﷺ - who are the best people of this Ummah, who, in terms of heart, they are the most pious and in terms of knowledge they are the most complete individuals. They were the ones of the Ummah with the least formality. Allaah ﷺ chose them for the companionship and friendship of His Nabi and in order to establish Deen. So you should recognize the honour and virtue of these people, follow their footsteps and as far as possible, adopt their character, habits, ways and characteristics. This is because they were the guided ones.” [Razeen]

mmm

Do not give anything preference over the Qur’aan and Sunnah

عن جابر: (أن عمر بن الخطاب رضي الله عنهما أتى رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم بنسخة من التوراة فقال يا رسول الله هذه نسخة من التوراة فسكت فجعل يقرأ ووجه رسول الله يتغير فقال أبو بكر تكلتك الثواكل ما نرى ما بوجه رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم فقلت يا رسول الله نسخة التوراة فننظر إلى وجه رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم فقال أبو بكر يا رسول الله نسخة التوراة فنظر عمر إلى وجه رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم ولأي نص اتخذه من نصوص التوراة قال عمر: لاحظ أن الزمان قد أسرب من واقع نصوص التوراة وأنه لا يوجد طريقة rõ ràng لاستخدام كتابات التوراة في العامية. ولو كان حياً وآدرك نبوتي لأتبعني). رواه الدارمي

185. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that (one day) Hadhrat Umar bin al Khattaab  brought a copy of the Tauraat to Rasulullaah  and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, this is a copy of the Tauraat. (Hearing this) Rasulullaah  remained silent. Then Hadhrat Umar began reading the Tauraat and the face of Rasulullaah  changed (on account of anger). Subsequently, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (addressed Hadhrat Umar) and said, “(Umar), may the losers lose you. Do you not see that the face of Rasulullaah  has changed?” Hadhrat Umar looked at the face of Rasulullaah  and (presenting his excuse) said, “I seek protection from the anger of allaah and His Rasul-messenger. We are pleased with Allaah as our Rabb, Islaam as our (comprehensive and complete) Deen and Muhammad  as our Nabi. (Hearing this) Rasulullaah  said, “By the Pure Being in whose control the life of Muhammad is, if Musa  comes among you, then (will) you follow him and leave me, then definitely you will be deviated from the straight path. If Musa ‏ was alive and finds the (era) of my Nubuwwah, then too he would follow me. [Daarimi]

Abrogating and Abrogated

وعن جابر قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " كلامي لا ينسخ كلام
الله وكلام الله ينسخ كلامي وكلام الله ينسخ بعضه ببعضا "

186. Hadhrat Jaabir ‏ narrates that Rasulullaah ‏ said, “My speech, the speech of Allaah is not abrogated and the speech of Allaah abrogates my speech. Similarly, some parts of the speech of Allaah abrogate other parts.” [Ad Daarqutni]

وعن ابن عمر قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن أحاديثنا ينسخ
بعضها بعضا كنسخ القرآن "

187. Hadhrat Ibn Umar ‏ narrates that Rasulullaah ‏ said, “Just as there is abrogation in the Qur’aan (that sometimes a command that is revealed later abrogates a previous ruling) similarly, some Ahadith of mine abrogates other Ahadith.” [Ad Daarqutni]
Stay away from debate and practice upon divine law

وعن أبي ثعلبة الخشني قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن الله فرض فرائض فلا تضيعوها وحرم حرمات فلا تنتهكوها وحد حدودا فلا تعتدوها وسكت عن أشياء من غير نسيان فلا تبحثوا عنها " . روى الأحاديث الثلاثة الدارقطني

188. Hadhrat Abu Tha’labah Khushani   narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah has made certain obligatory actions necessary, do not destroy it and a few things have been made forbidden, do not go near them and He has stipulated a few limits (like Qisaas etc.) so do not overstep them (i.e. do not be lax or overstep) and regarding a few things, without any forgetfulness (on purpose) He adopted silence (i.e. He did not classify clearly whether certain things are permitted or not permitted) so do not debate them (without necessity).” [Ad Daarqutni]

Knowledge (Hadith 188 – 261)

Emphasis upon explaining authentic Ahadith and staying away from incorrect Ahadith

عن عبد الله بن عمرو قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " بلغوا عني ولو آية وحدثوا عن بني إسرائيل ولا حرج ومن كذب علي متعدها فليتبوأ مقعده من النار " . رواه البخاري

189. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  ﺪ.  narrates that Rasulullaah  ﷺ said, “Convey from me (Ahadith) even if it be a single verse and you can narrate from the Bani Israa’eeel and there is no sin and the person who wilfully attributes a lie to me should build his abode in Jahannam,” [Bukhari]

mmmm

وعن سمرة بن جندب والمغيرة بن شعبة قالا : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من حدث عنني بحديث يرى أنه كذب فهو أحد الكاذبين " . رواه مسلم

190. Hadhrat Samurah bin Jundub  ﺪ. and Hadhrat Mughirah bin Shu’bah  ﺪ. both narrate that Rasulullaah  ﷺ said, “The person who attributes something to me which he understands to be false, he is a liar from two liars.” [Muslim]

mmmm

وعن معاوية قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من يرد الله به خيرا يفقهه في الدين وإنما أنا قاسم والله يعطي " ( متفق عليه )

191. Hadhrat Mu’awiyah  ﺪ. narrates that Rasulullaah  ﷺ said, “The person for whom Allaah  ﷺ intends goodness, He grants him understanding of Deen (the laws of Shari’ah, recognition of the path and reality) and the reality is that I dispense and Allaah  ﷺ gives (i.e. I explain Ahadith and Allaah  ﷺ grants the understanding of Deen and the ability to practice).” [Bukhari, Muslim]
"وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " الناس معادن كمعادن الذهب والفضة خيارهم في الجاهلية خيارهم في الإسلام إذا فقهوا ". رواه مسلم

192. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “People are mines, like gold and silver mines. Those people (before Islaam) who were good in the era of ignorance will be good people in Islaam on condition that they attain knowledge and understanding of Deen-religion.” [Muslim]

Two servants worthy of emulation

وعن ابن مسعود قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " لا حسد إلا في اثنين رجل آتاه الله مالا فسلطه على هلكته في الحق ورجل آتاه الله الحكمة فهو يقضي بها ويعلمه ) ( متفق عليه )

193. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Except for two persons it is not permissible to have jealousy for anyone. One is the person whom Allaah ☪ has given wealth, and He grants him the ability to spend it in the path of truth and the second person is he who Allaah ☪ grants knowledge (of Deen), then that person orders in accordance to that knowledge (and practices himself) and he also teaches others the knowledge of Deen.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
The reward of three things continue after death

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "إذا مات الإنسان انقطع عمله إلا من ثلاثة أشياء : صدقة جارية أو علم ينتفع به أولد صالح يدعو له (رواه مسلم

194. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "When a person passes away then his chain of reward comes to an end. There are three things whose chain of reward continue (even after death); one is continuous charity the second is that knowledge from which benefit is accrued and thirdly is ones pious children that make Du’aa’ for one. [Muslim]

mmm

The reward of learning and teaching Deen and a few other works

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "من نفس عن مؤمن كربة من كرب الدنيا نفس الله عنه كربة من كرب يوم القيامة ومن يسر على مسير يسر الله عليه في الدنيا والآخرة . ومن ستر مسلما ستره الله في الدنيا والآخرة والله في عون العبد ما كان العبد في عون أخيه ومن سلك طريقا يلتمس فيه علما سهل الله له به طريقا إلى الجنة وما اجتمع قوم في بيت من بيوت الله يتلون كتاب الله ويتدارسونه بينهم إلا نزلت عليهم السكينة وغشييتهم الرحمة وحفظتهم الملائكة وذكرهم الله فيمن عنده ومن بطأ به عمله لم يسرع به نسبه (رواه مسلم

195. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "He who removes a difficulty of the difficulties of the world from a Muslim, Allaah ﷺ will remove great difficulty from him on the Day of Qiyaamat and the one (in this world) who gives ease and comfort to someone who is straitened and worried, Allaah ﷺ will give that person comfort and ease in this world and in the Aakhirat. And the person who hides the faults of a Muslim, Allaah ﷺ will hide the faults of that person in this world and in the Aakhirat. Allaah ﷺ will help His servant until the servant helps his Muslim brother. And the person who seeks a path in which to attain knowledge, then on account of this, Allaah ﷺ will ease the path reaching to Jannah. And those who gather in the house of Allaah (Masjid) and recite the Book of Allaah and learn and teach amongst them, then tranquillity descends upon them, mercy enshrouds them, the angels surround them and Allaah mentions them amongst the angels that are present with Him. And (listen to this as well) the one whose actions have kept him back, his lineage cannot take him forward.” [Muslim]

A show off will go to Jahannam

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن أول الناس يقضي عليه يوم القيامة رجل استشهد فأتى به فعرفه نعمة فعرفه ﷺ قال فما عملت فيها ؟ قال قاتلت فيك حتى استشهدت قال كذبت ولكنك قاتلت لأن يقال جريء فقد قيل ثم أمر به فسحب على وجهه حتى ألقي في النار ورجل تعلم العلم وعلمه وقرأ القرآن فأتي به فعرفه نعمة فعرفه ﷺ قال فما عملت فيها قال تعلمت العلم وعلمه وقرأ القرآن فأتي به فعرفه نعمة فعرفه ﷺ قال فما عملت فيها قال كذبت ولكنك تعلمت العلم ليقال عالم وقرأ القرآن فيك القرآن قال كذبت ولكنك تعلمت العلم ليقال عالم وقرأ القرآن فيك القرآن فقال فيك القرآن قال كذبت ولكنك تعلمت العلم وقرأ القرآن فيك القرآن فقال ﷺ قارئ فقد قيل ثم أمر به فسحب على وجهه حتى ألقي في النار ورجل وسع الله عليه وأعطاه من أصناف المال كله فأتى به فعرفه نعمة فعرفه ﷺ قال فما عملت فيها ؟ قال ما تركت من سبيل تحب أن ينفق فيها إلا أنفقت فيها لك قال كذبت ولكنك فعلت ليقال هو جواد فقد قيل ثم أمر به فسحب على وجهه ثم ألقى في النار ﷺ. رواه مسلم

196. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the day of Qiyaamat the first person against whom decision will be made will be the one martyred. Subsequently, when this person is presented, then Allaah ﷺ will remind him of the blessings granted to him (in the world) and the person will attest to these blessings. Then Allaah ﷺ will ask him, “(Tell Us) in gratitude for these favours (for My pleasure and happiness) what (good) deed did you do? He will say, “I fought in Your path until I was martyred.” Allaah ﷺ will say, “You lie. In reality you fought so that you (amongst the creation) could get fame for your courage and bravery and you have attained fame for courage and bravery (so what do you hope and desire from Me?)

Subsequently, it will be commanded regarding this person and he will be dragged on his face until he is flung into Jahannam. Decision will also be passed against the person who attained knowledge of Deen. He taught others and he recited the Qur’aan. Subsequently, when this person will be brought forward then Allaah ﷺ will remind him of the blessings granted to him (in the world) and the person will attest to these blessings. Then Allaah ﷺ will ask him, “(Tell Us) in gratitude for these favours (for My pleasure and happiness) what (good) deed did you do? He will say, “I attained the knowledge of Deen, I taught it to others and recited the Qur’aan for Your pleasure.” Allaah ﷺ will say, “You lie. In reality you attained knowledge with this objective that people should say that you are a great scholar. And you recited the Qur’aan with this objective that people should say that this is a good recite. So you have become famous and have attained fame (so what do you hope and desire from Me?). Subsequently, it will be commanded regarding this person and he will be dragged on his face until he is flung into Jahannam. And decision will be passed against the person upon whom Allaah had widened sustenance and he was given all types of wealth and provision. Consequently, when this person will be brought forward then Allaah ﷺ will remind him of the blessings granted to him (in the world) and the person will attest to these blessings. Then Allaah ﷺ will ask him, “(Tell Us) in gratitude for these favours (for My pleasure and happiness) what (good) deed did you do? He will say, “I spent upon all those deserving for Your pleasure, spending on recipients is liked and loved by you.” Allaah ﷺ will say, “You lie. In reality you spent with this objective that (people will speak amongst themselves) that this person is very generous. So (when through people your original objective has been completed that being generous) you have become famous, (so what do you hope and desire from Me?). Subsequently, it will be commanded regarding this person and he will be dragged on his face until he is flung into Jahannam.” [Muslim]

How will the knowledge of Deen be lifted in the latter times?

197. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr   narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(In the latter times) Allaah ﷺ will not lift the knowledge of Deen by snatching it away from people, but (from this world) the knowledge of Deen will be lifted by lifting the scholars until there is no scholar of Deen left. So the general ignorant ones will be made leaders who will be asked matters of Deen. Then they (the leaders), when they give fatwa without knowledge, then they will go astray and lead others astray.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
It is not appropriate to lecture every day

وعن شقيق: كان عبدالله يذكر الناس في كل خميس فقال له رجل يا أبا
عبدالرحمن لوددت أنك ذكرتنا كل يوم قال أما إنه يمنعني من ذلك أن أكره أن
أملكم وإن أتخولكم بالوعظة كما كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يتخولنا
بها مخافة السآمة علينا (متفق عليه).

198. Hadhrat Shaqeeq  narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  used to advise the people every Thursday. (One day) a person said to him, “O Abu Abdur Rahmaan, (title of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood ), I desire that you lecture before us every day.” (Hearing this) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  said, “You should know that regarding this, the thing that stops me is that (through daily advice) I do not like to put you people in tiredness and boredom. In essence, through advising and lecturing, I want to nurture you and protect you like Rasulullaah  used to consider our tiredness and boredom and nurture us and protect us.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Rasulullaah  used to repeat everything thrice

وعن أنس قال: كان النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم إذا تكلم بكلمة أعادها ثلاثا حتى
تفهم عنه وإذا أتى على قوم فسلم عليهم سلم عليهم ثلاثا " رواه البخاري

199. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that when Rasulullaah  spoke, then he repeated it thrice on account of which people used to understand his talk well and when Rasulullaah  would come to people and wanted to greet them, then he greeted thrice.” [Bukhari]
The reward of the one who shows the way to goodness

عن أبي مسعود الأنصاري قال جاء رجل إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال إنني أبديتي فاحملني فقال رجل يا رسول الله أنا أدله على من يحمله فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من دل على خير فله مثل أجر فاعله". رواه مسلم

200. Hadhrat Abu Mas’ood Ansaari .. narrates that (one day) a person came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “My animal of transport is useless, therefore give me a conveyance.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I do not have a conveyance with me at this time.” (Hearing this) a companion said, “O Rasul of Allaah, can I show this person someone who will give him a conveyance?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Yes, definitely show him the person because) he who shows the path of goodness, he will get an equal reward that will be given to the one who does the good.” [Muslim]

The reward for bringing good actions into vogue and the sin of bringing evil actions into vogue

وجه رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم يتهلل كأنه مذهبة فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من سن في الإسلام سنة حسنة فله أجرها وأجر من عمل بها من بعده من غير أن ينقص من أجرهم شيء ومن سن في الإسلام سنة سيئة كان عليه وزرها ووزر من عمل بها من بعده من غير أن ينقص من أوزارهم شيء.

201. Hadhrat Jareer   narrates that one day in the afternoon we were in the gathering of Rasulullaah  and some people who were naked and (to cover their private areas) had a blanket or shawl wrapped around. They had swords hanging from their necks. They came to Rasulullaah . Most of them, in fact the entire tribe were the Mudar tribe. (Looking at these people) the colour of the face of Rasulullaah  changed. This was because he saw the effect of poverty on these people (due to which he was grieved). Consequently, Rasulullaah  (got up from the gathering) and went home (so that he could get something to help these people and give it to them. Despite looking he did not find anything at home). He then came outside. (In this time, it was the time of Zuhr or Jumu’ah). Therefore, he commanded Hadhrat Bilal  , who called out the Azaan and the Takbeer. Then when Rasulullaah  performed Salaah, (he stood on the pulpit and) delivered a sermon, (before the sermon) he recited this verse,

then he recited this verse of Surah Hashr ( اتقوا الله ولتنتظر نفس ما قدمت لغد). He then said, “Each person should give charity from his Dinaars, Dirhams, his clothing, from the utensils of his wheat and from the utensils of his dates (in order to help these downtrodden people).” To the extent that he said, “(Give charity) even though it be a piece of date.” The narrator explains that (upon hearing this advice of Rasulullaah ) an Ansaari companion presented a basket filled (with Dinaars and Dirhams) that (on account of its load) his hands were close to being tired, in fact they got tired. Then one after the other people began bringing and collecting so I saw that (there) were two huge piles of food and drink and clothing. Then I saw the face of Rasulullaah ﷺ was shining (out of happiness) like something plated with silver. Then Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who brings a good way into vogue in Islaam, then he will get the reward of (bringing the good action into vogue) and a reward equal to every person (extra reward) that will do this good action after him and there will be no decrease in the reward of those that do the action. And the person who brings a bad action into vogue in Islaam, then he will get the sin (of bringing the bad action about) and the sin of each person (extra sin) who tread this bad path after him and there will be no decrease in the sin (of those who tread the bad path).” [Muslim]

وعن ابن مسعود قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " لا تقتل نفس ظلما إلا كان على ابن آدم الأول كفل من دمها لأنه أول من سن القتل " . وسنذكر حديث معاوية : " لا يزال من أمتي " في باب ثواب هذه الأمة إن شاء الله تعالى (متفق عليه)

202. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person killed out of oppression, one part of his blood is on the first son of Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ (i.e. the sin written for the killer, the same amount is written for the son of Aadam, Qaabeel) because the way of killing unlawfully was brought into vogue (in the world) by him first.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The virtues of a student and teacher of Deen

عن كثير بن قيس قال جالسًا مع أبي الدرداء في مسجد دمشق فجاءه رجل فقال: يا أبي الدرداء إنني جئت من مدينة الرسول صلى الله عليه وسلم نظرًا للحاجة قال: فاني سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: من سلك طريقاً يطلب فيه علمًا سلك الله به طريقًا من طرق الجنة وإن الملائكة لتضع أجنحتها رضًا لطالب العلم وإن العالم يستغفر له من في السماوات ومن في الأرض والحيتان في جوف الماء وإن فضل العالم على العابد كفضل القمر ليلة البدر على سائر الكواكب وإن العلماء ورثة الأنبياء وإن الأنبهاء لم يورثوا دينارًا ولا درهمًا وإنما ورثوا العلم فمن أخذه أخذ بحظ وافر. رواه أحمد والترمذي وأبو داود وابن ماجه والدارمي وسماه الترمذي قيس بن كثير.

203. Hadhrat Kathir bin Qays  narrates that (one day) I was sitting in the gathering of Hadhrat Abu Darda  in the Masjid of Damascus and one person came to him and said, “I have come walking from the noble city of Rasulullaah ﷺ (Madinah Munawwarah) to you for the sake of one Hadith about which I have come to know that you narrate it from Rasulullaah ﷺ. There is no other objective for my coming. (Hearing this) Hadhrat Abu Darda  said, “I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that whichever person, in order to seek knowledge (of Deen, a little or a lot) undertakes a journey (long or short) then Allaah sets him upon one of the paths of Jannah. And out of happiness for this student, the angels lower their wings (i.e. out of happiness for the student, the angels stand with their wings lowered) and undoubtedly all the creation of the skies (all the angels) and all the creation of the land (man, jinn etc) and the fish in the water make Du’aa’ of forgiveness for the scholar of Deen. A scholar has virtue over a worshipper like the fourteenth moon has over the stars. The scholars are the heirs of the Ambiyaa’ and there is no doubt that the Ambiyaa’ do not leave inheritance in Dinaars and Dirhams (or in the form of any worldly wealth), they leave for their heirs only the knowledge of Deen. So he who attains the knowledge of Deen has attained a full share.”

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah, Daarimi]

وعن أبي أمامة الباهلي قال : " ذكر لرسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم رجلان أحدهما عابد والآخر عالم فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " فضل العالم على العابد كفضلي على أدناكم " ثم قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن الله وملائكته وأهل السماوات والأرض حتى النملة في جحرها وحتى الحوت ليصلون على معلم الناس الخير " . رواه الترمذي وقال حسن غريب ورواه الدارمي عن مكحول مرسلا ولم يذكر : رجلان وقال : فضل العالم على العابد كفضلي على أدناكم ثم تلا هذه الآية : ( إنما يخشى الله من عباده العلماء ) وسرد الحديث إلى أخره

204. Hadhrat Abu Umamah Bahili narrates that (one day) two people were mentioned before Rasulullaah ﷺ. One of them was a worshipper and the second was a scholar (he was asked that who is more virtuous between the two). Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A scholar has virtue over a worshipper like I have virtue over the lowest of you.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed Allaah and His angels and the inhabitants of the sky and the earth, to the extent that ants in their holes and to the extent that the fish, all of them make Du’aa’ of goodness for those who teach (knowledge of Deen).” [Tirmidhi] Daarimi narrates this report from Makhool as Mursal and in his narration there is no mention of ‘two people’, but the narration is this that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A scholar has virtue over a worshipper like I have virtue over the lowest of you.” Then Rasulullaah ﷺ recited the following verse, ‘Only the knowledgeable amongst the servants of Allaah fear Him’. After this the narration of Daarimi is narrated to the end.

Act kindly with those attaining the knowledge and understanding of Deen

وعن أبي سعيد الخدري قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن الناس لكم تبع وإن رجالا يأتونكم من أقطار الأرض يتفقهون في الدين فإذا أتوكم فاستوصوا بهم خيرا " . رواه الترمذي

205. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Look, people follow you (i.e. after me people will follow you, they will tread your path) and how many people will come to you from the corners of the world seeking knowledge and understanding of Deen, so when they come then accept my bequest of treating them well (i.e. I make a bequest that behave well with them and give them the knowledge of Deen).” [Tirmidhi]
Wisdom is the lost treasure of a wise person

"وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "الكلمة الحكمة ضالة الحكيم فحيث وجدها فهو أحق بها". رواه الترمذي وابن ماجه وقال الترمذي هذا حديث غريب"

206. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Wisdom is the lost item of the wise. Therefore, wherever he finds it, he is most worthy of it.”

[Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The virtue of a scholar over a worshipper

"وعن ابن عباس قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " فقيه واحد أشد على الشيطان من ألف عابد". رواه الترمذي وابن ماجه"

207. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A jurist (scholar) is more severe upon Shaytaan than 1000 worshippers.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

It is obligatory to seek the knowledge of Deen

"وعن أنس بن مالك قال قال رسل الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "طلب العلم فريضة على كل مسلم وواضع العلم عند غير أهله كمقلد الخنازير الجوهر واللؤلؤ والذهب". رواه ابن ماجه"

208. Hadhrat Anas \( \text{\textasciitilde} \) narrates that Rasulullaah \( \text{\textasciitilde} \) said, “It is obligatory upon every Muslim (male and female) to seek the knowledge of Deen and teaching knowledge to the unworthy is like placing a necklace of jewels, pearls and gold upon a swine.” [\textit{Ibn Maajah}]

Two good qualities

209. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah \( \text{\textasciitilde} \) narrates that Rasulullaah \( \text{\textasciitilde} \) said, “Two qualities cannot be together in a hypocrite. Good character and knowledge and understanding of Deen.” [\textit{Tirmidhi}]

The virtue of attaining knowledge

210. Hadhrat Anas \( \text{\textasciitilde} \) narrates that Rasulullaah \( \text{\textasciitilde} \) said, “The person who leaves in search of knowledge then he is in the path of Allaah until he returns.” [\textit{Tirmidhi, Daarimi}]

211. Hadhrat Sakhbarah Azdi  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who seeks knowledge (for him) it is an expiation of his past sins.” [Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

212. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The belly of a believer is never filled with listening to talk of goodness (i.e. seeking knowledge of Deen) until his end is Jannah.” [Tirmidhi]

The evil consequence of hiding an aspect of Deen

213. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who is asked some aspect of Deen and he knows it, then he hides it, on the Day of Qiyaamat he will be bridled with a bridle of fire.” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud, Tirmidhi]
The evil consequence of seeking knowledge for incorrect objectives

وعن كعب بن مالك قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "من طلب العلم ليجاري به العلماء أو ليماري به السفهاء أو يصرف به وجه الناس إليه أدخل الله النار". رواه الترمذي

214. Hadhrat Ka’b bin Maalik  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who seeks knowledge with the objective that through it he will oppose the scholars or in order to argue with the foolish or to turn people towards himself, then such a person will be put into Jahannam by Allaah.” [Tirmidhi]

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "من تعلم علمًا مما يبتغى به وجه الله لا يتعلمه إلا ليصيب به عرضا من الدنيا لم يجد عرف الجنة يوم القيامة". يعني ريحها. رواه أحمد وأبو داود وابن ماجه

215. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who seeks this knowledge through which the pleasure and happiness of Allaah is sought but he only learnt this knowledge in order to attain the goods of this world, then on the Day of Qiyaamat he will not even get the sweet scent of Jannah,” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah]

Encouragement for four things

From the heart of a Muslim there are three things which will not be treacherous. (One is) doing actions solely for Allah, (secondly) being good natured to Muslims and (thirdly) remaining with the group of Muslims because their Du‘aa’ is surrounding him from all sides.” [Shafi‘i, Bayhaqi, Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah, Daarimi]

The virtue of learning Ahadith and propagating it to others

وعن ابن مسعود قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "نصر الله امرأ سمع منا شيئا فبلغه كما سمعه فرب مبلغ أوعى له من سامع". رواه الترمذي وابن ماجه

Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “May Allah keep the person fresh and healthy who heard something from me (and learnt it well) then he propagated it to others as he heard it. There are many to whom it is taken who remember it better than those who heard it.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]
The evil consequence of fabricating Hadith

وعن ابن عباس رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "اتقوا الحديث عنني إلا ما علمتم فمن كذب علي محتمًا فليتهم مقعده من النار.”

رواه الترمذي

218. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Beware of narrating Hadith from me, only that (Hadith should be narrated) which you know. The person who intentionally attributes a lie to me (i.e. he attributes a false narration to me) he should seek his abode in Jahannam.”
[Tirmidhi]

Do not make Tafseer of the Qur’aan from your opinion

وعن ابن عباس قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من قال في القرآن برأيه فأصاب فقد أخطأ." وفي رواية: "من قال في القرآن بغير علم فليتهم مقعده من النار.”

رواه الترمذي

219. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The person who says something regarding the Qur’aan from his opinion should seek his abode in Jahannam.”
[Tirmidhi]
220. Hadhrat Jundub .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who says anything regarding the Qur’aan from his intellect or opinion, even if he is correct, he has erred.”
[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

It is Kufr to argue regarding the Qur’aan

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " мерاء في القرآن كفر " . رواه أحمد وأبو داود

221. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Arguing regarding the Qur’aan is Kufr (i.e. to take one verse as opposing another and to belie it).”
[Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

Note:
This Hadith means that do not clash the verses of the Qur’aan and the Ahadith in this way by taking one verse against another and one Hadith against another and reject it.
222. Hadhrat Amr bin Shu’ayb narrates from his father from his grandfather that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ heard regarding certain people that they have differing views regarding the Qur’aan (the understanding and purport of the Qur’aan) and they were arguing with each other. So (he became very angry) and said, “(Do you not know that) the people before you, this was the cause of their destruction that they clashed one part of the book of Allaah with another part (i.e. one person took one part to oppose another part and another person took another part and negated the first part). And (people, listen well) the Book of Allaah was revealed in this way that one part of it verifies the other. Therefore, do not belie one part using another. And (regarding any verse of the Qur’aan) speak that which you know well and that which you do not know, hand it over to those who know.” [Ahmad, Ibn Maajah]

The apparent and hidden aspects of every verse

وعن ابن مسعود قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " أنزل القرآن على سبعة أحرف لكل آية منها ظهر وبطن ولكل حد مطلع " رواه في شرح السنة

223. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The Qur’aan was revealed upon 7 (seven) modes. Every verse has an apparent and hidden and the there is a place of knowing every limit.” [Baghawi]

Three necessary forms of knowledge

[222]
224. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “(Necessary) knowledge are 3. Muhakkimah verses, established Sunnah and just responsibility. Everything else is extra (beyond necessity).”

[Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah]

Advise and lecture with sincerity

وعن عوف بن مالك الأشجعي قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "لا يقص إلا أمير أو مأمور أو مختال" . رواه أبو داود

225. Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik Ashja’i  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “None advises except a ruler, the ruled or a proud one.” [Abu Dawud] in the narration of Daarimi, instead of ‘proud’, ‘show off’ is mentioned.

Giving incorrect fatwa and counsel

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "من أفتى بغير علم كان إثمه على من أفتاه ومن أشار على أخيه بامر يعلم أن الرشد في غيره فقد خانه" . رواه أبو داود

226. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The ignorant and foolish one who was given Fatwa (and he practised upon that incorrect Fatwa), the sin will be one the one who gave the Fatwa. And the person who gives his brother such counsel regarding which he knows that goodness is in something opposite, then the second person has misappropriated.” [Abu Dawud]
Prohibition of deception

وعن معاوية قال: إن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم نهى عن الأغلوطات. رواه أبو داود

227. Hadhrat Mu’aawiyah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ prohibited from putting others into error. [Abu Dawud]

Learn and teach the Qur’aan and Hadith

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "تعلموا الفرائض والقرآن و علموا الناس فإني مقبوض " . رواه الترمذي

228. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ said to us, “Learn the knowledge of inheritance and the Qur’aan and teach it to people because I will be taken (from this world).” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

وعن أبي الدرداء قال: كنا مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فشخص ببصره إلى السماء ثم قال: " هذا أوان يختلس فيه العلم من الناس حتى لا يقدروا منه على شيء " . رواه الترمذي

229. Hadhrat Abu Darda ﷺ narrates that (one day) we (a few companions) were with Rasulullaah ﷺ. He lifted his gaze to the sky and said, “Now the time has come people will be stopped from the knowledge of (revelation) then people will not get anything from this knowledge (of revelation).” [Tirmidhi]
Virtue of a scholar of Madinah

وعن أبي هريرة رواية: "يوشك أن يضرب الناس أكباد الإبل يطلبون العلم فلا يجدون أحدا أعلم من عالم المدينة". رواه الترمذي في جامعه. قال ابن عيينه: إنه مالك بن أنس ومثله عن عبد الرزاق قال إسحق بن موسى: وسمعت ابن عيينه أنه قال: هو العمري الزاهد واسمه عبد العزيز بن عبد الله

230. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Soon when people will hit their camels in search of knowledge (i.e. they will travel fast and travel far), they will not find a greater scholar than the scholar of Madinah.” [Tirmidhi]

Every 100 years a Mujaddid is born

وعنه فيما أعلم عن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إن الله عز و جل يبعث لهذه الأمة على رأس كل مائة سنة من يجدد لها دينها". رواه أبو داود

231. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that whatever I learnt and got from Rasulullaah ﷺ from it (one Hadith) is this that he ﷺ said, “Indeed Allaah ﷺ sends such a person at the turn of every century who will refresh the Deen before the Ummah.” [Abu Dawud]

Section Three

The responsibilities of the scholars

وعن إبراهيم بن عبد الرحمن العذري قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "يحمل هذا العلم من كل خلف عدوله ينفون عنه تحريف الغالين وانتحال المبطلين وتأويل الجاهلين". رواه البيهقي.

232. Hadhrat Ibraaheem bin Abdur Rahman Udhri narrats that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “From every group that comes in future there will be good and pious people (i.e. reliable people) who will seek knowledge (of the Book and Sunnah), (then) they will remove the changes made by those who exaggerate, they will remove the wrong of the wrongdoers and they will reject the interpretations of the ignorant made (in the verses and Ahadith).” [Bayhaqi]

The status of the one who passed away while seeking knowledge وعن الحسن مرسلا قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من جاءه الموت وهو يطلب العلم ليحيي به الإسلام فيئيه وبين النبيين درجة واحدة في الجنة". رواه الدارمي.

233. Hadhrat Hasan Basri ﷺ narrates in Mursal form that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person whose death comes to him in such a condition that he is seeking knowledge of Deen... so that through it Islaam could be spread, then there will be only one stage between him and the Ambiyaa’.” [Daarimi]

The virtue of the teacher of Deeni knowledge over a worshipper

وعنムرسلا قال: اسال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم عن رجلين كانا في بني إسرائيل أحدهما كان عالما متصلا المكتوبة ثم يجلس فيعلم الناس الخير والآخر يصوم النهار ويقوم الليل أيهما أفضل قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم: "فضل هذا العالم الذي يصلي المكتوبة ثم يجلس فيعلم الناس الخير على العابد الذي يصوم النهار ويقوم الليل كفضلني على أدنناكم". رواه الدارمي

234. Hadhrat Hasan Basri ﷺ narrates in Mursal form that Rasulullaah ﷺ was asked about two people of the Bani Israa’eel. One was a scholar who used to perform the obligatory Salaah and used to sit to teach people Deen. The second person used to fast during the day and spend the entire night in optional Salaah. (He was asked that) which of the two is more virtuous? Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who performed his obligatory Salaah and sat to teach people, over the worshipper who used to fast during the day and perform Salaah at night has such virtue like my virtue over the lowest of you.” [Daarimi]

The definition and qualities of a master scholar

235. Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “What a good person is he who has complete understanding of Deen. If a need is brought to him, then he benefits and if independence is shown to him, then he has made himself independent.” [Razeen]

A few advises of Ibn Abbas ﷺ

وعن عكرمة أن ابن عباس قال : حدث الناس كل جمعة مرة فإن أبيت فمرتين فإن أكثرت فثلاث مرات ولا تمل الناس هذا القرآن ولا ألفينك تأتي القوم وهم في حديث من حديثهم فتقص عليهم فتقطع عليهم حديثهم فتملهم ولكن أنصست فإذا أمروك فحدثهم وهم يشتهونه وانظر السجع من الدعاء فاجتنبه فإني عهدت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم وأصحابه لا يفعلون ذلك " رواه البخاري

236. Hadhrat Ikramah narrates from Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ that the latter said to him, “Every week explain the Ahadith to people once. If you do not like this, then twice and if you want to do a lot, then thrice and do not straiten people through the Qur’aan. And (look) I should not find you such that you come to a few people and they are busy in their work and you begin advising them, cutting them off from their talk and you bore them. In fact, (at that time you should) remain silent and when people ask you to lecture and give advice, then explain Ahadith to them when they have desire and enthusiasm (to listen to your talk). Also, leave out rhyming in Du’aa’ and stay away form it because according to my knowledge of the companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ, they never used to rhyme in Du’aa’.” [Bukhari]

A student gets reward in every condition

رواه الدرامي

237. Hadhrat Wathila bin Asqa’ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who sought knowledge and he found it, he will get double reward. And if he did not get it, he will get a single share of reward.” [Daarimi]

The actions whose reward is continuous even after death

عن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن مما يلحق المؤمن من عمله وحسناته بعد موته علمه ونشره وولدا صالحا تركه ومصحفا ورثه أو مسجدا بناه أو بيتا لابن السبيل بناه أو نهرا أجراه أو صدقة أخرجها من ماله في صحته وحياته يلحقه من بعد موته". رواه بن ماجه والبيهقي في شعب الإيمان

238. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “From amongst the good deeds and pious actions that reach a believer after his death, one of them is the knowledge which he (the believer) learnt and (through teaching or writing) he spread it and pious children that he left behind or the Qur’aan (and Deeni books) which he left for his heirs or a Masjid (and Madrasah and Khanqah) which he built and left or an inn for travellers that he built and left or a canal which he made flow or the charity which he took out from his wealth while healthy. (The reward of this) will reach a believer after his death.” [Ibn Maajah, Bayhaqi]
The root of Deen is abstinence

وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَقِيَّةَ أَنَا قَالَتْ :َ سَمَعَتِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ  : "إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ أُحِيَّ إِلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ مِن سَلكَ مَسْلِكًا فِي طُلُبِ الْعِلْمِ سَهَّلَتْهُ لَهُ طَرِيقَ الْجَنَّةَ وَمِن سَلْبَتِ كَرِيمَتِهِ أَثَبَتَهُ عَلَيْهَا الْجَنَّةَ . وَفَضْلُ فِي عَلْمِ خَيرُ مِنْ فَضْلٍ فِي عِبَادَةِ وَمِلَأَ الْدِّينِ الْوَرَعَ " . رُوِاهُ الْبِيْهْقِيُّ فِي شَعْبِ الْإِيْمَانِ

239. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that she said, “I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Allaah ﷺ sent this revelation to me that he who treads a path seeking the knowledge of Deen, I shall ease the path to Jannah for him. And the person whose both eyes I have taken (and the person was patient upon both his eyes going), then I shall give him Jannah in lieu of both his eyes. Increase in Knowledge is better than increase in worship (i.e. to spend more time learning and teaching knowledge of Deen is better than spending more time in worship) and the root of Deen is to adopt abstinence.” [Bayhaqi]

Learning and teaching knowledge of Deen is better than optional worship

وَعَنْ أبِنِ عَبَّاسَ ﺇِلَيْهِ قَالَ : تَدَارِسُ الْعِلْمِ سَاعَةً مِنْ الْلَّيْلِ خِيرُ مِنْ إِحْيَاهُ . رُوِاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ

240. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ narrates that to study and teach the knowledge of Deen for a little while at night is better than spending the entire night in worship.” [Daarimi]

241. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  passed by 2 gatherings in his Masjid and said, “Both gatherings are upon goodness but one of the gatherings is more virtuous than the other. The people of one gathering are involved in the worship of Allaah and making Du’aa’ to Him and (to attain the objective) they are turned towards Him. (But attaining the objective is dependent upon the will of Allaah) if Allaah wants, He can give them and if He does not want, then He will not give. The people of the second gathering are learning Fiqh or he said that they are learning knowledge and teaching the ignorant. So these are more virtuous than the others and indeed I was sent as a teacher.” Then Rasulullaah  sat in the gathering of these people. [Daarimi]

mmm

The virtue of learning forty Ahadith

242. Hadhrat Abu Darda  narrates that Rasulullaah  was asked, “What is the limit of knowledge upon reaching it a person will be called a Faqeeh (scholar)? (And he will get the fortune of being counted in the group of scholars in the Aakhirat) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who memorises 40 Ahadith on Deeni matters in order to benefit the Ummah, Allaah ﷺ will make him a Faqqeh and raise him in the Aakhirat and I shall intercede for him on the Day of Qiyaamat and I shall testify upon his piety and goodness.” [Bayhaqi]

The most generous

 وعن أنس بن مالك قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " هل تدرون من أجود جودا ؟ " قالوا : الله ورسوله أعلم . قال : " الله تعالى أجود جودا ثم أنا أجود بني آدم وأجودهم من بعدي رجل علم علماء فنشره يأتي يوم القيامة أميرا وحده أو قال آمة وحده "

243. Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik  naknarrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ asked the Sahabah ﷺ, “Do you know who is the most generous?” the Sahabah ﷺ replied, “Allaah and His Rasul know best.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The most generous is Allaah ﷺ, then I am the most generous from people and after me the most generous from people is the person who attained the knowledge of Deen, then he spread it amongst people. On the Day of Qiyaamat such a person will come as a leader on his own.” Or he said, “He will come as a group.” [Bayhaqi]

Two greedy ones are never satiated

244. Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “2 greedy ones are never satiated. One who has desire for knowledge, he is never satiated with knowledge and the second is one who has greed for the world, his belly is never filled.” [Bayhaqi]

245. Hadhrat Aun says that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  said, “2 greedy ones are never satiated. One is a scholar and the second is a person of the world. They are not equal because the scholar increases the pleasure of Allaah and the worldly person increases in rebellion.” Then Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  read this verse as proof, ‘Never, indeed when man sees himself as independent’ (i.e. through abundant wealth and possessions he understands himself to be independent), then he rebels.” Aun says that Hadhrat Abdullaah recited this verse regarding a person, ‘There is no doubt that from the servants of Allaah, only the scholars of Deen fear Allaah.’” [Daarimi]
Only sins are attained from closeness to the leaders

وعن ابن عباس قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "إن أناسا من أمتي سيتفقهون في الدين ويقرعون القرآن يقولون نأتي الأمراء فنصيب من دنياهم ونتعلزهم بديننا ولا يكون ذلك كما لا يجتني من القتاء إلا الشوك كذلك لا يجتني من قربهم إلا - قال محمد بن الصباح: كانه يعني الخطايا". رواه ابن ماجه

246. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed there will be such people from my Ummah who will attain understanding in Deen and recite the Qur’aan and they will say that we are going to the leaders to attain some of their wealth but we will keep our Deen safe from them whereas this cannot be as a thorn tree will bear nothing but thorns, similarly by closeness to the leaders, nothing but sin is attained.” [Ibn Maajah]

The knowledge of Deen should only be learnt for the pleasure of Allaah

وعن عبد الله بن مسعود قال: لو أن أهل العلم صانوا العلم ووضعوه عند أهله لسادوا به أهل زمانهم ولكنهم بدلوه لأهل الدنيا لينالوا به من دنياهم فهانوا عليهم سمعت نبيكم صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "من جعل الهموم هما واحدا هم آخرته كفاه الله هم دنياه ومن تشيعت به الهموم في أحوال الدنيا لم يبال الله في أي أوديتها هلك". رواه ابن ماجه

247. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  narrates that if the scholars protect knowledge and he who is worthy is taught, then due to that knowledge he will become the leader and master of his time. However, when they spend knowledge upon the people of the world that through it they can attain something from their wealth, then they will fall in the eyes of the people of the world. I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “The person who makes all his concerns only one concern, i.e. concern for the Aakhirat then Allaah ﷺ becomes sufficient for all his concerns in the world and the person whose concerns have been dusted with conditions of the world, Allaah ﷺ has no concern for him that he can be destroyed in a jungle of the world (i.e. by making him worried about some condition in the world).” [Ibn Maajah]

The calamity of knowledge and its destruction

 وعن الأعمش قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " آفة العلم النسيان وإضاعته أن تحدث به غير أهله ". رواه الدارمي مرسلا

248. Hadhrat A‘mash ﷺ says that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The calamity of knowledge is forgetting and destroying this knowledge is that it is explained before the unworthy.” [Daarimi]
Who are the scholars? How will knowledge come out of the hearts?

وعن سفيان أن عمر بن الخطاب رضي الله عنه قال لكعب: من أرباب العلم؟ قال: الذي يعملون بما يعلمون. قال: فما أخرج العلم من قلوب العلماء؟ قال: الطرط. رواه الدارمي

249. Hadhrat Sufyaan  narrates that (one day) Hadhrat Umar bin Al Khatteab  asked Hadhrat Ka’b Ahbaar (a famous scholar of Deen who had deep knowledge of the Taurat etc.) that who are the bearers of knowledge according to you? Hadhrat Ka’b said, “Those who practise upon what they know (i.e. a scholar who practices are counted amongst the bearers of knowledge).” Then Hadhrat Umar  asked, “What is the thing that removes (the blessings and awe and light of knowledge) from the hearts of the scholars?” Hadhrat Ka’b said, “Greed.” [Daarimi]

Who is the worst and who is the best?

وعن الأحوص بن حكيم عن أبيه قال: سأل رجل النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم عن الشر فقال: "لا تسألوني عن الشر، والسكني عن الخير" يقولها ثلاثا ثم قال: "ألا إن شر الشر شرار العلماء، وإن خير الخير خيار العلماء." رواه الدارمي

250. Hadhrat Ahwas bin Hakeem narrates from his father that he said, “A person asked Rasulullah  about evil. So he replied, “Do not ask me about evil, but ask about goodness.” He repeated this thrice. Then he said, “Know well, from amongst the evil, the most evil is the evil scholar and from amongst the good, the best is the best scholar.” [Daarimi]
Who will be the worst person on the Day of Qiyaamat?

وعن أبي الدرداء قال : "إن من أشر الناس عند الله منزلة يوم القيامة : عالم لا ينتفع بعلمه " . رواه الدارمي

251. Hadhrat Abu Darda  narrates that on the Day of Qiyaamat the worst person before Allaah will be the scholar who did not benefit from his knowledge.” [Daarimi]

What destroys Islaam?

وعن زياد بن حدير قال : قال لي عمر : هل تعرف ما يهدم الإسلام ؟ قال : لا . قال : يهدمه زلة العالم وجدال المنافق بالكتاب وحكم الأئمة المضللين " . رواه الدرامي

252. Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Hudayr  says that Amir ul Mu’mineen Hadhrat Umar  asked me, “Do you know what destroys (the building) of Islaam?” I said, “No.” He said, “The slip of the scholar (i.e. his error and getting involved in sin) and the hypocrite quarrelling through the book of Allaah and deviated leaders issuing rulings destroy Islaam.” [Daarimi]
Beneficial knowledge and useless knowledge

وعن الحسن قال : "العلم علمان فعلم في القلب فذاك العلم النافع وعلم على
اللسان فذاك حجة الله عز وجل على ابن آدم" . رواه الدارمي

253. Hadhrat Hasan Basri  narrates that there are two types of knowledge. One is in the heart and this knowledge gives benefit and the second knowledge is on the tongue and this knowledge is a proof of Allaah against the son of Aadam." [Daarimi]

Two types of knowledge

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : "حفظت من رسول الله صلى الله عليه و
 وسلم وعاءين فأما أحدهما فبثته فيكم وأما الآخر فلو بثته قطع هذا البلعوم يعني
مجرى الطعام " رواه البخاري

254. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “I have protected two vessels (two types of knowledge) from Rasulullaah . So one of them (knowledge) I have spread amongst you and the second (knowledge) if I spread it, then this throat will be cut.”

Do not be formal in admitting ignorance

وعن عبدالله بن مسعود قال : يا أيها الناس من علم شيئا فليقل به ومن لم يعلم
فليقل اني أعلم فإن من العلم أن يقول لما لا تعلم الله أعلم . قال الله تعالى لنبيه ( قل
ما أسألكم عليه من أجر وما أنا من المتكلفين ) ( متفق عليه)

255. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  narrates, “People, he who knows something should explain and he who does not know should say, “Allaah knows best” because regarding something which a person does not know, to say that Allaah knows best is a type of knowledge (because it is a type of knowledge that differentiates between the known and unknown). Allaah said to His Nabi ﷺ, ‘O Nabi, say that I do not ask you for recompense upon this (Qur’aan), nor am I of those who are formal.’ [Bukhari, Muslim]
The most hated scholars and their end

وَعَنِ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: "تَعَوذُوا بِاللَّهِ مِن جَبِّ الْحَزْنِ". قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَمَا جَبِّ الْحَزْنِ؟ قَالَ: "وَادِفِي جَهَنَّمْ تَتَعَوذُونَ مِنْهَا جَهَنَّمْ كُلْ يُوْمَ أَرَبَّعِمَائْةَ مَرَةً". قَلُوا: يَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَمِنْ يَدْخِلُهَا قَالَ: "الْقُرَّاءُ إِذَا أَشَاءُوا بِعَمَلاَيْنِ". رَوَاهُ الْفَالِقُ وَكَذَا إِبْنُ مَاجِحُ وَزَادَ فِيهِ: "وَإِنْ مِنْ آبَاتِ الْقُرَّاءِ إِلَى اللَّهِ تَعَالَى الَّذِينَ يَزُوَّرُونَ الْأَمْرَاءَ". قَالَ المحَرِّبِي: يَعْني الجُوُرَة.

258. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Seek protection with Allaah from the wells of grief and sorrow (Jubb e Huzn).” (Hearing this) the companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is this Jubb e Huzn?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There is a pit in Jahannam from which Jahannam itself seeks protection 400 times daily.” The companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, who will be thrown into it?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who recites the Qur’aan and shows off in his action.” [Tirmidhi]. Ibn Maajah has narrated similar and in his narration these words are mentioned that “From the Qurra’ those that are most hated are those who meet the rulers.” And (one of the narrators) Muhaaribi said that rulers here means oppressive rulers.

A Prophesy of Rasulullaah ﷺ

وعن علي قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم: " يوشك أن يأتي ع

الناس زمان لا يبقى من الإسلام إلا اسمه ولا يبقى من القرآن إلا اسمه مساجدهم

عامرة وهي خراب من الهدى علماؤهم شر من تحت أديم السماء من عندهم

تخرج الفتنة وفيهم تعود " . رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان

259. Hadhrat Ali  ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Soon a time will come upon people that from Islaam only its name will remain and from the Qur’aan only its letters will remain. Apparently, their Masaajid will be filled but in reality it will be empty of guidance. The scholars of that time will be the worst creation under the sun; fitnah will come from them and return to them.” [Bayhaqi]

The consequence of not practising upon knowledge

 وعن زياد بن لبيد قال ذكر النبى صلى الله عليه و سلم شيئا فقال: ' ذاك عند

أوان ذهاب العلم ' . قلت: يا رسول الله وكيف يذهب العلم ونحن نقرأ القرآن

ونقرؤه أبناءنا ويقرؤه أبناء أبناءهم إلى يوم القيامة قال: ' ثلكنك أمك زياد إن

كنت لأراك من أفقه رجل بالمدينة أوليس هذه اليهود والنصارى يقرؤن التوراة

والإنجيل لا يعملون بشيء مما فيهما " . رواه أحمد وابن ماجه وروى الترمذي

260. Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Labeed  ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ mentioned one thing (i.e. fitnah and people getting involved in it), he then said, “This will be when knowledge is lifted.” (Hearing this) I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, how will knowledge be lifted when we recite the Qur’aan and teach our children and these children (grow older) and they teach their children until Qiyaamat (i.e. when the chain of learning and teaching Qur’aan will remain in the Ummah until Qiyaamat, then how can knowledge be lifted from this world?) Upon this Rasulullah ﷺ said, “May your mother lose you, I understood you to be the person with most understanding of the people of Madinah. Do these Christians and Jews not teach their children? However, whatever is in these books (in the form of guidance and laws) they do not practice upon anything.” [Ahmad, Ibn Maajah]

Do not fall short in learning and teaching the knowledge of Deen

وعن ابن مسعود قال : قال لي رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "تعلموا العلم وعلموا الناس تعلموا الفرائض وعلموا القرآن وعلموا الناس فإني أمرؤ مقبوض والعلم سيقبض وتظهر الفتن حتى يختلف اثنان في فريضة لا يجدان أحداً يفصل بينهما " . رواه الدارمي والدارقطني

261. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to me, “Learn knowledge of Deen and teach people. Learn the knowledge of inheritance (or the laws that are obligatory) and teach it to people. Learn the knowledge of Qur’aan and teach people because I am a human being that will be lifted (from this world) and (later on) knowledge will also be lifted and fitnah will come about until two people will have a difference of opinion about something obligatory but (because of lack of knowledge or abundant fitnah) they will not find anyone who will decide between them.” [Daarimi, Ad Daar Qutni]
The example of useless knowledge

وعن أبي هريرة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "مثل علم لا ينفع به كمثل كنز لا ينفق منه في سبيل الله". رواه الدارمي

262. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The example of knowledge from which benefit is not attained (i.e. others are not taught, nor does a person practice on it) is like the treasure which is not spent in the path of Allaah.” [Ahmad, Daarimi]
The virtues of the Qur’aan

(Hadith 262 - 373)

Who is the best person?

عن عثمان رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " خيركم من تعلم القرآن وعلمه " . رواه البخاري

263. Hadhrat Uthmaan  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The best of you is he who learns the Qur’aan and teaches it.” [Bukhari]

The reward of learning and teaching the Qur’aan

 وعن عقبة بن عامر قال : خرج رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم ونحن في الصفة فقال : " أيكم يحب أن يغدو كل يوم إلى بطحان أو إلى العقيق فيأتي منه بنائتي كوماوين في غير إثم ولا قطع رحم " فقلنا يا رسول الله نحب ذلك قال : " أفلا يغدو أحدكم إلى المسجد فيعلم أو يقرأ آيتين من كتاب الله عز و جل خير له من ناقة أو ناقتين وثلاث خير له من ثلاث وأربع خير له من أربع ومن أعدادهن من الإبل " . رواه مسلم

264. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  came out. We were sitting upon Safa. Rasulullaah  said, “Which of you likes to go daily to Buthaan or Aqeeq and bring two huge humped camels without committing any sin or breaking ties?” We said, “O Rasul of Allaah, we would all like this.” Rasulullaah  said, “(Listen well) who so of you goes to the Masjid and teach someone two verses of the Qur’aan or learn yourself, then it is better for him than two camels. Three verses are better for him than three camels and four verses are better for him than four camels. In summary, the number of verses is correspondingly better than the number of camels. (i.e. five verses are better than five camels, six verses are better than six camels, similarly going upwards).” [Muslim]

The reward of reciting the Qur’aan in Salaat

"وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "أيحب أحدكم إذا رجع إلى أهله أن يجد فيه ثلاث خلفات عظام سمان " . قلنا : نعم . قال : "فثلاث آيات يقرأ بهن أحدكم في صلاته خير له من ثلاث خلفات عظام سمان " . رواه مسلم"

265. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Do any of you like this that when he returns home, there are three pregnant and fat camels there?” We said, “Yes.” Rasulullaah  said, “Whoever of you recites three verses of the Qur’aan in Salaah it is better for him than three pregnant and big fat camels.” [Muslim]

The reward of the one who recites properly and the one who makes mistakes

"وعن عائشة رضي الله عنها قالت : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "الماهر بالقرآن مع السفرة الكرام البررة والذي يقرأ القرآن ويتتعتع فيه وهو عليه شاق له أجران " . رواه مسلم"

266. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The master of the Qur’aan is with those angels who write and are pious and lofty and the person who recites with difficulty and reciting (Qur’aan) is difficult for him, he gets double reward.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Two servants worthy of emulation

وعن ابن عمر قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " لا حسد إلا على اثنين : رجل آتاه الله القرآن فهو يقوم به أناء الليل وأناء النهار ورجل آتاه الله مالا فهو ينفق منه أناء الليل وأناء النهار " (متفق عليه )

267. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “It is only permissible to have jealousy for two people. One is the person whom Allaah has given the blessing of the Qur’aan and this person is involved in it most of the day and night. The second person is he whom Allaah has given wealth and most of the day and night he spends it.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The example of the Muslim who recites the Qur’aan, the one who does not recite it and the hypocrite who recites

وعن أبي موسى الأشعري قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " مثل المؤمن الذي يقرأ القرآن كمثل الأترجة ريحها طيب وطعمها طيب ومثل المؤمن الذي لا يقرأ القرآن كمثل النمرة لا ريح لها وطعمها حلوة و مثل المنافق الذي لا يقرأ القرآن كمثل النمرة ليس لها ريح وطعمها مر و مثل المنافق الذي يقرأ القرآن مثل الريحانة ريحها طيب وطعمها مر " (متفق عليه ) وفي رواية : " المؤمن الذي يقرأ القرآن و يعمل به كالأتجرة والمؤمن الذي لا يقرأ القرآن و يعمل به كالنمرة " (متفق عليه )
268. Hadhrat Abu Musa Ash’ari ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The example of the Muslim who reads the Qur’aan is like citron (a pale yellow fruit). Its smell is sweet and its taste is good and the Muslim that does not read the Qur’aan is like dates, it does not have a sweet smell but it is sweet and the hypocrite who recites the Qur’aan is like wild gourd, it does not have a smell and it is bitter and the hypocrite that recites the Qur’aan is like a sweet smelling flower, it has a sweet smell but a bitter taste.” [Bukhari, Muslim]. One narration states that the Muslim who recites the Qur’aan and practices upon it is like citron and the Muslim that does not recite the Qur’aan and practices upon it is like dates.

The progress and retrogression of the Muslims

وعن عمر بن الخطاب قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إن الله يرفع بهذا الكتاب أقواما ويضع به آخرين". رواه مسلم

269. Hadhrat Umar bin Al Khattaab ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Definitely through this Book of Allaah how many are raised and through it how many are lowered.” [Muslim]

mmm

Descent of the angels upon the recitation of the Qur’aan

وعن أبي سعيد الخدري أن أسيد بن حضير قال: بينما هو يقرأ من الليل سورة البقرة وفرسه مربوطة عنده إذ جالت الفرس فسكتت فسكتت فقرا فإذن الفرس [247]
270. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates regarding Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudayr  that (one day) Hadhrat Usayd was reciting Surah Baqarah at night and his horse that was tied nearby suddenly began to jump. Subsequently, he stopped reading and the horse also stopped jumping. (Usayd thought that it was jumping about for no reason). He then started reading again. The horse jumped about again so he stopped and the horse stopped. Then when he read again the horse jumped again (now he felt that the horse was not jumping for any reason but there is some reason). Subsequently, he stopped reading (coincidentally) his son by the name of Yahya was close to the horse. He feared that the horse should not trample the child and harm it (he therefore got up and went to the horse in order to move the child from there). When he moved the child and he looked towards the sky then he saw something like a cloud in which there were lit lamps. When morning came then Usayd mentioned this incident to Rasulullaah . He said, “Ibn Hudayr, carry on reading. Ibn Hudayr, carry on reading.” Usayd said, “O Rasul of Allaah, I had fear that the horse should not trample Yahya because Yahya was close to the horse. Subsequently, when I went to Yahya and lifted my head to the sky then I saw something like a cloud in which there were lit lamps. Then I (in order to investigate at home) came out but I did not see it
(the lamp).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do you know what that was?” Usayd said, “No.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “They were angels that came close to hear the voice of your recitation, if you carried on reading, then morning would have come in this way that people would see the angels and those angels would not be absent from the sight of the people.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Descent of tranquillity upon the recitation of the Qur’aan

وعن البراء بن عازب قال: كان رجل يقرأ سورة الكهف وإلى جانبه حصان مربوط بشطينين فتغشته سحابة فجعلت تدنو وتدنو وجعل فرسه ينفر فلما أصبح أتى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فذكر ذلك له فقال: " تلك السكينة تنزلت بالقرآن ( متفق عليه ) "

271. Hadhrat Bara’ .. narrates that (one day) a person was reciting Surah Kahf and close to him his horse was tied with two ropes and a piece of cloud covered. It came closer until the horse began jumping. When morning came then the person went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and mentioned the entire incident. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It was tranquility that descends when the Qur’aan is recited.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

وعن أبي سعيد بن المعلى قال: كنت أصلي في المسجد فدعاني النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فلم أجبه حتى صليت ثم أتيته. فقال يا رسول الله إنى كنت أصلي فقالل م بقل الله ( استجيبوا لله وللرسول إذا دعاءكم) ثم قال لي: " ألا أعلمك
272. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed bin Mu’alla  narrates that (one day) he was performing Salaah in the Masjid and Rasulullah ﷺ called me. At that time I did not reply. Then (upon completing Salaah) when I went to Rasulullah ﷺ I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, (at the time) I was performing Salaah (therefore I did not reply).” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Has Allaah not said that answer Allaah and His Rasul when the Rasul calls you?” Rasulullah ﷺ then said, “Before we leave this Masjid shall I not teach you a great Surah of the Qur’an?” He ﷺ caught my hand and when we left the Masjid I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, you told me that shall I not teach you a great Surah of the Qur’aan?” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “That Surah is ( الحمد لله رب العالمين ). It has seven verses that are repeated in Salaah and it is the great Qur’aan given to me.”

[Bukhari]

The virtue of Surah Baqarah

وَعِنَّ أَبِي هَريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " لَا تَجْعَلوا بيوتكم مقابر إن الشيطان ينفر من البيت الذي يقرأ فيه سورة البقرة " .

رواه مسلم

273. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Do not make your homes into graveyards. (Remember) Shaytaan flees the home in which Surah Baqarah is recited.” [Muslim]
The virtues of Surah Baqarah and Surah Aal Imraan

عن أبي أمامة قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم يقول : " اقرأوا القرآن فإنه يأتي يوم القيامة شفيعا لأصحابه اقرأوا الزهراوين البقرة وسورة آل عمران فإنهما تأتيان يوم القيامة كأنهما غمامتان أو كأنهما غيانتان أو كأنهما غامدان أو كأنهما فراقان من طير صواف تحاجان عن أصحابهما اقرأوا سورة البقرة فإن أخذها بركة وتركها حسرة ولا تستطيعها البطلة " . رواه مسلم

274. Hadhrat Abu Umamah ﷺ narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Recite the Qur’aan for it will intercede for its reciters on the Day of Qiyaamat and (especially) the two Surahs who will argue, i.e. Surah Baqarah and Surah Aal Imraan because both of them will come in this way on the Day of Qiyaamat as though they are two pieces of cloud or two shading things or two pieces of arranged rows of birds and they will argue on behalf of those who recited them and recite Surah Baqarah because reciting it regularly, thinking and pondering over its meaning and purport and practicing upon its laws is blessings (i.e. great benefit) and leaving it will be a source of regret on the Day of Qiyaamat and (remember due to Surah Baqarah being long) those who are lazy and lethargic will not have the strength to read it.” [Muslim] وعن النواس بن سمعان قال: سمعت النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم يقل: "يؤتى بالقرآن يوم القيامة وأهله الذين كانوا يعملون به تقدمه سورة البقرة وآل عمران كأنهما غمامتان أو ظلتان سوداوان بينهما شرق أو كأنهما فرقان من طير صوف تحايان عن صاحبانهما". رواه مسلم.

275. Hadhrat Nawwaas bin Sam’aan  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that on the Day of Qiyaamat the Qur’aan and those people who recited the Qur’aan and practised upon it will be brought. Surah Baqarah and Surah Aal Imraan will be in front of the Qur’aan as though they are two pieces of cloud or two black pieces of cloud. In between them will be a light or as though two pieces of rows of birds who will argue on behalf of those who recited it (i.e. they will intercede for those who recited them).” [Muslim]

The greatest verse

The virtue of Aayatul Kursi

277. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ commanded him to guard over the Zakaat of Ramadaan and to collect it (so that he could distribute it after it has been collected). Subsequently, (in this time) a person came to me and with his hands (in his clothing and utensil) began to fill grain. I caught him and said, “I shall take you to Rasulullah ﷺ “(and get you punished for this wrong action). He said that I am needy, I have to bear the expense of my family and I am in great need (i.e. I have debts etc. as well). Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says that (hearing of his destitute condition) he left him. When morning came, then Rasulullah said to me, “Abu Hurayrah, what happened to your prisoner of last night?” I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, he mentioned his great need and the crying of his family so I had mercy on him and I left him.” Rasulullah said, “Be wary, he lied to you (in mentioning the condition of his family). He will come again.” I understood that he will definitely come again because Rasulullah said that he will definitely come again. Subsequently, I waited for him. He came and began filling grain using both his hands. I caught him and said, “(Now) I shall take you to Rasulullah. He said that leave me, I am needy, I have the expenses of my family, I shall not come again. I had mercy on him and left him. When morning came then Rasulullah said to me, “Abu Hurayrah, what happened to your prisoner?” I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, he explained his severe need and he cried over the condition of his family therefore I had mercy on him and I left him. Rasulullah said, “Be alert, this time he also lied (that I shall not come again) he will come again.” Subsequently, I waited for him. He came again. He began to fill grain so I caught him and said, “Today I shall definitely take you to Rasulullah. The third time is the last. You said that you will not come again, but you came.” He said, “Leave me, I shall teach you such words that on account of them Allaah will give you benefit (and these words are) when you go to bed (to sleep) then recite Aayatul Kursi to the end of the verse. [from (الله لا إله إلا هو الحي القيوم)] from the side of Allaah there will always be an angel guarding and until the morning no devil (whether he be from human or jinn in order to give you some difficulty in Deen and the world) will come to you. I heard this and left him this time as well. When morning came then Rasulullaah ﷺ asked me again, “What happened to your prisoner?” I said, “The prisoner said this to me that he will teach me these words through which Allaah ☪ will give me benefit (so I left him).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Beware, (although) he spoke the truth to you (regarding these words), in other things he is a liar. And you know that who you were speaking to these three nights?” I said, “No.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He was Shaytaan (who came to decrease the wealth of charity though his trickery and plotting).” [Bukhari]

278. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that (one day) Hadhrat Jibreel  was sitting with Rasulullaah  and he heard the sound of a door opening from above. Subsequently, he lifted his head and said, “This door of the heavens opened only today. It was not opened before today.” This angel came to earth today. He has never come before this to earth.” Then the angel greeted him (Rasulullaah ) and said, “Be happy with two lights you will be given. No Nabi was given them before you. Those two (lights) are Surah al Faatiha and the last part of Surah Baqarah. Whichever word of them you recite, it will definitely be given to you (i.e. you will get reward or your Du’aa’ will be accepted).” [Muslim]

The virtue of the last two verses of Surah Baqarah

 وعن أبي مسعود قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " الآيتان من آخر سورة البقرة من قرأ بهما في ليلة كفتاه " ( متفق عليه )

279. Hadhrat Abu Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The person who recites the last two verses of Surah Baqarah at night, i.e. from (آمن الرسول) to the end, it is sufficient for him.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The virtue of the first 10 verse of Surah Kahf

وعن أبي الدرداء قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " من حفظ عشر آيات من أول سورة الكهف عصم من فتنة الدجال " . رواه مسلم

280. Hadhrat Abu Darda .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who learns the first ten verses of Surah Kahf will be saved from (the evil of) Dajjaal.” [Muslim]

The virtues of Surah Ikhlaas

وعن أبي الدرداء قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " أيجز أحدكم أن يقرأ في ليلة ثلث القرآن ؟ " قالوا : وكيف يقرأ ثلث القرآن ؟ قال : " قل هو الله أحد " يعدل ثلث القرآن " . رواه مسلم

281. Hadhrat Abu Darda .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Are any of you helpless from reciting a third of the Qur’aan in a night?” The companions said, “How can a third of the Qur’aan be recited?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(قل هو الله أحد) is equal to a third of the Qur’aan (the person who recites it at night, it is as though he recited a third of the Qur’aan.” [Muslim]

282. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ made a person the leader of the army and sent him. This person used to lead his companions in Salaah as well and (it was his practice that his recitation) used to be completed on (قل هو الله أحد). When they (the army) returned, they mentioned this to Rasulullaah ﷺ. He said to them, “Ask him why he does this.” The people asked him so he said, “I do this because in this Surah, the quality of Allaah is mentioned and I like that (looking at the quality of Allaah) to recite this Surah continuously.” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Tell this person that Allaah has friendship with him (because he has friendship with Allaah).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

وعن عقبة بن عامر قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "ألم تر آيات أنزلت الليلة لم ير مثلهن قط (قل أعوذ برب الفلق) و (قل أعوذ برب الناس) رواه مسلم

284. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Tonight such unique verses have come down that (in seeking protection) there is no reply to them. They are (قل أعوذ برب الفلق) and (قل أعوذ برب الناس)” [Muslim]

 وعن عائشة : أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم كان إذا أوى إلى فراشه كل ليلة جمع كفيه ثم نفث فيهما فقرأ فيهما (قل هو الله أحد) و (قل أعوذ برب الفلق) و (قل أعوذ برب الناس) ثم يمسح بهما ما استطاع من جسده يبدأ بهما على رأسه ووجهه وما أقبل من جسده يفعل ذلك ثلاث مرات " [Bukhari, Muslim] Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha says that every night, when Rasulullaah  came to bed, then (before sleeping) he put his hands together and blew on them and then he recited (قل هو الله أحد) and (قل أعوذ برب الفلق) (then passed his hands over his body to where they could reach. First he passed his hands on his head, face and front part of his body (then he passed his hands on the rest of his body. He did this action (reciting, blowing and passing his hands over his body) thrice.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

On the Day of Qiyaamat three things will be below the ‘Arsh

عن عبد الرحمن بن عوف عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "ثلاثة تحت العرش يوم القيامة القرآن يحاج العباد له ظهر وبطن والأمانة والرحم تنادي : ألا من وصلني وصله الله ومن قطعني قطعه الله". رواه في شرح السنة
285. Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the Day of Qiyaamat, three things will be below the ‘Arsh. One will be the Qur’aan that will argue for the servant and the Qur’aan has an apparent and a hidden side. The second thing below the ‘Arsh will be trust and the third will be family ties that will call out, “Know well, the person who joined me, Allaah ﷺ will join him (to His mercy) and the person who cut me (broke off ties), Allaah ﷺ will cut him off (from His mercy).” [Sharh us Sunnah]

The status of a person of the Qur’aan

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " يقال لصاحب القرآن : اقرأ وارتق ورتل كما كنت ترتل في الدنيا فإن منزلك عند آخر آية تقرأها " . رواه أحمد والترمذي أبو داود والنسائي

286. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(On the day of Qiyaamat) the person of the Qur’aan will be told that read and (along the stages of Jannah) continue to rise and recite slowly like you used to read in the world. Your stage will be by the last verse that you recite.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

وعن أبي سعيد قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "يقول الرب تبارك وتعالى: من شغله القرآن عن ذكري وسئلتي أعطيته أفضل ما أعطي السائلين. وفضل كلام الله على سائر الكلام كفضل الله على خلقه". رواه الترمذي والدارمي والبيهقي في شعب الإيمان

288. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ says that whichever person is kept away from My remembrance and from asking Me on account of the Qur’aan, then I shall grant him better than that which I grant to those who ask and in comparison to all speech, the speech of Allaah has the honour and greatness that Allaah ﷺ has over the creation. (Similarly, those who are involved in the Qur’aan have superiority over those who are involved in other things).” [Tirmidhi, Daarimi, Bayhaqi]
وعن ابن مسعود قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من قرأ حرفًا من كتاب الله فله حسنة والحسنة بعشر أمثالها لا أقول : آ لم حرف . ألف حرف ولام حرف وميم حرف " . رواه الترمذي والدارمي

289. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who recites a single letter of the Qur’aan will get a reward in lieu of every letter recited that is equal to ten rewards (i.e. a person will get ten rewards for every letter of the Qur’aan recited), I do not say that Alif Laam Meem is one letter (but) Alif is one letter, Laam is one letter and Meem is one letter (i.e. a person will thirty rewards for reading Alif Laam Meem).” [Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

وعن الحارث الأعور قال : مررت في المسجد فذا الناس يخوضون في الأحاديث فدخلت على علي رضي الله عنه فأخبرته قال : أوقد فعلوها ؟ قلت نعم قال : أما إني قد سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول : " ألا إنها ستكون فتنة " . فقلت ما الخرج منها يا رسول الله قال : " كتاب الله فيه نبأ ما كان قبلكم وخبر ما بعدكم وحكم ما بينكم وهو الفصل ليس بالهزل من تركه من جبار واقتبه من نفسكم وهو النذر الحكيم وهو الصراط المستقيم هو الذي لا تريع به الأوهام ولا تلتبس به الألسنة ولا يشع منه العلماء ولا يخلق على كثرة الرد ولا ينقص عجابه هو الذي لم تتنه الجن إذ سمعته حتى قالوا ( إذا سمعنا قرآنا عجبا يهدى إلى الرشد فأمنا به ) من قال به صدق ومن عمل به أجر ومن حكم به عدل ومن دعا إليه هدى إلى صراط مستقيم " . رواه الترمذي والدارمي

290. Hadhrat Haarith A’war narrates that I went to the Masjid (in Kufah to a gathering of people seated there) (so I saw that those) people were involved in useless talk (stories and tales). I then went to Hadhrat Ali .. and told him. Hadhrat Ali .. said, “Have they definitely done so?” (that they have left the recitation of the Qur’aan and are involved in useless talk?) I said, “Yes.” Hadhrat Ali .. said, “Listen, I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that know well, there will be fitnah (i.e. there will be differences in the thinking of people regarding Deen and beliefs. There will be laziness in actions and deviation will be created and deviated people will create new viewpoints and religions in the name of Islaam).” I said, “What is the way of attaining salvation from this?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The book of Allaah (i.e. the path of salvation is practising upon the Qur’aan) in which the condition of the people of before is and it also tells of that which will happen after you (i.e. the signs and conditions of Qiyaamat). This Qur’aan has the laws pertaining to that which happens among you and (remember) this Qur’aan differentiates between truth and falsehood. It is not something useless and (listen to this well also), the proud one who left the Qur’aan, Allaah will destroy him and the one who seeks guidance in something else besides the Qur’aan (other books and knowledge that contradicts the Qur’aan), Allaah will make him go astray. The Qur’aan is the firm rope of Allaah (i.e. it is the strongest means of attaining closeness to Allaah and recognition of Him). The Qur’aan is remembrance and explanation full of wisdom. The Qur’aan is the straight path. The Qur’aan is the fountainhead of guidance, the consequence of following it is that the base desires are not inclined from following falsehood from truth, other languages do not have its tongue, the scholars are never satiated with it and the Noble Qur’aan does not become old through abundant recitation, nor do its strange aspects come to an end. The Noble Qur’aan is the speech which the Jinn heard and without stopping a moment they said that we have heard the unique Qur’aan which shows the path of guidance. Therefore, we believe in it (remember) the person who speaks in accordance to the Qur’aan speaks the truth and the one who practises upon it will be rewarded. The one who decides (between people) in accordance to the Qur’aan, he is just and he who calls (others to) believe in it and practise upon it has been shown the straight path (i.e. he is guided).”
The reward of reciting and practising upon the Qur’aan

 وعن معاذ الجهني : أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : "من قرأ القرآن وعمل بما فيه ألبس والداه تاجا يوم القيامة ضوءه أحسن من ضوء الشمس في بيوت الدنيا لو كانت فيكم فما ظنكم بالذي عمل بهذا ؟ " . رواه أحمد وأبو داود.

291. Hadhrat Mu’aadh Juhani ٍ narratives that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who recites the Qur’aan and practices upon that which is mentioned in it, his parents will be made to wear a crown on the Day of Qiyaamat – the light of it outshines the light of the sun in the homes of the world, if (assuming) the sun is in your homes, now you can understand the status of the person who practiced upon the Qur’aan.” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

 وعن عقبة بن عامر قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : " لو جعل القرآن في إهاب ثم ألقي في النار ما احترق " . رواه الدارمي

292. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir ٍ narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, “If the Qur’aan is placed in a skin and thrown into the fire, then it will not be affected by the fire.” (i.e. he who recites the Qur’aan and practices upon it, if he is thrown into a fire then the fire of Jahannam will not affect him). وعن علي بن أبي طالب رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من قرأ القرآن فاستظهره فأحل حلاله وحرم حرامه أدخله الله به الجنة وشفعه في عشرة من أهل بيته كلهم قد وجبت له النار. رواه أحمد والترمذي وابن ماجه والدارمي

293. Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who learns the Qur’aan and takes the permitted to be permitted and the forbidden to be forbidden, Allaah ﷺ will enter him into Jannah and He will accept his intercession for ten of his family members – for each of them the fire had become compulsory.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah, Daarimi]

وعن أبي هريرة أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال لأبي بن كعب: "كيف تقرأ في الصلاة؟" فقرأ أم القرآن فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "والذي نفسي بيده ما أنزلت في التوراة ولا في الإنجيل ولا في الزبور ولا في القرآن مثلها وإنها سبع من المثاني والقرآن العظيم الذي أعطيته". رواه الترمذي وروى الدارمي من قوله: "ما أنزلت" ولم يذكر أبي بن كعب

294. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Ubayy bin Ka’b ﷺ, “(In Salaah) what do you recite?” He recited Surah Faatiha. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By the pure being in Whose control my life is, such a Surah has not been revealed in the Tauraat, nor in the Injeel, nor in the Zaboor, nor in the Qur’aan. Surah Faatiha is ‘Sab’ Mathaani’ (i.e. the seven oft repeated verses) and it is the great Qur’aan given to me.” [Tirmidhi]
The example of the one who recites the Qur’aan and the one who does not

وعن أبي هريرة قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " تعلموا القرآن فاقرأوه فإن مثل القرآن لمن تعلم وقام به كمثل جراب محشو مسكا يفوح ريحه كل مكان ومثل من تعلمه فرقد وهو في جوفه كمثل جراب أوكى على مسك " . رواه الترمذي والنسائي وإبن ماجه

295. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﬁnarrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Learn the Qur’aan then read it because the person who learns the Qur’aan then reads it and practises upon it, his example is like that basket that is filled with musk. The smell of it spreads all over. And the example of the one who learns the Qur’aan and sleeps (i.e. he does recite the Qur’aan or practise upon it) is like the basket of musk that is tied up.” [Tirmidhi, Nasa’i, Ibn Maajah]

The virtue of the last two verses of Surah Baqarah

297. Hadhrat Nu’man bin Bashir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah wrote a book 2000 years before creating the earth and skies (i.e. He gave the command to the angels to write). In this book, two verses were revealed (and) upon them Surah Baqarah was completed. (i.e. from آمن الرسول to the end). Shaytaan does not go near the house in which these verses are recited for three nights.” [Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

The virtue of the first 3 verses of Surah Kahf

298. Hadhrat Abu Darda  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who recites the first three verses of Surah Kahf will be saved from the fitnah of Dajjaal.” [Tirmidhi]
The heart of the Qur’aan

وعن ابن عباس قال: ضرب بعض أصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم خباه على قبر وهو لا يحسب أنه قبر فإذا فيه إنسان يقرأ سورة (تبارك الذي بيه الملك) حتى ختمها فأتى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فأخبره فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "هي المانعة هي المنجية تنجيه من عذاب القبر." رواه الترمذي.

305. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that one of the companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ erected his tent on a grave and he did not know that there is a grave here. He suddenly heard a person in it (the grave) reciting (تبارك الذي بيه الملك) until he completed the Surah. After this, the person who erected his tent went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and told him this. Rasulullaah ﷺ said that Surah Mulk stops from punishment and grants salvation. This Surah saves one from the punishment of Allaah.” [Tirmidhi]
The habitual practice of Rasulullaah ﷺ before sleeping

306. Hadhrat Jaabir ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ never slept without reciting Alif Laam Meem Tanzeel (Surah Sajdah) and (تبارك الذي بيده الملك).” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

Virtue of three Surahs

وعن ابن عباس وأنس بن مالك رضي الله عنهم قالا: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: ( إذا زلزلت ) تعدل نصف القرآن ( قل هو الله أحد ) تعدل ثلث القرآن و ( قل يا أيها الكافرون ) تعدل ربع القرآن " . رواه الترمذي

307. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ and Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik ﷺ both narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Surah (إذا زلزلت) equals half the Qur’aan and (قل هو الله أحد) equals a third of the Qur’aan and (قل يا أيها الكافرون) equals a quarter of the Qur’aan.” [Tirmidhi]

The virtues of the last 3 verses of Surah Hashr

308. Hadhrat Ma’qal bin Yasaar ﷺ narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “The person who recites thrice in the morning (أعوذ بالله السميع العليم من الشيطان الرجيم) ‘I seek protection with Allaah the all Hearing all Seeing from the rejected Shaytaan’ then the last three verses of Surah Hashr (i.e. from (هو الله الذي لا إله إلا هو) to the end) Allaah ﷺ appoints 70000 angels who make Du’aa for him (for goodness, mercy and forgiveness) till the evening. And if the person dies during that day he will die a martyr. And the person who recites it in the evening, he will get this (above mentioned) fortune until the morning.” [Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

309. Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who recites every day (قل هو الله أحد) 200 times, then the sins of fifty years are wiped off from him except if he has a debt.” [Tirmidhi, Daarimi]
وعن أنس عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من أراد أن ينام على فراشه فنام على يمينه ثم قرأ مائة مرة (قل هو الله أحد) إذا كان يوم القيامة يقول له الرب: يا عبدي ادخل على يمينك الجنة". رواه الترمذي

310. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, "he who intends to sleep on his bed, then he lies on his right and recites 100 times (قل هو الله أحد), then on the Day of Qiyaamat Allaah will say to him that O My servant, enter Jannah on your right." [Tirmidhi]

وعن أبي هريرة أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم سمع رجلا يقرأ (قل هو الله أحد) فقال: "وجبتي" قلت: وما وجبت؟ قال: "الجنة". رواه مالك والترمذي والنسائي

311. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one time) Rasulullaah  heard a person reciting (قل هو الله أحد) and he said, "It has become compulsory for him." I said, "What has become compulsory?" He replied, "Jannah." [Maalik, Tirmidhi, Nasa’i]

Virtues of Surah Kaafiroon

وعن فروة بن نوفل عن أبيه: أنه قال: يا رسول الله علمني شيئا أقوله إذا أويت إلى فراشي. فقال: "اقرأ (قل يا أيها الكافرون) فإنها براءة من الشرك". رواه الترمذي وأبو داود والدارمي

312. Hadhrat Farqah bin Nawfal narrates from his father that he said to Rasulullaah  , "O Rasul of Allaah, teach me something that I could recite before going to bed (i.e. before sleeping)?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Recite (قل يا أبا الكافرون) because this Surah is freedom from polytheism (therefore recite it and sleep, then you will sleep pure from polytheism and if you die, you will die upon Tauheed).”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Daarimi]

Virtues of the 3 Quls

 وعن عقبة بن عامر قال : بينا أنا سير مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم بين الجحفة والأبواء إذ غشيتنا ريح وظلمة شديدة فجعل رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يعوذ ب (أعوذ برب الفلق) و (أعوذ برب الناس) ويقول : "يا عقبة تعوذ بهما فما تعوذ متعوذ بمثلهما " . رواه أبو داود

313. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir .. says that (once) when we were going with Rasulullaah ﷺ to Juhfah and Abwa (two places between Makkah and Madinah), then suddenly there was a severe wind and intense darkness that covered us. Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ began seeking protection through (قل يأب الكافرون) and (قل أعوذ برب الناس) (i.e. he began reciting these Surahs) and also said to me, “Uqbah, seek protection through these two Surahs because no one seeking protection has sought protection through something similar to these two Surahs.” [Abu Dawud]

 وعن عبد الله بن خبيب قال : خرجنا في ليلة مطر وظلمة شديدة فأدركناه فقال : "قل " . قلت ما أقول ؟ قال : "قل هو الله أحد ) والمعوذتين حين تصبح وحين تمضي ثلاث مرات تكفيك من كل شيء " . رواه الترمذي وأبو داود والنسائي
314. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Khubayb  narrates that we left in search of Rasulullah at night when there was a severe wind and rain. (i.e. he left to go somewhere and we left to look for him so that we could be with him). Subsequently, we found him. He said at the time, “Read.” I said, “What should i read?” He said, “Recite (قل هو الله أحد) and (قل أعوذ برب الفلق) thrice morning and evening, it will suffice for you for everything (i.e. it will push away every calamity and difficulty).” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

315. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, shall I recite Surah Hud or Surah Yusuf? (in order to seek protection and to be saved from evil) Rasulullaah  said, “You can never read something that is more complete than (قل أعوذ برب الفلق) and (قل أعوذ برب الناس) in the sight of Allaah.” [Ahmad, Nasa’i, Daarimi]
Practice upon the Qur’aan

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "أعربوا القرآن واتبعوا غرائبه وغرائبه فرائضه وحدوده". رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان

316. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah叙述说，Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Explain the meaning of the Qur’aan and follow its Gharaa’ib. Its Gharaa’ib is the Faraa’idh and its Hudood.” [Faraa’idh refers to its commands and Hudood refers to its prohibitions]. [Bayhaqi]

Recitation of the Qur’aan is better than other Azkaar

وعن عائشة رضي الله عنها: أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "قراءة القرآن في الصلاة أفضل من قراءة القرآن في غير الصلاة وقراءة القرآن في غير الصلاة أفضل من التسبيح والتكبير والتسبيح أفضل من الصدقة والصدقة أفضل من الصوم والصوم جنة من النار". رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان

317. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is more virtuous to recite the Qur’aan in Salaah than it is to recite out of Salaah and reciting the Qur’aan out of Salaah is more rewarding than Tasbeeh and Takbeer and Tasbeeh carries more reward than Sadaqah and Sadaqah carries more reward than fasting and fasting is a shield from the fire.” [Bayhaqi]
The reward for reciting the Qur’aan from memory and looking inside

وعن عثمان بن عبد الله بن أوس الثقفي عن جده قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "قراءة الرجل القرآن في غير المصحف ألف درجة وقراءته في المصحف تضعف عل ذلك إلى ألفي درجة". رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان

318. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abdullaah bin Aus Thaqafi narrates from his grandfather (Hadhrat Aus ) that he said that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “A person reciting without the Qur’aan (i.e. from memory) holds a status of 1000 stages and the reward for looking into the Qur’aan and reciting holds a status of 2000.” [Bayhaqi]

How is the rust of the hearts removed?

وعن ابن عمر رضي الله عنهما قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إن هذه القلوب تصدأ كما يصدأ الحديد إذا أصابه الماء". قيل يا رسول الله وما جلاوها؟ قال: "كثره ذكر الموت وتلاوة القرآن". روى البيهقي الأحاديث الأربعة في شعب الإيمان

319. Hadhrat Ibn Umar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Remember, the heart gets rusted like how iron does when water touches it.” It was said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is the means of removing it and purifying it?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Remembering death in abundance and recitation of the Qur’aan.” [Bayhaqi]
A great Surah, great verse and beloved verses

وعن أيفع بن عبد الكلاعي قال : قال رجل : يا رسول الله أي سورة القرآن أعظم ؟ قال : (قل هو الله أحد) قال : فأي آية في القرآن أعظم ؟ قال : آية الكرسي (الله لا إله إلا هو الحي القيوم) قال : فأي آية يا نبي الله تحب أن نصيبك وأمتك ؟ قال : "خاتمة سورة البقرة فإنها من خزائن رحمة الله تعالى من تحت عرشه أعطاها هذه الأمة لم تترك خيرا من يخر الدنيا والآخرة إلا اشتملت عليه". رواه الدارمي

320. Hadhrat Ayfa’ bin Abdkala’i .. narrates that one person said to (Rasulullaah ﷺ), “O Rasul of Allaah, which is the greatest Surah in the Qur’aan?” He replied, “(قل هو الله أحد)" He said, “Which is the greatest verse in the Qur’aan?” He replied, “‘Aayatul Kursi.” (الله لا إله إلا هو الحي القيوم) He said, “O Rasul of Allaah, which is the verse regarding which you like that its (reward and benefit) reaches you and your Ummah?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The last part of Surah Baqarah, indeed it is from the treasures of the mercy of Allaah and it has come down from below the ‘Arsh and Allaah has given it to this Ummah and it entails all the goodness of this world and the Aakhirat.” [Tirmidhi]

Surah Faatiha is a cure for all illnesses

وعن عبد الملك بن عمیر مرسلا قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "في فاتحة الكتاب شفاء من كل داء " رواه الدارمي والبيهقي في شعب الإيمان

321. Hadhrat Abdul Malik bin Umayr narrates in Mursal form that Rasulullahah ﷺ said, “Surah Faatiha is a cure for all illnesses.” [Daarimi, Bayhaqi]
The virtue of the last section (Ruku) of Surah Aal Imraan

وعن عثمان بن عفان رضي الله عنه قال: من قرأ آخر آل عمران في ليلة كتب له قيام ليلة. رواه الدارمي

322. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan  narrates that whichever person recites the last portion of Surah Aal Imraan (the last section), the reward for standing in worship at night is written for him.” [Daarimi]

The virtue of Surah Aal Imraan

وعن مكحول قال: من قرأ سورة آل عمران يوم الجمعة صلت عليه الملائكة إلى الليل. رواه الدارمي

323. Hadhrat Makhool narrates that whosoever recites Surah Aal Imraan on Friday, the angels will make Du’aa’ and seek forgiveness for him until the night.” [Daarimi]

The virtue of the last 2 verses of Surah Baqarah

وعن جبیر بن نفیر رضی الله عنه أن رسول الله صلی الله علیه و سلم قال: "إن الله ختم سورة البقرة بآیتین أعطیتهما من کنزه الذي تحت العرش فتعلموه وعلموه نساءكم فإنها صلاة وقربان ودعاء". رواه الدارمي مرسلا

324. Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ completed Surah Baqarah upon two verses. I have been given them from His treasure that is below the ‘Arsh. Therefore learn these verses and teach them to your women because these verses are mercy and a means of attaining closeness to Allaah and a Du’aa (to attain all goodness in this world and in the Aakhirat).”

Virtues of Surah Sajdah and Surah Mulk

327. Hadhrat Khalid bin Ma’daan narrates that he said (in the beginning part of the night) that recite this Surah which grants salvation from punishment (of the grave and Hashr) and that is Surah Alif Laam Meem Tanzeel because it has reached me that there was a person who used to recite this Surah. He never used to recite anything but this Surah (i.e. he did not recite anything else but this Surah as a habitual incantation) and this person was a great sinner. Subsequently, when he passed away then this Surah spread its wings over him and said, ‘O my Rabb, forgive this person because he used to recite me in abundance.’ Allaah accepted the intercession of this Surah in favour of the person and commanded (the angels) to write good deeds in place of his bad deeds (in his book of deeds) and to raise his status. Hadhrat Khaalid also says that ‘Indeed this Surah will argue in the grave on behalf of its recite and it says, ‘O my Ilaah, if I am from Your book, then accept my intercession in favour of him and if I am not from Your book then wipe me out from it.’ Hadhrat Khaalid also says, “This Surah (in the grave) will come like a bird, it will spread its wings over the person and intercede (before Allaah) and it will save him from the punishment of the grave.” Hadhrat Khaalid also said regarding Surah Mulk (i.e. the effect and blessings of this Surah) and Hadhrat Khaalid never slept without reciting these Surahs. Hadhrat Ta’us says that these two Surahs have been given 60 rewards over every other Surah of the Qur’aan.” [Daarimi]
Recite Surah Yaaseen at the beginning of the day and near the dead

وعن عطاء بن أبي رباح قال: بلغني أن رسول الله صلى الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "من قرأ (يس) في صدر النهار قضيت حوائجه" رواه الدارمي مرسلا

328. Hadhrat Ata bin Abi Rabaah  says that this Hadith reached me that Rasulullaah  said, “He who recites Surah Yaaseen in the beginning of the day, his (worldly and religious) needs will be fulfilled.” [Daarimi]

وعن معقل بن يسار المزني رضي الله عنه أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "من قرأ (يس) ابتغاء وجه الله تعالى غفر له ما تقدم من ذنبه فاقرؤوها عند موتاكم". رواه البهقي في شعب الإيمان

329. Hadhrat Ma’qal bin Yasaar Muzani  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The one who recites Surah Yaaseen for the pleasure of Allaah , his past sins are forgiven. Therefore recite this Surah upon your deceased (i.e. those who are about to die or at the grave).” [Bayhaqi]

Virtues of Surah Baqarah and Mufassalaat

وعن عبد الله بن مسعود أنه قال: إن لكل شيء سنا و إن سنام القرآن سورة البقرة و إن لكل شيء لبابة و إن لبابة القرآن المفصل رواه الدارمي

330. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  narrates that everything has a high point and the high point of the Qur’aan is Surah Baqarah and everything has a summary (attainment of objective) and the summary of the Qur’aan is the Mufassalat (i.e. from Surah Hujuraat to the end of the Qur’aan is the summary of the Qur’aan).” [Daarimi]

Virtue of Surah Rahmaan

"وعن علي رضي الله عنه قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم يقول : "كل شيء عروس وعروس القرآن الرحمن " . رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان 331."

Specialties of Surah Waaqi’ah

"وعن ابن مسعود قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " من قرأ سورة الواقعة في كل ليلة لم تصبه فاقة ابدا " . وكان ابن مسعود يأمر بقراءته يقرأن بها في كل ليلة . رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان 332."

332. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who recites Surah Waaqi’ah every night, poverty will never afflict him.” Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. used to command his daughters to recite this Surah every night.

[Bayhaqi]
Virtue of Surah A’la

وعن علي رضي الله عنه قال: "كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يحب هذه السورة (سبح اسم ربك الأعلى) رواه أحمد

333. Hadhrat Ali   narrates that Rasulullaah   had a lot of love for this Surah (سبح اسم ربك الأعلى). [Ahmad]

A very comprehensive Surah

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال: أتى رجل النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال أقرأني يا رسول الله فقال: "اقرأ ثلاثا من ذوات (الر) فقال كبرت سنى واشتد قلبي وغلظ نساني قال: "فقرأ وثلاثا من ذوات (حم) فقال مثل مقالته. قال الرجل: يا رسول الله أقرئني سورة جامعة فأقرأه رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم (إذا زلزلت الأرض) حتى فرغ منها فقال الرجل: والذي بعثك بالحق لا أزيد عليه أبدا ثم أدر الرجل فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم أفلح الرجل "مرتين. رواه أحمد وأبو داود

334. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr   narrates that a person came to Rasulullaah   and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, teach me.” He said, “Recite the Surahs of the Qur’aan that begin with (الر), they are 3.” He said, “I have become old and my heart has hardened (i.e. forgetfulness overpowers my heart), moreover, my tongue is fat (i.e. lengthy Surahs cannot be read by me easily)” Rasulullaah   said, “If you cannot recite these Surahs, then recite three Surahs that begin with (حم) (because they are shorter compared to the others).” The person then said the same thing, “O Rasul of Allaah, teach me a comprehensive Surah (i.e. tell me of such a Surah which is comprehensive).” Subsequently, Rasulullaah   taught him Surah Zilzaal. When he completed teaching him the entire Surah, the person said, “By the being who sent you with the truth, I shall not exaggerate in practicing upon it.” The person then turned and Rasulullaah   said, “This person has attained the objective.” He said this twice. [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

Recite Surah Takaathur daily

وعن ابن عمر قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "ألا يستطيع أحدكم أن يقرأ ألف آية في كل يوم؟" قالوا: ومن يستطيع أن يقرأ ألف آية في كل يوم؟ قال: "أما يستطيع أحدكم أن يقرأ : (ألهاكم التكاثر)؟" رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان

335. Hadhrat Ibn Umar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Is not any of you able to recite 1000 verses daily.” The companions said, “Who is able to recite 1000 verses daily?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Does anyone not have the ability to recite (ألهاكم التكاثر) daily?” [Bayhaqi]

Recite Surah Ikhlaas in abundance

وعن سعيد بن المسيب مرسلا عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من قرأ : (قل هو الله أحد) عشر مرات بني له بها قصر في الجنة ومن قرأ عشرين مرة بني له بها قصور في الجنة ومن قرأاها ثلاثين مرة بني له بها ثلاثة قصور في الجنة. فقال عمر بن الخطاب رضي الله عنه: والله يا رسول الله إذا تكثرن قصورنا. فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "الله أوع陈某 من ذلك". رواه الدارمي

336. Hadhrat Sa’eed bin Musayyib □ narrates in Mursal form that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who recites (قل هو الله أحد) ten times, a palace is built in Jannah and the one who [286]
Recite the Qur’aan as much as possible

وعن الحسن مرسلاً: أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "من قرأ في ليلة مائة آية لم يحاجه القرآن تلك الليلة ومن قرأ في ليلة مائتي آية كتب له قنوت ليلة ومن قرأ في ليلة خمسمائة إلى الألف أصبح وله قنطار من الأجر " قالوا: وما القنطار؟ قال: "اثنا عشر ألفا" رواه الدرامي

337. Hadhrat Hasan Basri ﷺ narrates in Mursal form that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who recites 100 verses at night, the Qur’aan will not argue with him that night and the one who recites 200 verses, the reward for worshipping the night is written for him and the one who recites from 500 to 1000 verses at night, he will be in the morning in the condition that reward equal to a Qintaar will be given to him.” The companions asked, “What is a Qintaar?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “12000 (Dirhams or Dinaars).” [Daarimi]
Look after the Qur’aan

338. Hadhrat Abu Musa Ash’ari  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Look after the Qur’aan (i.e. recite it abundantly), by the being in whose control my life is, the Qur’aan leaves the bosoms as quicker than a camel leaves its rope.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

339. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This statement of a person is bad, ‘I forgot a particular verse’ in fact he should say ‘I was made to forget’ and continue learning the Qur’aan because it leaves the bosoms of people quicker than animals (from their ropes).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

وعن ابن عمر أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "إنما مثل صاحب القرآن كمثل صاحب الإبل المعقلة إن عاهد عليها أمسكها وإن أطلقها ذهبت.

340. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The example of a person of the Qur’aan (one who learns the Qur’aan) is like the owner of a tied camel, if he watches the animal then it remains tied and if he leaves it, it will go.” (Similarly, if a person does not continuously recite the Qur’aan then the Qur’aan will leave his bosom). [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

Until when should a person recite the Qur’aan?

 وعن جندب بن عبد الله قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " أقرأوا القرآن ما ائتلفت عليه قلوبكم فإذا اختلفتم فقوموا عنه " ( متفق عليه )

341. Hadhrat Jundub bin Abdullah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Recite the Qur’aan for as long as your heart desires and when you tire then stand up.” (i.e. stop reciting). [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm
How was the recitation of Rasulullaah ﷺ?

وعن قتادة قال : سئل أنس : كيف كانت قراءة النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال : كانت مدا مدا ثم قرأ : بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم يمد ببسم الله ويمد بالرحمن ويمد بالرحيم. رواه البخاري

342. Hadhrat Qatadah explains that Hadhrat Anas  was asked that how was the recitation of Rasulullaah ﷺ? Hadhrat Anas  said, “His recitation was slow.” Then Hadhrat Anas  recited Tasmiyah in such a way that he made Madd in ‘Bismillaah’, he made Madd in ‘Rahmaan’ and Madd in ‘Raheem’. [Bukhari]

Recite the Qur’aan with a good voice

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " ما أذن الله لشيء ما أذن لنبي يتغنى بالقرآن " ( متفق عليه )

343. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ does not listen to any voice just as (with the pleasure) He hears the voice of a Nabi reciting the Qur’aan in a good voice.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

344. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ does not love anything just as He loves a Nabi reciting the Qur’aan, when the Nabi recites the Qur’aan in a loud voice.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
345. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He is not of us who does not recite the Qur’aan with a good voice.” [Bukhari]

Listening to the Qur’aan from others

346. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood narrates that (one day) when Rasulullaah ﷺ was on the pulpit said, “Recite the Noble Qur’aan to me.” I said, “Shall I recite the Qur’an before you, when the Qur’aan is revealed upon you?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I like that I hear the Qur’aan from someone else.” Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood says, “Subsequently, I began reciting Surah Nisaa’ until I reached the verse (فكيف إذا جئنا من كل أمة بشهيد وجئنا بك على هؤلاء شهيدا) How will it be when We shall bring forth a witness from every nation and call you to be a witness over all of them?’ Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Stop now.” Then when I looked to him, there were tears flowing from his eyes.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
The status and rank of the reciter

347. Hadhrat Anas recounts that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Ubayy bin Ka’b, “Allaah ﷺ commanded me to recite the Qur’aan before you.” Hadhrat Ubayy said, “Did Allaah take my name before you?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes.” Hadhrat Ubayy said, “I was mentioned by the Rabb of the worlds?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes.” (The moment he heard this) tears flowed from the eyes of Hadhrat Ubayy. In one narration it states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Ubayy, “Allaah has commanded me to recite (لم يكن الذين كفروا) before you.” Hadhrat Ubayy said, “Did Allaah take my name?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes.” (The moment he heard this) Hadhrat Ubayy began crying.

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Do not take the Qur’aan to such a place where it will be disrespected

وعن ابن عمر قال : نهى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم أن يسافر بالقرآن إلى أرض العدو . منتفق عليه . وفي رواية لمسلم : " لا تسافروا بالقرآن فاني لا أمن أن يناله العدو " (منتفق عليه)
348. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  forbade from taking the Qur’aan on journey to the land of the enemy. [Bukhari, Muslim] in one narration of Muslim it states that do not undertake a journey with the Qur’aan for I do not have peace of mind whether it will fall into the hands of the enemy (as they will dishonour it).

Glad tidings for the poor emigrants

عن أبي سعيد الخدري قال : جلست في عصابة من ضعفاء المهاجرين وإن بعضهم ليستر ببعض من العري وقارئ يقرأ علينا إذ جاء رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقام علينا فلما قام رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم سكت القارئ فسلم ثم قال : " ما كنت تصنعون ؟ " قلنا : كنا نسمع إلى كتاب الله قال : " الحمد لله الذي جعل من أمتي من أمرت أن أصبر نفسي معهم " . قال فجلس وسطنا ليعدل بنفسه فينا ثم قال بيد هكذا فتحلقوا وبرزت وجوههم له فقال : " أبشروا يا معشر صعاليك المهاجرين بالنور التام يوم القيامة تدخلون الجنة قبل أغنياء الناس بنصف يوم وذلك خمسماة سنة " . رواه أبو داود --

349. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri .. narrates that (one day) I was sitting among a group of poor emigrants (i.e. the companions of the Suffah) and because of being naked, they were shielding themselves through their companions and a person was reciting the Qur’aan in front of us when suddenly Rasulullaah ﷺ suddenly came and stood amongst us. When the reciter saw Rasulullaah ﷺ, he kept quiet. He greeted us and said, “What were you doing?” We said, “We were listening to the book of Allaah.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “All praise is due to Allaah Who created such people in my Ummah regarding whom I have been commanded to sit with them.” The narrator says that (saying this) Rasulullaah ﷺ sat amongst us (i.e. he did not sit at the side of anybody) so that his relationship would be equal with all of us. He then indicated with his hand (that make a circle and sit). Subsequently, everyone made a circle and sat and he faced them all. After this he said, “O poor group of emigrants, take the glad tidings that on the Day of Qiyaamat you will have complete light and you will enter Jannah half a day before the wealthy class and this half a day equals five hundred years.” [Abu Dawud]

The example of the one who recites the Qur’aan in a loud and soft voice

وَعَنْ عَقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِر์ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلِّي اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَمَ: “الجَاهِرُ بِالْقُرْآنِ كَالْجَاهِرُ بالصَّدَّقَةِ وَلَا مُسْرُ بِالْقُرْآنِ كَالْمِسْرُ بالصَّدَّقَةِ” . رَوَاهُ التَّرْمِذِي وأَبُو دَاودٍ وَالنَّسَائِي

353. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The one who recites the Qur’aan aloud is like the one who gives charity openly and the one who recites softly is like the one who gives charity quietly.”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

The meaning of believing in the Qur’aan

وَعَنْ صَهِيبَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلِّي اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَمَ: "مَا آمَنَ بِالْقُرْآنِ مَنْ أَسْتَحْلَ مُهَارِمَهُ" . رَوَاهُ التَّرْمِذِي وَقَالَ: هٰذٰهُ حَدِيثٌ لَيْسَ إِسْنَادُهُ بالقُوِّي

354. Hadhrat Suhayb  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The person who takes the forbidden as permitted has not believed in the Qur’aan.” [Tirmidhi]

How did Rasulullaah  recite the Qur’aan?

وَعَنْ الْلِّيثِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُثَّلَةِ عِنٍّ بْنِ عِيْلَانِ بْنِ مَالَكَ أَنَّهُ سَأَلَ آمَرَ سَلْطَةَ عَنَ قِرَاءَةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلِّي اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَمُ فِيذَا هِيَ تَنَعَّتُ قِرَاءَةً مُفْسِرَةً حَرْفًا حَرْفًا . رَوَاهُ التَّرْمِذِي وأَبُو دَاودٍ وَالنَّسَائِي
355. Hadhrat Ya’la bin Mamlak narrates that Umm al Mu’minin Hadhrat Umm e Salamah radhiyallaahu anha was asked about the recitation of Rasulullaah ﷺ that how did he recite the Qur’aan. Hadhrat Umm e Salamah radhiyallaahu anha explained the recitation of Rasulullaah ﷺ to be very clear, each letter distinct.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

356. Hadhrat Umm e Salamah radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ used to recite slowly, reciting (الحمد لله رب العالمين) then pausing, then (الرحمن الرحيم) and pausing.

[Tirmidhi]
The command for concentration and devotion when reciting the Qur’aan

عن جابر قال : خرج علينا رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم ونحن نقرأ القرآن وفينا الأعرابي والأعجمي قال : "اقرأوا فكل حسن وسيجيء أقوام يقيمونه كما يقام القدح يتعجلونه ولا يتأجلونه" . رواه أبو داود والبيهقي في شعب الإيمان

357. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  came to us and we were reciting the Qur’aan and Bedouins were amongst us as well as Non Arabs. He said to us, “Read, each of you read well (remember) soon such a group will be born who will straighten the Qur’aan like you straighten the arrow and they will want reward for it quickly (in the world), they will leave nothing for the Aakhirat.” [Abu Dawud, Bayhaqi]

Recite the Qur’aan like the Arabs

وعن حذيفة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : "اقرأوا القرآن بلحون العرب وأصواتها وإياكم ولحون أهل العشق ولحون أهل الكتابين وسيجي بعدي قوم يرجعون بالقرآن ترجع الغناء والنوح لا يجاوز حناجرهم مفتونة قلوبهم وقلوب الذين يعجبهم شأنهم " . رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان

358. Hadhrat Hudhayfah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Recite the Qur’aan like the Arabs and according to their voice. Stay away from reciting like the lovers and the people of the book. After me, such a group will be born whose individuals will recite the Qur’aan like the sound of wailing, their condition will be that their Qur’aan will not go beyond their throats (i.e. their recitation will not be accepted). Moreover, their hearts and the hearts of those who listen to them and get happy will get involved in fitnah.”

The beauty of the Qur’aan increases with a beautiful voice

وعن البراء بن عازب رضي الله عنه قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "حسنوا القرآن بأصواتكم فإن الصوت الحسن يزيد القرآن حسنا".

رواه الدارمي

359. Hadhrat Bara bin Aazib حثاوت النبى صلى الله عليه وسلم أن يُقرأ القرآن بأصواتكم لأنه يزيد القرآن حسناً.

Recite the Qur’aan with the fear of Allaah

وعن طاووس مرسلا قال: سئل النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: أي الناس أحسن صوتا للقرآن؟ وأحسن قراءة؟ قال: "من إذا سمعته يقرأ أرأيت أنه يخشى الله".

360. Hadhrat Ta’us حثاوت النبى صلى الله عليه وسلم أن يخافكم في القراءة لأن السمع يشعر أن الشخص يخشى الله.
Etiquettes of the Qur’aan

وعن عبيدة المليكي وكانت له صحبة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "يا أهل القرآن لا تتوسدوا القرآن واتلوه حق تلاوته من آناء الليل والنهار وأفشوه وتغنه وتدبروا ما فيه لعلكم تفلحون ولا تعجلوا ثوابه فإن له ثوابا".

رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان

361. Hadhrat Ubaydah Mulayki - a companion of Rasulullaah ﷺ - says that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “O people of the Qur’aan, do not make the Qur’aan a pillow (i.e. do not be negligent of its recitation and its rights) and recite it day and night according to its right of recitation and spread the Qur’aan (i.e. make its teachings general) recite it in a good voice and ponder over it so that your objective is attained (Aakhirat) and do not hurry in attaining its reward (i.e. do not strive to get recompense in this world) because there is greater reward in the Aakhirat.” [Bayhaqi]
Different Qira’ats and compiling the Qur’aan

The Qur’aan was revealed in seven modes
362. Hadhrat Umar bin al Khattaab  narrates that (one day) I heard Hishaam bin Hakeem bin Hizaam reciting Surah Furqaan different from the way that I recited it and (different from) the way Rasulullaah ﷺ taught the Surah to me. I was close to turning on him (i.e. before completing the Qira’ah, I would have fought with him but) I gave him the opportunity to complete his recital. After this I place his shawl over his neck and pulled him and brought him to Rasulullaah ﷺ and I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, I heard him reciting Surah Furqaan in a way different from the way you taught me.” He said, “Umar, leave him.” Then he said to Hishaam, “Read.” Subsequently, Hisaam recited in the way I heard him reciting. (Hearing his recitation) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This Surah was revealed in this way.” Then he said to me, “Now you read.” Subsequently, I recited then (hearing my recitation) he said, “This Surah was revealed in this way. Remember, this Qur’aan was revealed in seven ways therefore read according to the way that is easy.”

[ Bukhari, Muslim ]

Every Qira’ah is correct

وعن ابن مسعود رضي الله عنه قال : سمعت رجلا قرأ وسمعته النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم يقرأ خلافها فجئت به النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فأخبرته فعرفت في وجهه الكراهية فقال : " كلاكم محسن فلا تختلفوا فإن من كان قبلكم اختلفوا فهلكوا " . رواه البخاري

363. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that I heard a person reciting Qur’aan and I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ reciting in a way different from that person. Subsequently, I took him to Rasulullaah ﷺ and explained the situation to him (that the recitation of this person is different from yours). Then I felt that (on account of my argument and difference) the signs of displeasure became apparent on his face. Anyway, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Both of you read correctly and well. (Look) do not have differences amongst yourselves because those that passed before you were destroyed on account of having differences.” [Bukhari]

Three requests of Rasulullaah ﷺ and three accepted Du’asas

 وعن أبي بن كعب قال: كنت في المسجد فدخل رجل يصلي فقرأ قراءة أنكرتها عليه ثم دخل آخر قرأ قراءة سوى قراءة صاحبه فلما قضينا الصلاة دخلنا جميعا على رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقلت إن هذا قرأ قراءة أنكرتها عليه ودخل آخر قرأ قراءة صاحبه فأمرهما النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قرأا فحسن شأنهما فسقط في نفسي من التكذيب ولا إذ كنت في الجاهلية فلما رأى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ما قد غشيني ضرب في صدري فспеш وكأنما أنظر إلى الله عز وجل فرقة فقال لي: "يا أبي أرسل إلي أن اقرأ القرآن على حرف فردت إليه أن هون على أمتي فرد إلي الثانية أقرأه على حرفين فردت إليه أن هون على أمتي فرد إلي الثالثة أقرأه على سبع أحرف ولك بكل ردة رددتكها مسألة تسألنيها فلقت اللهم اغفر لأمتي اللهم اغفر لأمتي وأخرجت الثالثة ليوم يرغب إلي الخلق كلهم حتى إبراهيم صلى الله عليه وسلم”. رواه مسلم

364. Hadhrat Ubayy bin Ka‘b  narrates that (one day) I was in the Masjid and a person came and began Salaah. He (in Salaah or after Salaah) recited such a Qira’ah (i.e. in such a tone he recited the Qur’aan) which I thought to be incorrect. Then another person came and recited different from the first person. When we all completed Salaah then we went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and I said, “Hadhrat, this person recited such that I thought it incorrect. After him this second person came and recited different from the first person.” Hearing this, Rasulullaah ﷺ commanded both of them to recite in front of him and both recited. He said that both of them recited well and correctly. Such a thought and whisper of belying was created in my heart that even in the days of ignorance such a doubt and whisper was not created. When Rasulullaah ﷺ saw my condition he placed his hand on my chest (so that the whispering could go away through its blessing). Subsequently, I began sweating and out of fear my condition became such that it was as though I was looking at Allaah. After this he ﷺ said to me, “Ubayy, when the Qur’aan was revealed, then through Hadhrat Jibreel ﷺ a command was sent that I should recite in one way (one Qira’ah or dialect). I requested in the court of Allaah that ease should be created for my Ummah. Consequently, I was commanded to recite the Qur’aan in two ways. I requested again that my Ummah should be granted more ease. Subsequently, I was given the command to recite the Qur’aan in seven ways (i.e. in seven dialects or seven Qira’ahs) and it was also said that the number of times we commanded you, make Du’a that number of times, we shall accept. Subsequently, I made this Du’a twice, ‘O Allaah, forgive my Ummah (those who do major sins), O Allaah, forgive my Ummah (those who do minor sins) and the third Du’a I have left for the day, on the day the creation will desire from me (and will request intercession) to the extent that Hadhrat Ibraaheem ﷺ will also (desire from me).” [Muslim]
All Qira’ahs are equal in terms of rulings

وعن ابن عباس رضي الله عنهما قال : إن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : " أقرأني جبريل على حرف فراجعه فلم أزل أستزيده ويزيدني حتى انتهى إلى سبعة أحرف " . قال ابن شهاب : بلغني أن تلك السبعة الأحرف إنما هي في الأمر تكون واحدة لا تختلف في حلال ولا حرام ( متفق عليه )

365. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Hadhrat Jibreel ﷺ taught me one way of recitation first, then I turned to Allaah for ease for my Ummah and I continued asking for ease. As a result of this I was continued getting ease until the ways of recitation were given to be were seven.” Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab Zuhri  says, “This has reached me that these seven ways of recitation are equal in terms of religious laws and matters, there can be no difference among them in terms of Halaal and Haraam.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm
Every mode is sufficient

366. Hadhrat Ubayy bin Ka’b narrates that Rasulullaah met Hadhrat Jibreel and said to him, “Jibreel, I have been sent to an illiterate nation. There are old women in this nation and old men. There are boys and girls and such people that have never read a single book.” Hadhrat Jibreel said, “O Muhammad, the Qur’aan has been revealed in seven modes (i.e. in seven dialects or seven Qira’ahs), (therefore, recite the Qur’aan in the mode which is most easy).” [Tirmidhi] In the narration of Ahmad and Abu Dawud Hadhrat Jibreel also said, “Every one of the seven ways is sufficient.” In the narration of Nasa’i it is mentioned that Rasulullaah said that Jibreel and Mikaa’eel came to me. Jibreel sat on my right and Mikaa’eel sat on my left. After this Jibreel said to me, “Recite the Qur’aan in one way.” Hearing this, Mikaa’eel said to me, “Request for more than one way.” Subsequently, I continued asking for more and was given more until the number of Qira’ahs reached seven. Therefore, every way is sufficient.”

Do not make the Qur’aan a means of begging

وعن عمران بن حصين رضي الله عنهما أنه مر على قاص يقرأ ثم يسأل فاسترجع ثم قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول : " من قرأ القرآن فليس الله به فإنه سيجيء أقوام يقرأون القرآن يسألون به الناس " . رواه أحمد والترمذي

367. It is narrated from Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn that he passed by a story teller who would recite the Qur’aan and then beg from people. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn (heard this and with great difficulty) said, ‘To Allaah do we belong and to Him we return’. He then said that I heard Rasulullaah saying that he who recites the Qur’aan, he should ask only Allaah through it and that time will come when people will recite the Qur’aan and through it they will stretch their hands and ask people.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]
The condition of those who recite the Qur’aan for the world

عن بريدة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "من قرأ القرآن يتأكل به الناس جاء يوم القيامة ووجهه عظم ليس عليه لحم " . رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان

368. Hadhrat Buraydah ʻ. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who recites the Qur’aan and through it asks people for food (i.e. he makes the Qur’aan a means of attaining worldly benefit), on the Day of Qiyaamat he will come in the condition that there will only be bones on his face and no flesh.” [Bayhaqi]

mmm
The objective of the repeated revelation of Tasmiyah

وعن ابن عباس قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم لا يعرف فصل السورة حتى ينزل عليه بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم . رواه أبو داود

369. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was not aware of the separation point between each Surah until ‘In the name of Allaah, the Beneficent, the Merciful’ was not revealed.” [Abu Dawud]

The matter of a drunkard

 وعن علقمة قال : كنا بحماص فقرأ ابن مسعود سورة يوسف فقال رجل : ما هكذا أنزلت . فقال عبد الله : والله لقرأتها على عهد رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال: " أحسنت " فبينا هو يكلمه إذ وجد منه ريح الخمر فقال : أشرب الخمر وتكذب بالكتاب ؟ فضربه الحد ( متفق عليه )

370. Hadhrat Alqamah says that we were staying in Hims (a city in Shaam). While there, Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  once recited Surah Yusuf. A person heard his recitation and said that this Surah was not revealed in this way. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  said, “By Allaah, I used to recite this Surah in this way in the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ and he used to hear it and say that you have recited well.” This person was conversing with Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  when suddenly Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  got the smell of liquor from his mouth. Subsequently, Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  said, “Do you drink?” (i.e. do you go against the Qur’aan?) and belie the (Qira’ah of the) Qur’aan? Hadhrat Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  then got him punished (i.e. he was lashed for drinking).

The history of compilation of the Qur’aan

فإذا عمر بن الخطاب عنده فقال, قال أبو بكر إن عمر أتاني فقال إن القتل قد استحر يوم اليمامة بقراء القرآن وإن أخشى إن استحر القتال بالقراء بالمواطن فيذهب كثير من القرآن وإنني أرى أن تأمر بجمع القرآن قلت لعمر كيف تعقل شيئا لم يفعله رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم؟ فقال عمر هذا والله خيرماً يزل عمر يراجعني فيه حتى شرح الله صدرى لذلك. اعتقد أن يظهر على وما أمرني به من جمع القرآن قال: قلت كيف تعقل شيئا لم يفعله النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم. قال هو والله خيرماً ألزم أراجب حتى شرح الله صدرى للذى شرح الله له صدرى أراجب من العصب والخاف وصدور الرجال حتى وجدت من سورة التوبة أيتين مع أبي خزيمة الأنصاري لم أجدها مع أحد غيره. لقد جاءكم رسول من أنفسكم حتى خاتمة براءة. فكانت الصحف عند أبي بكر حتى توفاه الله ثم عند عمر حياته ثم عند حفصة. رواه البخاري

371. Hadhrat Zayd bin Thaabit .. narrates that during the days when there was a war with the people of Yamamah, it is that time when Hadhrat Abu Bakr .. sent a person to call me. When I came to him I saw Hadhrat Umar .. sitting with him. Hadhrat Abu Bakr .. said to me, “Umar has come to me and said, ‘The martyrdom of reciters (Qurra) has become hot on the day of Yamamah (i.e. on the day of Yamamah many reciters have been martyred, therefore) I have the fear that if in different battles the Qurra are martyred in great numbers, then a major portion of the Qur’aan will be lost. Therefore, I see goodness and expedience in this that you command the Qur’aan to be compiled.’” I heard this and said to Hadhrat Umar .., “How will you do this which Rasulullaah  did not do?” Umar .. said, “By Allaah, in this work there is goodness and expedience.” Umar continuously spoke about this matter until Allaah  opened my chest for this work (of compiling the Qur’aan) and I saw the expedience which Hadhrat Umar urniture. Hadhrat Zayd says that after this Hadhrat Abu Bakr urniture said to me, “You are an understanding young man (on account of your pious personality and good fortune, in gathering and compiling the Qur’aan, regarding lies etc) you cannot be accused. In addition, you used to write revelation for Rasulullaah urniture. Therefore, look for the Qur’aan and gather it.” Hadhrat Zayd said, “By Allaah, If you want to give me the work of moving a mountain, then it would have been easier than this work, i.e. it would have not been so hard and severe regarding compiling the Qur’aan which you are commanding me to do.” Hadhrat Zayd urniture says that in any condition, I heard the command and said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr urniture, “How are you doing a work which Rasulullaah urniture did not do?” Hadhrat Abu Bakr ircraft said, “By Allaah, there is goodness and expediency in this work.” Hadhrat Abu Bakr ircraft continued speaking to me about this until Allaah ircraft opened my chest just as He opened the chest of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ircraft and Hadhrat Umar ircraft. Subsequently, I looked for the Qur’aan and began collecting it from the branches of date palms, from white stones and from people until I found the last portion of Surah Taubah with Abu Khuzaymah Ansaari and I did not find this portion with anyone except him. And this part is (لقد جاءكم رسول من أنفسكم) to the end of Surah Taubah. Then, the sheets (which I gathered and copied) remained with Hadhrat Abu Bakr ircraft to his demise, then after him with Hadhrat Umar ircraft until his demise, then after him with Hafsa the daughter of Hadhrat Umar ircraft.” [Bukhari]
The work of Hadhrat Uthmaan

372. Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik narrates that Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan came to Hadhrat Uthmaan when he was together with the people of Shaam and the people of Iraq conquering Armenia and Azerbaijan. Regarding Qira’ah, the differences of the people put Hadhrat Hudhayfah into fear and apprehension (because he saw that the people were rejecting the Qira’ah of each other for baseless reasons). Subsequently, he came to Hadhrat Uthmaan and said, ‘Amir ul Mu’minin, control this Ummah before they begin to have differences in the speech of Allaah like the Jews and Christians before them.” Hearing this, Hadhrat Uthmaan sent a message to Hadhrat Hafsah that send the sheets that were compiled by Hadhrat Abu Bakr to us, we shall copy them and send them back to you. Hadhrat Hafsah sent all the sheets to Hadhrat Uthmaan. From the Ansaar, Hadhrat Uthmaan chose Hadhrat Zayd bin Thaabit and from the Quraysh, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr, Hadhrat Sa’eed bin Aas and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith bin Hisham and commanded them to copy the sheets. Consequently, they copied them into books and Hadhrat Uthmaan told all of them that if in the dialect there is a difference between you and Hadhrat Zayd bin Thaabit, then write it according to the dialect of the Quraysh because the Qur’aan was revealed in the dialect of the Quraysh. Subsequently, all of them did this. When they copied the sheets into book form then Hadhrat Uthmaan sent the sheets to Hadhrat Hafsah and the book form copies were sent to each (Islamic province). Together with this, he gave the command that besides these copies, whatever pages or copies there are, they should be burnt.” (One of the narrators) Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab says that the son of Zayd bin Thaabit, Khaarija told me that I heard my father Hadhrat Zayd bin Thaabit saying that when we were copying the Qur’aan (in the copy of Hadhrat Uthmaan), I could not get a verse of Surah Ahzaab whereas I used to hear Rasulullah ﷺ reciting it. Subsequently, after looking and searching we found it written with Hadhrat Khuzaymah bin Thaabit Ansaari. And this verse is (من المؤمنين رجال صدقوا ما عاهدوا عليه). Subsequently, we joined this verse in the book form of the Qur’aan to this Surah (Surah Ahzaab).” [Bukhari]

وعن ابن عباس قال : قلنت لعثمان بن عفان ما حملكم أن عتمتم إلى الأنفال وهي من المثاني وإلى براءة وهي من المئين فقرنتم بينهما ولم تكتبوا بينهما سطر بسم
373. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  .. narrates that I said to Hadhrat Uthmaan .., “What was the reason that you kept Surah Anfaal which was from Mathaani next to Surah Bara’ah which is from Me’een and between the two Surahs you did not even place a line of (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) between them. Moreover, you kept Surah Anfaal between seven long Surahs, what was the cause? Hadhrat Uthmaan said that the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ passed and the Surahs of verses continued to be revealed (i.e. according to need and necessity the verses were revealed). The practice of Rasulullaah ﷺ was that whenever a portion of the Qur’aan was revealed then he ﷺ would call one of the scribes of revelation and would say to him, “Place these verses in a particular Surah in which this and this is mentioned. Then when a verse was revealed, then he would say regarding it that place it in this Surah in which this and this is mentioned and Surah Anfaal is from those Surahs which were revealed first in Madinah whereas Surah Bara’ah is that part of the Qur’aan which was revealed in the last stages. However, the subject matter of Surah Anfaal is similar to the subject matter of Surah Bara’ah (i.e. both Surahs explain the battles of Rasulullaah ﷺ). In summary, Rasulullaah ﷺ left this world but we were not told whether Surah Bara’ah is a part of Surah Anfaal or not. Therefore, on account of Rasulullaah ﷺ not informing, the two Surahs were kept next to each other. However, between them the line of (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) was not written and they were placed together between seven long Surahs. [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

Note:
The Surahs which have less than 100 verses are called Mathaani. Those Surahs that have 100 or more verses are called Mee’oon or Mee’een.

Du’aas (Hadith 374 – 433)
The mercy of Rasulullaah ﷺ

عن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم " لكل نبي دعوة مستجابة فتعجل كل نبي دعوته وإن اختبأت دعوتي شفاعة لأمتي إلى يوم القيامة فهي نائلة إن شاء الله من مات من أمتي لا يشرك بالله شيئا " . رواه مسلم وللبخاري أقصر منه.

374. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A Du’aa’ of every Nabi is accepted. Subsequently, every Nabi was quick in his Du’aa’. However, I kept my Du’aa’ protected for the intercession of my Ummah on the Day of Qiyaamat. So this Du’aa’ of mine, if Allaah wants, then it will benefit each person who passed away in the state in which he did not ascribe partners to Allaah.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم " اللهم إني اتخذت عندك عهدا لن تخلفنيه فإنما أنا بشر فأنا شمتي وتغذني وجعلته لجثته فاجعلها له صلاة وزكاة وقربة تقربه بها إليك يوم القيامة " ( متفق عليه )

375. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ made this Du’aa’ that O my Rabb, I have made a request, so bless it with acceptance and do not make me hopeless. The request is that I am a human being therefore whichever believer I have given difficulty to in this way that I spoke badly to him or I cursed him or I hit him, then make all these things a means of mercy and cleansing of sin of that believer and make it a means of attaining closeness to you and on account of them bless him with Your closeness on the Day of Qiyaamat.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Make Du’aa with complete conviction and desire

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إذا دعا أحدكم فلا يقل : اللهم اغفر لي إن شئت ارحمني إن شئت ارزقني إن شئت وليعزم مسألته إنه يفعل ما يشاء ولا مكره له " . رواه البخاري

376. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “When any of you make Du’aa’ then he should not say, ‘O Allaah, forgive me if you wish, grant me provision if you wish.’ But ask with complete trust and conviction (do not use words of doubt like ‘if you want’ etc.) because Allaah  does what He wants, there is no one to force Him.” [Bukhari]

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إذا دعا أحدكم فلا يقل : اللهم اغفر لي إن شئت ولكن ليعزم وليعزم الرغبة فإن الله لا يتعاظمه شيء أعطاه " . رواه مسلم

377. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “When any of you make Du’aa’ then do not say like this, ‘O Allaah, forgive me if You want.’ But without any doubt, with conviction and trust and with total fervour make Du’aa’ because whatever Allaah  gives, it is not difficult for Him.” [Muslim]
Do not leave Du’aa upon becoming tired

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "يستجاب للعبد ما لم يدع بإثم أو قطيعة رحم ما لم يستعجل " . قيل : يا رسول الله ما الاستعجال ؟ قال : " يقول : قد دعوت وقد دعوت فلم أر يستجاب لي فيستحسر عند ذلك ويدع الدعاء ورواه مسلم "

378. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The Du’aa’ of a person is accepted as long as he does not make Du’aa’ for sin or for breaking ties and as long as he does not hurry.” It was said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is the meaning of being in a hurry?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person making Du’aa’ says that he made Du’aa’ and definitely I made Du’aa’ (i.e. repeatedly) but I did not see it being accepted, he then tires and leaves making Du’aa’” [Muslim]

379. Hadhrat Abu Darda  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whichever Muslim makes Du’aa’ for his Muslim brother in his absence, it is accepted. There is an angel appointed near the head of the one making Du’aa’, when he makes Du’aa’ of goodness for his Muslim brother, the appointed angel says that O Allaah, accept his Du’aa’ and (he also says that) for you is the same.” [Muslim]

Do not make Du’aa of misfortune for one’s wealth and children

380. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not make Du’aa’ of misfortune for yourselves and do not make Du’aa’ of misfortune for your wealth (i.e. slaves, slave girls, animals and other wealth and belongings). It should not be that you get that time from Allaah in which whatever you ask, it is accepted for you.” [Muslim]

Du’aa is worship

381. Hadhrat Nu’maan bin Basheer  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Du’aa’ is worship.” He then recited this verse, ‘And your Rabb says, ‘Ask me, your Du’aa’ will be accepted.’” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i, Ibn Maajah]
Du’aa is the essence of worship

وعن أنس قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " الدعاء مخ العبادة " . رواه الترمذي

382. Hadhrat Anas رضي الله عنه narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Du’aa’ is the essence of worship.” [Tirmidhi]

The appreciation and status of Du’aa according to Allaah

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " ليس شيء أكرم على الله من الدعاء " .

383. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There is nothing that has more value in the sight of Allaah than Du’aa’.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The importance of Du’aa and good actions

وعن سلمان الفارسي قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " لا يرد القضاء إلا الدعاء ولا يزيد في العمر إلا البر " . رواه الترمذي

384. Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Nothing changes Taqdeer except Du’aa’ and nothing increases ones age except good deeds.” [Tirmidhi]
Du’aa saves a person from every calamity

وعن ابن عمر رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن الدعاء ينفع مما نزل و مما لم ينزل فعليكم عباد الله بالدعاء " . رواه الترمذي

385. Hadhrat Ibn Umar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Indeed Du’aa’ is beneficial for the calamity that has came about and it is also beneficial for the calamity that has not come. Therefore, o servants of Allaah, make Du’aa’ necessary upon yourself.” [Tirmidhi]

The meaning of the acceptance of Du’aa

وعن جابر رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " ما من أحد يدعو بدعاء إلا آتاه الله ما سأل أو كف عنه من السوء مثله ما لم يدع بإثم أو قطيعة رحم " . رواه الترمذي

386. Hadhrat Jaabir .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a person makes Du’aa’, then Allaah ﷺ gives him what he asks for or He stops that amount of bad from him as long as he does not make Du’aa’ for sin or for breaking ties.” [Tirmidhi]

Ask Allaah for His grace

"وعن ابن مسعود رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " سلوا الله من فضله فإن الله يحب أن يسأل وأفضل العبادة انتظار الفرج " . رواه الترمذي وقال هذا حديث غريب

[321]
387. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ﴾ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Ask Allaah for His grace because Allaah ﷺ loves to be asked and waiting for comfort after calamity is the most virtuous worship.” [Tirmidhi]

Allaah is displeased with the one who does not make Du’aa

وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من لم يسأل يغضب عليه " . رواه الترمذي

388. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﴾ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who does not ask from Allaah, Allaah ﷺ is displeased with him (because not asking Allaah ﷺ is a sign of pride and independence).” [Tirmidhi]

The virtue of Du’aa and the importance of safety (Aafiyat)

وعن ابن عمر رضي الله عنهما قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من فتح له منكم باب الدعاء فتحت له أبواب الرحمة وما سئل الله شيئا يعني أحب إليه من أن يسأل العافية " . رواه الترمذي

389. Hadhrat Ibn Umar ﴾ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “For the one whom the doors of Du’aa’ have been opened (i.e. the person who has been granted the ability to make abundant Du’aa’ with etiquette and all its conditions, understand that) the doors of mercy have been opened for him (because as a result of his Du’aa’ he sometimes get what he asks for and sometimes bad is removed from him in lieu of what he asked) and there is nothing that Allaah loves to be asked more than asking for Aafiyah (i.e. Allaah loves to be asked for Aafiyah-security, safety, blessing, goodness).”

[Tirmidhi]

The benefit of making Du’aa in times of ease and prosperity

وعن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : "من سره أن يستجيب الله له عند الشدائد فليكثر الدعاء في الرخاء" . رواه الترمذي وقال : هذا حديث غريب

390. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “He who desires that Allaah accepts his Du’aa’ at the time of difficulty and straitened conditions, he should make abundant Du’aa’ in times of ease and prosperity.”

[Tirmidhi]

Whose Du’aa is not accepted?

وعنله قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : "ادعوا الله وأنتم موقنون بالإجابة واعلموا أن الله لا يستجيب دعاء من قلب غافل لأه" . رواه الترمذي وقال : هذا حديث غريب

391. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Make Du’aa’ to Allaah with conviction of acceptance and remember, Allaah does not accept the Du’aa’ of the negligent and the one who plays (i.e. the one whose heart is negligent of Allaah and is involved in those other than Allaah while making Du’aa’).”

[Tirmidhi]

[323]
Two etiquettes of Du’aa

وَفِي رُوايَةِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسَ قَالَ: "سَلُوا اللّهُ بِبَطُونِ أَكْفَمِهِمْ وَلَا تَسْألُوهُ بِظَهْورِهَا فَإِذَا فَرَغْتُمُ فَامْسَحُوا بِهَا وَجُوهِهِمْ". رَوَاهُ دَاوُدُ.

392. Hadhrat Maalik bin Yasaar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you ask from Allaah, then ask through the inner part of your hand, do not ask through the upper part of your hand.” In the narration of Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  Rasulullaah ﷺ is reported to have said, “Ask Allaah ﷺ through the inner part of your hand, do not ask Him through the upper part of the hand and when you complete Du’aa’ then pass your hands over your face (so that the blessings that have come into the hands can reach the face).”

[Abu Dawud]

Allaah is very shameful and very generous

وَعِنَّ سَلَّمَانَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللّهِ صلَّى الله عَلَيْهِ وَ وسلم: "إِنَّ رَبُّكَ حَيّ كَرِيمّ يَسْتَحْيِي مِن عِبَادِهِ إِذَا رَفَعَ يَدَهُ إِلَيْهِ أَن يَرْدُهَا صَفْراً". رَوَاهُ التَّرَمِيذِي وَأَبُو دَاوُدُ.

393. Hadhrat Salmaan  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Your Rabb is very shameful (i.e. He treats like one who is shameful) and He is very generous, He is shameful and He is generous in the supplications.”

One etiquette of Du’a

وعن عمر رضي الله عنه قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إذا رفع يده في الدعاء لم يحفظهما حتى يمسح بهما وجهه . رواه الترمذي

394. Hadhrat Umar  narrates that when Rasulullaah  would lift both his hands in Du’aa’ then he did not put them down until he passed them over his face. [Tirmidhi]

Make comprehensive Du’aas

وعن عائشة رضي الله عنها قالت : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يستحب الجوامع من الدعاء ويدع ما سوى ذلك . رواه أبو داود

395. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha says that Rasulullaah  would like those Du’aa’s that are comprehensive and he would leave those that are not comprehensive. [Abu Dawud]

A Du’aa’ that is readily accepted

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن أسرع الدعاء إجابة دعوة غائب لغائب " . رواه الترمذي وأبو داود

396. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “A Du’aa’ that is readily accepted is the Du’aa’ of an absent person for an absent person.”

[325]
Request pious people to make Du’aa’

وعن عمر بن الخطاب رضي الله عنه قال: "استأذنت النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم في العمرة فأذن لي وقال: "أشركنا يا أخي في دعاؤك و لا تنسنا". فقال كلمة ما يسرني أن لي بها الدنيا. رواه أبو داود والترمذي وانتهى روايته عند قوله "لا تنسنا".

397. Hadhrat Umar bin al Khattaab رضي الله عنه narrates that on one occasion I requested permission from Rasulullaah ﷺ to perform Umrah. He permitted me and said, “O my (small) brother, add us in your Du’aa’s and do not forget us at the time of Du’aa’.” Hadhrat Umar رضي الله عنه says that Rasulullaah ﷺ uttered such words that even if I was given the entire world in exchange of it, I would not be so happy.”

[Abu Dawud]

Three Du’aa’s are accepted

وعنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "ثلاث دعوات مستجابات لا شك فيهن: دعوة الوالد ودعاء المسافر ودعاء المظلوم". رواه الترمذي وأبو داود وابن ماجه ماجه 398. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The Du’aa’ of three persons are not rejected; the Du’aa’ of a fasting person when he breaks his fast, the Du’aa’ of a just leader, the Du’aa’ of the oppressed. Allaah ﷺ lifts his Du’aa’ above the clouds and opens the doors of the skies and the Rabb says, "By My honour, I shall definitely help you even if it be after some time (i.e. your right will not be destroyed and your Du’aa’ will not be rejected even if a long time passes).” [Tirmidhi]

Note:
At this point one should especially remember that the Du’aa’ made by a fasting person when breaking his fast is definitely accepted. Therefore, together with Iftaar, a person should make a short individual Du’aa’. He should stay away from collective Du’aa’.

mmm

The Du’aa’ of three people is not rejected

رواه الترمذي

399. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ḥ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “3 Du’aa’s are accepted, there is no doubt in their acceptance. One is the Du’aa’ of a father, second is the Du’aa’ of the traveller and the third is Du’aa’ of the oppressed.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah]

mmm
Ask Allaah for every need

عن أنس رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " ليسأل أحدكم ربه حاجته كلها حتى يسأله شسع نعله إذا انقطع " زاد في رواية عن ثابت البناني مرسلا " حتى يسأله الملح وحتى يسأله شسعه إذا انقطع " . رواه الترمذي

400. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “All of you should ask his Rabb for all his needs to the extent that if his shoe laces break, he should ask Allaah for it as well.” [Tirmidhi] In a Mursal narration it is said, “To the extent that ask Him for salt and when your shoe laces break then ask Allaah also for it.”

Up to where should the hands be lifted at the time of Du’aa’?

وعن أنس قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم يرفع يديه في الدعاء حتى يرى بياض إبطيه

401. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ would (sometimes) lift his hands at the time of Du’aa’ such that the whiteness of his armpits could be seen. [Bayhaqi]

[328]
402. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d .. narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said that (most of the time) he would keep the top of his fingers in line with his shoulders and he would make Du’aa’. [Bayhaqi]

403. Hadhrat Saa’ib bin Yazeed .. narrates from his father that when Rasulullaah ﷺ would make Du’aa’ and he lift both his hands then he would pass his hands over his face. [Bayhaqi]

404. Hadhrat Ikramah narrates from Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas .. that he said, “The etiquette (liked way) of asking (Du’aa’) is that lift your hands in line with your shoulders or close to them and the etiquette of seeking forgiveness is that you indicate using your fingers and lowering yourself and exaggeration in Du’aa’ is that you spread both your hands (i.e. you lift it so high that the whiteness of the armpits can be seen).” In one narration it comes that Ibn Abbaas ﷺ said that lowering oneself to the limit is this and he lifted his hands and he indicated to his face with the back of his hands. [Abu Dawud]

It is innovation to lift the hands very high at the time of Du’aa’

وعن ابن عمر أنه يقول : إن رفعكم أيديكم بدعة ما زاد رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم على هذا يعني إلى الصدر رواه أحمد

405. It is narrated about Hadhrat Ibn Umar ﷺ that he used to say that lifting your hands very high is Bid’ah. Most of the time, Rasulullaah ﷺ would not lift his hands higher than his chest.” [Ahmad]

First make Du’aa’ for yourself then for others

وعن أبي بن كعب قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إذا ذكر أحدا فدعا له بدأ بنفسه رواه الترمذي وقال هذا حديث حسن غريب صحيح

406. Hadhrat Ubayy bin Ka’b ﷺ narrates that whenever Rasulullaah ﷺ would mention someone, then he made Du’aa’ for him, then he would first make Du’aa’ for himself (after that he would make Du’aa’ for the person).

[Tirmidhi]

What does Allaah give as a result of Du’aa’?

وعن أبي سعيد الخدري أن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم قال: " ما من مسلم يدعو بدعاء ليس فيها إثم ولا قطيعة رحم إلا أعطاه الله بها إحدى ثلاث: إما أن يعجل له دعوته وإما أن يدخرها له في الآخرة وإما أن يصرف عنه من السوء مثلها " قالوا : إذن نكثر قال : " الله أكثر " . رواه أحمد

407. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whichever Muslim makes such a Du’aa’ in which there is no request for sin or breaking ties, then Allaah will definitely give him one of three things in exchange of the Du’aa’, either his request will be quickly granted or that Du’aa’ will be made a treasure for the Aakhirat or he will be saved from evil equal to the Du’aa’.” The companions heard this and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, now we shall make a lot of Du’aa’ (because we know the great benefit of Du’aa’).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The grace of Allaah is great.” [Ahmad]

Five accepted Du’aa’s

[331]
Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “Five Du’aa’s are accepted; the Du’aa’ of the oppressed until he takes retribution (through his tongue or hand from the oppressor), the Du’aa’ of a Haaji until he returns to his city and family, the Du’aa’ of a Mujahid until he completes Jihaad, the Du’aa’ of a sick person until he is cured, the Du’aa’ of a brother for his brother in his absence.” Rasulullaah  said, “The Du’aa’ most readily accepted is the Du’aa’ a brother makes for his brother in his absence.” [Bayhaqi]

Making Dhikr of Allaah and attaining closeness to Him
The virtues of Dhikr

عن أبي هريرة وأبي سعيد رضي الله عنهما قالا : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " لا يقعد قوم يذكرون الله إلا حفتههم الملائكة وغشيتهم الرحمة ونزلت عليهم السكينة وذكرهم الله فيمن عنده " . رواه مسلم

409. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. and Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri .. both narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whenever a group sits down to remember Allaah, then the angels surround them and the mercy of Allaah enshrouds them. Tranquillity descends upon them and Allaah mentions them among His close ones (the close angels).” [Muslim]

The virtues of abundant Dhikr

 وعن أبي هريرة قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يسير في طريق مكة فمر على جبل يقال له : جمدان فقال : " سيروا هذا جمدان سبق المفردون " . قالوا : وما المفردون ؟ يا رسول الله قال : " الذكورن الله كثيرا والذاكرات " . رواه مسلم

410. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that on one occasion Rasulullaah ﷺ was going along the Makkah road when he passed by a mountain called Jumdaan. At this time he said, “Come, come, the Mufarridoon have gone ahead.” The companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, who are the Mufarridoon?” He replied, “Those men who remember Allaah in abundance and those women who remember Allaah in abundance.” [Muslim]

The example of the one who remembers Allaah and the one who does not وعن أبي موسى قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: " مثل الذي يذكر ربه والذي لا يذكر مثل الحي والميت "

411. Hadhrat Abu Musa  النARRATES THAT Rasulullah  Said, “The one who remembers Allaah and the one who does not remember Him, their example is that of a living person and a dead person.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The blessings of Dhikr

وعن أبي هريرة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: " يقول الله تعالى : أنا عند ظن عبدي بي وأنا معه إذا ذكرني فإن ذكرني في نفسه ذكرته في نفسي وإن ذكرني في مالاً ذكرته في مالاً خير منهم ( منتق علية )

412. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  NARRATES THAT Rasulullaah  SAID, “Allaah says that I am close to the thought of My servant that he has of me (i.e. I deal with My servants according to their thoughts regarding Me. If he has hope of forgiveness, then I forgive and if he thinks regarding punishment, I give punishment) and I am with him when he remembers Me, if he remembers me in his heart then I remember him in Myself and if he remembers Me in a group, then I mention him in such a group which is better than that one.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The reward for good deeds and the benefit of obedience

 وعن أبي ذر رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " يقول الله تعالى : من جاء بالحسنة فله عشر أمثالها وأزيد ومن جاء بالسيئة فجزاء سيئة مثلها أو أغفر ومن تقرب مني شيرا تقربت منه ذراعا ومن تقرب مني ذراعا تقربت منه باعا ومن أتاني يمشي أتته هرولة ومن لقيني بالقرب الأرض خطيئة لا يشرك بي شيئا لقيته مغفرة " . رواه مسلم

413. Hadhrat Abu Dhar  .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ says that he who does a single good deed, he gets reward ten times over and I give more than this as well. And the one who does evil, he gets punished equal to the sin or I forgive him. And he who comes to me a hands span through obedience, then I come an arm’s length to him (i.e. I open my doors of mercy much more than his attention and turning to Me) and the one who comes an arm’s length to me, I come two arms length’s to him and the one who comes walking to me, I come running to him and the person who comes to me with the earth filled with sin, on condition that he does not ascribe any partner to me, I shall meet him with the earth filled of forgiveness.” [Muslim]

The virtues of being the friend of Allaah

Selected Chapters (MunTakah Abwaab) Part 1

414. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷻ says that he who has enmity for My friend, I announce war with him. And My slave does not attain nearness to Me through anything more beloved than what I have made obligatory upon him. And My servant continuously attains closeness to Me through optional acts until I make him My friend and when I make him My friend, then I become his ears through which he hears, I become his eyes through which he sees, I become his hands through which he holds, I become his feet through which he walks. If he asks me I grant to him and when he seeks protection from evil and despised things then I grant him protection. And whatever I do, I do not have reservations about it like I have when taking the life of a believer because he does not like death and I dislike his displeasure too and there is no running away from death.” [Bukhari]

The virtues of those who remember Allaah

415. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ᵣ said, “How many angels of Allaah there are who move in their (the Muslims) paths and they search for those making Dhikr (in order to meet them and hear their Dhikr). Subsequently, when they find these people involved in the Dhikr of Allaah they call one another saying that come to your objective quickly. Rasulullaah ᵥ said, “After this the angels surround them with their wings till the skies of the world.” Rasulullaah ᵥ said, “Their Rabb asks the angels about the people that what are My servants doing? Whereas their Rabb knows about the people much more than the angels.” He ᵥ said, “The angels say that they are glorifying You, they are mentioning your greatness, they are praising You and are remembering You with honour and glory.” He ᵥ said, “Allaah □ then asks the angels, ‘Have they seen Me?’” He □ said, “In reply, the angels say that no, by Allaah, they have not seen You.” He □ said, “Allaah □ says to the angels that well, if they see Me what will their condition be?” He □ said, “The angels say that if they have to see You they will worship You in abundance, they will remember You with honour and glory and they will glorify You in abundance.” He □ said, “Allaah □ then asks them that what are My servants asking of Me?” the angels say that they ask You for Jannah. He □ said, “Allaah □ asks them, ‘Have they seen Jannah?’” He □ said, “The angels say that no, O Rabb, by Allaah, they have not seen Jannah.” He □ said, “Allaah □ asks them, ‘Well, if they see Jannah then what their condition be?’” He □ said, “The angels reply that if they see Jannah then their desire for Jannah will be more. They will want it much more and they will be anxious for it.’” “After this Allaah □ asks, ‘Well, what do they seek refuge from?’” He □ said, “The angels reply that they seek refuge from Jahannam.” He □ said, “Allaah □ asks them if they have seen Jahannam. The angels reply, no, Our Rabb, by Allaah, they have not seen Jahannam.” He □ said, “Allaah □ asks them that if they see Jahannam what will their condition be?” He □ said, “The angels reply that if they saw Jahannam they would flee from it (i.e. they would stay away from those things that cause a person to be thrown into Jahannam) and their hearts would fear more.” Rasulullaah □ said, “Allaah □ then addresses the angels and says that you be witness that I have forgiven them.” Rasulullaah □ said, “(Hearing this) one of the angels says that one person was not amongst those making Dhikr. He came for some of his work (he then sat with those making Dhikr and he does not deserve forgiveness), Allaah ﷺ says to them that these people are of such a gathering that those nearby are not deprived.” [Bukhari] In the narration of Muslim Rasulullaah ﷺ is reported to have said, “How many angels of Allaah there are who move and roam, besides those who protect and record deeds. Subsequently, these angels roam and seek the gatherings of Dhikr. When they find a gathering in which Dhikr is taking place, they sit there and the angels cover one another with their wings until the angels fill the space from those engaged in Dhikr to the sky of the earth. When the gathering comes to an end, the angels go up and reach the heavens.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ asks them that from where you are coming? Whereas Allaah ﷺ knows very well regarding them (where they are coming from?) The angels say that we have come from such servants of Yours who are glorifying You on earth. They recite Your Kalimah and remember You with glory and honour. And they ask from You. Allaah ﷺ asks what do they ask from Me? The angels say, that they ask You for Your Jannah. Allaah ﷺ says that have they seen My Jannah? The angels say that no, our Rabb. Allaah ﷺ says to them that if they saw Jannah, what would their condition be? The angels also say that they seek Your protection. Allaah ﷺ says that what do they seek protection with Me from? The angels say that they seek protection from Your fire. Allaah ﷺ says that have they seen My fire? The angels say, “No.” Allaah ﷺ says that if they see My fire what would their condition be? The angels also say that they also seek forgiveness from You.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ says that I have forgiven them. I have given them that which they have asked for (i.e. Jannah) and I have given them protection from that which they seek protection from (i.e. from the fire).” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “The angels hear this and say, ‘Rabb, there was a great sinner amongst them, he was passing by and sat with them.’” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “In reply to them Allaah ﷻ says, ‘I have forgiven him (because) these are such people that their companions are not deprived.”

The time of fear and the time of negligence

وقع من حنظلة بن الربيع الأسيدي قال : لقيني أبو بكر فقال : كيف أنت يا حنظلة ؟ قلت : نافق حنظلة قال : سبحان الله ما تقول ؟ قلت : نكون عند رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في النار والجنة كأنه رأى عين فإذا خرجنا من عند رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم عافسنا الأزواج والأولاد والضيعات نسينا كثيرا قال أبو بكر : فعبي إنا لنطق مثل هذا فانطلقت أنا وأبو بكر حتى دخلنا على رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقالت : نافق حنظلة يا رسول الله قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " وما ذاك ؟ " قلت : يا رسول الله نكون عندك تذكرنا بالنار والجنة كأنه رأى عين فإذا خرجنا من عندك عافسنا الأزواج والأولاد والضيعات نسينا كثيرا فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " الذي نفسي بيد له تدومون على ما تكونون عندي وفي الذكر لصافحتكم الملائكة على فرشكم وفي طرقكم ولكن يا حنظلة ساعة وساعة " ثلاث مرات . رواه مسلم

416. Hadhrat Hanzalah bin Rubayyi’ Usaydi .. says that once Hadhrat Abu Bakr .. met him and began to ask him, “Tell me Hanzalah, what is your condition?” I replied, “Hanzalah has become a hypocrite.” Hadhrat Abu Bakr .. replied, “Glory be to Allaah, Hanzalah, what are you saying?” I said, “When we are with Rasulullaah ﷺ and when he warns us of the punishment of Jahannam and tells us the glad tidings of Jannah, then at that time it is felt as though we are seeing Jannah and Jahannam with our eyes but when we separate from the company of Rasulullaah ﷺ and we get involved with our wives, children, fields and gardens, then we forget a lot.” Abu Bakr said, “By Allaah, we have reached the same condition.” (i.e. this is also our condition) after this, Abu Bakr and we both went to Rasulullaah ﷺ. I then said, “O Rasul of Allaah, Hanzalah has become a hypocrite.” Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, “What is the cause of this?” I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, when we are with you and you advise us telling us of Jahannam and Jannah, then it is felt as though we see it with our eyes but when we get up from your gathering and get involved with our wives, children, fields and gardens, then we forget a lot of the advice.” Hearing this Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By the Being in whose control my life is, if your condition remains like this continuously – the condition in which you are while in my company (i.e. you remain perpetually with a clean heart and fearing Allaah) then definitely the angels will shake hands with you on your beds and your pathways. However, Hanzalah, this is the hour (of fear) and that is the hour (of negligence).” He said this last statement thrice. [Muslim]

The virtues of remembering Allaah

 وعن أبي الدرداء رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " ألا أنبئكم بخير أعمالكم وأزكاها عند ملككم ؟ ورفعها في درجاتكم ؟ وخير لكم من إنفاق الذهب والورق ؟ وخير لكم من أن تلقوا عدوكم فتضربوا أعناقهم ويبضربوا أعناقكم ؟ " قالوا : بلى قال : " ذكر الله " . رواه مالك وأحمد والترمذي وابن ماجه إلا أن مالكا وقفه على أبي الدرداء

417. Hadhrat Abu Darda ٍ narrates that one day Rasulullaah  عليه الصلاة و السلام addressed the Sahabah ٍ و أخبرهم about a deed which is the best of actions, very pure in the sight of your Rabb, it will raise your stages, it is better than spending silver and gold, it is even better than you meeting your enemy (the disbelievers) and you chop their necks and they chop yours?” the Sahabah ٍ و أخبرهم replied, “Definitely tell us which action this is.” Rasulullaah  عليه الصلاة و السلام said, “The Dhikr of Allaah.” [Maalik, Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

Which person is better and which action is better?

وعن عبد الله بن بسر قال: جاء أعرابي إلى النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم فقال : أي الناس خير ؟ فقال : " طوبى لمن طال عمره وحسن عمله " قال : يا رسول الله أي الأعمال أفضل ؟ قال : ( " ن تفارق الدنيا ولسانك رطب من ذكر الله " رواه أحمد والترمذي)

418. Hadhrat Abdullahah bin Busr  narrates that (once) a Bedouin came to Rasulullah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, which person is better?” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Good fortune is for that person (i.e. that person is the best) whose age is long and his deeds are good.” He said, “O Rasul of Allaah, which deed is the best?” He ﷺ replied, “That when you leave this world your tongue is moist with the remembrance of Allaah.” [Tirmidhi, Ahmad]

The gatherings of Dhikr are the gardens of Jannah

وعن أنس رضي الله عنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إذا مررت برياض الجنة فارتعوا " قالوا : وما رياض الجن ؟ قال : " حلق الذكر " . رواه الترمذي

419. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you pass by the gardens of Jannah, then eat of the fruits.” (i.e. do the Dhikr of Allaah) The Sahabah ﷺ said that what is meant by the gardens of Jannah. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The gatherings of Dhikr.” [Tirmidhi]

[343]
The gathering empty of Dhikr is worthy of regret

وعن أبي هريرة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من قعد مقعدا لم يذكر الله فيه كانت عليه من الله ترة ومن اضطجع مضجعا لا يذكر الله فيه كان عليه من الله ترة". رواه أبو داود

420. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who sits in a gathering and does not remember Allaah therein, then his sitting will be a means of regret for him from the side of Allaah and the person who lies down in bed and does not remember Allaah, then this will be a means of regret for him from Allaah.” [Abu Dawud]

421. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Those who get up from a gathering in which Allaah is not remembered, then their getting up is like getting up from the corpse of a donkey (eating from the flesh of the donkey) and it will be regret for them.” [Abu Dawud]
422. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Those who sit in a gathering and do not remember Allaah therein that gathering will be a means of regret for them, Allaah can punish them or He could forgive them.” [Tirmidhi]

Beneficial and useless speech

 وعن أم حبيبة قالت : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : "كل كلام ابن آدم عليه لا له إلا أمر بمعروف أو نهي عن منكر أو ذكر الله " . رواه الترمذي وابن ماجه

423. Hadhrat Umm Habibah radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Every speech of the son of Aadam is a calamity except that speech which is commanding the good and forbidding the evil or it is for the remembrance of Allaah.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The harm of useless speech

 وعن ابن عمر رضي الله عنهما قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " لا تكثروا الكلام بغير ذكر الله فإن كثرة الكلام بغير ذكر الله قسوة للقلب وإن أبعد الناس من الله القلب القاسي " . رواه الترمذي

424. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Do not speak more than the remembrance of Allaah because abundant speech excluding the remembrance of Allaah is a means of the heart hardening and remember, the person whose heart is hard is far from Allaah.” [Tirmidhi]
Which wealth is better?

وعن ثوبان قال : لما نزلت (والذين يكنزون الذهب والفضة) كنا مع النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم في بعض أسفاره فقال بعض أصحابه : نزلت في الذهب والفضة لو علمنا أي المال خير فنتخذه ؟ فقال : " أفضله لسان ذاكر وقلب شاكر وزوجة مؤمنة تعينه على إيمانه " . رواه أحمد والترمذي وابن ماجه.

425. Hadhrat Thaubaan .. narrates that when this verse was revealed ("الذين يكنزون الذهب والفضة") then we were with Rasulullaah ﷺ on journey. (Hearing this verse) some Sahabah ﷺ said that this verse has been revealed regarding gold and silver. (and we know the ruling of them and the despicability of them) if only we knew (besides gold and silver) which wealth is best in order to gather it.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A tongue making the Dhikr of Allaah, a heart thanking Allaah and a Muslim wife that encourages a person in doing works of Deen (is the best wealth).” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The virtues of the people of Dhikr

426. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed .. narrates that (one day) Hadhrat Mu’awiyah .. came to a gathering that was in the Masjid. He asked the people in the gathering, “What has made you sit here?” They said, “We are sitting here in order to remember Allah.” Hadhrat Mu’awiyah  said, “By Allah, has the Dhikr of Allah made you sit here?” They said, “By Allah, there is no doubt that only the Dhikr of Allah has made us sit here.” Hadhrat Mu’awiyah  said, “Look, I have not made you take an oath out of accusation (i.e. taking you to be lying) (but in emulation of Rasulullaah  I made you take an oath). Then Hadhrat Mu’awiyah  said, “There was no one equal to me in narrating little Ahadith of Rasulullaah  (i.e. out of caution I narrate very few Ahadith. It should not be that something is added or removed). After this Hadhrat Mu’awiyah  said, “One day Rasulullaah  came to a gathering of his companions. He then asked them that what has made you sit here.” The Sahabah  said, “We are sitting here in order to remember Allah and we are sitting here in order to praise Him that He blessed us with guidance to Islaam and through it He has favoured us.” Rasulullaah  said, “By Allah, has only this made you sit here?” the Sahabah  said, “By Allah, there is no doubt that this has made us sit here.” Rasulullaah  said, “Look, I have not made you take an oath out of accusation but Jibreel  came to me and told me that Allah  is priding over you before the angels.” [Muslim]

Keep your tongue moist with the Dhikr of Allah

427. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr  narrates that a person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, the laws of Islaam (i.e. the optional ones) have become many for me (i.e. the optional commands are so many that I am excused from offering them), therefore, teach me something that I could hold firmly onto. Rasulullaah  said, “Your tongue should remain moist with the remembrance of Allaah.”

[Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

Which servant is better and more virtuous?

وعن أبي سعيد : أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم سئل: أي العباد أفضل وأرفع درجة عند الله يوم القيامة؟ قال: "الذاكرون الله كثيرا والذاكرات" قيل: يا رسول الله ومن الغازي في سبيل الله؟ قال: "لو ضرب بسيفه في الكفار والمشركين حتى ينكسر ويختصب دما فإن الذاكر لله أفضل منه درجة". رواه أحمد والترمذي

428. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed  narrates that Rasulullaah  was asked that which servant is the most virtuous and he will have the highest rank on the Day of Qiyaamat? Rasulullaah  said, “The men and women who remember Allaah in abundance.” It was said, “O Rasul of Allaah, are they more virtuous and have higher rank than those making Jihaad in the path of Allaah? Rasulullaah  said that if a person strikes his sword against the disbelievers and polytheists until it breaks and he becomes coloured in blood (i.e. he is martyred) then too the person remembering Allaah will have a higher rank than this person.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

mmm

The method of moving Shaytaan away

وعن ابن عباس قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "الشيطان جاثم على قلب ابن آدم فإذا ذكر الله خنس وإذا غفل وسوس". رواه البخاري تعليقاً.

429. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas   narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Shaytaan sticks to the heart of man. When he remembers Allaah in the heart, then Shaytaan moves back and when he is negligent of the remembrance of Allaah then Shaytaan whispers into his heart.” [Bukhari]

mmm

The example of those who remember Allaah amongst the negligent

والفصيح: بنو آدم والأعجم: البهائم. رواه رزين

430. Imam Maalik   narrates that this narration has reached me that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who makes Dhikr of Allaah amongst the negligent is like the person standing firm amongst those that run away (i.e. like the person who stands alone facing the enemy after his army has run away). Also, the person who makes the Dhikr of Allaah among the negligent is like a green branch in a dry tree.” In one narration is said, “Like a green and lush tree.” And the one making the Dhikr of Allaah is like a lamp in a dark house and the one who makes the Dhikr of Allaah among the negligent will be shown his abode in Jannah in his life and the one who makes the Dhikr of Allaah among the negligent will get a reward equal to all the clear and unclear in number (i.e. all men and animals).” [Razeen]

mmm

A few virtues and benefits of Dhikr

وعن معاذ بن جبل قال : ما عمل العبد عفلا أنجى له من عذاب الله من ذكر الله . رواه مالك والترمذي وابن ماجه

431. Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal  narrates that there is no action that saves one from the punishment of Allaah more than the remembrance of Allaah.

[Maalik, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

mmm

وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن الله تعالى يقول : أنا مع عبدي إذا ذكرني وتحركت بي شفتاه " . رواه البخاري

432. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ says that when My servant remembers Me and moves his lips for My Dhikr, then I am with him (i.e. I help him, grant him ability and have mercy and consideration for him).” [Bukhari]

وعن عبد الله بن عمر عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم أنه كان يقول: "لكل شيء صقالة وصقالة القلوب ذكر الله وما من شيء أنجى من عذاب الله من ذكر الله". قالوا: ولا الجهاد في سبيل الله؟ قال: "ولا أن يضرب بسيفه حتى ينقطع". رواه البيهقي في الدعوات الكبير

433. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “For everything there is a cleanser and the cleanser of the heart is the Dhikr of Allaah and there is nothing greater that will save a person from the punishment of Allaah than the Dhikr of Allaah.” The Sahabah ﰆ said, “Jihaad in the path of Allaah is also not such an action?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “No, even if the Mujaahid strikes his sword till it breaks.” [Bayhaqi]
The virtue of Jihad

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “He who believes in Allaah and His Rasul and establishes Salaah and keeps the fast of Ramadhaan, then it is compulsory upon Allaah to enter this person into Jannah whether he makes Jihaad in the path of Allaah or he sits in his locality where he was born.” The Sahabah  said, “Shall we tell people this glad tiding?” Rasulullaah  said, “(But listen to this virtue of Jihaad also that) in Jannah there are 100 stages which Allaah  has prepared for those who make Jihad in His path and the space between two stages is the distance between the heaven and earth. Therefore, when you ask Allaah (for Jihad and high stages) then ask for Firdaus because it is the best and most virtuous of all the stages and on top of it is the ‘Arsh of Allaah (as though it is in the shade of the divine throne) and the rivers of Jannah flow from there.” [Bukhari]

The conditions of those who wage Jihad in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The condition of the one who wages Jihad in the path of Allaah is like the one who fasts and performs Salaah and recites the verses of Allaah, one who never tires from fasting and from Salaah until the one in Jihad returns home.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The reward of Jihad

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “(Allaah ﷺ says that) the person who comes out in the path of Allaah (for Jihaad), Allaah is a guarantee for him. Nothing besides belief in Me and verification of My Ambiyaa-messengers took him out (for Jihaad), (i.e. he is not coming out in Jihaad for show or in search of the world but he comes out only for My pleasure and happiness), then I shall return him with the reward of the Aakhirah or with booty or (if he is martyred) I shall enter him into Jannah.”
[Bukhari, Muslim]

The enthusiasm of Rasulullaah ﷺ for Jihad and his desire for martyrdom

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " والذي نفسي بيده لولا أن رجالا من المسلمين لا تطيب أنفسهم أن يتخلفوا عنني ولا أجد ما أحملهم عليه ما تخلفت عن سرية تغزو في سبيل الله والذي نفسي بيده لوددت أن أقتل في سبيل الله ثم أحيى ثم أقتل ثم أحيى ثم أقتل ثم أحيى ثم أقتل ثم أحيى ثم أقتل " ( متفق عليه )

437. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Narrated that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By the being in whose control my life is, if I did not have this fear that many Muslims (who are poor and ill equipped) will not be happy to remain behind from me and separate from me and I do not have so many conveyances upon which to mount them, then I would not remain behind from any army waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah. By the being in whose control my life is, my hope and desire is that I be martyred in the path of Allaah, then be given life, then be martyred, then be given life, then be martyred, then be given life then be martyred (i.e. I be martyred repeatedly so that every time I could get new reward).” [Bukhari, Muslim]
That which is better than the world and the contents of the world

وعن سهل بن سعد قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "رباط يوم في سبيل الله خير من الدنيا وما عليها" (متفق عليه)

438. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d Ḥ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Guarding one day in the path of Allaah is better than the world and what it contains.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

439. Hadhrat Anas Ḥ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A morning or evening in the path of Allaah (with the purpose of Jihaad) is better than the world and what it contains.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The reward for standing guard in the path of Allaah

وعن سلمان الفارسي قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "رباط يوم وليلة في سبيل الله خير من صيام شهر وقيامه وإن مات جرى عليه عمله الذي كان يعمله وأجري عليه رزقه وأمن الفتان". رواه مسلم

440. Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi Ḥ narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Guarding one day and one night in the path of Allaah is better than fasting a month and staying awake at night and if that guard (while doing this) dies, then the reward of the action upon which he was (during his life) continues, (i.e. the good action he was doing when alive, the reward of it continuously reaches him after death) and for him provision is given (from the food and drink of Jannah) and he remains protected from the trials of the grave.”

[Muslim]

The virtue for participating in Jihad

و手艺 أبي عبس قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "ما اغبت قدما عبد في سبيل الله فتمسه النار". رواه البخاري

441. Hadhrat Abi Abs narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person whose feet get dusted in the path of Allaah (in Jihaad), the fire of Jahannam will not touch him.”

[Bukhari]

The reward for killing an enemy during Jihad

و手艺 أبي هريرة أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "لا يجتمع كافر وقاتلته في النار أبدا". رواه مسلم

442. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A disbeliever and the one who killed him (the believer) will never ever be together in Jahannam.”

[Muslim]
The best life

وعنة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من خير عاش الناس لهم رجل ممسك عنان فرسه في سبيل الله يطير على متنه كلما سمع هيعة أو فزعة طار عليه يبتغي القتل والموت ماظنه أو رجل في غنيمة في رأس شعفة من هذه الشعف أو بطن واد من هذه الأودية يقيم الصلاة ويوتى الزكاة ويعبد الله حتى يأتيه اليقين ليس من الناس إلا في خير". رواه مسلم

443. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “From the life of man, the best life is of that person who holds the reins of his horse and when he hears any fearul sound or call, then he quickly jumps on the back of his horse and runs to (that fearul sound or call) and he seeks his death at that place where he thinks death is (i.e. when he hears any fearful scream or call for help then he goes quickly and looks for the noise so that when reaching there he can help the person calling and he has no fear of losing his life), or the best life is of that person who with a few goats goes to live on a mountain peak or a valley and performs Salaah and (if the goats reach the Nisaab amount) he gives Zakaat on them and he remains involved in worshipping his Rabb until death comes to him and this person is not partner to man but in goodness (i.e. he stays away from the evil of people and only takes part in the good).” [Muslim]

The reward for helping a Mujahid

وعن زيد بن خالد أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "من جهز غازيا في سبيل الله فقد غزا ومن خلف غازيا في أهله فقد غزا"
444. Hadhrat Zayd bin Khaalid  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who rectifies the supplies of a person waging Jihaad in the path of Allâh, it is (as though) he has waged Jihaad (i.e. he is part of those waging Jihaad and he is partner in reward) and the person who remains as deputy for a Mujaahid’s family (i.e. after a Mujaahid goes out he serves the Mujaahid’s family) (it is as though) he has waged Jihaad.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

445. Hadhrat Buraydah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The honour and respect of the wives sitting (at home) (for those who are not gone in Jihaad) is necessary just as the honour and respect of their own mothers is. Therefore, (remember) those sitting behind (those not gone in Jihaad) whoever serves as a deputy for the one gone out in Jihaad (i.e. he sees to them) then he misappropriates in the (honour and respect) of the family of him (the Mujaahid), then he will be made to stand in front of that Mujaahid on the Day of Qiyaamat and the Mujaahid will take from his actions however much he wants, what do you think in such a condition?” (that how much deeds will the Mujaahid take?)

The reward for spending in the path of Allaah

وعن أبي مسعود الأنصاري قال : جاء رجل بناقة مخطومة فقال : هذه في سبيل
الله فقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ : "لك بها يوم القيامة سبعمئة ناقة كلها مخطومة" . رواه مسلم

446. Hadhrat Abu Mas’ood Ansaari .. narrates that (one day in the presence of Rasulullaah ﷺ) a person brought a laden camel and said, “This is for the path of Allaah (i.e. I am presenting this camel for the pleasure of Allaah for Jihaad).” Rasulullaah ﷺ (accepted this offering) and said, “In lieu of it, on the Day of Qiyaamat you will get 700 laden camels.” [Muslim]

The reward for looking after a Mujahid and his family and wealth

وعن أبي سعيد : أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم بعث بعثا إلى بني
لحيان فقال : " لينبعث من كل رجلين أحدهما والأجر بينهما " . رواه مسلم

447. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ intended to send an army to a branch of Banu Hudhayl called Banu Lihyaan. So he commanded that from two people, one should stand up and go in Jihaad (i.e. half the tribe should go in Jihaad and half should remain behind to look after their families) and the reward of Jihaad will be attained by both equally.” [Muslim]
How will Deen remain established?

وعن جابر بن سمرة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "لن يبرح هذا الدين قائما يقاتل عليه عصابة من المسلمين حتى تقوم الساعة". رواه مسلم

448. Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah  narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “This Deen will remain established and a group of Muslims will fight for the protection of this Deen until Qiyaamat (i.e. the earth will not be empty of Jihaad, Jihaad will remain in some form or the other somewhere or the other and through it Deen will remain established.)”

[Muslim]

The virtue of being wounded in the path of Allaah

وعن أبي هريرة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "لا يكلم أحد في سبيل الله أعلم بمن يكلم في سبيله إلا جاء يوم القيامة وجرحه يثعب دما اللون لون الدم والريح ريح المسك" (متفق عليه)

449. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “The person who is wounded in the path of Allaah (i.e. in Jihaad) and Allaah knows best who is wounded in His path, that Mujaahid will come in the condition on the Day of Qiyaamat such that blood will be flowing from his wound and it colour will be like that of blood and its scent will be like that of musk.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm
The hope of a martyr

No person that enters Jannah will desire to come back to this world and (in lieu of the blessings of Jannah) he gets something of this world except a martyr who will desire to return to the world and be martyred 10 times in the path of Allaah on account of the honour and dignity he will get.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Hadhrat Masrooq  narrates that we asked the Tafseer of this verse ‘Do not think of those that are martyred in the path of Allaah as dead but they are living by their Rabb and they are provided for’ from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood . Ibn Mas’ood  said, “We asked Rasulullaah  the Tafseer of this verse and he said, ‘the souls of these martyrs are in the form of green birds, candles are hung for them below the ‘Arsh of Allaah, these souls eat of whatever fruit they desire in Jannah, then they go to the candles. Then Allaah turns to them and says, ‘Do you desire anything?’ they say, ‘What could we desire when we eat in Jannah from wherever we want.’ Allaah does this thrice with them (i.e. He asks this question thrice) and when they see that He is not leaving us by asking this question (i.e. when they see that what Allaah means is that they should make some desire apparent) then they say, ‘O our Rabb, our only desire is that you return our souls to our bodies (and send us back to the world) so that we could be martyred again in your path.’ When Allaah sees that they do not have any desire or wish (because the desire that they have made apparent, fulfilling it is against the expediency and intention of Allaah) then He leaves them (i.e. Allaah leaves asking them.)” [Muslim]

Which sins are forgiven through martyrdom?

452. Hadhrat Abu Qatadah  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  delivered a sermon before the companions and (in this sermon) he warned them that waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah and believing in Allaah are the best actions. When hearing this a person stood up and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, tell me that if I am martyred in the path of Allaah then will all my sins be forgiven?” Rasulullaah  said, “Yes, on condition that you are martyred in the condition that you are patient (upon the difficulties), are in search of reward and you do not turn your back and run but you remain firm before the enemy.” Then Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, “What did you say?” He said, “Tell me that if I am martyred in the path of Allaah, then will all my sins be forgiven?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes, on condition that you are patient, in search of reward, do not turn your back and run, but remain firm before the enemy, except debt (i.e. that debt is not forgiven which you did not have the intention of fulfilling), Jibreel ﷺ told me this.” [Muslim] وعن عبد الله بن عمرو بن العاص أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "القتل في سبيل الله يكفر كل شيء إلا الدين". رواه مسلم 453.

453. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Being martyred in the path of Allaah wipes out all sins except debt (i.e. the rights of the servants).” [Muslim]

454. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah looks at two people and laughs. (i.e. He is pleased with them and He turns to them with His mercy) one of them is he who wages Jihaad in the path of Allaah and is martyred (until he enters Jannat-paradise) Then Allaah grants his killer the ability to repent (he repents from kufr and enters Islaam), then he wages Jihaad in the path of Allaah and is martyred (therefore, he is also entered into Jannah).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The status of a person who desires martyrdom

وعن سهل بن حنيف قال : قال رسول ﷺ صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من سأل الله الشهادة بصدق بلغه الله منازل الشهداء وإن مات على فراشه . رواه مسلم 455. Hadhrat Sahl bin Hunayf  narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “He who asks Allaah with a true heart for martyrdom, Allaah will take him to the status of the martyrs even though he passes away on his bed (i.e. he will get the reward of martyrs on account of his true intention and true desire).” [Muslim]

Two martyrs of the battle of Badr and their status

 وعن أنس أن الربيع بنت البراء وهي أم حارثة بن سراقة أتت النبي ﷺ صلى الله عليه وسلم فقالت : يا رسول الله ألا تحدثني عن حارثة وكان قتل يوم بدر أصابه سهم غرب فإن كان في الجنة صبرت وإن كان غير ذلك اجتهدت عليه في البكاء فقال : " يا أم حارثة إنها جنان في الجنة وإن ابنك أصاب الفردوس الأعلى " . رواه البخاري 456. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that (his aunt) Hadhrat Rubayyi’ bint Bara who is the mother of Hadhrat Haritha bin Suraqah (one day) came to Rasulullah ﷺ and said, “O Nabi of Allaah, will you not tell me the condition of my son [364]
Haritha – Haritha was martyred in the battle of Badr and the arrow that hit him, the person who fired it was unknown – if he is in Jannah then I shall be patient and if he is somewhere else, then I shall strive to cry for him.” (i.e. to cry a lot as is the habit of women) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “O mother of Haritha, indeed there are many gardens in Jannah and your son has reached the highest stage of Firdaws (the highest stage of Jannah).” [Bukhari]

457. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that (on the occasion of Badr) Rasulullaah ﷺ and his companions left Madinah and reached Badr (the battlefield) before the polytheists. Then the polytheist army came and (began preparing for the fight) and Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Stand up for Jannah, the Jannah which is as wide as the earth and sky.” Hadhrat Umayr bin Humam Ansaari  heard this and said, “Very good, very good.” Rasulullaah ﷺ asked him, “Why have you said, ‘Very good, very good’?” Umayr replied, “O Rasul of Allaah, I did not say these words except with this hope that I will also become a dweller of Jannah.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There is no doubt that you are a dweller of Jannah.” The narrator says that hearing this glad tiding from the tongue of Rasulullaah ﷺ Hadhrat Umayr took out some dates from his quiver and began eating them. He then said, “If I remain alive to eat these dates, then life is very long.” Subsequently, he put down the dates he had and fought with the disbelievers until he was martyred.” [Muslim]

mmm

The types of martyrs

وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " ما تعدون الشهداء فيكم ؟ " قالوا : يا رسول الله من قتل في سبيل الله فهو شهيد قال : " إن شهداء أمتي إذا لقليل : من قتل في سبيل الله فهو شهيد ومن مات في سبيل الله فهو شهيد ومن مات في الطاعون فهو شهيد ومن مات في البطن فهو شهيد " . رواه مسلم

458. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ٓ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ asked the companions that who do you count as martyr from you? The companions replied, “O Rasul of Allaah, the person who is martyred in the path of Allaah is a martyr.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In this case, the martyrs of my Ummah will be very few. The person who is martyred in the path of Allaah is a real martyr (but) the person who dies in the path of Allaah (without fighting but dies naturally) is also a martyr. The person who dies in a plague is also a martyr and the one who dies from a stomach illness is also a martyr.” (i.e. all of them will get the reward of a martyr).

[Muslim]

mmm

When will a person get the complete reward of Jihaad?

459. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The group or army that wages Jihaad and returns safely with booty they have acquired two thirds of its reward (i.e. in this world) and the group or army that wages Jihaad and does not get booty and the soldiers of the group or army are injured or are martyred, their reward has remained completely.” [Muslim]

A sign of hypocrisy

 وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " من مات ولم يغزو ولم يحدث به نفسه مات على شعبة نفاق " . رواه مسلم

460. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “That Muslim who dies and he did not wage Jihaad nor did the thought of Jihaad cross his heart, then his death is a type of hypocrisy.” [Muslim]
Who is a true Mujaahid?

وعن أبي موسى قال: جاء رجل إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال: الرجل يقاتل للمغنم والرجل يقاتل للذكر والرجل يقاتل ليرى مكانه فمن في سبيل الله؟ قال: "من قاتل لتكون كلمة الله هي العليا فهو في سبيل الله" (متفق عليه)

461. Hadhrat Aub Musa Ash’ari  ﷺ narrates that a person came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “One person fights in order to attain booty, another person fights to acquire fame and one person fights so that his status could be seen (i.e. he fights to show his courage and bravery), so from the three which one is waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who fights for this reason so that the Deen of Allaah could be elevated, he is waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The reward for the one who cannot participate in Jihaad on account of a reason

وعن أنس: أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم رجع من غزوة تبوك فدنا من المدينة فقال: "إن بالمدينة أقواما ما سرتم مسيرا ولا قطعتم واديا إلا كانوا معكم". وفي رواية: "بلا شركوكم في الأجر". قالوا: يا رسول الله وهم بالمدينة؟ قال: "وهم بالمدينة حبسهم العذر". رواه البخاري

462. Hadhrat Anas  ﷺ narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ returned from the battle of Tabuk and reached close to Madinah then he said, “There are some people of Madinah who have not crossed any path, nor traversed any jungle but they were with you. In one narration it states, except that they partner you in reward.” Hearing this the companions said, “O Rasul of Allah and those people are in Madinah?” (i.e. when they did not participate in Jihad with us, then how are they partner in reward with you?) Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Yes, those people are in Madinah (but despite this they are partner to you in reward). Their excuse kept them back (i.e. their excuse kept them back from participating in Jihad with you otherwise they would have definitely participated).” [Bukhari]

Serving ones parents is also Jihad

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال : جاء رجل إلى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فاستأذنه في الجهاد فقال : "أحي والدك ؟ " قال : نعم قال : " ففيهما فجاهد " . متفق عليه . وفي رواية : " فارجع إلى والديك فأحسن صحبتهما " ( متفق عليه )

463. Hadhrat Abdullah bin Amr narrates that a person came to Rasulullah ﷺ and sought permission to participate in Jihad. He asked the person, “Are your parents alive?” he said, “Yes.” He replied, “Then remain among them and wage Jihad (i.e. serve them with full effort. This is Jihad for you.)” [Bukhari, Muslim]
After the conquest of Makkah there is no migration from Makkah

وعن ابن عباس عن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم قال يوم الفتح : ( " ا هجرة بعد الفتح ولكن جهاد ونية وإذا استنفرتم فانفروا " ( متفق عليه )

464. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  أ نARRATES THAT ON THE DAY Makkah was conquered, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There is no migration after the conquest of Makkah but Jihaad and the intention of Jihaad will remain. Therefore, when you are called for Jihaad, then go out for Jihaad.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

There will always be a group of Muslims involved in Jihaad

عن عمران بن حصين قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " لا تزال طائفة من أمتي يقاتلون على الحق ظاهرين على من ناوأهم حتى يقاتل آخرهم المسيح الدجال " . رواه أبو داود

465. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn  أ NARRATES THAT Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There will always be a group in my Ummah that will fight for the support and protection of the truth and whosoever opposes this group, they will remain overpowering until the last people of this Ummah will fight Dajjaal.” [Abu Dawud]
Warning for not participating in Jihaad for any reason

وعن أبي أمامة عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "من لم يغز ولم يجهز غازيا أو يخلف غازيا في أهله بخير أصابه الله بقارعة قبل يوم القيامة". رواه أبو داود

466. Hadhrat Abu Umamah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The person who did not go out in Jihaad nor did he arrange the provisions for a Mujaahid nor did he see to the needs of the family of a Mujaahid with goodness, then Allaah ﷺ will afflict him with a great difficulty before his death.” [Abu Dawud]

Jihaad through life, wealth and tongue

وعن أنس عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: " جاهدوا المشركين بأموالكم وأنفسكم وألسنتكم". رواه أبو داود والنسائي والدارمي

467. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Wage Jihaad against the polytheists with your lives, wealth and tongues.” [Abu Dawud, Nasa’I, Daarimi]

Do three things and inherit Jannah

 وعن أبي هريرة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "أفشوا السلام وأطعموا الطعام واضربوا الهمم تورثوا الجنان". رواه الترمذي وقال: هذا حديث غريب
468. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Spread Salaam (i.e. greet every person whether you know them or not) and feed food (to the poor and needy) and cut the heads of the disbelievers (their evil and corruption), you will inherit Jannat-paradise.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

The reward for guarding in the path of Allaah

 وعن فضالة بن عبيد عن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: ', "كل ميت يختم على عمله إلا الذي مات مرابطا في سبيل الله فإنه ينمي له عمله إلى يوم القيامة ويأمن فتنة القبر". رواه الترمذي وأبو داود

469. Hadhrat Fadaalah bin Ubayd  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Every deceased is completed upon his deeds (i.e. the reward of the deeds of every person is written to the extent of his life. After he dies, his deeds are not written). However, the person who dies while guarding in the path of Allaah, his action will grow for him till the Day of Qiyaamat and he will remain safe from the trial and punishment of the grave.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Daarimi]

mmm

The virtues of a Mujaahid

[372]
470. Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal  narrates that he heard Rasulullah ﷺ saying, “He who fights in the path of Allaah for a Fawaaq (a little while), Jannah becomes compulsory for him and the one who is wounded in the path of Allaah (through the enemy weapons) or he is wounded in any other way, then on the Day of Qiyaamat that wound will come in a condition more fresh than what it was in the world and the person on whose body blisters erupt in the path of Allaah, then (on the Day of Qiyaamat) there will be the seal of the martyrs on that blister (or on the person) (i.e. this person will have the sign of the martyrs so that it will be known that this person sacrificed for the elevation and protection of Deen. Subsequently, he will get the same reward that the Mujaahideen of Islaam gets).”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

The reward for spending in the path of Allaah

471. Hadhrat Khuraym bin Faatik  says that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Whatever a person spends in the path of Allaah, a reward seven hundred fold is written for him.”

[Tirmidhi, Nasa’i]
472. Hadhrat Abu Umamah ę narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The best charity is the shade of a tent given in the path of Allaah and the best charity is the camel given in the path of Allaah that has the ability to fertilize (so that it could be used for transport.)” [Tirmidhi]

Two people will not enter Jahannam

473. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ę narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who cries out of the fear of Allaah will not go to Jahannam until the milk returns to the udders and the dust that a person gets while in the path of Allaah and the smoke of Jahannam will not come together (i.e. the person whose body gets dusted in the path of Allaah, the smoke of Jahannam will not touch it).” [Tirmidhi] the second eye is the one that watches guard at night while in the path of Allaah.” [Tirmidhi]

An action that makes Jannah compulsory

وعن أبي هريرة قال : مر رجل من أصحاب رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في شعب فيه عينة من ماء فأنجبته فقال : لو اعتزلت الناس فأقمت في هذا الشعب فذكر ذلك لرسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال : " لا تفعل فإن مقام أحدكم في سبيل الله أفضل من صلاته سبعين عاما لا تحبون أن يغفر الله لكم ويدخلكم الجنة ؟ اغزوا في سبيل الله من قاتل في سبيل الله فواق ناقة وجبت له الجنة " . رواه الترمذي

475. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (once on a journey) a companion of Rasulullaah  passed a mountain road in which there was water of a sweet spring. The spring was very pleasing to him. He began to say, ‘If only I could separate from these people and stay on this path.’ When this was mentioned to Rasulullaah  he said (to this companion), “Do not do this because waiting in the path of Allaah is better than 70 years of Salaah at home, do you not like that Allaah ﷺ forgives you (completely) and enters you into Jannah (initially)? Wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah because he who wages Jihaad in the path of Allaah for a Fawaq of a camel (a little while), Jannah becomes compulsory for him.” [Tirmidhi]
The virtue for standing guard in the path of Allaah

وعن عثمان رضي الله عنه عن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : "رباط يوم في سبيل الله خير من ألف يوم فيما سواه من المنازل ". رواه الترمذي والنسائي

476. Hadhrat Uthmaan  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Standing guard in the path of Allaah is better than 1000 days of other forms of worship at home.”

[Tirmidhi, Nasa‘i]

The first three people to enter Jannah

وعن أبي هريرة أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : "عرض علي أول ثلاثة يدخلون الجنة: شهيد وعفيف متعفف وعبد أحسن عبادة الله ونصح لمواليه ". رواه الترمذي

477. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The three people to enter Jannah first were presented before me; one of them is a martyr, the second is one who stays away from Haraam and does not stretch his hands before anyone and the third is the slave that did worship and obeyed Allaah and remained faithful to his master.”

[Tirmidhi]
The virtues of a few actions

478. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hubshi narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was asked, “Which of the actions and fundamentals (of Salaah) are the most virtuous?” He said, “Standing for a long time.” He was asked, “Which is the best charity?” He replied, “The sacrifice and effort of a poor and needy person (his charity).” He was asked, “Which is the best migration?” He replied, “The person who abandons that which Allaah has forbidden.” He was asked, “Which is the best Jihaad?” He replied, “The one who wages Jihaad with his wealth and life against the polytheists.” He was asked, “(In Jihaad) which is the best killing?” He replied, “He whose blood is spilled and he whose horse’s legs are cut.” (i.e. that martyr is the most virtuous who is killed himself and his horse is also killed). [Abu Dawud] The narration of Nasa’i states that Rasulullaah ﷺ was asked, “Which action is the best?” he replied, “That Imaan in which there is no doubt and that Jihaad in which there is no misappropriation, and accepted Hajj.” He was then asked, “Which action of Salaah is the best?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Standing for a long time...” mmm
Six outstanding things for a martyr

"وعن المقدام بن معدي كرب قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " للشهيد عند الله ست خصال : يغفر له في أول دفعة ويرى مقعده من الجنة ويجار من عذاب القبر ويأمن من الفزع الأكبر ويوضع على رأسه تاج الوقار الياقوتة منها خير من الدنيا وما فيها ويزوج ثنتين وسبعين زوجة من الحور العين ويشفع في سبعين من أقربائه ''. رواه الترمذي وابن ماجه".

479. Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Ma’dikarib narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “According to Allaah there are six qualities (i.e. six outstanding bounties) of a martyr; he is forgiven at the first opportunity (i.e. the moment the first drop of blood touches the ground) and he is shown his abode in Jannah, he remains protected from the punishment of the grave, he remains safe from the great worry (the punishment of the fire), the crown of honour and glory will be placed on his head, one jewel of it will be better than the world and all that it contains, 72 wide eyed damsels will be married to him and his intercession for 70 of his family members will be accepted.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah]

The one whose Deen is incomplete

"وعن أبي هريرة قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " من لقي الله بغير أثر من جهاد لقي الله وفيه ثلثمة ''. رواه الترمذي وابن ماجه"

[378]
480. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ῆ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who meets Allaah in such a condition that there is no effect of Jihaad upon him, then it is as though he meets Allaah in such a condition that his Deen is incomplete.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah]

481. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ῆ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A martyr only gets this much pain from his martyrdom equal to the pain you feel when an ant bites you.” [Tirmidhi, Nasa’i, Daarimi]

482. Hadhrat Abu Umamah ῆ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There is nothing more beloved to Allaah than two drops and two marks. One is the tear drop that rolled out of the fear of Allaah and the second is the drop of blood that flowed in the path of Allaah. From the two marks, one is the one established in the path of Allaah and the second is the one created out of doing an obligatory duty from the obligatory duties of Allaah.” [Tirmidhi]

A sea journey should not be undertaken unnecessarily

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " لا تركب البحر إلا حاجا أو معتمرا أو غازيا في سبيل الله فإن تحت البحر نارا وتحت النار بحرا " . رواه أبو داود

483. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not travel by sea except in order to perform Hajj or Umrah or to wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah because there is fire below the ocean and below the fire the there is ocean.” [Abu Dawud]

The reward for the difficulties of a sea journey

وعن أم حرام عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : " المائد في البحر الذي يصيبه القيء له أجر شهيد والغريق له أجر شهيدين " . رواه أبو داود

484. Hadhrat Umm e Haraam radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who feels dizzy during a sea journey and he vomits on account of it, then he will get the reward of a martyr and he who drowns (on journey) he will get the reward of two martyrs.” [Abu Dawud]
The martyr who dies during the Jihaad journey

"وعن أبي مالك الأشعري قال : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم يقول : "من فصل في سبيل الله فمات أو قتل أو وقصه فرسه أو بعيره أو لدغته هامة أو مات في فراشه بأي حتف شاء الله فإنه شهيد وإن له الجنة " . رواه أبو داود.

485. Hadhrat Abu Maalik Ash’ari . narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “He who comes out of his home in the path of Allaah ﷺ and dies or he is killed or his horse or camel trampled him or a poisonous animal (like a snake) bit him or in whatever Allaah wanted he died on his bed, so in every case he is a martyr and there is Jannah for him (i.e. he will be entered into Jannah with the first martyrs).” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

Return from Jihaad is also Jihaad

"وعن عبد الله بن عمرو أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : " قفلة كغزوة ". رواه أبو داود.

486. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Returning from Jihaad is like Jihaad.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm
The reward of a Mujaahid and the one who helps him

وعنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم: " للغازي أجره وللجالل أجله وأجر الغازي " . رواه أبو داود

487. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person waging Jihaad will get his reward (i.e. the special reward for a Mujaahid he will get) and a Ja’il, i.e. one who gives money and helps a Mujaahid will get the reward of giving money and the reward of Jihaad.” [Abu Dawud]

The evil of waging Jihaad for a wage

 وعن أبي أيوب سمع النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم يقول : " ستفتح عليكم الأمصار وستكون جنود مجندنة يقطع عليكم فيها بعوش فيكره الرجل البهذق فيتخلص من قومه ثم يتصرف القبائل يعرف نفسه عليهم من أكفيه بعد كذا ألا وذلك الأجبر إلى آخر قطرة من دمه " . رواه أبو داود

488. Hadhrat Abu Ayyub  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that soon major cities will be conquered for you and there will be gathered armies and in those armies there will be appointed battalions. So one person will dislike being sent (in Jihaad without any recompense along with the army) and he will run away from his nation (so that he could be saved from participating in Jihaad). Then he will go and search for other tribes and present his services before them and he will say that who is the person for such an army I can suffice (i.e. who is the one who will accept my services in lieu of payment and will employ me so that I can go and strive and make effort on his behalf taking responsibility. In essence, this person will not be ready to wage Jihaad solely for the pleasure of Allaah without taking a wage), beware, that person will remain an employee until his last drop of blood (i.e. taking such a person to be a Mujaahid, but he is an employee that fights for others in the battlefield until he is even killed).” [Abu Dawud]

 وعن يعلى بن أمية قال : آذن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم بالغزو وأن شيخ كبير ليس لي خادم فالتمست أجيرا يكفيني فوجدت رجلا سميت له ثلاثة دنانير فلما حضرت غنيمة أردت أن أجري له سهمه فجئت النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم فذكرت له فقال : " ما أجد له في غزوته هذه في الدنيا والآخرة إلا دنانيره التي تسمى " . رواه أبو داود

489. Hadhrat Ya’la bin Umayyah  narrates that (on one occasion) Rasulullaah  encouraged people to go in Jihaad when I was very old and did not have a servant. Therefore I looked for a worker (who would look after me during Jihaad). Consequently, I found a person and stipulated his payment as 3 Dinaars. Then (upon completion of the Jihaad) when the booty came, so I intended to set aside a share for that person (of the booty) and (in order to enquire regarding the ruling) I went to Rasulullaah  and explained the situation to him. He said, “For this person, in this Jihaad,
The one who is desirous of wealth and possessions through Jihaad will be deprived of reward

 وعن أبي هريرة أن رجلا قال: يا رسول الله رجل يريد الجهاد في سبيل الله وهو يبتغي عرضا من عرض الدنيا فقال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: " لا أجر له " . رواه أبو داود

490. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that a person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, a person has an intention to wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah whereas (through this Jihaad) he has desire for the wealth and possessions of the world.” Rasulullaah  said, “There is no reward in his share.” [Abu Dawud]

Accepted and rejected Jihaad

 وعن معاذ قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: " الغزو غزوان فأما من ابتغى وجه الله وأطاع الإمام وأنفق الكريمة وياسر الشريك واجتنب الفساد فإن نومه ونهبه أجر كله . وأما من غزى فخرا ورياء وسمعة وعصى الإمام وأفسد في الأرض فإنه لا يرجع بالكافف " . رواه مالك وأبو داود والنسائي

491. Hadhrat Mu’aadh  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “There are two types of Jihaad. So the person who participated in Jihaad for the pleasure of Allaah and obeyed the ruler, he used his pure wealth and life (in the path of Allaah) and he had good relations with his companions and stayed away from trials and corruption, then all his sleeping and being awake will necessitate reward. And the person who out of pride (i.e. for fame) and for show does Jihaad, he disobeys the ruler and spreads corruption and trials in the earth, then he does not return with any recompense (i.e. through such a Jihaad his sins are not forgiven nor does he get any reward).” [Maalik, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

 وعن عبد الله بن عمرو أنه قال : يا رسول الله أخبرني عن الجهاد فقال : " يا عبد الله بن عمرو إن قاتلت صابرا محتسبا بعثك الله صابرا محتسبا وإن قاتلت مرائيا مكاثرا بعثك الله مرائيا مكاثرا يا عبد الله بن عمرو على أي حال قاتلت أو قتلت بعثك الله على تلك الحال " . رواه أبو داود

492. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Aas  narrates that he said, “O Rasul of Allaah, tell me of Jihaad (that which type of Jihaad will bring reward)?” Rasulullaah  said, “Abdullaah bin Amr, if you fight in the condition where you are patient and desire reward, then Allaah  (on the Day of Qiyaamat) will resurrect you with the patient and those who desire reward. And if you fight for show and to show your strength, then Allaah  will resurrect you with those who do for show and those who show their strength. O Abdullaah bin Amr, (remember) in whichever condition you fight or die, Allaah  will resurrect you in that condition.” [Abu Dawud]
Removing a disobedient leader

وعن عقبة بن مالك عن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : " أعجزتم إذا بعثت رجلا فلم يمض لأمري أن تجعلوا مكانه من يمضي لأمري ؟ " . رواه أبو داود

493. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Maalik  ا. narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “Are you helpless concerning this that when I send a person (making him the ruler) and he does not obey my commands, then you should remove him and put another in his place who would do the duties I stipulate?” [Abu Dawud]

Reproach for monasticism and virtue of Jihaad

عن أبي أمامة قال : خرجنا مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم في سرية فمر
رجل بغار فيه شيء من ماء وبقل فحدث نفسه بأن يقيم فيه ويتخلى من الدنيا
فأستاذن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم في ذلك فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و
 وسلم : "إني لم أبعث باليهودية ولا بالنصرانية ولكن بعثت بالحنفية السمحة
والذي نفس محمد بيده لغدوة أو روحة في سبيل الله خير من الدنيا وما فيها وللمقام
أحدكم في الصف خير من صلاته ستين سنة ". رواه أحمد

494. Hadhrat Abu Umamah  narrates that (one time) we went out in an army with Rasulullaah . While on journey one person passed by a cave in which there was water and vegetables. So he thought in his heart that he should stay in the cave and remain aloof from the world. Subsequently, he sought permission for this from Rasulullaah . He said, “Remember, I have not been sent to the world with Judaism or Christianity (that I should teach you monasticism), but I have been sent with the straight Deen-religion which is an easy Deen-religion. By the being in whose control the life of Muhammad is, a morning or evening in the path of Allaah (i.e. in Jihaad) is better than the world and what it contains. And the standing in the row (of the group) is better than performing Salaah individually for sixty years.” [Ahmad]
The importance of sincerity of intention

وعن عبادة بن الصامت قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : "من غزا في سبيل الله ولم ينون إلا عقلا فله ما نوى". رواه النسائي

495. Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who wages Jihaad in the path of Allaah with the intention of just a rope, he will get what he intended.” [Nasa’i]

The importance of Jihaad

وعن أبي سعيد رضي الله عنه أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال : "من رضي بالله ربا والإسلام دينا وبمحمد رسول الله وجبت له الجنة". فعجب لها أبو سعيد فقال: أعدها علي يا رسول الله فأعادها عليه ثم قال : "وأخير يرفع الله بها العبد مائة درجة في الجنة ما بين كل درجتين كما بين السماء والأرض". قال : وما هي يا رسول الله ؟ قال : "الجهاد في سبيل الجهاد في سبيل الله الجهاد في سبيل الله". رواه مسلم

496. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who is pleased with Allaah as his Rabb, with Islaam as his true Deen-religion and with Muhammad (ﷺ) as his Rasul (i.e. he accepts all this with his heart) then Jannah becomes compulsory for him.” Hearing this Abu Sa’eed was very surprised and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, say these words once again to me.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then repeated the words to him. He then said, “There is one more thing through which Allaah ﷺ will elevate a person 100 stages in Jannah and between every two stages there is a distance equal to the distance between the earth and sky.” Abu Sa’eed said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is that?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “That is waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah, that is waging Jihaad in
Rush towards Jannah

497. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The doors of Jannah lie beneath the shadows of the swords.” Hearing this, a person of lowly circumstances said, “Abu Musa, have you heard Rasulullaah  say this?” he said, “Yes.” The moment he heard this, he turned to his companions and said, “I greet you for the last time.” He then tore the sheath of his sword and threw it. He then walked to the enemy and fought until he was martyred.” [Muslim]

The message of the martyrs of Uhud

فانزل الله تعالى: (ولا تحسبن الذين قتلوا في سبيل الله أمواتا بل أحياء) إلى آخر الآيات.

رواه أبو داود

498. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to his companions, “When your brothers were martyred in the battle of Uhud, then Allaah ﷺ put their souls in the form of green birds. Subsequently, these souls (in the form of the birds) come to the rivers of Jannah, they eat of the fruits there then they perched on the golden candles that hang in the shade of the ‘Arsh. When these birds have enjoyed their food, drink and perching they say, “Who is there who will convey the message to our brothers that we are alive in Jannah (and are enjoying the blessings of Allaah) so that there do not fall short in acquiring Jannah and they are not lazy at the time of fighting.” Allaah ﷺ (heard them) and said, “I shall convey this message from you.” Subsequently, Allaah ﷺ revealed this verse, “Do not think of those that have been martyred in the path of Allaah as dead, but they are alive with their Rabb, being provided for” to the end. [Abu Dawud]

Three types of believers

[390]
499. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “There are three types of believers in the world; there are some who believe in Allaah and His Rasul, then they are not involved in any doubt or misgiving. Moreover, they waged Jihaad with their lives and wealth in the path of Allaah (i.e. this is the group that reformed and purified their souls and they sacrificed and made effort for the success of the creation of Allaah and this is the group that has the highest rank.), that believer from whom the wealth and lives of people is safe (i.e. although he did not sacrifice and make effort for the success of the creation but the people are not harmed or hurt in any way, then the believer when the thought (of harming someone) comes, then he does not practice on this thought out of the fear of Allaah.” [Ahmad]

The virtue of martyrdom

وعن عبد الرحمن بن أبي عميرة أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : "ما من نفس مسلمة يقبضها ربها تحب أن ترجع إليكم وأن لها الدنيا وما فيها غيبر الشهيد " قال ابن عميرة : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " لأن أقتل في سبيل الله أحب إلي من أن يكون لي أهل الوبر والمدر " . رواه النسائي

500. Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Abi Amirah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “When Allaah takes the soul of a Muslim, then none besides a martyr likes to return and come to you and he gets things of the world and that which it contains (i.e. after a martyr reaches Allaah, when he sees the great status and fortune and honour, then he makes his desire apparent before Allaah that he wishes to come back to the world and be martyred again in the path of Allaah).” Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Abi Amirah says that Rasulullaah ﷺ also said that by Allaah, getting martyred in the path of Allaah is more beloved to me than this that all the people of tents and mansions (i.e. all people) become my ownership and subjected to me.” [Nasa’i]

Which people will be in Jannah?

 وعن حسان بنت معاوية قالت : حدثنا عمي قال : قلت للنبي صلى الله عليه وسلم : من في الجنة ؟ قال : " النبي في الجنة والشهيد في الجنة والمولود في الجنة والونيد في الجنة " . رواه أبو داود

501. Hadhrat Husna bin Mu’awiyah radhiyallaahu anha says that my uncle Aslam bin Sulaym .. narrates that (one day) he asked Rasulullaah ﷺ, “Which people will be in Jannah?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In Jannah there will be the Ambiyaa, the martyrs, there will be children in Jannah and in Jannah will be those children who were buried alive.”

The reward for spending wealth in the path of Allaah

وعن علي وأبي الدرداء وأبي هريرة وأبي أمامة وعبد الله بن عمر وعبد الله بن عمرو وجابر بن عبد الله وعمران بن حصين رضي الله عنهم أجمعين كلهم يحدث عن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم أنه قال: "من أرسل نفقة في سبيل الله وأقام في بيته فله بكل درهم سبع مائة درهم ومن غزا بنفسه في سبيل الله وأنقق في وجهه ذلك فله بكل درهم سبعمائة ألف درهم". ثم تلا هذه الآية: (والله يضاعف لمن يشاء) رواه ابن ماجه

502. Hadhrat Ali, Hadhrat Abu Darda, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah, Hadhrat Abu Umamah, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr, Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah and Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn all narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ said “The person who sends money and provisions in the path of Allaah (i.e. for Jihaad) and remains at home (i.e. he could not participate in Jihaad but he helps through money and provision) then he will get 700 Dirhams in lieu of every Dirham and the person who waged Jihaad personally and also spent wealth in Jihaad (i.e. he participated in Jihaad and also spent of his wealth) then he will get 700000 Dirhams in lieu of every Dirham.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then recited the verse, ‘And Allaah multiplies for whoever He wishes.’ [Ibn Maajah]

The types of martyrs and their virtue

Hadhrat Fadhaalah bin Ubayd narrates that I heard Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab  saying that he heard Rasulullah ﷺ saying, “There are four types of martyrs; one is the Muslim that has complete Imaan and when he meets the enemy then he shows Allaah ﷻ to be true until he fights and he is martyred. This is the person to whom people will lift their heads and look on the Day of Qiyaamat. (Saying this) he lifted his head until his hat fell down.” The narrator (who narrates from Hadhrat Fudhaalah ) says that I do not know that whose hat was meant by Hadhrat Fudhaalah  (i.e. he did not clarify that) the hat of Hadhrat Umar  fell down or the hat of Rasulullah ﷺ. Rasulullah ﷺ then said, “And the second is the believer of complete faith and when he meets the enemy then on account of cowardice he looks like the thorns of a thorny tree are piercing him (i.e. on account of cowardice his hair stands on end) then an arrow hits him. The one who shot the arrow is not known and the arrow killed him. This person has the second level. The third person is the believer who did some good actions and some evil actions and when he meets the enemy he shows Allaah ﷻ to be true until he fights and is killed. This person is of the third level. The fourth person is the Muslim who oppressed himself a great degree (i.e. he did a lot of sins) and when he meets the enemy, then he shows Allaah ﷻ to be true and he fights until he is killed. This person is of the fourth level.” [Tirmidhi]
There are three types of people killed in Jihaad

504. Hadhrat Utbah bin Abd Sulami narrates that Rasulullahaas said, “Those who are martyred in Jihaad are of three types. One is the complete believer who waged Jihaad in the path of Allaah with his wealth and life. Subsequently, when he meets the enemy then (with complete bravery) he fights until he is martyred.” Rasulullahaas said regarding this person, “This is the martyr who was tested for patience upon the difficulties of Jihaad. This is the martyr who will be in the tent of Allaah under the shade of the ‘Arsh (i.e. he will have a special status and closeness to Allaah) and the Ambiyaa are only above him in the status of Nubuwwah. The second person is the believer whose actions are mixed such that he has done some good actions and some bad actions. He through his life and wealth he waged Jihaad in the path of Allaah and when the enemy faces him then he fights (with full bravery) until he is martyred.” Rasulullahah ﷺ said regarding such a person, “Martyrdom or this characteristic purifies such that it wipes away his sins and errors and there is no doubt that the sword wipes out errors a great deal. This is the martyr who will be entered into Jannah through whichever door he likes.” The third is the hypocrite that (although) he waged Jihaad through his wealth and life and when he faces the enemy then he fights until he is killed but this person will go to hell because the sword does not wipe out hypocrisy.” [Daarimi]

The reward for standing guard one night in the path of Allaah

وعن ابن عائذ قال : خرج رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم في جنازة رجل فلما وضع قال عمر بن الخطاب رضي الله عنه : لا تصل عليه يا رسول الله فإنه رجل فاجر فالتفت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم إلى الناس فقال : " هل رأه أحد منكم على عمل الإسلام ؟ " فقال رجل : نعم يا رسول الله حرس ليلة في سبيل الله فصلى عليه رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم وحثا عليه التراب وقال : " أصحابك يظنون أنك من أهل النار وأنا أشهد أنك من أهل الجنة " وقال : " يا عمر إنك لا تسأل عن أعمال الناس ولكن تسأل عن الفطرة " رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان "

505. Hadhrat Ibn Aa’idh .. narrates that (one day) Rasulullahah ﷺ went along with the Janaazah of a person (in order to perform the Salaah). When the bier was placed down, Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab .. said, “O Rasul of Allaah, do not perform the Janaazah of this person because he was an open sinner.” (Hearing this) Rasulullahah ﷺ turned to the people and said, “Have any of you seen any action of Islaam of this person?” A person said, “Yes, o Rasul of Allaah, this person stood guard one night in the path of Allaah.” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ performed his Janaazah Salaah and (at the time of burial placed on his grave) sand and (addressing the deceased) said, “Your companions think that you are a dweller of Jahannam and I testify that you are a dweller of Jannah.” Then he said to Umar, “Umar, you will not be asked about the actions of people but you will be questioned regarding Fitrat (Deen and Imaan).” [Bayhaqi]

Preparing for Jihaad

The importance of equipment for Jihaad

عن عقبة بن عامر قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وهو على المنبر يقول: " ( وأعدوا له ما استطعتم من قوة ) ألا إن القوة الرمي ألا إن القوة الرمي رواه مسلم

506. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah  once saying on the pulpit, “You should prepare and get ready whatever means of strength and power you have the ability for in order to wage Jihaad against the disbelievers. Remember, archery is power, remember, archery is power, remember, archery is power.” [Muslim]

Encouragement to learn archery

وعنه قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: " ستفتح عليكم الروم ويكفيكم الله فلا يعجز أحدكم أن يلهو بأسههم " . رواه مسلم

507. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah  saying, “Soon Rome will be conquered for you and Allaah  will suffice you (from the evil of the Romans). [398] Therefore, you should not be lazy in practising archery.”

[Muslim]

وعنه قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "من علم الرمي ثم تركه فليس منا أو قد عصى". رواه مسلم

508. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir .. narrates that he heard Rasulullahah ﷺ said, “The one who learnt archery and then left it is not of us (i.e. he is not included amongst those who tread our path).” Or he said, “He has sinned.”

[Muslim]

مٰمٰ

 وعن سلمة بن الأكوع قال: خرج رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم على قوم من أسلم يتناضلون بالسوق فقال: "ارموا بني إسماعيل فإن أباكم كان راميا وأنا مع بني فلان" لأحد الفريقين فأمسكوا بأيديهم فقال: "ما لكم؟" قالوا: "كيف نرمي وأنت مع بني فلان؟" قال: "ارموا وأنا معكم كلكم". رواه البخاري

509. Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa’ .. narrates that (one day) Rasulullahah ﷺ came to a tribe of Banu Aslam and those people were practicing archery at the time. Looking at them in this condition, Rasulullahah ﷺ was very happy and said, “O Banu Ismaa’eel, (i.e. O Arabs) continue with archery because your father (Hadhrat Ismaa’eel ﷺ) was an archer. And I am with that tribe (i.e. while the Banu Aslam were practicing archery, there were two groups. Taking the name of one group he said that in practicing I am with this group). However, the second group stopped their hands (i.e. when Rasulullahah ﷺ became part of one group, the opposing group stopped). Rasulullahah ﷺ said, “What happened to you?” (i.e. why have you stopped firing arrows?) They said, “How can we fire arrows when you are with the group.” (i.e. we cannot tolerate that you leave us and join the other group).
Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Well) carry on with archery, I am with all of you.” [Bukhari]

وعن أنس قال : كان أبو طلحة يتترس مع النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم بترس واحد وكان أبو طلحة حسن الرمي فكان إذا رمي تشرف النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم فينظر إلى موضع نبله . رواه البخاري

510. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Abu Talha .. (in the battlefield) was protecting Rasulullaah ﷺ using a shield. Abu Talha was a very good archer. So when (he was firing arrows at the disbelievers with great mastery and also protecting Rasulullaah ﷺ) he fired an arrow, Rasulullaah ﷺ would look where the arrow fell and who it hit. [Bukhari]

Encouragement to rear horses for Jihaad

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : ( البركة في نواصي الخيل ( متفق عليه ) )

511. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There are blessings in the foreheads of horses.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

وعن جرير بن عبد الله قال : رأيت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : ( الخيل معقود بنواصيها الخير إلى يوم القيامة : الأجر والغنيمة ) . رواه مسلم

512. Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah Bajali .. narrates that he saw Rasulullaah ﷺ moving the hair on the forehead of a horse using his fingers and he was saying that until the Day of Qiyaamat goodness has been placed in the foreheads of horses and goodness refers to reward and booty.” [Muslim]

513. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who believes in Allaah and takes His promise to be true – on account of this he rears a horse for the path of Allaah, then its provision (i.e. whatever is ate and drank in the world) and its dung and urine will be weighed in the person’s scale on the day of Qiyaamat.”

[Bukhari]

A disliked horse

514. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ disliked the Shikaal horse. Shikaal means that the horse has whiteness on its right hindleg and left foreleg or whiteness on the right foreleg and left hindleg.

[Muslim]
Racing horses

وعن عبد الله بن عمر : أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم سأله بين الخيل التي أضمرت من الحفياء وأمدها ثنية الوداع وبينهما ستة أميال وسابق بين الخيل التي لم تضمر من الثنية إلى مسجد بني زريق وبينهما ميل ( متفق عليه )

515. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  made two horses race that were made Idhmaar of. This race began at Khafya’ and ended at Thaniyyatul Wada’. Between these places is a distance of 6 miles. Those horses of which Idhmaar were not done, they were made to race between Thaniyyatul Wada’ and Masjid Banu Zurayq. The distance between these two places is 1 mile. [Bukhari, Muslim]

Note: Idhmaar is to first feed a horse grass and make it fat. Then slowly it is taken off grass and fed feed. Then hot clothing is tied on it so that it sweats. When the sweat comes out, the horse becomes fit and fast.

mmm
The result of the race must be accepted with a happy heart

وعن أنس قال : كانت ناقة لرسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم تسمى العضباء وكانت لا تسبق فجاء أعرابي على قعود له فسبقت فاشتد ذلك على المسلمين فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " إن حقا على الله أن لا يرتفع شيء من الدنيا إلا وضعه " . رواه البخاري

516. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  had a camel called ‘Adba’ and it would be behind (i.e. whichever camel it raced, it would leave it behind and win). However, (one day) a Bedouin brought his camel and (when he raced his camel with ‘Adba’ then) his camel won. This was difficult upon the Muslims so Rasulullaah  said, “It is an established principle of Allaah that whatever is raised in the world, Allaah brings it down.” [Bukhari]

Practising archery and horseriding

517. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Allaah  enters three people into Jannah in lieu of an arrow (fired against the disbelievers), one is the maker of the arrow when he makes it for his livelihood and together hopes for reward (i.e. when he makes the arrow, then together with his livelihood he makes the intention that this arrow is being made to be used in Jihaad). The second is the one who fired the arrow (in Jihaad) and the third is the one giving the arrow (i.e. the one who gives the archer the arrow). Therefore, do archery and horseriding (i.e. practise them) and your archery is better than horseriding according to me. (and remember), that which man adopts as play and amusement, it is useless and baseless except archery from ones arrow, rearing ones horse, playing with ones wife, all these are true.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The virtue of archery

وعن أبي نجيح السلمي قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "من بلغ بسهم في سبيل الله فهو له درجة في الجنة ومن رمى بسهم في سبيل الله فهو له عدل محرر ومن شاب شيبة في الإسلام كانت له نورا يوم القيامة." رواه البهذقي في شعب الإيمان

518. Hadhrat Abu Najeeh Sulami  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah  saying, “He who fires an arrow in the path of Allaah (in Jihaad) on target, (i.e. he shot and it hit a disbeliever), then there is a great status for him in Jannah and he who fires an arrow in the path of Allaah (in Jihaad) (whether it hits the disbeliever or not), then for him it is equal to freeing a male or female slave, and the person who becomes old in Islaam (i.e. Allaah kept him in Islaam until he became old and passed away) then that old age will be a light for him on the Day of Qiyaamat.” [Bayhaqi]

The permissible and impermissible forms of racing

وعن أبي هريرة قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "لا سبق إلا في نصل أو خف أو حافر". رواه الترمذي وابو داود والنسائي
519. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “It is not permissible to place a condition of taking wealth when racing, but in archery, camel racing and in horse racing.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

Ruling: there are three forms of making conditions when racing. One is not permissible and two are permissible. (1) there is a condition placed from both sides like it is said that if I go ahead or win, then you have to give so much or such a thing. And if you go forward or win then I shall give so much or such a thing. To place a condition in this way and to take that wealth is Haraam. (2) There is a condition from one side, like it is said that if you go forward or win then I shall give you so much or such a thing and if I go forward then you do not have to give anything. (3) a leader or a third person says that whichever person goes ahead or wins, I shall give him so much or a particular thing. These last two conditions are permissible and in both cases it will be permissible to take the wealth that was conditional.

The command to include a third horse in the race between two horses

وعنه قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : " من أدخل فرسا بين فرسين فإن كان يؤمن أن يسبق فلا خير فيه وإن كان لا يؤمن أن يسبق فلا بأس به " . رواه في شرح السنة وفي رواية أبي داود : قال : " من أدخل فرسا بين فرسين يعني وهو لا يؤمن أن يسبق فليس بقمار ومن أدخل فرسا بين فرسين وقد أمن أن يسبق فهو قمار " [405]
520. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who includes his horse between two horses, if that horse is such that (on account of its speed) there is conviction regarding it that it will beat the other two horses, then there is no goodness in it. If this conviction is not there that it will win, then there is no problem.” [Sharh us Sunnah]

The words of the narration of Abu Dawud are that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “If a person includes his horse between two horses, i.e. regarding which there is no conviction that it will win, then this is not gambling. And if a person places such a horse of his about which there is conviction that it will win, then this is gambling.”

Jalab is permissible, not Janab

وعن عمران بن حصين قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " لا جلب ولا جنب " . زاد يحيى في حديثه : " في الرهان " . رواه أبو داود والنسائي ورواه الترمذي مع زيادة في باب " الغضب

521. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Jalab is not permissible and Janab is not permissible.” One narrator (Yahya) has added the words in his narration that in horse racing Jalab is not permissible and Janab is not permissible. This narration has been transmitted by Abu Dawud and Nasa’i. Tirmidhi has also narrated it with a few more words and meanings in the chapter of Stealing.

Note:
In horse racing, Jalab means for a person to keep a horse at the back and he sits thereon and shouts the horses to go forward. Janab is to keep another horse at the side of one's horse and when the horse gets tired, he jumps onto the second one.

A liked horse

وعن أبي قتادة عن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : " خير الخيل الأدهم الأقرح الأرم ثم الأقرح المحجل طلق اليمين فإن لم يكن أدهم فكميت على هذه الشية " .

رواه الترمذي والدارمي

522. Hadhrat Abu Qatadah  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “The best horse is black and upon its head there is some whiteness and on its nose there is whiteness. Then the best horse is the one upon whose forehead there is whiteness and its legs are white, but the right foreleg is not white. If there is no black horse, then a Kumayt horse is also good.” [Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

Note:

Kumayt is that horse whose tail and mane is black and the rest red.

523. Hadhrat Abu Wahb Jushami  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “For you a horse that has a white forehead and white legs and is Kumayt is necessary (i.e. if you keep a horse, then keep such a horse) or keep a red horse whose forehead is white and legs are white or keep a black horse whose forehead and legs are white.”

The hair of horses should not be cut

 وعن عتبة بن عبد السلمي أنه سمع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "لا تقصوا نواصي الخيل ولا معارفها ولا أذنابها فإن أذنابها مذابها ومعارفها دفاءها ونواصيها معقود فيها الخير". رواه أبو داود

525. Hadhrat Utbah bin Abd Sulami ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not cut the hair of the forehead of horses, their manes and their tails because their tails are their protection (that they shake it and chase flies and insects away) and their manes give them warmth and goodness is kept in the hair of their foreheads.” [Abu Dawud]

The command to rear horses

526. Hadhrat Abu Wahb Jushami narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Rear horses, stroke your hands on their foreheads and on their backs and tie their necks but do not tie their necks with the string of a bow.” [Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

Counsel to get good harvest from good land

 وعن ابن عباس قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم عبداً مأموراً مختصنا دون الناس بشيء إلا بثلاث : أمرنا أن نسبغ الوضوء وأن لا نأكل الصدقة وأن لا ننزي حماراً على فرس . رواه الترمذي والنسائي

527. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ had a commanded slave. He separated us (the people of the house) from the other people and besides three things he did not give a special command and they (the three things given special command of to the people of the house) are, (1) we should complete Wudhoo, (2) we should not eat of Sadaqah, (3) we should not leave donkeys among the horses.” [Tirmidhi, Nasa’i]
وعن علي رضي الله عنه قال: أهديت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم بغلة فركبها فقال علي: لو حملنا الحمير على الخيل فكانت لنا مثل هذه؟ فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إنما يفعل ذلك الذين لا يعلمون". رواه أبو داود والنسائي

528. Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه narrates that (on one occasion) a mule was given as a gift to Rasulullaah ﷺ. He mounted it so Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه said, “If we leave the donkeys amongst the horses, then we could also get such a mule.” Hearing this, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This is done by those who are unaware.”

sword he had with him at the time had work of silver and gold on it. [Tirmidhi]

In the battle of Uhud, Rasulullaah ﷺ donned two sets of armour

وعن السائب بن يزيد : أن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم كان عليه يوم أحد درعان قد ظاهر بينهما . رواه أبو داود وابن ماجه

531. Hadhrat Saa’ib bin Yazeed .. narrates that on the day of the battle of Uhud Rasulullaah ﷺ had two sets of armour on his body. He wore one on top of the other.

وعن موسى بن عبيدة مولى محمد بن القاسم قال: بعثني محمد بن القاسم إلى البراء بن عازب يسأله عن راية رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال: كانت سوداء مربعة من نمرة . رواه أحمد والترمذي وأبو داود

533. Hadhrat Musa bin Ubaydah who is the freed slave of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Qaasim (Tabi’i) narrates that (one day) Hadhrat Muhammad bin Qaasim sent me to Hadhrat Bara bin Aazib  in order to enquire how was the flag of Rasulullaah  . Hadhrat Bara said that the flag (of Rasulullaah ) was black. Its cloth was square and it had white and black stripes. [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

وعن جابر : أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم دخل مكة ولوؤه أبيض . رواه الترمذي وأبو داود وابن ماجه

534. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that when Rasulullaah  entered Makkah, the flag he had at the time was white. [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah]

The liked quiver and spear of Rasulullah ﷺ

وعن علي قال : كانت بيد رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم قوس عربية فرأى رجلا بيده قوس فارسية قال : " ما هذه ؟ ألقها وعليكم بهذه وأشباهها ورماح القنا فإنها يؤيد الله لكم بها في الدين ويمكن لكم في البلاد " . رواه ابن ماجه

536. Hadhrat Ali  narrates that there was an Arabian quiver in the hands of Rasulullah ﷺ and Rasulullah ﷺ saw an Iranian quiver in the hands of a companion and said, “What is this? Throw it, you should keep one like this (an Arabian one) and you should keep it in this way. Moreover, you should keep a complete spear. Definitely, through them Allaah will aid you in Deen and He will establish you in the cities of the disbelievers.”

Helping ones travel companion

وعن أبي سعيد الخدري قال: بينما نحن في سفر مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إذ جاءه رجل على راحلة فجعل يضرب يمينا وشمالا فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "من كان معه فضل ظهر فليعد به على من لا ظهر له ومن كان له فضل زاد فليعد به على من لا زاد له" قال: فذكر من أصناف المال حتى رأينا أنه لا حق لأحد منا في فضل. رواه مسلم

543. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri .. narrates that on one occasion when we were accompanying Rasulullaah ﷺ on a journey, suddenly a person came on camel back to Rasulullaah ﷺ and began to turn the camel right and left. Subsequently, (looking at this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who has a conveyance beyond his needs, he should give that conveyance to the one who does not have a conveyance. And he who has provision beyond his needs, he should give provision to the one who does not have.” The narrator says that after this, Rasulullaah ﷺ mentioned wealth and types of things (i.e. he took the names of certain things saying that he who has them beyond his needs he should spend upon the one who does not have) until (through his advice and encouragement) we felt that none of us have right over any of our possessions that are beyond our needs (but the real deserving one of them is the person who is deprived of that thing at that time.)” [Muslim]

553. Hadhrat Sakhr bin Wada’ah Ghaamidi .. narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ said (i.e. he made Du’aa’ in this way), “O Allaah, bless the beginning part of the day for my Ummah (i.e. if the people of my Ummah seek knowledge at the beginning of the day or they seek sustenance or undertake a journey etc. then bless them in it).” Subsequently, whenever Rasulullaah ﷺ would send off a small or large army, then he would send them off in the beginning of the day. And Sakhr (who was a trader), (with the objective of getting the blessings of this Du’aa’) would send off his merchandise in the beginning of the day. Subsequently, he became wealthy and there was great increase in his wealth.”

Counsel not to spread out when disembarking

وعن أبي ثعلبة الخشني قال: كان الناس إذا نزلوا منزلا تفرقوا في الشعاب والأودية فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إن تفرقكم في هذه الشعاب والأودية إنما ذلك من الشيطان". فلم ينزلوا بعد ذلك منزلا إلا انضم بعضهم إلى بعض حتى يقال: لو بسط عليهم ثوب لعمهم. رواه أبو داود

559. Hadhrat Abu Tha’labah Khushani叙述说，（first） generally it would happen that the people (the companions), whenever they disembarked at a place, they would spread out in the valleys and alleies (i.e. one would disembark at one spot and another person elsewhere). Subsequently, (in order to finish off this way) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Undoubtedly, this disembarking of yours’ in the valleys and alleies is only from Shaytaan.” After this was said, whenever people would disembark at a place, people would disembark so close to each other that it was said that if a single piece of cloth were to be spread over them, it would cover them all. 561. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah \( \text{} \) narrates from Rasulullaah \( \text{} \) that he said, “Do not make the backs of your animals into pulpits because Allaah \( \text{} \) has made animals subservient to you so that you could go to those places and cities where you could not reach except with difficulty and hardship (i.e. the objective of the animals is to mount them and in order to attain ones objective through them. 565. Hadhrat Sahl Ibn Mu’adh narrates from his father that he said, “On one occasion we went for Jihaad with Rasulullaah ﷺ (and encamped at a place) so the people made all the place small and cut off the road (i.e. some people took more place than needed on account of which other people were in difficulty. In this way the path was also made small on account of which it became difficult to go up and down). When Abdullaah performed Jumu’ah Salaah with Rasulullaah ﷺ and Rasulullaah ﷺ saw him and asked, “What stopped you from going with your companions in the morning?” He said, “I wanted to perform Jumu’ah Salaah with you then join my companions.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said (when hearing this), “You can spend all that is on earth (in the path of Allaah), then too, you will not be able to get reward equal to that of your companions who left in the morning.”

The letter of Rasulullaah ﷺ to Ceaser of Rome

 عن ابن عباس : أن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم كتب إلى قيصر يدعو إلى الإسلام وبعث بكتابه إليه دحية الكلبي وأمره أن يدفعه إلى عظيم بصرى ليدفعه إلى قيصر فإذا فيه : " بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم من محمد عبد الله ورسوله إلى هرقل عظيم الروم سلام على من اتبع الهدى أما بعد فإني أدعوك بداعية الإسلام أسلم تسلم وسلم بوتك الله أجرك مرتين وإن توليت فاعليك إثم الأرسيين و ( يا أهل الكتاب تعالوا إلى كلمة سواء بيننا وبينكم أن لا نعبد إلا الله ولا نشرك به شيئا ولا يتخذ بعضنا بعضًا أربابًا من دون الله فإن تولوا فقولوا : اشهدوا بأننا مسلمون منفق عليه . وفي رواية لمسلم قال : من محمد رسول الله " وقال : " إثم البرسيبين " وقال : " بدعاية الإسلام ")

571. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ wrote a letter to Ceaser (i.e. king of Rome) in which he called him to Islaam. He gave this letter to Dihya Kalbi ﷺ and commanded him to give this letter to the leader of Busra so that he (the leader of Busra) can send it to Ceaser. This was written in the letter, ‘In the name of Allaah, the Beneficient, the Merciful, from Muhammad the servant and Rasul-Messenger of Allaah to Heraclius the Head Governor of Rome. Peace be upon those who follow the guidance (through accepting Islaam and through their good deeds). After this, I invite you towards Islaam. Accept Islaam, you will be safe and protected (from the punishment of the world and the Aakhirat). Become a Muslim, Allaah will grant you double reward (one for believing in your Nabi and one reward for believing in me) and if you turn away (i.e. you do not accept Islaam) then the sin of the people of your country and subjects (will also) be upon you. (Because of you not accepting Islaam they remained in disbelief, therefore the responsibility for their deviation will also be upon you). O people of the book, come to a word that is equal between us. And that word is ‘we shall not worship anyone but Allaah, we shall not ascribe any partner to Him and we shall not make anyone accomplice to Allaah.’ If he then turns away and rejects (from accepting this word of the people of the book) then (o believers) announce that (o disbelievers), testify that we are Muslims.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The disrespect of Chosroes shown to the letter of Rasulullaah ﷺ

وعنه أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم بعث بكتابه إلى كسرى مع عبد الله بن حذافة السهمي فأمره أن يدفعه إلى عظيم البحرين فدفعه عظيم البحرين إلى كسرى فلما قرأ مزقه قال ابن المسبب : فدعا عليهم رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم أن يمزقوا كل ممزق . رواه البخاري

572. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ wrote a letter to Chosroes (the king of Persia) and sent it with Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa Sahmi (that had a similar subject matter that was written and sent to Ceaser) and he commanded him to take it to the governor of Bahrain (so that he could take it to Chosroes). Subsequently, Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa took the letter to the governor of Bahrain and the governor of Bahrain sent it to Chosroes. When Chosroes read the letter, then (instead of practising) he tore it. (One of the narrators) Ibn Musayyib says that Rasulullaah ﷺ made Du’aa of misfortune for Chosroes and his subjects that they should be destroyed; totally destroyed. [Bukhari]

Calling to Islaam through letters

وعن أنس : أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم كتب إلى كسرى وإلى قيصر وإلى النجاشي وإلى كل جبار يدعوهم إلى الله وليس بالنجاشي الذي صلى عليه النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم. رواه مسلم

573. Hadhrat Anas ﴿ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ wrote letters to Chosroes (king of Iran), Ceaser (king of Rome) and Najashi (king of Abyssinia) and every proud and stubborn king in which he called them to Allaah (i.e. Islaam). And this Najashi to whom Rasulullaah ﷺ wrote the letter was not the Najashi for whom Rasulullaah ﷺ performed Salaat ul Janaazah in absentia in Madinah Munawwarah. [Muslim]

A few important counsels for the leader of the army and the Mujaahideen

وعن سليمان بن بريدة عن أبيه قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إذا أمر أميرا على جيش أو سرية أوصاه في خاصته بتقوى الله ومن معه من المسلمين خيرا ثم قال : " اغزوا بسم الله قاتلوا من كفر بالله اغزوا فلا تغلوا ولا تغدروا ولا تمثلوا ولا تقتلوا وليدا وإذا لقيت عدوك من المشركين فادعهم إلى ثلاث
Hadhrat Sulayman bin Buraydah narrates from his father (Buraydah ) that he said, “Whenever Rasulullaah  would appoint a person the leader of a small or big army then he would give him special advice regarding fearing Allaah and to be good to those Muslims going with him (in Jihaad) and after that he would say, “Go, take the name of Allaah and do Jihaad in the path of Allaah. Fight against the one who disbelieves in Allaah. Wage Jihaad and do not misappropriate in the booty, do not break promises, do not mutilate (i.e. do not cut off the nose, ears etc. of any person) and do not kill children. And when you meet the polytheist enemy, then (first) invite him (to accept one of) three things. Whatever the polytheist chooses from the three accept it and stay away from (giving him great difficulty).

The first of the three things is that invite him to Islaam. If he accepts, then accept and stay away from (fighting him). Then, (when he accepts Islaam) then invite him to migrate from his country (i.e. Dar al Harb) to the country of the emigrants (i.e. Dar al Islam) and tell him that if he does this (i.e. migrates and comes to Dar ul Islam) then he will get the same rights that the emigrants get and the same responsibilities will be upon him that are upon the emigrants. If he is not ready to migrate, then tell him that in such a case he will be like the Bedouin Muslims and the laws of Allaah will be applied to him that are applied to all Muslims (i.e. laws like Salaah, Zakaat etc. will be obligatory upon him and the laws of Qisaas, Diyat etc. will apply to him). There will be no share for him in the booty and Fay’. However, he will get a share when he joins the Muslims in Jihaad.

If he does not accept the invitation of Islaam (and rejects becoming a Muslim) then (the second thing is) request him to pay jizya. If he accepts to pay jizya then accept and do not fight him.

And if he does not accept giving jizya, then (the third thing is that) ask Allaah ᴾ for help and begin fighting them. When you besiege people in a fort and they seek the peace of Allaah and His Rasul-Messenger from you, then do not give them the peace of Allaah and His Rasul-Messenger but give a promise of peace from you and your companions because if you break the peace given by you and your companions then this is easier than breaking the peace of Allaah and His Rasul-Messenger. And when you besiege a people in a fort and they request you to lift the siege upon the command of Allaah, then do not lift the siege upon the command of Allaah but lift it upon your command because you do not know whether you have reached the command of Allaah when passing decision about them or not.” [Muslim]

Yes, when you face the enemy, then (with full bravery stand firm and) with patience and steadfastness know that Jannah lies under the shadows of the sword (i.e. you are very close to Jannah).” After this he made this Du’aa’, “O Allaah, revealer of the book, one who moves the clouds, one who defeats the groups of enemies, defeat them (the enemy) and bless us with victory over them.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Rasulullaah ﷺ never fought before sunrise

576. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ would wage Jihaad with us against the enemy nation, then before morning he would never attack them. When morning would come, then he would look (at the homes and locality of the enemy in order to know from what is seen or through other reasons who the people are). If he heard the Azaan (from them) then he would stay away (from fighting) and if he did not hear the Azaan, he would attack. Hadhrat Anas says, “Subsequently, when we left for Khaybar (with Rasulullaah ﷺ for Jihaad) then we reached the boundaries at night. When morning came and (from them) the Azaan was not heard, then Rasulullaah ﷺ mounted his conveyance and I sat on the conveyance of Abu Talha behind him and (our conveyance was so close to the conveyance of Rasulullaah ﷺ that) my feet were touching the blessed feet of Rasulullaah ﷺ. Hadhrat Anas says that when (morning came) the people of Khaybar (without knowing of our arrival, in order to go their farms) took their tools and came out of their homes and came to us. They saw Rasulullaah ﷺ and screamed, ‘Muhammad has come, by Allaah, Muhammad and his army have come (saying this they ran away) and closed themselves in the fort. When Rasulullaah ﷺ saw them (fleeing in this way) then (mentioning their defeat and as an omen) he said, “Allaah is the greatest, Allaah is the greatest, Khaybar has been destroyed. There is no doubt, whenever we (the group of Muslims or the Amiyya) come into the battlefield (to fight) then the morning of the warned nation is very bad.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]
When did Rasulullaah ﷺ start fighting?

وعن النعمان بن مقرن قال : شهدت القتال مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فكان إذا لم يقاتل أول النهار انتظر حتى تهب الأرواح وتحضر الصلاة. رواه البخاري 577.

Hadhrat Nu’man bin Muqarrin   narrates that I was together with Rasulullaah ﷺ in war. Subsequently, when he did not begin war in the morning then he would wait until the winds blew and the time (of Zuhr) came.” [Bukhari]

The schedule of Rasulullaah ﷺ during war and its wisdom

عن النعمان بن مقرن قال : شهدت مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فكان إذا لم يقاتل أول النهار انتظر حتى تزول الشمس وتهب الرياح وينزل النصر. رواه أبو داود 578.

Hadhrat Nu’man bin Muqarrin   narrates that I was together with Rasulullaah ﷺ in war. Subsequently, when he did not fight in the morning then he would wait until the sun turned and the winds blew and the help of Allaah descended. [Abu Dawud]
وعن قتادة عن النعمان بن مقرن قال: غزوت مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فكان إذا طلع الفجر أمسك حتى تطلع الشمس فإذا طلعت قاتل فإذا انتصف النهار أمسك حتى تزلز الشمس فإذا زالت الشمس قاتل حتى العصر ثم أمسك حتى يصل العصر ثم يقاتل قال قتادة: كان يقال: عند ذلك تهيج رياح النصر ويدعو المؤمنون لجيوشهم في صلاتهم. رواه الترمذي

579. Hadhrat Qatadah narrates from Hadhrat Nu’man bin Muqarrin  that he said, "I waged Jihaad alongside Rasulullaah . Subsequently, Rasulullaah  waited from after dawn until sunrise (i.e. he did not battle), then when the sun came out he began battle and when afternoon came he would stop (from battle). Then when the sun would turn (and he would perform Zuhr Salaah) then he would battle until Asr, then he would stop until after he would perform Asr, then he would battle.” Qatadah says that it is said (i.e. the companions used to say regarding the wisdom of this arrangement of time to battle) that it was because the winds of help would blow at the time and the Muslims would make Du’aa’ in their Salaah (for victory), (i.e. they would make Du’aa’ after Salaah or they would make Du’aa’ in Salaah like the Ahadith narrated regarding Qunut).”

[Tirmidhi]

An important counsel for the Mujaahideen

وعن عصام المزني قال بعثنا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في سرية فقال:

"إذا رأيتم مسجدا أو سمعتم مؤذنا فلا تقاتلوا أحدا". رواه الترمذي وأبو داود

580. Hadhrat Isaam Muzani  narrates that Rasulullaah  sent us in a small army (for Jihaad) and said, “When you see a Masjid (in any place) or you hear the Mu’azzin call out the Azaan, then do not kill anyone there.”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

The letter of Hadhrat Khaalid ﷺ to the Persian leaders

 عن أبي وائل قال : كتب خالد بن الوليد إلى أهل فارس : بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم . من خالد بن الوليد إلى رستم ومهران في ملا فارس . سلام على من اتبع الهدى . أما بعد فإنا ندعوكم إلى الإسلام فإن أبيتم فأعطوا الجزية عن يد وأنتم صاغرون فإن أبيتم فإن معى قوما يحبون القتال في سبيل الله كما يحب فارس الخمر والسلام على من اتبع الهدى . رواه في شرح السنة

581. Hadhrat Abu Wa’il narrates that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ﷺ wrote this letter to the leaders of Iran, ‘In the name of Allaah, the Beneficent, the Merciful. From Khalid bin Waleed to Rustam and Mahraan, who are from the leaders of the Persians. Peace be upon the one who follows the guidance. After this, it should be clear that we invite you to accept Islaam. If you do not accept Islaam then pay jizya with lowliness and if you also reject (giving the jizya) then (you should be warned that destruction has been destined for you because) with me is such a group of people that love spilling blood (i.e. sacrificing their lives in the path of Allaah) like how the people of Iran love wine and peace be upon the one who follows the truth and guidance.’

The reward for martyrdom

عن جابر قال: قال رجل إلى النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم يوم أحد: أرأيت إن قتلت فأين أنا؟ قال: " في الجنة " فألقى ثمرات في يده ثم قاتل حتى قتل( متفق عليه)

582. Hadhrat Jaabir narrates that on the occasion of the battle of Uhud a person said to Rasulullaah ﷺ, “Tell me, if I am killed (if I am martyred when fighting the disbelievers) then where shall I be?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In Jannah.”
Selected Chapters (MunTakhab Abwaab) Part 1

(Hearing this) the person threw down the dates he had in his hand and began fighting until he was martyred.

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The practical wisdom of the war of Rasulullaah ﷺ

وعن كعب بن مالك قال : لم يكن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يريد غزوة إلا ورى بغيرها حتى كانت تلك الغزوة يعني غزوة تبوك غزاها رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في حر شديد واستقبل سفرا بعيدا ومفازا وعدوا كثيرا فجلي للمسلمين أمرهم ليتأهبو أهبة غزوهم فأخبرهم بوجهه الذي يريد . رواه البخاري

583. Hadhrat Ka’b bin Maalik نarrates that whenever Rasulullaah ﷺ intended to battle, then instead of this he would make Tauriyah (i.e. he would ask of the conditions of another place) until this battle (i.e. the battle of Tabuk) took place. Rasulullaah ﷺ went for the battle of Tabuk when it was very hot. He chose to travel very far and they crossed jungles that had no water. Moreover, the number of the enemy was huge. Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ announced clearly to the Muslims (when he intended this battle and he explained clearly the difficulties and worries that would happen during the course of this battle) so that people (for battle) would prepare properly and they could arrange the provisions for Jihaad. Also, he enquired from the companions regarding the roads and places that were to be taken (to reach Tabuk). [Bukhari]

It is beneficial to use strategy in war

584. Hadhrat Jaabir Ṭ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “War is strategy.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

585. Hadhrat Anas Ṭ narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ would go for Jihaad (with the companions) then he would take Umm e Sulaym and other women of the Ansar along with. These women would give water to drink (to the Muslim soldiers) and would bandage the wounded and look after them. [Muslim]

586. Hadhrat Umm e Atiyyah radhiyallaahu anha narrates that I participated in battle along with Rasulullaah ﷺ seven times. I (in the battlefield) would stay behind the fighters where I would cook food for them, I would bandage the wounded and give them medicine and look after the sick. [Muslim]
It is prohibited for women and children to deliberately participate in war

وعن عبد الله بن عمر قال : نهى رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم عن قتل النساء والصبيان ( متفق عليه )

587. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  forbade killing of women and children.

[Bukhari, Muslim]

There is scope to kill women and children during a night attack

وعن الصعب بن جثامة قال : سئل رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم عن أهل الدار يبيتون من المشركين فيصاب من نسائهم وذراريهم قال : " هم منهم " . وفي رواية : " هم من آبائهم " ( متفق عليه )

588. Hadhrat Sa’b bin Jath thaamah  narrates that Rasulullaah  was asked regarding the polytheists that are at home (i.e. who stay indoors) that if a night attack is done and this would result in the killing of women and children. (What would be the ruling?) Rasulullaah  said, “They are from them.” In one narration he said, “They follow their father.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]
The command to cut and burn the trees of Banu Nadheer

وعن ابن عمر: أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم قطع نخل بنى النضير وحرق ولها: وهان على سراة بنى لؤي حريق بالبويرة مستطير وفي ذلك نزلت ( ما قطعتم من لينة أو تركتموها قائمة على أصولها فإن بنى النضير )

589. Hadhrat Ibn Umar Ṣnarrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ commanded that the date palms of the Banu Nadheer be cut and burnt. It is regarding this that (the poet of Rasulullaah ﷺ) Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thaabit Ansaari ٌ recited this poem, ‘Burning has become easy for the leaders of Banu Lu’ayy who are spread all over.’ Moreover, this verse was revealed regarding this, ‘The date palms you have cut and the ones you have left upon their roots, is by the command of Allaah.’
[Bukhari, Muslim]

It is permissible to benefit from the negligence of the enemy during war

وعن عبد الله بن عون: أن نافعا كتب إليه يخبره أن ابن عمر أخبره أن ابن عمر أخبره أن ابن عمر أخبره أن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم أغار على بنى المصطلق غارين في مرويسيع فقتل المقاتلة وسبى الذرية ( متفق عليه )

590. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aun narrates that (the freed slave of Hadhrat Ibn Umar) Hadhrat Naafi’ wrote a letter to him (Abdullaah bin Aun) in which Hadhrat Naafi informed him that Hadhrat Ibn Umar narrated to him (Naafi) that Rasulullaah ﷺ attacked Banu Mustaliq when they were negligent among their cattle in Muraysi’. Subsequently,
A few advises regarding war

591. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed .. narrates that on the day of the battle of Badr, (in the battlefield) Rasulullaah ﷺ, when we were making our rows against the Quraysh and the Quraysh of Makkah were making their rows against us, gave this command that, ‘When they (the enemy, i.e. the Quraysh of Makkah) come close to you (that your arrows can reach them) then fire arrows on them.’ In one narration it states that he said, ‘Fire arrows on the enemy when they come close to you and save your arrows (i.e. do not finish them all but use them with caution and save some so that the enemy does not overpower you when you are exhausted).’ [Bukhari]
Rehearsal before war

عن عبد الرحمن بن عوف قال: عبأنا النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم لي ببدر ليلة.

رواه الترمذي

592. Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf  narrates that in the battlefield of Badr, at night, Rasulullaah ﷺ made us wear armour and made us stand in the way we were to stand at the time of war. [Tirmidhi]

Outstanding signs

وعن المهلهب أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "إن بيتكم العدو فليكن شعاركم: حم لا ينصرون". رواه الترمذي وأبو داود

593. Hadhrat Muhallab  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to us (on the occasion of the battle of the trench), “If the enemy attacks you at night, then your sign should be ‘Haa Meem La Yunsaroone’.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

[449]
594. Hadhrat Samurah bin Jundub  narrates that (in another battle) the word ‘Abdullaah’ was the sign of the emigrants and the word ‘Abdur Rahman’ was the sign of the Ansaar. [Abu Dawud]

595. Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa’  narrates that in the time of Rasulullaah , (on one occasion) together with Hadhrat Abu Bakr (i.e. under his leadership) we waged Jihaad. Subsequently, we attacked the enemy at night and killed them and on that night our sign was ‘Amit, Amit’ (these words mean ‘O Allaah, kill the enemy.’) [Abu Dawud]

The Sahabah did not like noise and disturbance during the battle

596. Hadhrat Qays bin Ubadah  narrates that the companions of Rasulullaah  did not like any sound when fighting (besides the Dhikr of Allaah). [Abu Dawud]
Counsel to kill the seniors and not to kill the juniors

وعن سمرة بن جندب عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "اقتلوا شيوخ المشركين واستحيوا شرخهم" أي صبيانهم. رواه الترمذي وأبو داود.

597. Hadhrat Samurah bin Jundub  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, "Kill the senior polytheists and keep the young alive (i.e. their children)."

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

A few advises regarding war

وعن عروة قال: حدثني أسامة أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم كان عهد إليه قال: "أغر على أبني صباحا وحرق". رواه أبو داود.

598. Hadhrat Urwah narrates that Hadhrat Usamah  narrated to me that (when) Rasulullaah  sent him (Usamah, as the leader of the army for Jihaad), he gave him this counsel and emphasised that you should attack Ubna in the morning and burn (the farms and trees and gardens of the enemy). [Abu Dawud]

599. Hadhrat Abu Usayd  narrates that on the day of the battle of Badr, Rasulullaah  said (to the Muslim soldiers), "When the disbelievers come close to you then fire arrows at them and do not draw your swords until they do not come close to you." [Abu Dawud]
Women and slaves should not be killed

وعن رباح بن الربيع قال: كنا مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في غزوة فرأى الناس مجتمعين على شيء فبعث رجلا فقال: "انظروا على من اجتمع هؤلاء؟" فقال: "على امرأة قتيل فقال: "ما كانت هذه لتقاتل؟" وعلى المقدمة خالد بن الوليد فبعث رجلا فقال: "قل لخالد: لا تقتل امرأة ولا عسيفة". رواه أبو داود

600. Hadhrat Rabaah bin Rabi’ narrates that we were with Rasulullaah (in the battlefield) and he saw that a few people (in one place) were gathered around something. Subsequently, he sent a person and said, “Go and see there, around what are the people gathering.” The person returned and said that a woman was killed. People are gathered around her (body). He said, “That woman was not fighting (why was she killed?).” the vanguard was given to Hadhrat Khalid bin Walid. He sent a person (to him) to tell Khalid, “Do not kill any woman or worker.” [Abu Dawud]

A few advises for the Mujaahideen

وعن أنس أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "انطلقوا باسم الله وسلام الله وعلى ملة رسول الله لا تقتلوا شيخا فانيا ولا طفلا صغيرا ولا امرأة ولا تغلوا وضموا غنائمكم وأصلحوا وأحسنوا فإن الله يحب المحسنين". رواه أبو داود

601. Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah said to the fighters (when sending them off for Jihaad), “Go, taking the name of Allaah, with the aid and ability of Allaah and [452] upon the Deen-religion of the Rasul of Allaah (remember) do not kill a very old man, nor a small child or woman. Do not misappropriate booty, gather the booty, keep good relations (with one another), and do well because Allaah keeps the good and pious as friends.” [Abu Dawud]

A few conditions of the battle of Badr

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates that when the day of the battle of Badr came (and the Muslim fighters made their rows in the battlefield facing the disbelievers of Makkah), then (from the disbelieving Makkans) Utbah bin Rabi’ah (came out of the row) came forward, behind him was his son (Walid bin Utbah) and his brother (i.e. Shaybah bin Rabi’ah) also came. Utbah screamed, “Who is there who will come into the field and fight (against us)?” (From the side of the Muslim fighters) a few of the Ansaar replied (i.e. they came out of the row into the field to fight Utbah and his companions). Utbah asked (when seeing them), “Who are you?” these youngsters replied that we are the Ansaar (of Madinah). Utbah said, “We do not need you. (i.e. we do not intend fighting you), but we want to fight the sons of your paternal uncle (i.e. the Qurayshi Muslims that migrated from Makkah).” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Hamzah, stand up, Ali, you stand up, Ubaydah bin Haarith, you stand up.”
Subsequently, Hadhrat Hamzah went to Utbah (and killed him), I (i.e. Ali) went to Shaybah (and killed him) and there was a severe showdown between Ubaydah and Waleed, each of them injured their opponent. Then we attacked Waleed and killed him and lifted Ubaydah (who was severely injured by Waleed).” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

When is it permissible to flee the battlefield?

603. Hadhrat Ibn Umar narrates that (once) Rasulullaah ﷺ sent us in an army (upon reaching there, the people of the army) got up and fled. Subsequently, we returned to Madinah then (out of shame and regret) we sat and hid in our homes and we said (in our hearts), “We have been destroyed.” We then went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, we are a people who have fled the battlefield.” He said, “(No) but you are a people who will fight again and I am of your group.” [Tirmidhi] Abu Dawud has narrated a similar narration and in it are these words, “No, but you are a people who will fight again.” Hadhrat Ibn Umar says that (when we saw that instead of requesting a reply from us Rasulullaah ﷺ lifted our spirits with affection, then out of adoration and love) we came close to him and kissed his hands. Then Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I am a group of the Muslims.”
Use of the catapult in the battle at Taa’if

عن ثوبان بن يزيد : أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم نصب المنجنيق على أهل الطائف . رواه الترمذي مرسلا

604. Hadhrat Thaubaan bin Yazeed  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ erected a catapult against the people of Taa’if. [Tirmidhi]
Laws of the prisoners

Whichever prisoner becomes a Muslim, Allaah becomes pleased with him

عن أبي هريرة عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "عجب الله من قوم يدخلون الجنة في السلاسل". وفي رواية: "يقادون إلى الجنة بالسلاسل". رواه البخاري
605. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Allaah ﷻ is surprised at the nation (i.e. he is pleased with the people) who enter Jannah tied in chains.” (i.e. those who were captured and were brought to Dar ul Islaam, they accepted Islaam and enter Jannah). In one narration the words are that (Allaah ﷻ is pleased with those people) who are brought to Jannah tied in chains. [Bukhari]

It is permissible to kill the enemy spy

وعن سلمة بن الأكوع قال أتى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم عين من المشركين وهو في سفر فجلس عند أصحابه يتحدث ثم انفلت فقال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: "اطلبوه واقتلوه " . فقتلتنه فنفلني سلبه ( متفق عليه )

606. Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa  narrates that (once) a spy of the polytheists came to Rasulullaah ﷺ when he was on journey. Subsequently, the spy sat among the companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ and spoke. Then he went away. When Rasulullaah ﷺ came to know of him, he said, “Search for him and kill him.” Subsequently, I killed him and Rasulullaah ﷺ gave me his belongings and possessions.[Bukhari, Muslim] Fustatbani: رسل الله صلى الله عليه وسلم والناس فقال: "من قتل الرجل؟"
قالوا: ابن الأكوع فقال: "له سلبه أجمع." (متفق عليه)

607. Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa narrates that we accompanied Rasulullah ﷺ for Jihaad against Hawazin (a branch of the tribe of Qays). (One day) when we were eating in the afternoon with Rasulullah ﷺ, suddenly a person (who was the enemy spy) came mounted upon a red camel. He made the camel sit and began to look (here and there). (i.e. in order to scrutinize our condition) at that time we were very weak. We had a shortage of conveyances and some of us were walking. Subsequently, (when this person saw our weakness that we are short of conveyances and we are weak because of a destitute condition, then in order to inform the enemy) he suddenly (from amongst us) ran away and reached his camel. (After mounting) he made it stand and the camel took him very fast. I left (after witnessing this) and ran (behind that person) until I caught the bridle of the camel and made it sit. I then drew my sword and struck it on the head of this person (killing him). Then the camel upon which was the belongings and weapons of the person, I brought it. When Rasulullah ﷺ and other people came before me then Rasulullah ﷺ said, "Who killed this person?" the companions said, "Salamah bin Akwa" He said, "He is deserving of all the belongings." [Bukhari, Muslim]

It is permissible to adopt arbitration in war

ومن أبي سعيد الخدري قال: لما نزلت بنو قريظة على حكم سعد بن معاذ بعث رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إليه فجاء على حمار فلما دنا قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "قوموا إلى سيدهم ففجاء فجلس فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إن هؤلاء نزلوا على حكمك". قال: فإني أحكم أن نقتل [458]
608. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri .. narrates that when the (Jews of) Banu Qurayzah accepted Hadhrat Sa’d bin Mu’aadh as arbitrator (i.e. they were ready to accept whatever decision Sa’d bin Mu’aadh made), then Rasulullah ah sent a person (to call Hadhrat Sa’d). Sa’d bin Mu’aadh came riding a donkey. When he came close then Rasulullah ah said (to those present), “You people should stand (to help) your leader.” Sa’d bin Mu’aadh came (close) and sat down. Rasulullah ah said (addressing him), “The people (the Jews of Banu Qurayzah) have come down for your decision.” Sa’d bin Mu’aadh said, “I decide that from them (the Jews) those that can fight should be killed and their women and children should be imprisoned.” Rasulullah ah said (upon hearing this), “Regarding them, you have decided in accordance to the command of the King (i.e. you have made such a decision with which Allaah is pleased).” In one narration the words are, “You have decided in accordance to the command of Allaah.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The story of Hadhrat Thumamah .. accepting Islaam

After saying this, the next day, he asked him, “Tell me, Thumamah, what is with you?” He said, “I have only goodness with me or there is a lot of wealth with me. If you kill me then you will kill a single person of blood and if you deal well with me (you free me with honour), then you will be doing good to one person who is grateful and appreciative (i.e. I shall give you recompense for the good treatment) and if you want wealth, then ask, I shall give you how much you want.” (Hearing this) Rasulullah sent him to Najd. The soldiers caught a person of Banu Hanifah and brought him (to Madinah). His name was Thumamah bin Uthaal and he was the leader of the people of Yamamah. The people tied him to a pillar of Masjid an Nabawi. Then Rasulullah went to him and asked, “Tell me, Thumamah, what is with you? (i.e. tell me, what is your condition? Or what do you think of me regarding how I shall deal with you?) Thumamah said, “I have only goodness with me or there is a lot of wealth with me. If you kill me then you will kill a single person of blood and if you deal well with me (you free me with honour), then you will be doing good to one person who is grateful and appreciative (i.e. I shall give you recompense for the good treatment) and if you want wealth, then ask, I shall give you how much you want.”
then ask, how much you ask you will be given.” Rasulullaah ﷺ (heard him this day also) and left him (in his condition).

When the third day came, he asked him again, “Tell me, Thumamah, what is with you?” He said, “I have whatever I told you. If you deal well, then you will deal well with a person that is grateful and appreciative, if you kill then then you kill a person of blood and if you want wealth then ask, the amount you want will be given.” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ commanded, “Free Thumamah.” (After being freed, without saying or hearing anything) he went to the cluster of date palms that was close to Masjid an Nabawi and he had a bath and wash and came into Masjid an Nabawi and said (in front of Rasulullaah ﷺ), “I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and Muhammad is His servant and Rasul-messenger.” He then said, “O Muhammad, by Allaah, there was no face more hated to me on earth than your’s (i.e. the amount of hate I had for you, I did not have for anyone) but now your blessed face is the most beloved to me from all the faces of the world. By Allaah, there was no Deen-religion more hated to me than your Deen-religion but now your Deen-religion is the most beloved to me compared to all Adyaan-religions and by Allaah, there was no city more hated to me than your city but now your city is the most beloved to me compared to all cities.” (He then said, “O Rasul of Allaah,) your army captured me when I intended to perform Umrah so what command do you give me now? (should I go to Makkah for Umrah or not).” Rasulullaah ﷺ first gave him glad tidings (that by accepting Islaam all your sins are forgiven), then he commanded him to go for Umrah. After this, when Thumamah reached Makkah (for Umrah) then someone said to him, “You have left your Deen-religion.” He replied, “No, I have accepted Islaam at the hands of Rasulullaah ﷺ, I am not without a Deen-religion and (remember) by Allaah, now not a single grain of wheat will come to you from Yamamah, until Rasulullaah ﷺ does not permit.” [Muslim]

Intercession for the prisoners

وعن جبير بن مطعم أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال في أساري بدر : " لو كان المطعم بن عدي حيا ثم كلمني في هؤلاء النتنى لتركتهم له " . رواه البخاري

610. Hadhrat Jubayr bin Mut’im ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said regarding the prisoners of Badr that if Mut’im bin Adi was alive and he interceded for these impure prisoners, then I would have freed those prisoners through his (Mut’im bin Adi) intercession. [Bukhari]

The story of freeing the prisoners

وعن أنس : أن ثمانين رجلا من أهل مكة هبطوا على رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم من جبل التنعيم مسلحين يريدون غرة النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم وأصحابه فأخذهم سهلا فاستحياهم . وفي رواية : فأعتقهم فنزل الله تعالى ( وهو الذي كف أيديهم عنكم وأيديكم عنهم ببطن مكة ) رواه مسلم

611. Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that (during the year of the treaty of Hudaybiyyah) 80 people armed to the teeth against Rasulullaah ﷺ came down from Tan’eem mountain whose intentions were to suddenly attack Rasulullaah ﷺ and his companions and harm them. However, Rasulullaah ﷺ caught all of them while they were disgraced and powerless. Allaah ﷺ revealed this verse upon this, ‘And Allaah is He who stopped their hands from you and your hands from them in the surrounds of Makkah.’ [Muslim]

The dead hear the speech of the Muslims

وعن قتادة قال : ذكر لنا أنس بن مالك عن أبي طلحة أن نبي الله صلى الله عليه وسلم أمر يوم بدر بأربعة وعشرين رجلا من صناديد قريش فقذفوا في طوي من أطواء بدر خبيث مخبث وكان ذا ظهر على قوم أقام بالعرصة ثلاث ليال فلما كان ببدر اليوم الثالث أمر براحلته فشد عليها رحلها ثم مشى واتبعه أصحابه حتى قام على شفة الركي فجعل يناديهم بأسمائهم وأسماء آبائهم : " يا فلان بن فلان ويا فلان بن فلان أيسركم أنكم أطعتم الله ورسوله ؟ فإننا قد وجدنا ما وعدهن ربنا حقا فهل وجدتم ما وعدهكم ربه حقا ؟ " فقال عمر : يا رسول الله ما تكلم من أجساد لا أرواح لها ؟ قال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم : " والذي نفس محمد بيده ما أنتم بأسمع لما أقول منهم " . وفي رواية : " ما أنتم بأسمع مما أقول منهم ولكن لا يجيبون " . متفق عليه . وزاد البخاري : قال قتادة : أحياهم الله حتى أسمعهم قوله توبيخا وتصغيرا ونقمة وحسرة وندما ( متفق عليه )

612. Hadhrat Qatadah narrates that Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik . narrated to us from Hadhrat Abu Talha . that on the day of the battle of Badr, Rasulullaah ﷺ gave the command regarding 24 leaders of the Quraysh that were killed that (they should be put away). Subsequently, their corpses were thrown into an impure well of Badr that would make things impure. It was the habit of Rasulullaah ﷺ that whenever he overpowered any nation (i.e. the enemy) and attained victory (in battle) then he would stay for three nights in the battlefield. Subsequently, (in accordance to this habit, after winning the battle he stayed for three nights in the battlefield of Badr). When three days passed, he commanded his saddle to be tied. Subsequently, his saddle was tied and he left from there and his companions came behind him (when he reached the well in which the corpses of the leaders were thrown, then) he stood at the edge of the well then he took the names of those leaders and their father’s names calling them that o so and so son of so and so and so and so son of so and so, what, (now) do you find it better that you would have obeyed Allaah and His Rasul-Messenger? Undoubtedly, we have attained that which our Rabb has promised us, have you found that which your Rabb has promised? (i.e. in accordance to the promise of Allaah, we have attained victory, have you found the punishment which your Rabb has warned you about?) Hadhrat Umar  said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what, are you speaking to corpses that have no souls?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By the Being in whose control the life of Muhammad is, the corpses I am speaking to, you do not hear more than them, but (you have the ability to answer), they cannot answer.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Return of the prisoners of the battle of Hunayn

613. Hadhrat Marwaan and Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ stood up (in order to deliver a sermon) when the people of Hawazin accepted Islaam and thereafter came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and they requested him that their wealth and prisoners be returned. He said to them, “You can choose one of two things.” They said, “We like that our prisoners be freed.” Then Rasulullaah ﷺ delivered a sermon before the companions. First he praised and glorified Allaah as He was deserving, then he said, “Your brothers have repented (from the kufr and polytheism) and have come to you. I understand it appropriate to return their prisoners. Therefore, whoever of you wants to free their prisoners out of happiness, then he should do so (i.e. he should return whichever prisoners he has) and he who wants to remain firm on his share until we do not give him from the first wealth in lieu of it which Allaah gives us as booty, then he should do so (i.e. he who wants to take something in exchange for his prisoner, we shall give him something in exchange and he should immediately give his prisoner back).”

The people said, “O Rasul of Allaah, we are ready for this with happiness (i.e. to return the prisoners).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In this gathering it cannot be known who of you is happy and who is not happy. Therefore, you all return (and consult with the leaders of your family and tribe) so that the leader can present your decision in detail to us.”

Subsequently, everyone returned. When their leaders spoke to them, then the leaders returned to Rasulullaah ﷺ and told him that they are happy (to return the prisoners) and they have given permission. [Bukhari]
Exchange of prisoners

614. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn رضي الله عنه narrates that the tribe of Thaqif were the allies of Banu Aqeel. Subsequently, when the Thaqif captured two companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ then the companions captured a person of Banu Aqeel and tied him tightly and threw him in Harrah. When Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by there, then (the prisoner) screamed, "Muhammad, Muhammad, for what crime have I been imprisoned?" Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Your ally, the crime of Thaqif (i.e. the Thaqif have caught two of our Muslims, you have been caught in retaliation)."

(Saying this), he left him in his condition and went forward. He called Rasulullaah ﷺ again, "Muhammad, Muhammad." Rasulullaah ﷺ had mercy on him. He (returned to him) and said, "In what condition are you?" He said, "I am a Muslim." He said, "(If only) you said this at that time when the matter was in your hands, then you would have found complete salvation (i.e. you would not be imprisoned in the world and you would find freedom from the punishment of the Aakhirat)." The narrator says that after this Rasulullaah ﷺ left him in exchange of the two people captured by Thaqif.

[Muslim]
The story of the capture and the freeing of Abul ‘Aas ـ

Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that when (in the battle of Badr, Allaah ‰ blessed Rasulullaah ‰ with overpowering the disbelievers and victory and some of [467] them were killed and some were imprisoned and were brought to Madinah, then in exchange of them Rasulullaah ﷺ asked for money) the people of Makkah sent exchange for their prisoners, (the daughter of Rasulullaah ﷺ) Hadhrat Zaynab also sent some wealth to free Abul Aas (her husband) in which was her necklace that was first with Hadhrat Khadijah radhiyallaahu anha and Hadhrat Khadijah radhiyallaahu anha gave it to her when she was sent to the home of Abul Aas.

When Rasulullaah ﷺ saw that necklace, then he softened a great deal for Zaynab and he said to the companions, “If you feel it appropriate, then for the sake of Zaynab, free her prisoner and return all her things (that she sent for the freedom of Abul Aas).”

The companions said, “It is best. (We return the wealth of Zaynab and free Abul Aas without any ransom). Subsequently, (Abul Aas was freed and at the time of freeing him) Rasulullaah ﷺ took a promise and pact from Abul Aas that he will not be a hinderance in the path of Zaynab returning to him (i.e. promise that when you reach Makkah you will send Zaynab to me). Then Rasulullaah ﷺ sent Zayd bin Haaritha and another person of the Ansaar to Makkah and said to them that you should wait at Batn or Jaj. When Zaynab (leaves Makkah and comes) to you there then join her and bring her to Madinah. [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]
It is permissible to kill some prisoners and to free others without ransom

وعنها: أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم لما أسر أهل بدر قتل عقبة بن أبي معيط والنصر بن الحارث ومن على أبي عزة الجمحي. رواه في شرح السنة

616. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ imprisoned the people of Badr (the disbelievers). From them Uqbah bin Abi Mu’ayt and Nadhr bin Haarith was killed and he dealt well with Abu Azzah Jumahi (by freeing him without ransom). [Sharh us Sunnah]

617. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ﷺ narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ intended to kill Uqbah bin Abi Mu’ayt then he said that who will look after my children. He said, “The fire.” [Abu Dawud]

Generosity of the Sahabah ﷺ

وعن علي رضي الله عنه عن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "أن جبريل هبط عليه فقال له: خيرهم يعني أصحابك في أسارى بدر: القتل والفداء على أن يقتل منهم قابلا مثلهم" قالوا الفداء وقيل لنا. رواه الترمذي وقال: هذا حديث غريب

618. Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that Hadhrat Jibreel ﷺ came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said that give your companions a choice regarding the prisoners of Badr whether they want to kill them or take ransom (i.e. take wealth and set them free). However, in the case of taking ransom, the same amount of companions (70) was martyred the following year. The companions heard this choice and said, “We choose taking ransom and 70 of our people being martyred.” [Tirmidhi]

The matter of the prisoners of Banu Qurayzah

Hadhrat Atiyyah Quradhi .. narrates amongst the prisoners of Banu Qurayzah that were brought, he was among them. We were presented before Rasulullaah ﷺ. At the time, the companions were opening and looking at the area below the navel of them (the young among them), those whose hair below the navel grew, they were killed (because pubic hair is a sign of puberty, hence such a person will be counted as one who would fight the Muslims) and the one whose hair did not grow was not killed. Subsequently, the area below my navel was also opened, when they did not find hair, they kept me alive amongst the prisoners. [Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah, Daarimi]
Incident of a few slaves of Makkah

وعن علي رضي الله عنه قال: خرج عبدان إلى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يعني الحديبية قبل الصلح فكتب إليه مواليهم قالوا: يا محمد وَالله ما خرجوا إليك رغبة في دينك وإنما خرجوا هربا من الرق. فقال ناس: صدقوا يا رسول الله ردتهم إليهم فغضب رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وقال: "ما أراكم تنتهون يا معشر قريش حتى يبعث الله عليكم من يضرب رقابكم على هذا". وأبى أن يردهم وقال: "هم عتقاء الله". رواه أبو داود

620. Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates that on the day of Hudaybiyyah, before the treaty, a few slaves escaped and came to Rasulullah ﷺ. Their masters wrote to Rasulullah ﷺ that, 'Muhammad, by Allaah, these slaves have not come to you because they are inclined to your religion, but they escaped in order to come out of slavery.' (When) a few people (among the companions saw the letter), they said, "O Rasul of Allaah, their masters have written correct. You should return the slaves to their masters."

(Hearing this) Rasulullah ﷺ became angry and said, "People of Quraysh, I see that you will not stop (from disobedience) until Allaah does not send such a person upon you that will chop your necks off based on this decision of your’s." He then rejected this request of returning the slaves and said, "This is the free one of Allaah." [Abu Dawud]

Caution should be adopted regarding prisoners

عن ابن عمر قال : بعث النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم خالد بن الوليد إلى بني جذيمة فدعاهم إلى الإسلام فلم يحسنوا أن يقولوا : أسلمنا فجعلوا يقولون : صبأنا صبأنا فجعل خالد يقتل ويأسر ودفع إلى كل رجل منا أسيره حتى إذا كان يوم أمر خالد أن يقتل كل رجل منا أسيره فقلت : والله لا أقتل أسيري ولا يقتل رجل من أصحابي أسيره حتى قدمنا إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فذكرناه فرفع يديه فقال : " اللهم إني أبرأ إليك مما صنع خالد " مرتين . رواه البخاري

621. Hadhrat Ibn Umar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ sent Khalid bin Waleed to Banu Judhaymah (a tribe). Khalid called these people to Islaam. In confusion, these people could not say properly that we have accepted Islaam. In fact, they began to say, “We have left our religion, we have left our religion.” Khalid (when he heard this from them) began killing (some of them) and imprisoning (some of them). Then he gave a prisoner to each of us (i.e. those that were made prisoner, he split them amongst us, one prisoner to each of us and commanded us that protect and guard these prisoners until I do not command you to kill them).

Subsequently, when one day came he commanded that each of us should kill our prisoner. (Hearing this command), I (Ibn Umar) said, “By Allaah, I shall not kill my prisoner, nor will any of my companions kill their’s (but we shall keep these prisoners in our protection until we reach Rasulullaah ﷺ and until we do not get final decision from him we shall protect our prisoners), until we came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and explained the entire incident to him.

Rasulullaah ﷺ (heard the detail of the story), lifted both his hands and said, “O Allaah, I make it apparent before you that I am free of the actions of Khalid.” He said this twice.

Giving safety

The importance of giving safety to women

عن أم هانئ بنت أي طالب قالت : ذهبت إلى رسول الله عام الفتح فوجدته يغتسل وفاطمة ابنته تستره بثوب فسلمت فقال : "من هذه ؟ " فقلت : أنا أم هانئ بنت أبي طالب فقال : "مرحبا بأم هانئ " فلما فرغ من غسله قام فصلى ثماني ركعات ملتحفا في ثوب ثم انصرف فقالت : يا رسول الله زعم ابن أمي علي أنه قاتل رجلة أجرته فلان بن هبيرة فقالت : يا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " قد أجرينا من أجرت يا أم هانئ " قالت أم هانئ وذلك ضحي . متفق عليه . وفي رواية للترمذي : قالت : أجريت رجلا من أحمائي فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " قد أمننا من أمنت " ( متفق عليه )

622. Hadhrat Umm e Haani bint Abu Talib radhiyallaahu anha narrates that in the year of the conquest of Makkah, she came to Rasullullaah ﷺ. At that time Rasulullaah ﷺ was bathing and his daughter Hadhrat Faatimah radhiyallaahu anha was covering him with a cloth. (She says) I greeted, he asked, “Who is it?” I replied, “It is I, Umm e Hani bint Abu Talib.” He said, “Welcome to Umm e Hani.” When he completed bathing, he stood up folding the cloth around his body and performed 8 rak’at (Salaat ul Chaasht).
When he completed Salaah I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, the son of my mother, i.e. Hadhrat Ali said that he is going to kill a person to whom I gave safety and he is a certain son of Hubayrah.”

Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Umm e Hani, the person whom you have given safety, we have given safety.” Hadhrat Umm e Hani radhiyallaahu anha says that this incident took place at the time of Chaasht (late morning). [Bukhari, Muslim]

Partisanship in the safety of women

"عن أبي هريرة أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "إن المرأة لتأخذ للقوم " يعني تجير على المسلمين. رواه الترمذي

623. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A woman takes a promise for any nation, i.e. she can give peace from the side of the Muslims.”

[Tirmidhi]

It is forbidden to kill after giving safety

" وعن عمرو بن الحمق قال: سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول: "من أمن رجلاً على نفسه فقتله أعطي لواء الغدر يوم القيامة " رواه في شرح السنة

624. Hadhrat Amr bin Hamiq  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “The person who gives assurance of peace for the life of someone and then kills him, on the Day of Qiyaamat he will be given the sign of breaking his promise.” [Sharh us Sunnah]

It is necessary to fulfil ones promise

625. Hadhrat Sulaym bin Aamir narrates that there was an agreement between the Romans and Hadhrat Mu‘awiyyah  that for a certain amount of time there will be no fighting with each other. Hadhrat Mu‘awiyyah  was travelling to the Roman cities (while the treaty was in place) so that when the time of the treaty expires, they could suddenly pounce on them (the Romans). Subsequently, a person mounted on an Arab or Turkish horse came and he was saying ‘Allah is the Greatest, Allah is the Greatest, fulfil the promise and do not break the promise. When the people saw, they came to know that this person is Hadhrat Amr bin Abasah. Hadhrat Mu‘awiyyah  asked him (that travelling towards the Roman cities, how it can be the same as breaking a promise).

He said, ‘I heard Rasulullaah  saying that when there is a pact between a person and a nation, he should break his promise or make one until the time of the treaty expires or he informs them that he is breaking his promise on the basis of equality, (i.e. going against this promise will be permissible in the case when the time period of the promise is completed or in the case where it became necessary to break the promise on the basis of force or some misfortune and the opposing group has been informed from before that the promise that is between us, we are breaking it. Now you and we are equal to do what he likes.
The narrator of the Hadith Hadhrat Sulaym bin Aamir says that hearing this Hadith, Hadhrat Mu’awiyah  returned with his people. [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

It is not permissible to break ones promise or to stop the emissary

وَعَنْ أَبِي رَافِعٍ قَالَ: بَعْثَتُ قَرِيْشَ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وَسَلَمَ فَلَمَّا رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وَسَلَمَ أَلْقَى فِي قَلْبِي الإِسْلَامَ فَقَالَ: "إِنِّي لَا أَرْجِعُ إِلَيْهِمْ أَبَدًا قَالَ: "إِنِّي لَا أَخِيسُ بِالعَهْدِ وَلَا أَحِبُّسُ الْبَرَدَّ وَلَكُنْ أَرْجِعُ فَإِنَّ كَانَ فِي نَفْسِكَ الَّذِي فِي نَفْسِكَ الَّذِي فَارَجَعَ". قَالَ: فَذَهَبْتُ ثُمَّ أَتَيْتُ النُّبيّ صلى الله عليه وَسَلَمَ فَأَسْلَمْتُ. رَوَاهُ أَبُو دَاوُدٍ

626. Hadhrat Abu Rafi’  narrates that (on the occasion of the treaty of Hudaibiyyah) the disbelievers of the Quraysh (made me the messenger) to Rasulullah . When my gaze fell upon Rasulullah , then (involuntarily) Islaam (its truth and reality) settled in my heart. Subsequently, I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, by Allaah, now I shall never return to them (the disbelieving Quraysh).”

Rasulullah  said, “I cannot break a pact nor can I stop the envoys. However, you return (now). If this thing (Islaam) remains established in your heart that is present now then come back to me.” Hadhrat Abu Raafi’  says that in accordance to the command of Rasulullah  I returned to Makkah then I came to Rasulullah  and accepted Islaam (i.e. announce your Islaam). [Abu Dawud]
It is prohibited to kill the emissary

وعن نعيم بن مسعود أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال لرجلين جاءا من عند مسيلمة: "أما والله لولا أن الرسول لا تقتل لضربت أعناقكما". رواه أحمد وأبو داود

627. Hadhrat Nu’aym bin Mas’ood narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the two people that came from Musailamah that remember, by Allaah, if it was not forbidden to kill envoys, then I would have chopped your necks off. [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

Those agreements of the era of ignorance which are not in conflict with the Shari’ah should be fulfilled

وعن عمرو بن شعيب عن أبيه عن جده أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال في خطبة: "أوفوا بحلف الجاهلية فإنه لا يزيد يعني الإسلام إلا شدة ولا تحدثوا حلفا في الإسلام". رواه الترمذي من طريق ابن ذكوان عن عمرو وقال: حسن

628. Hadhrat Amr bin Shu’ayb narrates from his father and he from his grandfather that Rasulullaah (one day) said during his sermon, “Fulfill the oaths and promises of the era of ignorance because Islaam makes these types of oaths and promises stronger and do not give vogue to the practise of taking oaths in Islaam.” [Tirmidhi]

It is the Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ not to kill the emissary

عن ابن مسعود قال : جاء ابن النواحة وابن أثال مسأله مسأله إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال لهما : " أتشهدان أني رسول الله ؟ " فقالا : " نشهد أن مسأله رسول الله " فقال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم : " آمنت بالله ورسوله ولو كنت قاتلا رسول الله لقتلتكم " . قال عبد الله : فمضت السنة أن الرسول لا يقتل . رواه أحمد

629. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  ﷺ narrates that two messengers of Musailamah (the false prophet) by the names of Ibn Nawaaha and Ibn Uthaal came to Rasulullaah ﷺ so he said to them, “Do you testify that I am the Rasul-messenger of Allah?” Both of them said, “No, but we testify that Musailamah is the messenger of Allah.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said (upon hearing this), “I believe in Allah and His Rasul-messenger, if I had to kill an envoy or emissary I would have killed you both.”

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  ﷺ says that (looking at this statement of Rasulullaah ﷺ) this Sunnah was brought into vogue (i.e. this law was established) that no envoy or emissary can be killed (no matter what inappropriate things he says and even if he becomes deserving of the punishment of being killed).” [Ahmad]
Distribution of booty and misappropriation in it

Permissibility of booty

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah \(\text{}\) narrates from Rasulullaah \(\text{}\) that he said, “Booty was not permissible for any Ummah before us, when Allaah \(\text{}\) saw our weakness then He permitted it (booty) for us.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

When does the killer get the wealth of the killed?

وعن أبي قتادة قال: خرجنا مع النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم عام حنين فلما التقينا كانت للمسلمين جولة فرأيت رجلا من المشركين قد علا رجلا من المسلمين فضربته من ورائه على حبل عاتقه بالسيف فقطعت الدرج وأقبل على فضمني ضمة وجدت منها ريح الموت ثم أدركه الموت فأرسلني فلحقت عمر بن الخطاب فقالت: ما بال الناس ؟ قال: أمر الله ثم رجعوا وجلس النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم فقال: "من قتل قتيلا له عليه بينة فله سلبه" فقالت: من يشهد لي ؟ ثم جلست ثم قال النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم مثله فقمت فقال: "ما لك يا أبي قتادة ؟" فأخبرته فقال رجل: صدق وسلبه عندي فأرضسه مني فقال أبو بكر: لا ها الله إذا لا يعمد أسد من أسد الله يقاتل عن الله ورسوله فيعطيك سلبه. فقال النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم: "لا ها الله إذا لا يعمد أسد من أسد الله يقاتل عن الله ورسوله فيعطيك سلبه. فقلت:" [481]
631. Hadhrat Abu Qatadah  narrates that (after the conquest of Makkah), in the year of the battle of Hunayn, we left in the company of Rasulullaah  (for Jihaad). When we faced the disbelievers, then (for a while) the Muslims had to face defeat. Subsequently, I saw that a polytheist overpowered a Muslim. From behind, I hit my sword on the vein of his neck so hard that his armour was pierced. That polytheist turned on me and pressed me so hard that I was on the verge of death (i.e. I came very close to dying), then death caught him and he left me.

After this I met Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab  and said, “What has happened to the people (that they are running away from facing the enemy?)” he said, “This is the command of Allaah (i.e. whatever happens is through predestination and the decree of Allaah).” Then the people (after this temporary defeat came once again into the battlefield to fight) and Rasulullaah  sat at one place and said, “He who kills a person from the enemy and there is a witness to him killing, then the wealth of the killed is his (the one who killed).”

(Hearing this), I stood and said, “Who will give witness for me?” then I sat down. Rasulullaah  repeated his statement. I then stood up and said, “Who will give witness for me?” then I sat down. Then Rasulullaah  repeated his statement for the third time. This time I stood up as well so Rasulullaah  said, “Abu Qatadah, what is the matter?” then I told Rasulullaah  (that I killed a particular polytheist). One person (heard me) and said, “Abu Qatadah speaks the truth and the wealth of that polytheist is with me. Make him happy from my side (that his rights can be fulfilled).”

Hadrat Abu Bakr  (heard this) and said (to the person), “No, by Allaah, it cannot be. Rasulullaah  will never intend that a lion from the lions of Allaah (Abu Qatadah) fights on behalf of Allaah and His Rasul-messenger, then the booty and provision is given to you.” Rasulullaah  said to this person, “Abu Bakr says what is correct, you give the wealth of that polytheist to Abu Qatadah.”

Subsequently, the person gave me the wealth and through it I bought a garden that was located in Banu Salamah and this was the first wealth I attained after accepting Islaam.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The law of distributing booty

وعن ابن عمر : أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم أسهم للرجل ولفرسه ثلاثة
أسهم : سهما له وسهمين لفرسه ( متفق عليه )

632. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  gave a person one share and his horse three shares (from the booty), i.e. one share for him and two shares for the horse.

[Bukhari, Muslim]

There is no set share in booty for slaves and women

 وعن يزيد بن هرمز قال : كتب نجدة الحروري إلى ابن عباس يسأله عن العبد والمرأة يحضران لمغنم هل يقسم لهما ؟ فقال لزيزيد : اكتب إليه أنه ليس لهما سهم إلا أن يحذوا . وفي رواية : كتب إليه ابن عباس : إذا كتبتي إلى تسألني : هل كان

633. Hadhrat Yazeed bin Hurmuz narrates that Najda Haruri wrote a letter to Hadhrat ibn Abbaas .. in which he enquired about a slave and slave girl that when they are present as part of booty, then should they be given from the booty or not? Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas .. said to Yazeed that (from my side) write this answer to Najdah that there is no stipulated share for them. However, (at the time of distribution) they should be given something.

In one narration it is mentioned like this that Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas .. wrote the following reply to Najdah that you wrote a letter to me asking that did Rasulullaah ﷺ take women along with in Jihaad and did he stipulate a share for these women from the booty?

Then (its reply is that) Rasulullaah ﷺ used to take women along with in Jihaad that would treat the sick (and would bandage the wounded) and he would give them a share of the booty but there was no stipulated share for them.”

Giving a foot soldier the share of a horseman

634. Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa’ narrates that Rasulullaah sent his camel together with his slave Rabaah. I was also together with Rabaah. When it was morning, then Abdur Rahmaan Fazaari (a famous disbeliever and enemy of the Muslims) attacked the camels of Rasulullaah and took them.

I ascended a hill and facing Madinah I screamed, ‘Know well that the enemy has come!’ then I chased them. I was firing arrows at them and saying, ‘I am the son of Akwa’ today is the day when the evil people will be destroyed.’ I carried on firing arrows and striking their conveyances until from the camels of Rasulullaah - there was no camel created by Allaah left except that I did not leave behind me. I carried on chasing them and firing arrows until they dropped their luggage with the thought of becoming lighter, more than 30 cloths and 30 spears they threw (i.e. while fleeing they threw their clothes and spears so that their bodies could become lighter and it would be easy to run) and whatever they threw down, I placed a stone on it as a sign that Rasulullaah and his companions (if they come from behind then) they will recognize until I saw the conveyances of Rasulullaah coming and Hadhrat Abu Qatadah who was called the rider of Rasulullaah ﷺ, caught Abdur Rahmaan and killed him.

Then (after the commotion was over) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “today our best rider is Abu Qatadah and the best of our footmen is Salamah bin Akwa’.” After this, Rasulullaah ﷺ gave me two shares (from the wealth of the disbelievers he distributed amongst us), one share for the horse and one for the person. He joined both shares and gave them to me. Then Rasulullaah ﷺ seated me on his camel Adbaa’ and we departed for Madinah.” [Muslim]

Giving some Mujaahideen more than their share

وعن ابن عمر : أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم كان ينفل بعض من يبعث من السرايا لأنفسهم خاصة سوى قسمة عامة الجيش ( متفق عليه )

635. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that whichever people Rasulullaah ﷺ sent for Jihaad, there were certain people who were given a special extra share compared to the army in general. [Bukhari, Muslim]
636. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that (once) Rasulullaah  gave us from the fifth share besides our share a little extra. Subsequently, a Shaarif came to my lot. A Shaarif is a camel that is old and big. [Bukhari, Muslim]

637. It is narrated regarding Hadhrat Ibn Umar  that (once) his horse ran away. The enemy got hold of it. Then when the Muslims were victorious over the enemy, (and the horse came as part of the booty) then the horse was returned to Ibn Umar (and it was not included as part of the booty). This incident took place in the time of Rasulullaah .

In one narration it states that the slave of Ibn Umar ran away and went to Rome. Then when the Muslims were victorious over the Romans, then Khalid bin Waleed returned the slave of Ibn Umar to him. This took place after the time of Rasulullaah . [Bukhari]

Distribution of one fifth

وعن جبير بن مطعم قال : مشيت أنا وعثمان بن عفان إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال : أعطيت بني المطلب من خمس خيبر وتركتنا ونحن بمنزلة واحدة منك ؟ فقال : " إنما بنو هاشم وبنو المطلب واحد " . قال جبير : ولم يقسم النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم بنو عبد شمس وبنو نوفل شيئا . رواه البخاري
638. Hadhrat Jubayr bin Mut’im .. narrates that he and Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan .. went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “From the fifth share of Khaybar you gave a portion to Banu Muttalib and you have not given to us whereas considering you, we are all of one status.”

Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Banu Hashim and Banu Muttalib are one.” Hadhrat Jubayr .. says that Rasulullaah ﷺ did not give a portion to Banu Abd Shams (Hadhrat Uthmaan etc) and Banu Naufal (Hadhrat Jubayr etc.) [Bukhari]

639. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In whichever locality you go (i.e. you conquer it without fighting and killing), then in it (the Fay’) there is a share for you and whichever locality disobeys Allaah and His Rasul-messenger then from its (booty), a fifth share is for Allaah and His Rasul-messenger and the rest is your’s.” [Muslim]
Using the wealth of Allaah without right

"وَعَنْ خُلْوَةَ الْأَنْصَارِيَّةُ قَالَتْ: سَمَعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلِّي اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالُ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ يَجِيءُ بَيْنَ يَدَيْ رَبِّهِ بِعَذَابٍ كَبِيرٍ، وَسُبُرُّ عَذَابِهِ فِي يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ'. رَوَاهُ الْبَخَرِي (640).

The curse of misappropriating booty

"وَعَنْ أَبِي هَرْرَةَ قَالَ: قَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلِّي اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ فَأَخْرَجَ الْجَلْبَالَ حَشْرًا وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، لَا يَجِئُ وَقَالَ: 'أَلْفَينَ أَحْدَمُ، L

641. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (may Allah have mercy upon him) narrates that Rasulullaah (may Allah's blessings be upon him) one day delivered a sermon and (during the sermon) said regarding misappropriating booty. Subsequently, he mentioned it to be a great sin and with due importance he explained, “(Know well), I should not see any of you on the Day of Qiyaamat with a camel heaped upon his neck (in the field of resurrection) making sounds, (i.e.) the person who misappropriates a camel of booty will come into the field of resurrection with a camel heaped on his neck and the camel will be making sounds), then he will say to me, “O Rasul of Allaah, intercede for me and I shall say in reply that now I cannot help you (i.e. I cannot save you from the punishment of Allaah) because I conveyed the laws of Shari’ah to you in the world.

(Know well), I should not see any of you on the day of Qiyaamat in the condition that he carries a neighing horse on his neck (in the field of resurrection), then he will say to me, “O Rasul of Allaah, intercede for me and I shall say in reply that now I cannot help you because I conveyed the laws of Shari’ah to you (i.e. I informed you from before that it is a great sin to misappropriate in booty or do anything impermissible with wealth, and know well) I should not see any of you coming (into the field of resurrection) with a goat making noise on his neck, then he will say to me, “O Rasul of Allaah, intercede for me and I shall say in reply that now I cannot help you because I conveyed the laws of Shari’ah to you.

And (know well) I should not see any of you on the day of Qiyaamat coming with a person screaming on his neck (i.e. the slave or slave girl from the booty that he misappropriated) coming (into the field of resurrection), then he will say to me, “O Rasul of Allaah, intercede for me and I shall say in reply that now I cannot help you because I conveyed the laws of Shari’ah to you. (Know well) I should not see any of you on the Day of Qiyaamat in the condition that he has clothes waving on his neck coming (into the field of resurrection), then he will say to me, “O Rasul of Allaah, intercede for me and I shall say in reply that now I cannot help you because I conveyed the laws of Shari’ah to you.

And (know well) I should not see any of you on the day of Qiyaamat in the condition that he has gold and silver loaded on his neck coming (into the field of resurrection), then he will say to me, “O Rasul of Allaah, intercede for me.” and I shall say in reply that now I cannot help you because I conveyed the laws of Shari’ah to you. [Bukhari, Muslim] وعنه قال : أهدى رجل لرسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم غلاما يقال له : مدعم فبينما مدعم يحطم رحلا لرسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إذ أصابه إ👇 أصابه عائر فقتله فقال الناس : هنيئا له الجنة فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " كلا والذي نفسي بيده إن الثملة التي أخذها يوم خيبر من المغانم لم تحصلها المقاسم لتتشتعل عليه النار " . فلما سمع ذلك الناس جاء رجل بشرك أو شراكين إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال : " شراك من النار أو شراكان من النار " (متفق عليه).

642. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that a person sent a slave as a gift to Rasulullaah  whose name was Midam. (One day, probably in the battlefield) he was taking down the palanquin of Rasulullaah  when suddenly a stray arrow came and hit him on account of which he died. The people said, “Blessings of Jannah be for Midam (i.e. Midam is fortunate that while serving Rasulullaah  he was martyred and he has reached Jannah.) (Hearing this) Rasulullaah  said, “No, it is not such. By the being in Whose control my life is, the cloth that Midam took on the day of Khaybar before the booty could be distributed, has become fire and is throwing flames onto Midam.”
When people heard this (severe warning), then a person brought a lace or two laces to Rasulullaah ﷺ. (Looking at it) he said, “This is a lace or two laces of fire.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال: كان على ثقل النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم رجل يقال له كركرة فمات فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "هو في النار" فذهبوا ينظرون فوجدوا عباءة قد غلها. رواه البخاري

643. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﷺ narrates that a person whose name was Kirkirah was appointed to guard (over wealth and belongings). When he passed away Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He (Kirkirah) is in hell.” Subsequently, the people began to look (in his belongings) then they found a small blanket that he misappropriated from the booty. [Bukhari]

One is permitted to take consumables from the booty before distribution

وعن ابن عمر قال: كنا نصيب في غزواتنا العسل والعنب فناكله ولا نرفعه رواه البخاري

644. Hadhrat Ibn Umar ﷺ narrates that we used to get honey and grapes in the battles so we used to eat it, never taking it and going. [Bukhari]
645. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal  narrates that on the day of Khaybar I got a basket filled with fat. I took it and placed it on my bosom and (in my heart or verbally) said, “Today I shall not give from this fat to anyone today.” Then I turned around and saw Rasulullaah ﷺ (standing) and smiling (upon this action of mine). [Bukhari, Muslim]

Booty is only permissible for this ummah

 عن أبي أمامة عن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : " إن الله فضلني على الأنبياء أو قال : فضل أمتي على الأمم وأحل لنا الغنائم " . رواه الترمذي

646. Hadhrat Abu Umamah  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Undoubtedly Allaah ﷺ has given me virtue over the Ambiyaa-Messengers or he said that my Ummah has been given virtue over the other Ummahs and booty has been made permissible for me.” [Tirmidhi]
The ruling of the wealth of the killed

وعن أنس قال : قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم : يومئذ يوم حنين : " من قتل كافرا فله سلب " فقتل أبو طلحة يومئذ عشرين رجلا وأخذ أسلابهم . رواه الدارمي

647. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said on that day, i.e. the day of the battle of Hunayn, “Whoever kills a disbeliever (enemy), the possessions and belongings of the killed will go to him.”

Subsequently, Abu Talha killed 20 of the enemy on that day and he got all their possessions and belongings. [Daarimi]

648. Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik Ashja’i  and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Walid  narrate that Rasulullaah  decided regarding the possessions and belongings of the killed that it is the right of the one who killed him. Moreover, he did not take out the fifth share from that wealth (as is taken out from booty). [Abu Dawud]
649. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  narrates that on the day of the battle of Badr, Rasulullaah  gave me the sword of Abu Jahl and Abdullaah bin Mas’ood killed Abu Jahl. [Abu Dawud]

One can give ones slave from the booty as well

ومن عمير مولى آبي اللحم قال: شهدت خيبر مع ساداتي فكلموا في رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وكلموه أني مملوك فأمرني سيفا فإذا أنا أجره فأمر لي بشيء من خرثي المتاع وعرضت عليه رقية كنت أرقي بها المجانين فأمرني طرح بعضها وحبس بعضها. رواه الترمذي وأبو داود إلا أن روايته انتهت عند قوله: المتاع

650. The freed slave of Hadhrat Umayr Aabi al Lahm says, “I participated with my masters in the battle of Khaybar. Subsequently, (at the time of departing for that battle) my masters spoke to Rasulullaah  regarding me (i.e. they praised me and mentioned my qualities and said that take Umayr to the battlefield to fight or to do service). Moreover, they also told Rasulullaah  that I am a slave. He accepted (the request of my masters) and commanded me to arm myself and join the Mujaahideen.

Subsequently, I was armed with a sword (i.e. a sword was placed around my neck) when (I walked, then due to young age or short height) I walked dragging the sword on the ground, then (when we overpowered the enemy and the booty was being distributed, then) Rasulullaah  commanded that I also be given a share. Also, (on one occasion) I read my invocation to Rasulullaah  which I used to recite upon those afflicted with madness (and he asked regarding it) so he told me to stop reciting certain portions of it and to carry on reciting few portions of it."

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

Distributing the booty of Khaybar

ومن مجمع بن جارية قال: قسمت خيبر على أهل الحديبية فقسموا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ثمانية عشر سهما وكان الجيش ألفا وخمسمائة فارس فأعطى الفارس سهماين والراجل سهما رواه أبو داود وقال: حديث ابن عمر أصح قال عمل عليه وأتي الوهم في حديث مجمع أنه قال: إنه قال: ثلثمائة فارس وإنما كانوا مائتي فارس

651. Hadhrat Mujammi’ bin Jariya .. narrates that (the booty and land of) Khaybar was being distributed amongst the people that participated in the treaty of Hudaibiyyah. Subsequently, Rasulullah ﷺ divided (the booty and property) into 18 parts. And the number who participated (in Hudaibiyyah) was 1500. 300 were horsemen. He gave the horsemen 2 shares and the cavalry one share. [Abu Dawud]

mmm

Giving a person extra in his share of booty

ومن حبيب بن مسلمة الفهري قال شهدت النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم نفل الربع في البداية والثلث في الرجمة. رواه أبو داود

652. Hadhrat Habib bin Maslamah Fihri .. narrates that (during one battle) I came to Rasulullaah ﷺ. In the beginning of the battle, he gave a quarter extra share to (the fighters) and upon returning he gave a third extra share to the fighters. [Abu Dawud]

653. Hadhrat Habib bin Maslamah Fihri  narrates that after taking out the fifth share, Rasulullaah ﷺ would give a quarter share extra and when the army returned, after the fifth share was taken out he would give the fighters a third extra share. [Abu Dawud]

It is not permissible to give a person extra share in Fay

654. Hadhrat Abu Juwayriyah Jarmi  narrates that in the era of the khilafat of Hadhrat Mu’awiyah I found a red coloured basket in the Roman land which was filled with...
Dinaars. At that time our governor was a companion of Rasulullahas whose name was Ma’n bin Yazeed. I came with the basket to him. He distributed those Dinaars amongst the Muslims (the fighters) and he gave me the same amount that was given to every one else (i.e. I was given an equal share as everyone else, not more). He then said, “If I did not hear Rasulullahas saying that only after taking out the fifth share can one give extra, then definitely I would have given you more than the others.” [Abu Dawud]

Special gifting from booty

 وعن أبي موسى الأشعري قال : قدمنا فوافقنا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم حين افتتح خيبر فأسهم لنا أو قال : فأعطانا منها وما قسم لأحد غاب عن فتح خيبر منها شيئا إلا لمن شهد معه إلا أصحاب سفينتنا جعفرا وأصحابهم أسهم لهم معهم. رواه أبو داود

655. Hadhrat Abu Musa Ash’ari .. narrates that (when) we came (from Abyssinnia) and reached Rasulullaah ﷺ then he had completed the conquest of Khaybar. Subsequently, he also gave us a share (of the booty of Khaybar), or Abu Musa Ash’ari said, “He also gave us from the booty of Khaybar and he did not give a share of the booty of Khaybar to anyone who was not present at the time of the conquest of Khaybar (who was with him at the time of the conquest of Khaybar) and besides us of the ship, i.e. Hadhrat Ja’far and his companions such that Rasulullaah ﷺ gave the people of the ship a share together with those who participated in the battle of Khaybar (when we did not participate in the battle).

[Abu Dawud]

mmm

The evil consequence of misappropriating booty

 وعن يزيد بن خالد : أن رجلا من أصحاب رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم توفي يوم خيبر فذكروا لرسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال : " صلى على صاحبكم " فتغيرت وجوه الناس لذلك فقال : " إن صاحبكم غل في سبيل الله " ففتحتنا متاعه فوجدنا خرزا من خرز يهود لا يساوي درهمين . رواه مالك وأبو داود والنسائي

656. Hadhrat Yazid bin Khalid .. narrates that one of the companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away on the day of Khaybar. The companions mentioned this to Rasulullaah ﷺ (i.e. they told him that a certain person has passed away). Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “You perform his Janaazah (I shall not perform his Janaazah).” The colour of the faces of the people changed at this so Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(I shall not perform his Janaazah because) your companion misappropriated (booty) in the path of Allaah.”
Subsequently, when we searched his belongings, then we found gems of Jewish (women) that were not even equal to 2 Dirhams (i.e. their value was not even 2 Dirhams).

[Maalik, Abu Dawud, Nasa’i]

وعن عبد الله بن عمرو قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إذا أصاب غنيمة أمر بلال فنادى في الناس فيجئون بغنائمهم فيخمسمه ويسهمه فجاء رجل يوما بعد ذلك بزمام من شعر فقال : يا رسول الله هذا فيما كنا أصبناه من الغنيمة قال : " أسمعت بلالا نادى ثلاثا ؟ " قال : نعم قال : " فما منعك أن تجيء به ؟ " فاعتذر قال : " كن أنت تجيء به يوم القيامة فلن أقبله عنك " . رواه أبو داود

657. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr .. narrates that when Rasulullaah .. gathered the booty and intended to distribute it then he commanded Hadhrat Bilal .. (to announce). Subsequently, he announced among the people and (hearing the announcement) the people took their booty. Then Rasulullaah .. took out the fifth share and then he distributed (the booty) amongst the people (Mujaahideen). (On one occasion it so happened that) a person (during the distribution of the fifth and among the Mujaahideen) brought a camel’s nose string made of hair and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, from the booty that came to us was this nose string as well.”
He said, “Did you not hear the announcement that Bilal made thrice?” he said that I heard it. He said, “So what prevented you from bringing it (at that time)?” he mentioned some excuse. He said, “Enough, now remain as you are (i.e. now keep it) on the Day of Qiyaamat bring it (and answer to Allaah for this delay). Now I shall never take it from you.”

[Abu Dawud]

The punishment for the one who misappropriates booty

وعن عمرو بن شعيب عن أبيه عن جده أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وابن أبي بكر وابن عمر حرقوا متاع الغال وضربوه . رواه أبو داود

658. Hadhrat Amr bin Shu’ayb narrates from his father from his grandfather that Rasulullaah ﷺ, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ would burn the possessions and punish the person who misappropriated in booty. [Abu Dawud]

It is misappropriation to hide the misappropriation of another

وعن سمرة بن جندب قال : كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول : " من يكتم غالا فإنه مثله " . رواه أبو داود

659. Hadhrat Samurah bin Jundub ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ used to say that the person who hides the misappropriation of the one who misappropriates in booty (i.e. he does not bring it to the notice of the leader that a particular person has misappropriated) then (in terms of being a sinner) he is also like the one who misappropriated.

[Abu Dawud]

mmm

It is not permissible to buy and sell booty before distribution

وعن أبي سعيد قال : نهى رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم عن شري المغنم حتى تقسم . رواه الترمذي

660. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ forbade the buying of booty before it was distributed (because there is no owner before distribution). [Tirmidhi]

mmm

وعن أبي أمامة عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم : نهى أن تباع السهام حتى تقسم . رواه الدارمي

661. Hadhrat Abu Umamah .. narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he forbade selling of booty before it was distributed. [Daarimi]

The consequence of using the booty without right

"وعن خولة بنت قيس : قالت : سمعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول : "إن هذه المال خضرة حلوة فمن أصابه بحقه بورك له فيه ورب متخوض فما شاءت به نفسه من مال الله ورسوله ليس له يوم القيامة إلا النار " . رواه الترمذي

[502]
662. Hadhrat Khuala bint Qays radhiyallaahu anha narrates that she heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Indeed this wealth is green and sweet thing (i.e. wealth is such a thing that attracts the gaze of man and pulls his heart). Therefore, the one who attains it through permissible ways, there will be blessings given in it. And (remember) there are many people such that who utilize the wealth of Allaah and His Rasul-Messenger (i.e. booty) as their heart desires, on the Day of Qiyaamat there will only be the fire of hell for them.”

[Tirmidhi]

Mention of Dhul Fiqaar

663. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ narrates that the sword of Rasulullaah ﷺ called Dhul Fiqaar took an extra share on the day of Badr. [Ibn Maajah] and the words of Tirmidhi state, “And this was the sword regarding which Rasulullaah ﷺ saw a dream on the day of the battle of Uhud.”

Prohibition of using collective wealth before distribution

[503]
664. Hadhrat Ruwayfi’ bin Thabit  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who believes in Allaah and in the day of Aakhirah, he cannot mount a conveyance of the jointly owned booty of the Muslims (without need). Then when the animal becomes thin, then he returns it to the booty and he who believes in Allaah and the day of Aakhirat it is not permitted for him to wear any clothing from the jointly owned booty of the Muslims, then when the clothing becomes old he returns it.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

The ruling of consumable items

665. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abu Mujalid narrates from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Auffa  that he asked Hadhrat Abdullaah, “Did you take out the fifth share in consumable items as well in the time of Rasulullaah?” He said, “In the battle of Khaybar, consumable items also came to us. Subsequently, any person would come and take from there according to necessity.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

666. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that (once) in the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ, the army (returned from Jihaad) with consumable items and honey as booty. Subsequently, (the [504] army ate some of the items, from them) the fifth share was not taken out. [Abu Dawud]

667. Hadhrat Qasim (Tabi‘i) who is the freed slave of Abdur Rahman narrates from some companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ that they (i.e. some of the Sahabah) explained that we ate camel meat during the battles and never used to distribute it (i.e. in the battlefield, at the time of need, we would slaughter the camels of booty and without distributing we would take according to need) to the extent that when we came back to our tents (during journey) then our baskets would be filled with meat. [Abu Dawud]

The evil consequence of misappropriating

668. Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ used to say, “Give the thread and needle (i.e. do not hide small things like these of the booty) and do not misappropriate because there is no doubt that misappropriation will be a fault and nakedness on the day of Qiyaamat for those who misappropriate.” [Daarimi]
Emphasis to refrain from misappropriating

Hadhrat Amr bin Shu’ayb narrates from his father from his grandfather that he said (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ came to a camel (that came as Fay’) and pulled a few strands of hair from its hump and said, “People, the reality is that I have no share in this wealth of Fay’ and (he lifted the finger upon which was the hair to show the people and said), “This (wealth also) is not for me. However, a fifth is my right but the fifth is spent upon you as well (i.e. the fifth share is spent for your well being in that your weapons and horses are bought from it). Therefore, (if you have of booty) a needle and thread too, then bring it to be gathered.”

(Hearing this) a person who had a piece of rope made of hair stood up and said, “I kept this piece of rope with me so that I could use it to adjust the cloth under the palanquin (now what is the ruling regarding it?).” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “That which is from my share and the share of Abdul Muttalib is yours (i.e. the share of it that is mines and the people of my family, I give you but the share of the others that are in it you will have to make them give it to you). (Hearing this) the person said, “When this rope has reached such a stage (of sin) then I do not need it.” Saying this he threw the rope. [Abu Dawud]
وعن عمرو بن عبسة قال: صلى بنا رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم إلى بعير من المغنف، فلمأ سلم، ثم أخذ وبرة من جنب البعير، ثم قال: "ولا يحل لي من غنائمكم مثل هذا إلا الخمس والخمس مردود فيكم". رواه أبو داود

670. Hadhrat Amr bin Abasah  narrates that (on one occasion) Rasulullaah  made a camel from the booty a Sutrah (barrier) and led us in Salaah. He made Salaam and pulled a few hairs from the side of the camel and said, "From your booty I do not even have so much except a fifth and that fifth is also spent upon your needs." [Abu Dawud]

Distributing the one fifth

وعن جبير بن مطعم قال: لما قسم رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم سهم ذوي القربي بين بني هاشم وبني المطلب أتيته أنا وعثمان بن عفان فقالنا: يا رسول الله هؤلاء إخواننا من بني هاشم لا ننكر فضلهم لمكانك الذي وضعك الله منهم أرأيت إخواننا من بني المطلب أعطيتهم وتركتنا وإنما قرايتنا وقرابيتهم واحدة فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "إنما بنو هاشم وبنو المطلب شيء واحد هكذا. وشبك بين أصابعه. رواه الشافعي وفي رواية أبي داود والنسيائي نحوه وفيه: "إنا وبنو المطلب لا نفترق في جاهلية ولا إسلام وإنما نحن وهم شيء واحد".

671. Hadhrat Jubayr bin Mut’im  narrates that when Rasulullaah  distributed the booty amongst his family and the Banu Hashim and Banu Muttalib, then I (i.e. Jubayr, from the side of Banu Naufal) and Uthmaan bin Affaan (from the side of Banu Abd Shams) came to Rasulullaah  and we said, "O Rasul of Allaah, these brothers of ours, who are related to Banu Hashim, we do not reject their virtue because Allaah  created you amongst them.

However, tell us that you gave our brothers (from the fifth) who are related to Banu Muttalib and you have kept us deprived when our relationship, i.e. Banu Naufal and Banu Abd Shams and the relationship of Banu Muttalib is the same (because just as their grandfather was the brother of Hashim, our grandfather is also the brother of Hashim).

Rasulullah ﷺ placed the fingers of one hand into the other and said, “(Just as the fingers of both hands were joined and became one, similarly) Banu Hashim and Banu Muttalib are one thing.” [Shafi’i]

The narration of Abu Dawud and Nasa’i is similar and it has these words that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “We (i.e. Banu Hashim) and Banu Muttalib were not separate in the era of ignorance, nor in the era of Islaam. And undoubtedly we and them are one thing.” Saying this he placed the fingers of one hand into the other.

Story of the killing of Abu Jahl

Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf .. narrates that on the day of the battle of Badr I was standing in the row when I looked to the right and left and saw that I was standing between two Ansaari boys, who were very young. At that time I hoped that if only I was standing between two people more powerful and experienced. (in this time) suddenly, one of them pushed me and said, “Uncle, do you know Abu Jahl?” I said, “Yes, I know him, but my nephew, what do you want with Abu Jahl?” He said, “I know that he swears Rasulullaah ☪. Taking an oath by the Being in whose control my life is, if I see him then my body will not separate from his until the one who is quicker dies.”

Hadhrat Abdur Rahman says that I was astonished at the talk of this young lad. Abdur Rahman says, “Then the second lad pushed me and he said the same thing that the first lad said. After this I immediately saw Abu Jahl who was roaming amongst the enemy. (I indicated towards him) and said to the youth, “Do you not see the person who is roaming amongst the enemy? He is the one you want about whom you are asking (i.e. recognize this person as Abu Jahl).” Abdur Rahman says, “(The moment they heard this) both youth took their swords and immediately jumped towards Abu Jahl and attacked him until they killed him.

Then they returned to Rasulullaah ﷺ and informed him. Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, “Who from you two killed him?” one of them said, “I killed him.” He asked, “Have you both wiped your swords?” They said, “No.” Subsequently, he saw both of their swords and said, “Both of you killed him.” Also, Rasulullaah ﷺ gave the command that the possessions of Abu Jahl be given to Mu’aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh and those youth (who killed Abu Jahl were) Mu’aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh and Mu’aadh bin Afraa’. [Bukhari, Muslim]

673. Hadhrat Anas ﴿ narrates that on the day of the battle of Badr Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Who is the one who will tell us what happened to Abu Jahl? (i.e. is he dead or alive). Subsequently, Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood went and found him in the condition that the sons of Afraa’ had hit him cold i.e. he was close to death. Hadhrat Anas ﴿ says that Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood (saw him) and caught his beard and said, “You are Abu Jahl?!” Abu Jahl said, “(Indeed I am Abu Jahl but) is there a greater person than me that you have killed? (i.e. the person who you shall kill, there is none greater in rank than him).”
In one narration Abu Jahl said at that time that if only someone besides a farmer would have killed me! [Bukhari, Muslim]

Giving someone wealth to soften his heart

674. Hadhrat Sa’d Ibn Abi Waqqas .. narrates that (one day) when I was sitting in (in the gathering of Rasulullaah ﷺ), Rasulullaah ﷺ gave wealth to a certain group and (from the group) Rasulullaah ﷺ left a person (i.e. he did not give him anything) whereas that person (according to me) was the best (in terms of Deen). (Looking at this) I stood up and said (to Rasulullaah ﷺ), “What is for a particular person? (i.e. why have you deprived him of your gift?)

By Allaah, I understand him to be a true believer.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Do not say that I understand him to be a true believer) but say that I understand him to be a Muslim.” Sa’d said this thrice and Rasulullaah ﷺ gave the same reply every time. After this Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I give someone wealth when another person is more beloved to me and there is fear in giving him that person should not be thrown headlong into hell.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
Specialty of Hadhrat Uthmaan

وعن ابن عمر أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "إن عثمان انطلق في حاجة الله وحاجة رسوله وإن أباع له فضرب له رسول الله بسهم ولم يضرب بشيء لأحد غاب غيره. رواه أبو داود

675. Hadhrat Ibn Umar narrates that on the day of the battle of Badr, (in order to deliver a sermon) Rasulullaah stood up and said, “Undoubtedly Uthmaan has gone to do the work of Allaah and His Rasul so I take the pledge myself on behalf of him.” Then Rasulullaah stipulated a share for Hadhrat Uthmaan (of the booty of Badr) and he did not stipulate a share for anyone but Uthmaan that did not participate in the battle. [Abu Dawud]

A camel equals 10 goats

 وعن رافع بن خديج قال: كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يجعل في قسم المغانم عشرة من الشاء بعير. رواه النسائي

676. Hadhrat Raafi’ bin Khadeej narrates that at the time of distributing booty, Rasulullaah classified a camel equal to ten goats. [Nasa’i]

677. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “From the Ambiya’, one Nabi (i.e. Hadhrat Yusha’ bin Nun ﷺ) intended to wage Jihaad and when he departed for Jihaad then he said to his nation, “The person who married a woman and intended to take her home with the intention of intercourse should not come with me and until now he did not bring her home, and the person who built a home should not come with me but he has not put the roof as yet, also that person should not come with me who bought a pregnant goat or camel and he is waiting for it to give birth.

After this, that Nabi (with his remaining companions) left for Jihaad and when he reached close to the locality where he intended to wage Jihaad, then it was the time of Asr. The Nabi addressed the sun and said, “You are also commanded to move and I am also commanded to (to conquer this city). O Allaah, You hold the sun.” Subsequently, the sun was made to stop until Allaah ﷺ blessed the Nabi with victory. Then when the booty was gathered and the fire came to consume it then the fire did not consume it. (Looking at this) the Nabi said to his companions, “Definitely misappropriation has occurred with the booty (i.e. someone misappropriated in the booty due to which this fire did not do its work). Therefore, one person from each tribe should pledge allegiance to me.” Subsequently, (when the pledge began) the hand of one person got stuck to the hand of the Nabi.

The Nabi said to the person, “Misappropriation has occurred from your tribe.” Then the people of that tribe brought a head of gold that was like the head of an ox and placed it there. After this the fire came and consumed it.

In one narration the narrator says that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Before us, booty was not permissible for anyone. Then Allaah ﷻ made booty permissible for us. Allaah ﷻ saw us weak financially so He made booty permissible for us.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The one who misappropriates booty will go to Jahannam

وعن ابن عباس قال : حدثني عمر قال : لما كان يوم خيبر أقبل نفر من صحابة النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقالوا : فلان شهيد وفلان شهيد حتى مروا على رجل فقالوا : فلان شهيد فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " كلا إني رأيته في النار في بردة غلها أو عباءة " ثم قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " يا ابن الخطاب أذهب فناد في الناس : أنه لا يدخل الجنة إلا المؤمنون ثلاثا " قال : فخرجت فناديت : ألا إنه لا يدخل الجنة إلا المؤمنون ثلاثا . رواه مسلم

678. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas 珺 narrates that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab explained to us that when the day of Khaybar came (i.e. when the battle of Khaybar was completed) then some of the companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ came and said

amongst themselves that a particular person is a martyr and a particular person is a martyr until the people passed by the body of a person and said, “A particular person is a martyr.”

(Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Never, I saw this person in hell on account of misappropriation of a cloth or he said a striped blanket.” Then Rasulullaah ﷺ addressed me and said, “Ibn Khatib, go and announce among the people thrice that only a believer will enter Jannah.”

Hadrat Umar says that subsequently, I went amongst the people and announced thrice that know well, only a believer will enter Jannah.” [Muslim]

Taking Jizya from fire worshippers

679. Hadhrat Bajalah (Tabi’i) narrates that he was the scribe of Hadhrat Juz’ bin Mu’awiyah who was the uncle of Hadhrat Ahnaf . (Once) a year before the demise of Amir ul Mu’mineen Umar bin Khattaab a letter came in which this command was given that separation should be done amongst the couples of fire worshippers who had married their Mahaarim.

Moreover, (the narrator says that) Hadhrat Umar (at first) never used to take Jizya from the fire worshippers until Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf testified (i.e. he explained) that Rasulullaah ﷺ took Jizya from the fire worshippers of Hajar (then Hadhrat Umar  began taking Jizya from the fire worshippers). [Bukhari]

The amount of Jizya

680. Hadhrat Mu’aadh  narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ sent him to Yemen (as judge and governor), then he gave him the counsel that he should take (as jizya) from every mature person one Dinaar or the value of a Dinaar in clothing made in Yemen. [Abu Dawud]

[516]
There is no Jizya upon Muslims

عن ابن عباس قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم: " لا تصلح قبلتان في أرض واحدة وليس على المسلم جزية " . رواه أحمد والترمذي وأبو داود

681. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There should not be two Qibla in one land and there is no jizya upon Muslims.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

Treaty upon Jizya

 وعن أنس قال : بعث رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم خالد بن الوليد إلى أكيدر دومة فأخذوه فأتوا به فحقن له دمه وصالحه على الجزية . رواه أبو داود

682. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ sent Hadhrat Khalid bin Waleed  to face Ukayirdaumah. Subsequently, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed  and his companions caught him and brought him to Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ waived his blood, forgave him and made peace with him upon jizya. [Abu Dawud]

One tenth of merchandise

 وعن حرب بن عبيد الله عن جده أبي أمه عن أبيه أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم قال : " إنما العشور على اليهود والنصارى وليس على المسلمين عشور " . رواه أحمد وأبو داود

683. Hadhrat Harb bin Ubaydullaah narrates from his grandfather and he from his father that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “One tenth is compulsory upon the Jews and Christians from their merchandise and one tenth in merchandise is not compulsory upon Muslims.” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

One can forcefully take ones right

وعن عقبة بن عامر قال : قلت : يا رسول الله إنا نمر بقوم فلا هم يضيفونا ولا هم يؤدون ما لنا عليهم من الحق ولا نحن نأخذ منهم . فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : " إن أبوا إلا أن تأخذوا كرها فخذوا " . رواه الترمذي

684. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir .. narrates that he said to Rasulullaah ﷺ, “O Rasul of Allaah, when we (go for Jihaad), pass by the locality of a people, then they do not host us nor do they give us that which we have rights for (in the light of Islaam), (i.e. in the light of Islaam, our rights that are upon them that they should fulfil our needs, look after us, they do not fulfil them) and (because) we did not take anything from them by force (therefore we are in great worry and due to their conduct, we are in great distress and harm).

Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “If those people reject (from hosting you or from buying anything from you) and (in this case) there is no other way out but to forcefully take from them, then take it by force.” [Tirmidhi]

The amount of Jizya in the time of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ

عن أسلم أن عمر بن الخطاب رضي الله عنه ضرب الجزية على أهل الذهب أربعة دنانير وعلى أهل الورق أربعين درهما مع ذلك أرزاق المسلمين وضيافة ثلاثة أيام. رواه مالك

685. Hadhrat Aslam (Tabi’i) narrates that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab ﷺ (in his era of khilafat) stipulated 4 Dinaars upon those who had gold, 40 Dirhams upon those who had silver as jizya and besides this, the provision of the Muslims and hosting them for three days. [Maalik]
Making peace/Treaty

The treaty of Hudaybiyyah and the story of Hadhrat Abu Baseer

عن المسور بن مخرمة ومروان بن الحكم قالا : خرج النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم عام الحديبية في بضع عشرة مائة من أصحابه فلما أتى ذا الحليفة قلد الهدي وأشعر وأحرم منها بعمرة وسار حتى إذا كان بالثنية التي يهبط عليهم بركت به راحلته فقال الناس : حل حل خلأت القصواء خلأت القصواء فقال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم :
الله عليه و سلم: "ما خليت القصواء وما ذاك لها بخلق ولكن حببها حابب الفيل" ثم قال: "والذي نفسي بيده لا يسألوني خطة يعظمون فيها حرمت الله إلا أعطيتهم إياها" ثم زجرها فوثبت فعدل عنهم حتى نزل بقصيدة الحديبية على ثم قيلهم الماء بتبرضه الناس تبرضا، فلم يلبسه الناس حتى نزوجوه وشكي إلى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم العطش فانثره سهما من كنانته ثم أمرهم أن يجعلوه فيه فإنما زال يعيش لهم بالري حتى صدروا عن فيتنا هم كذلك إذ جاء دبل بن ورقاء الخزاعي في نفر من خزاعة ثم أتاه عروة بن مسعود و ساق الحديث إلى أن قال: إذ جاء سهيل بن عمرو فقال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: "اكتب: هذا ما قاضي عليه محمد رسول الله". فقال سهيل: "وعلى أن لا يأتيك منا رجل إلا ردته علينا فلما فرغ من قضية الكتاب قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "أصحابي: فقوموا فانحررو ثابروا" ثم جاء نسوة مؤمنات فأنزل الله تعالى: ( يا أيها الذين آمنوا إذا جاءكم المؤمنات مهاجرات ) الآية. فنهاهم الله تعالى أن يعودوا و أمرهم أن يردوا الصداق ثم رجع إلى المدينة فجاه أبو بصير رجل من قريش وهو مسلم فأرسلوا في طليه رجلين فدفعه إلى الرجلين فخرجوا به حتى إذا بلغوا فهلعوه فإكمان من تم لهم فقال أبو بصير لأحد الرجلين: "الله إني لأرى سيفك هذا يا فلان جيدا أري أنظر إليه فأمكنه منه فضربه حتى برد وفر الآخر حتى أتى المدينة فدخل المسجد يعدو فقال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: "لقد رأى هذا ذعرا" فقال: "قتل والله صحابي واني لمقتول فجاه أبو بصير فقال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم: "وأيده مساع حرب الله فكان له أحد" فلما سمع ذلك عرف أنه سيرده إليه فخرج حتا نشيط سيفه وألفت أبو جندل بن سهيل فلحق بذلك بصير فجعل لا يخرج من قريش رجل قد أسلم إلا لحقق بأبي بصير تحت صعقة الله ما يسمعون بغير خرجتهم إلى الشام إلا اعترضوا لها فقتلوه وأخذوا أمواتهم فأرسلت قريش إلى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم تناشده الله والرحمن رضوانه حتى أمره أن يرسل إليه من آتاه فهؤلاء أرسل النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم إليه. رواه البخاري

686. Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah and Marwaan bin Hakam narrate that during the year of Hudaiybiyyah, Rasulullaah ﷺ took a thousand and a few hundred companions and left Madinah. When he reached Dhul Hulayfah, then he tied a garland around the sacrificial animal and made a sign upon it. Then he tied the Ihraam from Dhul Hulayfah and left until he reached the valley where the people of Makkah dismount so the camel of Rasulullaah ﷺ (named Qaswa) took him and sat down.

When people saw this they began to say, “Hal hal.” (These are words used to make the camel stand up). (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “No, Qaswa has not stopped nor it it her habit to stop, but the Being that stopped the elephants has stopped her.” He then said, “By the Being in whose control my life is, whatever the Quraysh want in which lies the honour of the Allaah’s (Haram), I shall fulfil it (i.e. today at the time of the treaty whatever the people of Makkah request in which the honour for the Haram of Makkah is considered, I shall fulfil it).”

He then made the camel stand and it immediately stood up and left the path of the people of Makkah and began taking another route until they reached the last part of Hudaybiyyah where (in a hole) some water fell (and they stopped there). The people began using some of the little water until in a short while all the water was drawn out (i.e. because there was very little water in the hole, therefore although a minimum amout of people took water, the water got finished very quickly).

The people complained of thirst to Rasulullaah ﷺ. He took out an arrow from his quiver and told the Sahabah to place the arrow in the water. Then (the narrator says that) by Allaah, (through the blessings of that arrow), waves of water began to flow that did not finish from quenching the people until everyone moved away from the water (i.e. Allaah created so much water in the hole that the needs of all the people were fulfilled with peace. In fact, on return the water was still inside).
Anyway, the Sahabah were in the condition that suddenly Budayl bin Warqa Khuza’i, together with a few people of Khuza’ah came (from the side of the disbelieving Makkans to make peace). Then Urwah bin Mas’ood came to him.

After this Bukhari explained (the long discussion that ensued between Budayl and Urwah which the author of Masabeh has not mentioned here for sake of brevity) that finally when Suhayl bin Amr (became the final envoy of the people of Makkah) came and Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Ali, “Write, ‘This is the treaty upon which Muhammad the Rasul-Messenger of Allaah has agreed.’”

Suhayl (saw these words) and said, “By Allaah, if we accept that you are the Rasul-Messenger of Allaah, then we would not have stopped you from the Ka’bah nor would we war against you. Therefore, write (this is the treaty upon which) Muhammad the son of Abdullaah has agreed.”

(Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By Allaah, I am the Rasul of Allaah even though you belie me (anyway, for the sake of the treaty I accept your change of wording), Ali, write Muhammad the son of Abdullaah.” Then Suhayl said, “And accept this in the treaty that (whichever one of you comes to us, we shall not let him go back but) whichever one of us goes to you, even though he has accepted your Deen-religion, you have to return him to us.”

(Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ accepted this as well. On this occasion as well the story has been shortened, i.e. the author of Masabeh did not explain all the details of the treaty that Bukhari explains or this is another narration of Bukhari in which only this much was mentioned).
Anyway, when Rasulullaah ﷺ completed writing the treaty then he said to his companions, “Get up, go, now slaughter then shave your heads.” After this, (from Makkah) a few women became Muslim and came. Allaah ¤ revealed the following verse, ‘O you who believe, when the Muslim women come migrating to you...’ (Through this verse) the Muslims were forbidden from returning the women (to the disbelieving Makkans) and they were commanded to return their dowry.

After this Rasulullaah ﷺ returned to Madinah. (A few days later) a person of the Quraysh called Abu Baseer became Muslim (he left Makkah) and came to Rasulullaah ﷺ. The Quraysh sent two people to search for him. Rasulullaah ﷺ returned Abu Baseer to the two people (in accordance to the conditions of the treaty). Those two people took Abu Baseer and left (for Makkah) and when they reached Dhul Hulayfah (the first stop) and began to eat the dates they had, then Abu Baseer addressed one of them, “By Allaah, o person, I think that this sword of yours (is very good). Show it to me, I wish to see it.”

The person gave a chance to Abu Baseer to look at it (i.e. he gave the sword to Abu Baseer, and this was enough). Abu Baseer struck it on him and he was killed immediately and the second person (looking at this from afar) fled until he returned to Madinah (he returned and out of fear of being killed) he entered Maṣjid an Nabawi. (Looking at his condition) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This person seems to be in fear.” The person said, “(Yes), by Allaah, my companion was killed and there is no doubt that I will be killed too.” Then Abu Baseer also came.
(Looking at him) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “May his mother regret, (out of surprise), this Abu Baseer is igniting the fire of war. If only he had a helper.” When Abu Baseer heard this from Rasulullaah ﷺ, then he understood that Rasulullaah ﷺ will return him again to the disbelievers.

Subsequently, Abu Baseer left Madinah until he reached a locality on the shores of the ocean (out of fear for being returned once again to the disbelievers). The narrator says that Abu Jandal bin Suhayl .. also fled from the clutches of the disbelievers and came to join Abu Baseer. Then the condition was that (in Makkah) whichever person accepted Islaam would flee from the clutches of the Quraysh and would join Abu Baseer until (in a few days, with Abu Baseer) a large group gathered (by Abu Baseer) – those who fled from the Quraysh.

And by Allaah, whenever they heard that a caravan (trade or otherwise) of the Quraysh was heading for Shaam, they would follow it and kill them and take all their wealth and belongings. Finally, (when the routes of the Quraysh were closed due to these people and they became worried) they sent a person to Rasulullaah ﷺ (as their envoy) and through him made Rasulullaah ﷺ take an oath and gave the means of family realtions (and requested that he send someone to Abu Baseer and his companions and command them to come to Madinah and not to harm any of our caravans) and when he sends this command, then whichever person comes to you, he will be in peace.

Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ sent a message to Abu Baseer and his companions (and commanded them not to harm any caravan of the Quraysh and to come to me.) [Buhkari]

Three important conditions of the treaty of Hudaybiyyah

وعن البراء بن عازب قال : صالح النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم المشركين يوم الحديبية على ثلاثة أشياء : على أن من آتاه من المشركين رده إليهم ومن آتاهما من المسلمين لم يردوه وعلى أن يدخلها من قابل ويقيم بها ثلاثة أيام ولا يدخلها إلا بجلبان السلاح والسيف والقوس ونحوه فجاء أبو جندل يحجل في قيوده فرده إليهم ( متفق عليه )

687. Hadhrat Bara bin Aazib  narrates that Rasulullahaﷺ made a treaty at Hudaibiyyah upon three things. The first was that whichever of the polytheists (becomes a Muslim) and comes to Rasulullahaﷺ, Rasulullahaﷺ has to return him to them and whichever of the Muslims comes to the polytheists, they will not return him. The second was that Rasulullahaﷺ (cannot enter Makkah this year for Hajj and Umrah, but) next year he should come to Makkah and he can only stay for three days in Makkah. The third was that (next year) when they enter Makkah, then all their weapons, swords, bows and other things like it should be sheathed.

At this moment Abu Jandal came to Rasulullahaﷺ in the condition where there were chains around his hands and feet due to which he came jumping but Rasulullahaﷺ returned him to the polytheists. [Bukhari, Muslim]

The most important condition of the treaty of Hudaybiyyah

وعن أنس: أن قريشا صالحوا النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فاضطرروا على النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم أن من جاءنا منكم لم نرده علينا ومن جاءكم منا ردتموه علينا فقالوا: يا رسول الله أنكبت هذا؟ قال: "نعم إنه من ذهب منا إليهم فأبعدوا الله ومن جاءنا منهم سيعجل الله له فرجا ومخرجا". رواه مسلم

688. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that the Quraysh made a treaty with Rasulullah . Subsequently, they made Rasulullah  accept this condition that whichever person of yours comes to us, we shall not return him and whichever person from amongst us comes to you, you should return them to us. The companions said, “O Rasul of Allah, shall we write these conditions, i.e. do you accept these conditions?”

Rasulullah  said, “Yes, the thing is that whichever one of us goes to them, he will be such a person which Allah has taken far away from His mercy and whichever one of them comes to us (although we will be forced to return him at the time, but finally) Allah  will very quickly create means of expance, freedom and salvation for him.” [Muslim]

How did Rasulullah  take the pledge from women?

وعن عائشة قالت في بيعة النساء: إن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم كان يمتنعهن بهذه الآية: ( يا أيها النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم إذا جاءك المؤمنات
689. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates regarding the pledge of the women that Rasulullaah ﷺ would gauge the women (who came from Makkah and made apparent their acceptance of Islaam) in the light of this verse, ‘O Nabi, when the women come to pledge allegiance to you..’ subsequently, the women that would attest to the conditions mentioned in this verse, he would say to them, “I have taken the pledge from you.”

At the time of taking the pledge, Rasulullaah ﷺ would speak, but by Allaah, it never happened that he took the pledge from a woman and his hand touched her hand.”

Hadhrat Miswar .. and Hadhrat Marwaan narrate that those things which the Quraysh of Makkah made peace upon at the treaty of Hudaibiyyah, one of the things was that for ten years there will be no war (between the two groups) and this was also part of the treaty that there is a tied watch between us (i.e. our chests should remain free from trickery, planning, malice and corruption) and that we shall not steal on the quiet from each other or misappropriate. [Abu Dawud]

Prohibition of oppressing Dhimmis

691. Hadhrat Safwaan bin Sulaym from the sons of a number of companions, that a Sahabi from his father (a Sahabi) and he narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Remember, he who oppresses him (a non Muslim) with whom he had made a pact (like a Dhimmi or Musta’min) or he harmed his rights or he placed a burden more than his ability upon him (like taking jizya from a Dhimmi more than his capacity or the Musta’min that comes to the Islamic country for trade, to take more than a tenth of his wealth) or without his happiness and pleasure to take something from him, then I shall be proof against that person on the Day of Qiyaamat.” [Abu Dawud]

The Masnun method of taking the pledge from women collectively

And in the hadith: A companion of the Prophet (ﷺ) narrated from the sons of a number of the Prophet (ﷺ)'s companions, that a companion of the Prophet (ﷺ) narrated from Rasulullaah ﷺ saying: "If a woman makes a pledge to you and you decide to take it, then you should not take more than a tenth of her wealth."

692. Hadhrat Umaymah bint Ruqayqh radhiyallaahu anha narrates that she pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah ﷺ along with a few women (i.e. a few women pledged allegiance collectively) so he said to us, “(O women, I have taken the pledge on this that) which you have the ability (to practice upon) (i.e. out of affection and mercy, Rasulullaah ﷺ kept the pledge of allegiance limited to their ability to practice).” I said, “(Indeed) the amount of beneficence and mercy we show upon ourselves, Allaah and His Rasul-Messenger show much more than that upon us.” I then said, “O Rasul of Allaah, take the pledge from us.” By this she meant that shake our hands (i.e. hold our hands in yours at the time of taking the pledge).

He said, “My saying to 100 women is like saying to one woman (i.e. firstly, it is sufficient to only speak when taking the pledge from women that I have taken the pledge from you. There is no need to take their hands. Secondly, if a few women take the pledge collectively, then it is not necessary to make each woman say separately, but saying to one woman will be sufficient on behalf of all the women.).”

The conditions of the treaty of Hudaybiyyah and performing Umrah

عن البراء بن عازب قال: اعتمر صلى الله عليه وسلم في ذي القعدة، فأبى أهل مكة أن يدعوه يدخل مكة حتى قاضاهم على أن يدخل يعني من العام المقبل يقيم بها ثلاثة أيام فلما كتبوا الكتاب كتبوا: هذا ما قاضى عليه محمد رسول الله. قالوا: لا نقر بها فلو ألقك رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ما منعناك ولكن أنت محمد بن عبد الله فقال: "أنا رسول الله وأننا محمد بن عبد الله". ثم قال لعلي بن أبي طالب: "أمح: رسول الله" قال: "لا والله لا أمحوك أبدا فأخذ رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وليس يحسن يكتب فكتب: "هذا ما قاضى عليه محمد بن عبد الله: لا يدخل مكة بالسلاح إلا السيف في القراب، وألا يخرج من أهلها بأحد إن أراد أن يتبعه وأن لا يمنع من أصحابه أحدا إن أراد أن
693. Hadhrat Bara bin Aazib  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ left for Umrah (from Madinah) in Dhul Qa’dah 6 A.H but the people of Makkah stopped him from entering Makkah (i.e. they stopped Rasulullaah ﷺ and his companions from coming into Makkah) until Rasulullaah ﷺ made a treaty with the people of Makkah that he (next year) will come to Makkah and at that time too they would only stay for three days. Subsequently, when the treaty was written then (from the side of Rasulullaah ﷺ) the companions wrote, ‘This is a pact upon which Muhammad the Rasul-Messenger of Allaah has agreed’. The people of Makkah said (to Rasulullaah ﷺ when looking at these words), “We do not accept your Risalaat-Messengership, if we knew that you are the Rasul-Messenger of Allaah, then we would not have stopped you (from entering Makkah). However, (we only know this that) you are Muhammad and the son of Abdullaah. Therefore, instead of Muhammad the Rasul-Messenger of Allaah, write, Muhammad the son of Abdullaah.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I am the Rasul-Messenger of Allaah and Muhammad the son of Abdullaah as well.” Then he said to Hadhrat Ali  (who was writing the treaty), “Erase the words ‘Rasul-Messenger of Allaah’.” Hadhrat Ali  said, “By Allaah, I can never erase your name.” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ took the treaty (from the hands of Hadhrat Ali ) and despite not knowing how to write, he erased (the words ‘Rasul-Messenger of Allaah’) and wrote ‘this is the treaty upon which Muhammad the son of Abdullaah has agreed.’

(In the treaty were these conditions) that he (i.e. Rasulullaah ﷺ and his companions) will not enter Makkah with weapons but in the condition that the swords are sheathed and that if anyone of Makkah intends to go with you, then he will not be allowed to go to Makkah and that if any of your companions intends to stay in Makkah, then you cannot stop them (from staying in Makkah). Subsequently, (the following year) when Rasulullaah ﷺ came to Makkah and the time of three days for staying in Makkah elapsed (which was written in the treaty) then the people of Makkah came to Hadhrat Ali and said, “Tell your companion (i.e. Rasulullaah ﷺ) that the agreed time is finished, now go from our city.”

694. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that (one day) we were sitting in Masjid an Nabawi when Rasulullaah came out and said, “Go to the Jews.” Subsequently, we went with Rasulullaah until we reached the school of the Jews so Rasulullaah stood up and said, “O nation of Jews, become Muslims so that you could be safe (from the worries of the world and the punishment of the Aakhirat). You should know that the earth belongs to Allaah and His Rasul-Messenger (i.e. the creator and owner of the earth is Allaah and His Rasul is the deputy and rules it as such).

Therefore, (if you reject becoming Muslims then) listen well that I have intended to banish you from this land (the Arabian Peninsula). So, if any of you want to keep his possessions (which is not possible for him to carry, like land etc.) then he should sell it.” [Bukhari, Muslim] upon their wealth (and that was the Jews would be left to remain in Khaybar. Moreover, their date palms, farms and gardens would be left in their control.

695. Hadhrat Ibn Umar narrates that (one day) Amir ul Mu’mineen Hadhrat Umar Faruq stood up to deliver a sermon and (in this sermon) he said, “(You all know) Rasulullaah made an agreement with the Jews of Khaybar...

However, half of the produce would be taken from them.) and Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the Jews (at that time) that we shall keep you in Khaybar until Allaah ﷺ lets you stay. Therefore, I understand it appropriate to banish them now. Then when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ made the decision (that they should be banished) then a person of their tribe of Banu Abil Huqayq (who was an elder and leader of his tribe) came to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and said, “Amir ul Mu’mineen, will you banish us, whereas Muhammad ﷺ let us live in Khaybar and made an agreement regarding our wealth and possessions.

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, “Do you think that I forgot the statement of Rasulullaah ﷺ (in which he addressed you and said) that what will be your condition and what will you do when you are banished from Khaybar? And after night, at night, your camels will take you? (it was as though Rasulullaah ﷺ warned you of the time when you will have to leave Khaybar at night).”

(Hearing this) the person said, “This was said as a joke by Abul Qaasim.” Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, “O enemy of Allaah, You lie, (Rasulullaah ﷺ did not say this as a joke, but he informed you of the unseen as a miracle).”

Then Hadhrat Umar ﷺ banished the Jews and whatever was with them in the form of fruit like dates etc., the value of it was given to them in the form of wealth and provisions like rope and saddles etc. [Bukhari]

The bequest of Rasulullaah ﷺ and firm resolve

"وعن ابن عباس أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم أوصى بثلاثة : قال : " أخرجوا المشركين من جزيرة العرب وأجيزوا الوفد بنحو ما كنت أجزيه " . قال ابن عباس : وسكت عن الثالثة أو قال : فأسيتها ( متفق عليها )"

696. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ made a bequest of three things (at the time of his demise). Subsequently, he said, “Remove the polytheists from the Arabian Peninsula, and treat the emissaries and delegations as I treat them (i.e. as long as they remain with you, look after them and provide for their necessities of life).”

The narrator says that Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas kept silent about the third thing or Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas said that he forgot the third thing. [Bukhari, Muslim]

697. Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah says that Hadhrat Umar bin Khatataab said to him that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “I shall definitely remove the Christians and Jews from the Arabian Peninsula until none but Muslims are left (in the Arabian Peninsula).” [Muslim].

In one narration it comes that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “If my life remains then Allaah willing, I shall definitely remove the Jews and Christians from the Arabian Peninsula.”

Who did the work of banishing the Jews?

698. Hadhrat Ibn Umar narrates that the work of banishing the Jews and Christians from Hijaz (the Arabian Peninsula) was done by Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab. (Before him) when Rasulullaah overpowered the Jews at Khaybar then he intended to banish the Jews from Khaybar because the land upon which the Muslims attain power, that land becomes the land of Allaah, His Rasul-Messenger and the Muslims.

However, the Jews made this request to Rasulullaah that leave them (controlling Khaybar) upon this condition that they should make effort (i.e. all the work of looking after the farms and irrigation should be done by them) and (the produce) half of it will be their’s.

Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ said (in accepting their proposal), “We shall keep you in Khaybar until the time we want.” After this, they were left to stay in Khaybar until Hadhrat Umar  - in his era of his Khilafat – banished them to Tayma’ and Ariha’. [Bukhari, Muslim]
The recipients of Fay

Hadhrat Maalik bin Aus bin Hadathaan narrates that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab  said, “Allaah ﷺ granted His Rasul-Messenger a special thing regarding this wealth of fay’. None besides him was given this special thing.” Then Hadhrat Umar  recited this verse, ‘whatever fay’ Allaah has given to His Rasul-Messenger from them’ until the word ‘all pwerful’. (And he said), “Subsequently, this wealth became specific for Rasulullaah ﷺ from which Rasulullaah ﷺ used to give for his household expenses throughout the year.

After this, whatever remained, he used to spend in those avenues which are counted as spending in the path of Allaah (i.e. the rest of the wealth was spent for the benefit of the Muslims like weapons and horses etc. Moreover, he would help the poor and destitute whom he wished to.) [Bukhari, Muslim] 700. Hadhrat Umar .. narrates that the wealth of Banu Nadheer was of the type that Allaah ♨ gave His Rasul (without any striving), no Muslim ran his horse for it, nor his camel, therefore that wealth became special for Rasulullaah ♨. From there he would spend for his household needs throughout the year, then whatever was left, he spent in weapons and buying horses so that it could be used as provision in the path of Allaah (Jihaad).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Distribution of Fay

701. Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik .. narrates that whenever Fay’ came to Rasulullaah ♨ then he would distribute it that very day (among the needy), the married person would get two shares and the unmarried would get one. Subsequently, (once) I was also called and he gave me two shares because I was married. Then after me Ammar bin Yaasir was called (who was not married) and he gave him one share. \textit{[Abu Dawud]}

 وعن ابن عمر قال : رأيت رسول الله صلى الله عليه و سلم أول ما جاءه شيء بدأ بالمحررين . رواه أبو داود

 وعن عائشة : أن النبي صلى الله عليه و سلم أتي بطبيعة فيها خرز فقسمها للحررة والأمة قالت عائشة : كان أبي يقسم للحر والعبد . رواه أبو داود

703. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (once) a basket came to Rasulullaah ﷺ which was filled with precious stones. He distributed these among the free women and slave women. Hadhrat Ayesha says that my father, i.e. Hadhrat Abu Bakr, precious stones came to him then he distributed it amongst the free men and slaves. \textit{[Abu Dawud]}

The different stages of distributing Fay

وعن مالك بن أوس بن الحدثان قال: ذكر عمر بن الخطاب يوما الفيء فقال: ما أنا أحق بهذا الفيء منكم وما أحد منا بأحق به من أحد إلا أنا على منازلنا من كتاب الله عز و جل وقسم رسوله صلى الله عليه وسلم فالرجل وقدمه والرجل وبلاوه والرجل وعياله والرجل وحاجته. رواه أبو داود

704. Hadhrat Maalik bin Aus bin Hadathaan narrates that one day Hadhrat Umar  mentioned Fay’ and said, “I am not more worthy of this Fay’ and none of us are more worthy of this Fay’ than any other person. However, we are upon the places in accordance to the distribution of the book of Allaah and His Rasool. Subsequently, one is the person that is ahead (in the acceptance of Islaam), one is the person that has the qualities of striving and undergoing difficulty (in the path of Deen), one is the person that has family and one is a person that has needs.” [Abu Dawud]

The recipients’ of Zakaat, booty and Fay

وعنه قال: قرأ عمر بن الخطاب رضي الله عنه: (إنما الصدقات للفقراء والمساكين) حتى بلغ ( علم حكيم ) فقال: هذه لهؤلاء. ثم قرأ: ( وأعلموا أن ما غنمتم من شيء فأن لله خمسه والرسول ) حتى بلغ ( وابن السبيل ) ثم قال: هذه لهؤلاء. ثم قرأ: ( ما أفأ الله على رسوله من أهل القرى ) حتى بلغ ( للفقراء ) ثم قرأ: ( والذين جاؤوا من بعدهم ) ثم قال: هذه استوعبت المسلمين عامة فلئن عشت فليأتين الراعي وهو بسرو حمير نصيبه منها لم يعرق فيها جبينه. رواه في شرح السنة

705. Hadhrat Maalik bin Aus  narrates that (on one occasion) Hadhrat Umar  recited this verse (in which the recipients of Zakaat are mentioned), ‘Charity is only for the poor and destitute...’ he recited until ‘He is All Knowing, the Wise.’ And he said, “Getting it (the wealth of Zakaat) is the right of these people (mentioned in this verse, i.e. the poor and destitute etc.) He then recited this verse, ‘know that from whatever spoils of war you acquire, a fifth of it shall be for Allaah, His Rasool...’ and he recited until ‘and the travellers’ and he said this (fifth) is the right of these people (mentioned in the verse).

After this he recited this verse, ‘the booty that Allaah granted His Rasool from the people of the villages...’ until ‘the poor.’ Then he recited this verse, ‘those that cam after them.’ And said this verse has included all the Muslims. Therefore, if my life remains, then (in the boundaries of my Khilaafat no Muslim will remain that will not get his share to the extent that) this shepherd will also get a share of Fay’ that lives in Sarwihimyar (the last part of Yemen) whereas he will not even sweat to (get that wealth). [Sharh us Sunnah]
The possessions of Rasulullaah ﷺ and the recipients

وعنه قال : كان فيما احتج فيه عمر أن قال : كانت لرسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ثلاث صفايا بنو النضير وخيبر وفدك فأما بنو النضير فكانت حبسا لنوائبه وأما فدك فكانت حبسا لأبناء السبيل وأما خيبر فجزأها رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ثلاثة أجزاء : جزأين بين المسلمين وجزء نفقة لأهله فما فضل عن نفقة أهله جعله بين فقراء المهاجرين . رواه أبو داود

706. Hadhrat Maalik bin Aus ﷺ narrates that (when Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ and Hadhrat Ali ﷺ came to argue about the Fadak, then) the conclusion that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ drew was that he said, “Rasulullaah ﷺ had three properties (the income of which he used to fulfil his needs); Banu Nadheer, Khaybar and Fadak.

Subsequently, Banu Nadheer (after their banishment, the land that came into his control, the income from it) was specific for the expenses of Rasulullaah ﷺ (like hosting guests, weapons for the Mujahideen and buying horses etc.). The income of Fadak was specific for the travelers (helping them) and the income of Khaybar was divided into three parts. Two parts were divided amongst the Muslims and one part was kept for the expenses of his family and whatever was left after spending upon his family, it would be spent on the poor emigrants.” [Abu Dawud]

The justice and equity of Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Aziz 

"Hadhrat Mughirah bin Muqsim narrates that when Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Aziz bin Marwaan bin Hakam was made the Khalifah then he gathered the sons of marwan and said, “Rasulullaah  kept personal right over Fadak (land and property). The income of it (rent and produce) used to spent by him  (upon his family, poor and needy). From among them, (by spending upon) the small children of Banu Hashim he treated them well and he married off the unmarried men and women.

(Once) Hadhrat Fatimah radhiyallaahu anha requested Rasulullaah  that place the land of Fadak on my name. However, he turned down her request. The matter carried on

When Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ was made the khalifah, his practice was the same as the one that remained during the blessed life of Rasulullaah ﷺ (i.e. in accordance to the practise of Rasulullaah ﷺ, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ used to spend from the income of Fadak upon his (Rasulullaah ﷺ’s) family, upon the children of Banu Hashim and upon getting the unmarried men and women married) until Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ passed away and (after him) when Hadhrat Umar bin al Khatthaab ﷺ was made the Khalifah then his continuous practise remained as their’s (i.e. Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ) until Hadhrat Umar ﷺ passed away.

Then Marwaan (during the era of Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ or in his own era) classified it (Fadak) as his (and his heirs) property. Subsequently, (now) the property came to Umar bin Abdul Aziz bin Marwaan. However, I see that the property which Rasulullaah ﷺ did not give to his daughter, I cannot be deserving of it. Therefore, I make you witness to my decision that I return Fadak to the status it was, i.e. as in the era of Rasulullaah ﷺ, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ (just as the income was spent, now it will be spent in the same way and Fadak will not be the personal property of anyone).” [Abu Dawud]

Salaam

The beginning of Salaam

708. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Allaah  created Aadam  in His form (or his form) in the condition that his height was 60 yards. When Allaah created him, He said to him, ‘Go and greet that group.’ That group were angels sitting there. ‘Then listen to what reply they give you, (the reply they give you) will be the reply for you and your progeny.’

Subsequently, Hadhrat Aadam  (in carrying out the order of Allaah , went to the group of angels) and said, “Peace be upon you.” Rasulullaah  said, “In reply to the greeting of Aadam , the angels added, “And the mercy of Allaah.” Then he said, “Whichever person enters Jannah, he will be in the form of Aadam  and his height will be 60 yards. Then after him (Hadhrat Aadam ) the height of people will continuously decrease until they reach the present height.”

Which characteristic of Islaam is best?

709. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amrـ narrates that a person asked Rasulullahـ، “Which characteristic of Islaam is the best?” He said, “Feeding food and greeting every Muslim – those whom he recognizes as well as those he does not recognize.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The rights of Muslims

710. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrahـ narrates that Rasulullahـ said, “A Muslim has six rights upon another Muslim; when a Muslim is ill, the other Muslim should visit him, when a Muslim passes away, the other Muslim should participate in his Janaazah, when a Muslim calls him for meals, then his invitation should be accepted, when he meets (another Muslim) he should greet with Salaam, when a Muslim sneezes (and says ‘All praise is due to Allaah’) then he should reply (by saying, ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you), a Muslim should be a well wisher for another Muslim whether he is present or absent.” [Nasa’i]
Emphasis to make Salaam to each other

711. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṣ. narratives that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “You will never enter Jannah until you have Imaan and your Imaan will never be complete until you love one another (for the pleasure of Allaah).” Rasulullaah ﷺ also said, “Shall I not tell you a thing, which if you adopt, it will establish friendship amongst you, (it is) greet one another with Salaam.” [Muslim]

A few etiquettes of Salaam

712. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṣ. narratives that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Those who are mounted should greet those who are walking, those who are walking should greet those who are sitting and the small group should greet the large group.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

713. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṣ. narratives that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The young should greet the elderly, those passing by should greet the seated and the small group should greet the large group.” [Bukhari]

714. Hadhrat Anas Ṣ. narratives that (once) Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by a few lads so he greeted them with Salaam.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
One should not begin with Salaam to a non Muslim

715. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not initiate Salaam with the Jews and Christians and when you meet any of them on the road, then force them to take the narrow part of the road.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The evil of the Jews even in Salaam

716. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When the Jews greet you with Salaam then one of them says, ‘May death be upon you.’ Therefore, in reply say ‘And upon you.’” [Bukhari, Muslim]

717. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When the people of the book (the Jews and Christians) greet you with Salaam then say in reply, ‘And upon you.’” [Bukhari, Muslim]

718. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) a group of Jews requested permission to come to Rasulullaah ﷺ (they were given permission and when they came they said) ‘May death be upon you. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha says that she said, “May death come upon you and curses be upon you.”

Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Ayesha, Allaah is soft and He loves softness in every work.” I said, “Did you hear what words they used?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed (I heard and replied with) ‘and upon you.’” [Bukhari, Muslim]

In a narration of Bukhari, Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha said, “One day a few Jews came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, ‘May death be upon you.’ Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, “And upon you.” Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha replied, “May death be upon you and may the curses of Allaah be upon you and may the anger of Allaah fall upon you.”

Rasulullaah ﷺ said (when hearing what I said), “Ayesha, stop. And adopt softness. Stay away from being harsh and from evil speech.” Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha said, “Did you not hear what they said?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “And did you not hear what I replied? (you should know that) my Du’aa’ for them is accepted but their Du’aa’ for me is not accepted.”

In the narration of Muslim it is mentioned, “Ayesha, do not become one who speaks evil because Allaah does not like evil speech, nor one who goes out of his way to speak evil.”

The method of making Salaam to a mixed gathering

719. Hadhrat Usamah bin Zayd \( \mu \) narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by a gathering in which Muslims and polytheists were sitting mixed. Among the polytheists were idol worshippers and Jews. Subsequently, he (intended the Muslims) and greeted the people in the gathering.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The rights of the road

720. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri ﷺ narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ, “Stay away from sitting on the road.” (Hearing this) some companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, there is no way out for us but to sit on the road. (Therefore) we sit on the road and speak. (i.e. there is no scope for this at home that is why we sit in the road and consult and discuss worldly and Deeni-religious matters).

Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you reject any other form than sitting (i.e. when you are forced) then fulfil the rights of the road.” The companions asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, what are the rights of the road?” He said, “Lowering the gaze (not looking at Haraam), staying away from giving harm, replying to Salaam and commanding the good and forbidding evil.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
721. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates regarding this subject matter (discussed in the Hadith above) from Rasulullaah  that he (also said) to show the way to the person who does not know (is also a right). This narration has been narrated by Abu Dawud after the narration of Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri in this way.

722. Hadhrat Umar  narrates from Rasulullaah  regarding this subject that (he also said this, one right is also that) the oppressed should be helped and the one who lost his way should be told the way. This narration has been narrated by Abu Dawud after the narration of Abu Hurayrah in this way.

Six rights liked by Allaah

723. Hadhrat Ali  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “There are six rights liked by Allaah for every Muslim upon every Muslim; when he meets a Muslim he should greet with Salaam, when a Muslim invites one (for meals or any other purpose) then he should accept, when a Muslim sneezes one should say ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you’, when a Muslim is ill one should visit him, when a Muslim passes away then one should follow his Janaazah and he should like for his Muslim brother what he likes for himself.”

[Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

The Masnun method of making Salaam and giving reply

724. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn  narrates that (one day) a person came to Rasulullaah  and said, ‘Peace be upon you.’ Rasulullaah  replied to his greeting. The person then sat down and Rasulullaah  said, “There are ten rewards for him.” Then another person came and he said, “Peace be upon you and the mercy of Allaah.” Rasulullaah  replied. When he sat down he said, “For him are twenty rewards.” After this another person came and said, “Peace be upon you and the mercy of Allaah and His blessings.” Rasulullaah  replied.

When he sat down Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “For him there are thirty rewards.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

725. Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Anas  has narrated a Hadith from Rasulullaah ﷺ similar in meaning to the above one in which the following extra words are mentioned by Mu’aadh. ‘Then a fourth person came and said, ‘Peace be upon you and the mercy of Allaah and His blessings and forgiveness.’ (In reply to the Salaam) he said, ‘For him are forty good deeds.’

He also said, “In this way there is increase in reward (i.e. as the person greeting increases the words, the reward will increase proportionately). [Abu Dawud]

The virtue of being first in Salaam

726. Hadhrat Abu Umamah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person closest to Allaah is the one who begins with Salaam.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]
Making Salaam to women

727. Hadhrat Jareer  narrates that (once) Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by women and he greeted them with Salaam.

[Ahmad]

Note:
It is Masnun for Mahaarim and for the husband and wife to greet one another with Salaam. However, there is fear of fitnah in greeting strange women. Therefore, the scholars have stated that this practise is specific to Rasulullaah ﷺ. However, if the man and woman are so old that there is no fear of fitnah, then to greet with Salaam is permissible.

It is sufficient for one person to make Salaam and reply on behalf of a group

728. Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Talib  narrates, “When a number of people pass by, then the Salaam of one of them is sufficient on behalf of all. Similarly, those who are seated, if one of them replies then it is sufficient on behalf of all of them.

This narration has been transmitted in Bayhaqi in Marfu’ in Shu’ab ul Imaan (i.e. according to the narration of Bayhqi these are the words of Rasulullaah ﷺ, not those of Hadhrat Ali ).

This narration has been transmitted in Mauquf form in Abu Dawud. After mentioning the chain he said that this narration has been narrated by Hasan bin Ali in Marfu’ form. This Hasan bin Ali (is not Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali bin Abi Talib, but) the teacher of Abu Dawud.

Do not imitate others in making Salaam

729. Hadhrat Amr bin Shu’ayb narrates from his father from his grandfather (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ..) that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who imitates others is not of us, do not imitate the Jews or the Christians, the greeting of the Jews is to indicate with the fingers and the greeting of the Christians is to indicate with the palms.” [Tirmidhi]

Make Salaam upon every meeting

730. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you meet your Muslim brother, then greet him with Salaam. Then if a tree or a wall or a boulder comes between them, then you meet again, then greet (again) with Salaam.” [Abu Dawud]

Greet the residents of the home

731. Hadhrat Qatadah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you enter home then greet the people of the house and when you leave home then bid farewell with Salaam.” [Bayhaqi]

732. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “My son, when you meet your house folk then greet with Salaam, the Salaam will be a means of goodness and blessings (descending upon) you and your house folk.”

[Tirmidhi]
Selected Chapters (MunTakhab Abwaab)  Part 1

Make Salaam before speaking

733. Hadhrat Jaabir Ṭ. narrates that Rasulullah ᵉ said, “Salaam is before speech.” (i.e. when meeting, first make Salaam then speak). [Tirmidhi]

The Salaam of the era of ignorance

734. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn Ṭ. narrates that in the era of ignorance we used to say, “May Allaah keep the eyes cool on account of you and may you be happy in the morning.’ Then when Islaam came, we were prohibited from saying this.” [Abu Dawud]

How does one reply to the Salaam given by an absent person?

735. Hadhrat Ghaalib says that (one day) we were seated at the door of Hadhrat Hasan Basri when suddenly a person came and explained that my father narrated from his father that my father sent me to Rasulullah ᵉ and said, “Go to Rasulullah ᵉ and give Salaam to him.” My grandfather explains that I went to Rasulullah ᵉ and said, “My father gives you Salaam.”

Hearing this, Rasulullah ᵉ said, “Upon you and upon your father is Salaam.” [Abu Dawud]

The method of writing Salaam in letters

736. Abul ‘Ala Hadrami says that Hadhrat ‘Ala Hadrami  was a governor on behalf of Rasulullaah ﷺ. Whenever he wrote a letter to Rasulullaah ﷺ, then he would begin with his name. (i.e. he wrote like this, ‘from ‘Ala Hadrami to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Peace be upon you). [Abu Dawud]

Two counsels for a writer

737. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When any of you write a letter then place it on the earth (or put sand on it) because this action fulfils the need properly.” [Tirmidhi]

738. Hadhrat Zayd bin Thaabit  narrates that (one day) he went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and there was a scribe sitting before him at the time. He said to the scribe that place the pen on your ear because this action is a great reminder. [Tirmidhi]
It is permissible to learn the language of others

739. Hadhrat Zayd bin Thaabit  narrates that Rasulullaah  commanded me to learn Hebrew and in one narration it is mentioned that Rasulullaah  commanded me to learn the speech of the Jews and he said that I am not contented regarding the Jews and Christians in matters of writing. Zayd bin Thaabit says that after this command of Rasulullaah , not even half a month passed and I learnt the language of the Jews.

Subsequently, whenever Rasulullaah  wanted to write a letter to the Jews, then I would write it and whenever the Jews sent a letter to him, then I would read the letter to him.”
[Tirmidhi]

Make Salaam when meeting and when departing

740. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “When any of you reach a gathering then first make Salaam, then if you want to sit, then sit. Also, when you stand up from the gathering, then greet with Salaam at that time as well because the first greeting is not more rightful than the second.”  [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]
When is it a source of goodness to sit in the road?

741. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṭ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There is no goodness in sitting on the road except for the person it is good who shows the way, who replies to Salaam, (when seeing Haraam) he closes his eyes and he helps the one carrying a load.” [Baghawi]

The incident of the creation of Hadhrat Aadam Ṭ and the beginning of Salaam

742. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṭ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When Allaah ☪ created Hadhrat Aadam Ṭ and blew soul into him then he sneezed. He said, ‘All praise is due to Allaah’. In this way, through the ability and permission of Allaah, he praised Allaah. In reply to his praise, Allaah said, ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you.’

Then Allaah said, ‘Aadam, go to that group of angels sitting there and say, ‘Peace be upon you’ (subsequently, Hadhrat Aadam Ṭ went to those angels and greeted them with Salaam). In reply, the angels said, ‘Peace be upon you and the mercy of Allaah.’ After this, Hadhrat Aadam Ṭ came to his Rabb (i.e. he returned to the place where Allaah spoke to him) and Allaah said, ‘This is the mutual greeting for you and your progeny.’ Allaah ☪ then said to him in the condition that both His hands were closed, ‘Whichever hand you like, choose it.’

Hadhrat Aadam  liked the right hand of his Rabb and both the hands of My Rabb, the right is blessed. Allaah  then opened His hand and Hadhrat Aadam  saw that in it was the pictures of Aadam and the progeny of Aadam. He asked, “Rabb, who is this?” Allaah replied, “These are your children.” And Hadhrat Aadam  also saw that the age of every Muslim was written between his eyes.

His gaze then fell on such a person who was the brightest of all or he was amongst the brightest. (looking at this person) Hadhrat Aadam  said, ‘My Rabb, who is this?’ Allaah replied that this is your son Dawud and I have written his age to be 40.

Hadhrat Aadam  said, ‘Rabb, increase his age a bit.’ Allaah said, “This is what I have written for him.” Hadhrat Aadam  said, “Rabb, (if his age has been written, then) I give him sixty years of my life.” Allaah said, “You know what you do.” (i.e. you have a choice in the matter).

Rasulullaah  said that after this Hadhrat Aadam  remained in Jannah until Allaah wanted. Then He brought him down to earth and Hadhrat Aadam  counted the years of his life (when his age reached 940, then) the angel of death came to him (to take his soul), Hadhrat Aadam  said to him, ‘You have hurried. My age was stipulated to be 1000.’ The angel said, ‘(This is true) but you have given 60 years to your son Dawud  .’
Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ rejected his, therefore his children also reject. Also, Hadhrat Aadam ﷺ forgot the prohibition, therefore his children also forget. Rasulullaha ﷺ said that from that day the command of writing and making witnesses was given.” [Tirmidhi]

Making Salaam to a group of women

أَسْمَاءُ بِنْثُكَ بِيْنَانَا النَّبِيْ - صلِى الله عليه وسلم - فِي نِسْوَةٍ فَسَلَّمُ عَلَيْنَا.

743. Hadhrat Asma’ bint Yazid narrates that (one day) Rasulullaha ﷺ passed by us women and he greeted us with Salaam. [Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah, Daarimi]

Make Salaam in abundance and earn reward

الطفل بن أبي بن كعب أخبره : أنه كان يأتي عبد الله بن عمر فيغدو معه إلى السوق فإذا غدونا إلى السوق لم يمر عبد الله على سقاط ولا صاحب بيعه ولا مسكيًّن ولا أحد إلا سلم عليهم قال الطفل : فجئت عبد الله بن عمر يوماً فاستتبعنا إلى السوق قال : فقلت : و ما تصنع بالسوق و إنه لا تقف على البيع و لا تسأل عن السلع ولا تسأل بها ولا تجلس في مجالس السوق قال : و أقول : أجلس هنا هنذا نتحدث فقال لي عبد الله بن عمر : يا أبا بطن و كان الطفل ذا بطن إنما نغدو من أجل السلام نسلم على من لقينا

744. Hadhrat Tufayl bin Ubayy bin Ka’b explains that he used to go to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ and he used to go with him to the marketplace in the morning. Hadhrat Tufayl says that when we used to go to the market, then whichever trader, whichever poor person and whichever person Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar passed, he would greet them with Salaam. Hadhrat Tufayl says that one day (according to habit) I came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and he took me along with him to the market. I said to him, “What will you go and do in the market? You do not stay at any spot to buy or sell anything, nor do you ask about anything to buy, nor do you do any transaction, nor do you sit in the gatherings of the market place (therefore, better than going to the market is that) so sit with us and speak to us. Hadhrat Tufayl says that (hearing this) Hadhrat Abdullaah said to me, “O one of a big belly, (the narrator says that the stomach of Tufayl was big), (what, do you understand that we go to the marketplace in order to buy and sell or for any other reason, no, but) we only go with the intention to make Salaam to every person we meet (and in this way we go to the marketplace and earn reward).”

[Maalik, Bayhaqi]

The greatest miser

745. Hadhrat Jaabir .. narrates that a person came to Rasulullah ﷺ and said, “There is a date palm of a particular person in my garden and the presence of the tree there gives me difficulty (because the person comes now and again into my garden due to his tree). Subsequently, Rasulullah ﷺ called him and said, “Sell your tree to me.” He said, “I do not sell it.” He replied, “(If you feel it to be a fault in selling the tree to me, then) gift it to me.” He said, “I do not want to gift it.” He replied, “Very well, sell it to me in lieu of a handful of dates which you will get in Jannah.” He replied, “I do not sell it even for that.” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “I have never seen a bigger miser than you except for the one who is miserly in greeting with Salaam.” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

An easy way of staying away from pride

746. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  göre narrates from Rasulullah ﷺ that he said, “The one who begins with Salaam is pure of pride.” [Bayhaqi]

[565]
The Masnun way of seeking permission

747. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri narrates that (one day) Hadhrat Abu Musa Ash’ari came to us and said that Hadhrat Umar sent a person to me to call me. When I came to his door, then I greeted thrice with Salaam but I did not get the reply. Subsequently, I returned, then (when I met him) Hadhrat Umar asked me, “What stopped you from coming to me?” I said, “I came to you and greeted with Salaam thrice at your door but you did not reply (nor did any servant of yours reply) therefore, I went away because Rasulullaah said to me that “When any of you (go to the house of another and stand at the door) he should request permission thrice and if he does not get permission he should return.” Hadhrat Umar heard this and said, “Bring a witness for this Hadith (i.e. present a witness that this is the statement of Rasulullaah)”. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri says that I stood up with Hadhrat Abu Musa and went to give testimony by Hadhrat Umar. [Bukhari, Muslim]
The method of seeking permission for special people

748. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  said to me, “The permission for coming to me, its method is that you lift the curtain and hear me. (You come) until I stop you.” [Muslim]

When introducing, say one’s full name

749. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that (one day) regarding a matter of debt that was upon my father, I went to Rasulullaah , so (in order to inform of my coming), I knocked at the door. He asked from inside, “Who is there?” I said, “Me.” Hearing this he said, “Me, Me.” As though he thought my answering in this way was wrong.” (Because by saying the word ‘me’ the person does not recognize the one who came.) [Bukhari, Muslim]

A person who has been called should also seek permission

750. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) I entered with Rasulullaah  (into his home) and he found a bowl of milk at home. He said to me, “Abu Hurayrah, go to the people of Suffah and call them. Subsequently, I went to them, called and brought them. When they came, they sought permission. Rasulullaah  permitted them and they came inside. [Bukhari]

Note:
If the invited comes with the messenger, there is no need to seek permission, otherwise the invited should seek permission.
Reprimanding upon not seeking permission

751. Hadhrat Kaldah bin Hanbal  narrates that Safwaan bin Umayyah sent me with milk, the kid of a deer and cucumbers to Rasulullaah ﷺ. At that time Rasulullaah ﷺ was staying at the higher part of Makkah (called Mu’alla). Kaldah says that he came to him (and before entering) he did not greet with Salaam, nor did he seek permission. Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, “Go back (i.e. exit here and go to the door) and stand there and say, “Peace be upon you, May I enter?” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

The invited person coming with the messenger is permission

752. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When any of you are called and he comes with (the one who was called) then he’s coming along is permission.” [Abu Dawud]
In another narration of Abu Dawud it is mentioned that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A person sending someone to call a person is permission from his side.”

mmm

Where should the one seeking permission stand?

753. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr ا. ت. narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ would come to the door of someone, then he would not stand facing the door (so that his gaze does not fall on the house folk), but he would stand on the right or left and say, “Peace be upon you, peace be upon you.” The reason for not standing in front of the door is that in that time there was no veil/curtain at the door. [Abu Dawud]
The importance and wisdom of seeking permission

754. Hadhrat Ataa bin Yasaar narrates that a person asked Rasulullaah , “Should I seek permission even to go to my mother?” He said, “Yes, (because it is possible that at some time the limbs of her body that are not permissible for the son to see are open). The person said, “I live with her (i.e. I live with my mother in the same house, in this case, what necessity is there to seek permission? It is as though the person thought that seeking permission is for the stranger who comes sometimes). Rasulullaah  said, “When you want to go to her, then seek permission and go.” He said, “I am the servant of my mother.” (i.e. I look after my mother and in order to serve her I go time and again). Rasulullaah  said, “In every condition, seek permission and go (even if seeking permission maybe by means of clearing the throat, the sound of a footstep or by speaking aloud). Do you like to see your mother naked? (i.e. in the case where you go without seeking permission it is possible that at that time she is naked and your gaze falls upon her). The person said, “(Never).” Rasulullaah  said, “Seek permission and go to her.” [Imam Maalik has transmitted this narration in Mursal form]
Giving permission by clearing the throat

755. Hadhrat Ali Ṭ️ narrates that I used to come to Rasulullaah ﷺ at nights as well. Subsequently, when I would come at night, then in order to permit me, he would clear his throat. [Nasa’i]

The one who does not make Salaam first should not be given permission

756. Hadhrat Jaabir Ṭ️ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who does not greet first, do not permit him to come to you.” [Bayhaqi]
Musaafaha (Shaking hands) and Mu’aanaqah (Hugging)

It is Masnun to make Musaafaha when meeting

757. Hadhrat Qatadah (Tabi’i) says that I asked Hadhrat Anas , “Did the companions of Rasulullaah  (when meeting one another after making Salaam) shake their hands? He said, “Yes.” [Bukhari]

It is the Sunnah of Rasulullaah r to kiss children

758. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  kissed Hasan bin Ali so a companion, Aqra’ bin Haabis, who was present there said that he has ten children but he did not kiss any of them. Rasulullaah  heard this and said, “The one who does not show mercy will not be shown mercy” (i.e. the person who does not show mercy to his children or to the creation, Allaah will not show mercy to him).” [Bukhari, Muslim]
Section Three

The Du’aa’ of Musaafaha and praising Allaah

759. Hadhrat Bara bin Azib  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When two Muslims meet and shake hands, then both of them are forgiven before they separate.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah] In the narration of Abu Dawud it is mentioned that when two Muslims meet, shake hands, praise Allaah and seek forgiveness from Allaah, then both of them are forgiven.

Note:

From the narration of Abu Dawud it is learnt that when those shaking hands seek forgiveness from Allaah then they are forgiven. Therefore, at the time of meeting, each one should say, ‘May Allaah forgive us and you.’ And when a person enquires about your well being, you should say, ‘All praise is due to Allaah.’
Prohibition of bowing when meeting and permission for Musaafaha

760. Hadhrat Anas ḥ narrates that a person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, when any of us meets his companion or friend, then should he bow?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “No.” The person said, “Shall we hug and kiss?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “No.” He said, “Shall we take each other’s hand and shake it.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes.” [Tirmidhi]

What is complete visiting and complete Salaam?

761. Hadhrat Abu Umamah ḥ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The complete visiting of the sick is that you place your hand on his forehead or on his hand, then ask him regarding his condition. The complete Salaam that you make amongst yourselves is to make Musaafaha (i.e. when you greet, then you should also shake hands so that the Salaam is complete).” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

It is permissible to hug and kiss at the time of meeting

762. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (once) Zayd bin Haritha ḥ (who is a famous Sahabi and was an adopted son of Rasulullaah ﷺ, on return from a battle) reached Madinah. At that time, Rasulullaah ﷺ came to my house. Subsequently, Hadhrat Zayd came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and knocked at the door, so Rasulullaah ﷺ pulled his sheet over his naked body and went outside to meet Zayd (i.e. at that time there was no other clothing besides the loin cloth on Rasulullah ﷺ, but he came to the door in this condition), by Allaah, I never saw him naked before this or after this (i.e. it never happened that he came outside while naked in order to meet someone). He then hugged Hadhrat Zayd and kissed him. [Tirmidhi]

mmm

763. Hadhrat Ayyub bin Bushayr narrates from a person of Banu Anazah that he explained that I asked Hadhrat Abu Dharr, “When you people used to meet Rasulullah ﷺ, then would you make Musaafaha as well with him?” Hadhrat Abu Dharr said that whenever I met Rasulullah ﷺ, then Rasulullah ﷺ would make Musafaaha with me. And the incident of one day is that once Rasulullah ﷺ, in order to call me, he sent a person. I was not at home at the time. When I returned home I was informed. Subsequently, I went to him. At the time he was sitting on an elevated level. He hugged me, and this hugging was very good, excellent (in terms of enjoyment and happiness compared to Musaafaha).” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

Welcoming the guest

764. Hadhrat Ikramah bin Abu Jahl .. narrates that when I went to Rasulullah ﷺ in order to accept Islaam, then (seeing me) he said, “Those who migrate mounted (towards Allaah and His Rasul), welcome to them.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

A way of love for Nabi ﷺ

765. Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudayr ﷺ narrates that a person of the Ansaar was talking to people and there was purity (in his nature) and he had a happy nature. Subsequently, he was making the people laugh when Rasulullaah ﷺ, (out of amusement) poked him using a stick. He said to Rasulullaah ﷺ, “Give me recompense for the poking.” He said, “Take recompense from me.” He said, “I do it on your body and it was not on my body (if I poke you on top of your clothing then the recompense will not be complete). Subsequently, when Rasulullaah ﷺ lifted his garment, then he held onto his side and began kissing the side of Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, I only wanted this (to kiss your blessed body).” [Abu Dawud]

Hugging and kissing at the time of meeting

766. Hadhrat Sha’bi (tabi’i) narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ met Hadhrat Ja’far bin Abi Talib so he hugged him and kissed him between the eyes. [Abu Dawud, Bayhaqi]

767. Hadhrat Ja’far bin Abi Talib narrates regarding his return from Abyssinia that we left from Abyssinia and reached Madinah and came to meet Rasulullaah ﷺ, so he hugged me and said, “I do not know whether I am happier at the conquest of Khaybar or upon the return of Ja’far. Coincidentally, Hadhrat Ja’far returned when Khaybar was conquered. [Sharh us Sunnah]
Kissing the hands and feet

768. Hadhrat Zaari’... who was part of the delegation of Abdul Qays, says that when we reached Madinah, then we quickly dismounted our conveyances (and came to Rasulullaah ﷺ) and we kissed the hands and feet of Rasulullaah ﷺ. [Abu Dawud]²

It is permissible to kiss ones daughter after she attains puberty

769. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that in another report regarding habits, mannerisms that in speaking and conversing, Faatimah was most similar to Rasulullaah ﷺ (i.e. Hadhrat Faatimah radhiyallaahu anha was similar to Rasulullaah ﷺ in these things). Subsequently, when Hadhrat Faatimah would come to Rasulullaah ﷺ, then Rasulullaah ﷺ would stand up and turn to her, then he would hold her hand and kiss (i.e. he would kiss her on the forehead between the eyes), then he would seat her on his place. Similarly, when Rasulullaah ﷺ would go to Hadhrat

² There is another Hadith regarding kissing the feet in Mustadrak Haakim vol.4 p.172, Chapter on doing good and maintaining ties. Both these narrations are not of a high standing. One narrator of the Abu Dawud narration is Maqtu’ (i.e. he narrates Maqtu’ narrations) and Dhahabi says regarding the narration of Haakim that it is Waahi. In both of these narrations, the action of new Muslims has been overlooked. The delegation of Abdul Qays came to meet Rasulullaah ﷺ immediately after accepting Islaam. It is clearly mentioned in the beginning of the narration of Haakim that a person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, show me something that will increase my conviction.” He said, “Go and call that tree.” So kissing the head is Sunnah. Rasulullaah ﷺ kissed the head of Hadhrat Ja’far ﺔ. In Durr e Mukhtaar it is explained, ‘In Bazzaaziyyah it states that it is better to kiss the head of a scholar and generally it is not good to kiss the hands and feet because by kissing the hands, a shape like that of Ruku’ is adopted and in kissing the feet, a shape like that of Sajdah is formed. Moreover, nowadays people do not kiss for blessings but out of honour. The jurists have clearly stated that it is Haraam to bow low on the ground out of honour, therefore, it is best to refrain from kissing the hands and feet. And Allaah knows best. [Sa’eed Ahmad Palanpuri] Faatimah, then she would stand upon seeing him and hold his hand and kiss him and seat him on her place. [Abu Dawud]

mmm

770. Hadhrat Bara‘ ﷺ narrates that (once) Hadhrat Abu Bakr came with him home upon return from a battle and he saw that his daughter Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha was lying down with fever. Subsequently, Hadhrat Abu Bakr came to her and asked, “Daughter, how are you feeling?” and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (out of affection and love) kissed Hadhrat Ayesha on her cheek. [Abu Dawud]

Children are the gift and sustenance from Allaah

771. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) a child was brought to Rasulullaah ﷺ. He kissed the child and said, “Know well, these children are a cause of miserliness and cowardice but there is no doubt that children are a gift of Allaah and are provision.” [Sharh us Sunnah]

mmm
It is the Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ to show love to grandchildren

772. Hadhrat Ya’la  says that (one day) Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Husayn came running to Rasulullaah ﷺ, so he hugged them both and said, “Children are a means of miserliness and cowardice.” [Ahmad]

mmm
The goodness of Musaafahah and giving gifts

773. Hadhrat Ataa Khurasaani narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Make Musaafahah with each other, through it hatred and malice is removed and send gifts to one another, through it love is increased and enmity is removed.”

[Maalik]

The virtue of four Rak’ats before the afternoon and Musaafahah

774. Hadhrat Bara’ bin Aazib  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who performs 4 rak’ats before Zuhr, it is as though he performed them on the night of power and when 2 Muslims meet and make Musaafahah, then no sin remains that is not shaken off.”

[Bayhaqi]
Standing

If there is a need it is permissible to stand to welcome someone

775. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri narrates that when the Banu Qurayzah came down to accepting the decision of Hadhrat Sa’d, then Rasulullaah sent a person to Hadhrat

Sa’d (in order to call him) and Hadhrat Sa’d was close by. Subsequently, he came mounted on a donkey. When he reached close to the Masjid, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “O Ansaar, stand up and go to your leader.” (i.e. stand up quickly and go to him and help him in dismounting so that blood does not flow from his wound due to moving).

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The person who sat first on a spot is most worthy of it

776. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “When a person sits at a place, then another person should not make him get up and sit there except if he makes space and gives place to the one that came (so that no need arises to make him get up).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

777. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who sits on a place then gets up, then returns there, then he will be most deserving of that place.” [Muslim]
Prohibition of standing for someone out of honour

778. Hadhrat Anas \( ^{\text{a}} \) narrates that there was no one more beloved and honoured by the Sahabah than Rasulullaah \( ^{\text{c}} \). However, (despite this love and relationship) whenever the Sahabah saw Rasulullaah \( ^{\text{c}} \) they would not stand up because they knew that Rasulullaah \( ^{\text{c}} \) did not like this standing up. [Tirmidhi]
779. Hadhrat Mu’awiyah Ṣ. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who likes that others stand in front of him, he should prepare his abode in the fire.” (i.e. his abode is hell). [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

780. Hadhrat Abu Umamah narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ came out leaning on a staff so we stood up out of respect. He said, “Do not stand up like the non Arabs do such that some of them honour others.”

[Abu Dawud]

781. Hadhrat Sa’eed bin Abul Hasan (a great tabi’i and the brother of Hadhrat Hasan Basri) says that (one day) Hadhrat Abu Bakr Ṣ. came to us to testify (in a case), so one person stood up from his place out of respect (so that he could sit on his place) but he rejected sitting there and said that Rasulullaah ﷺ forbade this. Moreover, Rasulullaah ﷺ also forbade that a person rubs his hands on a cloth of someone which he has not permitted for them to wear.

[Abu Dawud]

The person who gets up from a gathering with the intention of returning should leave a sign

782. Hadhrat Abu Darda Ṣ. narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ would come and we would sit around him, then he got up with the intention of returning, then he would remove his shoes and place it there (and go barefoot) or he would leave something (like a cloth etc) at that place, from this his companions would recognise that he wishes to return. Subsequently, they would sit at their places. [Abu Dawud]

Do not sit in between two people

783. Hadhrat Abdullah bin Amr  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “It is not permissible for a person to come and sit in between two people without their permission.” (i.e. he should not sit between them).

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

784. Hadhrat Amr bin Shu’ayb narrates from his father from his grandfather that Rasulullaah  said, “Do not sit between two people (that were seated from before) except with their permission.” [Abu Dawud]
Getting up upon the completion of the gathering

785. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah \( \text{поведал} \) narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was sitting with us in the Masjid and he was speaking to us. Then when he stood up from the gathering, we would also stand up and we would stand for a long time until we saw that Rasulullaah ﷺ going into one of the houses of his wives (then we would spread). [Bayhaqi]

Making place in the gathering for those coming

786. Hadhrat Waathila bin Khattaab  narrates that (one day) a person came to Rasulullaah ﷺ when he was in the Masjid so Rasulullaah ﷺ moved from his place for that person and the person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, there is enough place to sit.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is the right of a Muslim that when he sees his Muslim brother coming, then he should leave his place and make place for him (overlooking the shortage of space).” [Bayhaqi]

Sitting, sleeping and walking Hitting ones hem and sitting

787. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that he saw Rasulullaah  in the courtyard of the Ka’bah hitting his hem using his hands and sitting. [Bukhari]

Placing one foot upon the other and lying down

788. Hadhrat Abbaad bin Tamim (tabi’i) narrates from his uncle (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zayd Ansaari ) that he said, “I saw Rasulullaah  lying down on his back in the Masjid such that his one foot was placed upon the other.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

While wearing a lungi, one should not lie down placing one leg up and the other leg over it

789. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah  forbade that a person places one foot over the other foot that is lifted and lies down on his back. [Muslim]

790. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “You should not lie down on your back such that one foot is placed up and the other foot is placed over it.”

[Muslim]
It is prohibited to walk haughtily

791. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A person was walking haughtily with two striped sheets and his carnal self put him into deception and looking up at himself such that the earth swallowed him. Subsequently, he will be sunk into the earth until the Day of Qiyaamat.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
A few permissible ways of sitting

792. Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah .. narrates that I saw Rasulullaah ﷺ sitting while leaning against a pillow that was placed on his left. [Tirmidhi]

mmm

793. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri .. narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ would sit in the Masjид, then he would make a circle with both his hands (i.e. he would place both shins up and circle them using his hands). [Razeen]

mmm

794. Hadhrat Qayla bint Makhrama radhiyallaahu anha narrates that she saw Rasulullaah ﷺ sitting in the Masjid in the Qurfusa position (i.e. he was sitting in such a way that both his thighs were joined to his stomach and both knees were placed up. His hands were placed upon them in such a way that his right palm was in his left armpit and his left palm was placed in his right armpit. His forehead was placed on his hands). Qayla says that when I saw Rasulullaah ﷺ sitting with great humility and simplicity, I began to tremble out of awe. [Abu Dawud]

[591]
795. Hadhrat Jaibir bin Samurah  narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ would sit after Fajr Salaah, then he would sit cross legged and he would sit in this way until the sun would become quite bright. [Abu Dawud]

The way of lying down of Rasulullaah ﷺ on journey

796. Hadhrat Abu Qatadah  narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ would dismount at a place at night to rest and sleep while travelling, then he would lie on his right side and when he would dismount close to morning, then he would (lie down in this way) that he would place one of his arms up and he would place his head in his palm. [Sharh us Sunnah]

The mattress of Rasulullaah ﷺ

797. A son of Hadhrat Umm e Salamah radhiyallaahu anha says that the mattress of Rasulullaah ﷺ (upon which he rested) was like the cloth placed on his grave and the Masjid would be close to his head side. [Abu Dawud]

mmm

Prohibition of lying on ones stomach

798. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ saw a person lying down upside down (i.e. on his stomach) so he said, “Allaah ﷺ does not like lying down in this manner.” [Tirmidhi]

[592]
799. Hadhrat Ya’eesh bin Tikhfah bin Qays Ghifaari narrates from his father who was of the companions of the Suffah that he narrates that (one day) I lied down on my stomach because of pain in the chest when I suddenly felt someone shaking me with his foot and saying, “Allaah severely dislikes lying down in this way.” I turned around and saw that the one shaking me using his foot was Rasulullaah ☪. [Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah]

mmm

Prohibition of lying down on an unprotected roof

800. Hadhrat Ali bin Shaybaan ☪ narrates that Rasulullaah ☪ said, “The one who sleeps at night on such a roof that does not have a covering (and in one narration, around which there is no roof), then I am free of responsibility (of his protection).” (i.e. that person has come out of the protection of Allaah) [Abu Dawud]

mmm

801. Hadhrat Jaabir ☪ narrates that Rasulullaah ☪ forbade from sleeping on such a roof that does not have four walls. [Tirmidhi]

mmm

Prohibition of sitting in the middle of a gathering

802. Hadhrat Hudhayfah ☪ narrates that the person who sits in the centre of a gathering has been cursed by the tongue of Muhammad ☪. [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

[593]
The best gathering

803. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The best gathering is the one that is wide (in space).” [Abu Dawud]

Sitting together

804. Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ came and his companions were sitting scattered. (Looking at them sitting in this way) he said, “What is the matter that I see you sitting scattered and spread out?” [Abu Dawud]

The sitting place of Shaytaan

805. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When any of you sit in the shade and the shade moves such that some part of the person’s body is in the sunshine and some is in the shade then he should move from there.” (and he should go to such a place where his entire body will be in either the sunshine or in the shade because when a person sits in such a way that or lies down in such a way that some part of his body is in the shade and some part is in the sun, then his nature will be spoilt because of two opposite things having an effect on him). [Abu Dawud]

[594]
In Sharh us Sunnah, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  is reported to have said, “When any of you are in the shade, then the shade moves (from a part of his body), then get up from there because this is the sitting place of Shaytaan.

Women should walk on the sides of the road

806. Hadhrat Abu Usayd Ansaari  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah  saying one day when he was coming out of the Masjid and he met men and women on the road (i.e. men and women mixed and were walking on the road), looking at this, Rasulullaah  said to the women, “Walk behind the men and separate from them because it is not appropriate for you to walk in the middle of the road but it is necessary for you to walk on the sides of the road.” After this command, the women would walk touching the walls to such an extent that their clothing would sometimes get stuck to the wall. [Abu Dawud, Bayhaqi]

Prohibition of walking in between two women

807. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  prohibited walking between two women, i.e. for a man. Abu Dawud]
Sit in the gathering where place is found

808. Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah .. narrates that when we were present in the gathering of Rasulullaah ﷺ then wherever we would find place we would sit. [Abu Dawud]

mmm
A disliked sitting position

809. Hadhrat Amr bin Shareed (tabi’i) narrates from his father that he said, “(One day) Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by me when I was sitting in such a way that my left hand was behind my back and I was resting on the flesh of the base of my thumb. (Looking at me sitting in this way) he said, “What, do you sit in such a way like how those upon whom the anger of Allaah descended sit?” [Abu Dawud]

Lying on the stomach is the way of the people of Jahannam

810. Hadhrat Abu Dhar  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by me when I was lying on my stomach. (looking at this) he pushed me with his foot and said, “Jundub, (the name of Abu Dhar) lying in this way is the way of the dwellers of hell.” [Ibn Maajah]
Sneezing and yawning

The virtue of sneezing and yawning

811. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Allaah ﷺ loves sneezing and dislikes yawning. Therefore, when any of you sneezes and praises Allaah, then it is necessary upon every Muslim (who heard the sneeze and praise of Allaah) to reply to the person with ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you.’ Regarding yawning, it is from Shaytaan. Therefore, when a yawn comes to any of you, then he should try to stop it as far as possible because when you yawn (and open the mouth) then Shaytaan laughs.” [Bukhari] The words of the narration of Muslim are, “Because when say ‘haa’ (at the time of yawning) then Shaytaan laughs at him.”

Etiquettes of sneezing

812. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When any of you sneezes, then he should say, ‘All praise is due to Allaah’ and his brother or companion should reply, ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you.’ And when (his brother) says in reply ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you.’, then the one who sneezed should say ‘May Allaah guide you and correct your condition.’ [Bukhari]

mmm

813. Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that (one day) two people sneezed near Rasulullaah ﷺ. So Rasulullaah ﷺ replied to one of them who sneezed (i.e. he said ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you) and he did not reply to the other. The person who he did not reply to said, “O Rasul of Allaah, (what is the reason that) you replied when he sneezed and you did not reply to me? He said, “He praised Allaah ﷺ and you did not praise Allaah ﷺ (therefore I did not reply to you).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

814. Hadhrat Abu Musa ﷺ narrates that I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that when any of you sneezes and praises Allaah, then reply to him and if he does not praise Allaah, then do not reply to him. [Muslim]

mmm

815. Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa’ ﷺ narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you’ when a person sneezed nearby him. Then when he sneezed a second time he said, “This person has a cold.” [Muslim] The narration of Tirmidhi states that upon the third sneeze he said, “This person has a cold.”

mmm

When wants to yawn then place the hand on the mouth

816. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a yawn comes to any of you, then he should place his hand on his mouth because Shaytaan (if he finds the mouth open then) he goes inside.” [Muslim]

mmm
The Masnun method of sneezing

817. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that when Rasulullaah  would sneeze, then he would place his hands on his face or he would cover his face with a cloth and lower the sound of his sneeze. [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

mmm

818. Hadhrat Abu Ayyub  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “When any of you sneeze, then he should say ‘All praise is due to Allaah in every condition.’ And the person who replies should say, ‘May Allaah have mercy on you.’ Then (in reply to this) the one who sneezed should say, ‘May Allaah guide you and reform your condition.’”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

mmm

Answering when a non Muslim sneezes

819. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates that a Jew would sneeze without any formality near Rasulullaah  in the hope that in reply he would say ‘May Allaah have mercy on you’. However, (in reply to that person sneezing) he would say, “May Allaah guide you and reform your condition.”

Giving proper guidance to one who sneezes

820. Hadhrat Hilal bin Yasaaf (tabi‘i) narrates that (one day) we were with Hadhrat Saalim bin Ubayd when a person of the group sneezed and he said ‘Peace be upon you.’ (instead of ‘All praise is due to Allaah.’) Hadhrat Saalim said in reply to the person, “May peace be upon you and upon your mother.” It was as though that person became angry in his heart (by saying that peace be upon your mother), so Hadhrat Saalim said (when sensing the displeasure of that person), “(What is the reason for the displeasure?) you should know that I said the same words that Rasulullaah ﷺ said when a person sneezed by him and the person said, ‘Peace be upon you.’ (instead of saying, ‘All praise is due to Allaah.’). And Rasulullaah ﷺ said in reply to him that may peace be upon you and upon your mother. He then said, “When any of you sneezes, then he should say ‘All praise is due to Allaah, Rabb of the worlds.’ The one who replies should say, ‘May Allaah have mercy upon you.’ Then the one who sneezed should say, ‘May Allaah forgive me and you.’” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

It is not necessary to reply to one who sneezes more than thrice

821. Hadhrat Ubayd bin Rifa’ah narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Give the reply to one who sneezed thrice, then if a person sneezes more than thrice, then he has choice whether to reply or not.”
[Abu Dawud, Tirmidhi]

mmm

822. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  said, “Reply to the sneeze of your Muslim brother thrice. If he sneezes more then (understand) that he has a cold.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm
The Du’aa’ when a sneeze comes

823. Hadhrat Nafi’ (tabi’i) narrates that (one day this happened that) a person sitting at the side of Hadhrat Ibn Umar sneezed, then said, ‘All praise is due to Allaah and peace be upon the Rasul of Allaah.’ (Hearing this) Ibn Umar said, “I also say, ‘All praise is due to Allaah and peace be upon the Rasul of Allaah.’ But saying it in this way is not correct (because) Rasulullaah ﷺ taught us to say (when a sneeze comes), ‘All praise is due to Allaah upon every condition.’ [Tirmidhi]

mmm
Laughter

How did Rasulullah ﷺ laugh?

824. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that I never saw Rasulullah ﷺ laughing to the extent that his palate could be seen (most of the time) his laughing used to remain to the degree of smiling. [Bukhari]

mmm

825. Hadhrat Jareer .. narrates that ever since I became a Muslim, Rasulullah ﷺ never stopped me (from coming to him) and whenever he saw me he smiled. [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

826. Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah .. narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ would sit at the place where he performed Fajr Salaah and he would not get up until the sun did not come out to a considerable extent (and would rise), then (in order to perform Ishraaq Salaah or to go home), he would stand up. In this time, the companions would speak of the era of ignorance and laugh and Rasulullaah ﷺ would smile (i.e. he never used to laugh but he would smile). [Muslim] in the narration of Tirmidhi, it is mentioned that the companions would recite poetry.

mmm

Rasulullaah ﷺ used to smile in abundance

827. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith .. narrates that I never saw anyone smiling more than Rasulullaah ﷺ.

[Tirmidhi]

mmm

[606]
How did the Sahabah laugh?

828. Hadhrat Qatadah says that it was asked of Hadhrat Ibn Umar, “Did the companions of Rasulullaah laugh?” Hadhrat Ibn Umar said, “Yes, whereas the Imaan in their hearts were greater than mountains (i.e. they never laughed like the negligent but they considered the etiquettes of Shari’ah in this regard) and the tabi’i Hadhrat Bilal bin Sa’d says that I found the companions in such a condition that they (when practising archery during the day) would be running between the targets and looking at one another and laughing but when night came, they would fear Allaah to a great extent. [Sharh us Sunnah]

mmm
The reasons why Rasulullaah ﷺ did not adopt a title

829. Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ was in the market when a person called him by the title of Abul Qaasim. He turned to that person so he said, “(He was not calling him but he was indicating towards another person and saying) I called that person.” Hearing this, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “You can name others after me but do not adopt a title after my title.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

830. Hadhrat Jaabir ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Keep names after my name but do not adopt a title after my title because I have been made Qaasim (one who dispenses), I dispense (knowledge and booty) amongst you.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
The best name

831. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The most beloved names to your Rabb are the names of Abdullaah and Abdur Rahman.” [Muslim]

A few inappropriate names

832. Hadhrat Samurah bin Jundub  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not keep the names of your slaves as ‘Yasaar’ – good conditions, ‘Rabaah’ – benefit, ‘Najeeh’ – successful, and ‘Aflah’ – successful because if you ask a person, ‘Is he (e.g. Yasaar or Rabaah) here?’ and he is not there, then the person giving the reply will say that (he, i.e. Yasaar or Rabaah) is not here.” [Muslim] in one narration of Muslim Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not keep the name of your slave ‘Rabaah’, ‘Yasaar’, ‘Aflah’ and ‘Naafi’.”

833. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ intended to forbid people from keeping names like ‘Ya’la’ – high, ‘Barkat’, ‘Aflah’, ‘Yasaar’, ‘Naafi’ and similar names, but I saw after he made this intention he remained silent until he left this world and he did not forbid keeping these names. [Muslim]

A few bad names

834. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the person with the worst name according to Allaah will be the person whose name is ‘King of kings’.” [Bukhari] in one narration of Muslim Rasulullaah ﷺ is reported to have said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the worst and most displeased person according to Allaah will be the person whose name is ‘King of kings’ (because) there is no king but Allaah.”

The reasons for changing the name Barrah

835. Hadhrat Zaynab bint Abi Salamah radhiyallaahu anha narrates that my name was kept Barrah (a pious woman) so Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not praise yourself, whoever amongst you is pious, Allaah ⲧ knows best, keep the name of this girl Zaynab.” [Muslim]

mmm

836. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that the name of Umm al Mu’mineen Hadhrat Juwayriyyah radhiyallaahu anha was Barrah but Rasulullaah ﷺ changed her name to Juwayriyyah because Rasulullaah ﷺ did not like that a person says that you are Barrah (pious woman). [Muslim]

mmm

Bad names should be changed

837. Hadhrat Ibn Umar \( \text{\textregistered} \) narrates that Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textregistered} \) had a daughter who was named ‘Aasiyah’ – sinner. Then Rasulullaah ﷺ changed her name to Jameelah (beautiful).

The grape tree should not be called Karm

840. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that do not call the grape Karm because Karm is the heart of a believer. [Muslim]

841. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not call the grape Karm and do not say that time is wretched because (the mover of) time is Allaah.” [Bukhari]

Time should not be spoken bad of

842. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not speak ill of time because (the mover of) time is Allaah.” [Muslim]

Correcting an inappropriate term

843. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “None of you should say ‘Khabuthat Nafsi’ (my self has become evil), but he should say ‘Laqisat Nafsi’ (my self is ill).” [Bukhari, Muslim]
Do not adopt such a title that will imply similarity with Allaah

844. Hadhrat Shurayh bin Haani narrates from his father (Hadhrat Haani ﷺ) that when he came to Rasulullaah ﷺ with his nation then he heard his nation calling him ‘Abul Hakam’. Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ called him and said, “Hakam is only Allaah and the Hukm returns to Him, so why are you called Hakam? Hadhrat Haani said, “(I am called Abul Hakam because) when my nation have a difference of opinion in any matter, then they come to me and the decision I make is accepted by both groups.” Rasulullaah ﷺ heard this and said, “This is good (i.e. removing the arguments amongst people and making decision between them) (but tell me), how many children do you have? (and what are their names?)” he said, “I have three children, Shurayh, Muslim and Abdullaah.” Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, “Who is the eldest amongst them?” Hadhrat Haani said, “I said, ‘Shurayh.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “From today you are Abu Shurayh.”

Ajda’ is a bad name

845. Hadhrat Masrooq (tabi’i) narrates that when I met Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then he asked, “Who are you?” I said, “I am Ajda’ the son of Masrooq.” Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said (when hearing the name of my father being Ajda’), “I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that Ajda’ is the name of a Shaytaan.” (i.e. this name is not good).

[Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah]

Emphasis upon keeping good names

846. Hadhrat Abu Darda ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the day of Qiyaamat you will be called by your names and your fathers’ names. Therefore, keep good names.” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

The prohibition of keeping the name and title of Rasulullaah ﷺ at one time

847. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ forbade that a person keeps his name and title at once, and that if a person’s name is Muhammad, he has the title of Abul Qaasim. [Tirmidhi]

848. Hadhrat Jaabir ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “If you keep your names after mine ‘Muhammad’, then do not adopt my title Abul Qaasim.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The narration of Abu Dawud states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who keeps his name after mine, he should not adopt my title and he who adopts my title, he should not keep my name.”

The prohibition of keeping the name and title of Rasulullaah ﷺ at one time was based on expedience

849. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that a woman came (to Rasulullaah ﷺ) and said, “O Rasul of Allah, I had a boy and I kept his name Muhammad and title Abul Qaasim. However, I was told that you do not like this (i.e. the informer told me that you have made it impermissible to keep your name and title at the same time). He ﷺ said, “What is it that has made it permissible to keep a name after my name and a title after my title impermissible?” or he said, “What is it that has made it impermissible to keep a title after my title and a name after my name as permissible?” [Abu Dawud]

The previous prohibition was special with the era of Rasulullaah ﷺ

850. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Hanafiyyah narrates from his father (Hadhrat Ali ﷺ) that he said, “I said, ‘O Rasul of Allaah, tell me, if a child is born to me after your demise, then can I keep his name after your name and his title after your title?’” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes. (you can keep them).” [Abu Dawud]

The title of Hadhrat Anas ﷺ

851. Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ kept my title after a herb that I was pulling out (i.e. he saw me pulling out a herb called Hamzah in Arabic, so he kept my title Abu Hamzah). [Tirmidhi]

Rasulullaah ﷺ used to change bad and inappropriate names

852. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ would change bad names. [Tirmidhi]
853. Hadhrat Bashir bin Maymun (tabi’i) narrates from his uncle Hadhrat Usamah bin Akhdari that a group came to Rasulullaah ❞. Among them was a person by the name of Asram. Rasulullaah ❞ asked him, “What is your name?” he said, “Asram.” Rasulullaah ❞ said, “(No, from today) your name is Zur’ah.” [Abu Dawud] Abu Dawud says that Rasulullaah ❞ changed the names of ‘Aas, Azeez, Atalah, Shaytaan, Hakam, Ghuraab, Hubaab, and Shihaab. Abu Dawud says that he left out their chains of narration for brevity.

854. Hadhrat Abu Mas’ood Ansaari narrates that he asked Hadhrat Abu Abdullaah or Hadhrat Abu Abdullaah asked Hadhrat Abu Mas’ood Ansaari what he heard from Rasulullaah ❞ regarding the words, ‘people say’. He replied that he heard Rasulullaah ❞ saying that (this word) is the bad conveyance of a person. (Because this word ‘people say’ explains lies most of the time). [Abu Dawud]
Do not join others than Allaah with Allaah in the will of Allaah

855. Hadhrat Hudhayfah  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “(People) should not say that (that will happen) what Allaah wants and what a particular person wants (because saying it in this way makes a servant on par with Allaah), but he should say (that will happen) what Allaah wants then what a particular servant wants (because in this way the desire of Allaah is first and the desire of the servant comes later, the purport of which is correct). [Ahmad, Abu Dawud] In one Muqati’ narration Rasulullaah  said, “Do not say that (that will happen) what Allaah wants and Muhammad () wants, but say that (that will happen) what only Allaah wants. Bad names have bad effects

857. Hadhrat Abdul Hamid bin Jubayr bin Shaybah narrates that (one day) I was sitting with Hadhrat Sa’eed bin Musayyib when he explained to me that my grandfather (Hazn) was present before Rasulullaah ﷺ so he asked what is your name? He said, “My name is Huzn (hard natured).” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Huzn is not a good name), but you are Sahl (i.e. I name you Sahl).” My grandfather said, “I cannot change the name my father gave me.” Hadhrat Sa’eed bin Musayyib said, “(On account of this name) there is a harsh nature in our family.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Good and bad names

858. Hadhrat Abu Wahab Jushami narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Keep your names after those of the Ambiyaa’ and the best name according to Allaah is Abdullah and Abdur Rahman. Moreover, a very truthful name is Haarith (one who does work) and Hammaam (one who intends) and the worst name is Harb (war) and Murrah (bitter).” [Abu Dawud]

Clear and Eloquent speech and Poetry

The effect of clear and eloquent speech

859. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that (one day) two people of (Banu Tamim) came from the east and both of them spoke very eloquently. People were astonished at their eloquent speech so Rasulullaah  said, “Undoubtedly some speech is magic (in effect).” [Bukhari]

Some poetry is good

860. Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka’b  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Some poetry is (filled with) wisdom.” (i.e. some poetry is good). [Bukhari]

The evil of exaggerating

861. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Those who exaggerate in speech have fallen into destruction.” He said this thrice. [Muslim]
The most truthful speech

862. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ṣ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The most truthful speech mentioned by a poet is the speech of Labeed, ‘Know well, everything but Allaah will be destroyed.’” [Bukhari, Muslim]

It is permissible to recite and listen to good poetry

863. Hadhrat Amr bin Sharid narrates from his father that he said, “One day (on journey) I was sitting behind Rasulullaah ﷺ (on his conveyance) when he said to me, “Do you know any of the poetry of Umayyah bin Abi Salt?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Well, recite.” I recited a poem. He said, “Recite more.” I then recited another poem. He said, “Recite more.” (He carried on asking for more to be recited and I continued reciting) until I recited 100 poems.” [Muslim]

Reciting poetry for consolation

864. Hadhrat Jundub ṣ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was in a battle when a finger of his became covered in blood, so he said, (in order to give consolation to the finger), “You are but a finger that has been covered in blood and whatever occurred was in the path of Allaah.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
The ruling of mocking the enemy

865. Hadhrat Bara \textasciitilde{} narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thabit \textasciitilde{} on the day of Qurayzah, “Mock the enemy, indeed Jibreel is with you, (i.e. he will help you) and Rasulullaah ﷺ would say to Hadhrat Hassaan, “Reply the disbelievers from my side (then he would make Du’aa’) O Allaah, help Hassaan through Jibreel.”

\textit{[Bukhari, Muslim]}

866. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to his poets, “Mock the disbelievers of the Quraysh because this mocking is more severe upon them than firing arrows.” \textit{[Muslim]}

867. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying to Hadhrat Hassaan \textasciitilde{}, “As long as you face the (mocking of the disbelievers and polytheists) from the side of Allaah and His Rasul, Hadhrat Jibreel \textasciitilde{} will continue to help you.” Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha says that she (also) heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Hassaan mocked the disbelievers and he cured the Muslims through mocking and found cure himself. (i.e. by replying with mocking to the mocking of the disbelievers he provided cure and consolation for the Muslims as well as for himself). \textit{[Muslim]}

Rasulullaah ﷺ and the Sahabah Mos recited Rajz while digging the trench

868. Hadhrat Bara . narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ would lift and throw sand himself on the day of digging the trench until his stomach was covered in dust and he recited the poetry of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha.

By Allaah, if it was not for the guidance of Allaah we would not have found the straight path, nor would we have given charity, nor performed Salaah

So, O Allaah, send peace and tranquillity upon us and when we face the enemy, then keep us firm footed

Undoubtedly, the disbelievers have exceeded the limits against us, when they intended to placed us in trials (i.e. returning to kufr) so we rejected

Rasulullaah ﷺ was reciting this poetry loudly and he would raise his voice even more upon the word ‘we rejected, we rejected’. [Bukhari, Muslim]

869. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that when (on the occasion of the battle of Ahzaab) the Muhajireen and Ansaar were digging the trench and began to lift and throw the sand, then they recited the following lines,
We are the ones who pledged allegiance of Jihaad at the hands of Muhammad ﷺ until our last breath

And Rasulullaah ﷺ would reply with the following words,

O Allaah, there is no life but the life of the Aakhirat, forgive the Ansaar and the Muhajireen.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

The evil of bad poetry

870. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Remember, it is better for a person to fill his belly with pus than it is to fill his belly with (evil) poetry.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
Emphasis upon waging Jihaad through poetry

871. Hadhrat Ka’b bin Maalik narrates that (one day) he said to Rasulullaah ﷺ that Allaah revealed what He revealed concerning the evil of poetry. Rasulullaah ﷺ said (in reply), “Indeed a believer wages Jihaad with his sword and with his tongue as well. By the Being in Whose control my life is, you inflict wounds upon the disbelievers through poetry just as you do with arrows.” [Sharh us Sunnah]

In Al Isti’aab of Ibn Abdul Barr Hadhrat Ka’b said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what do you say regarding poetry? (is it good or bad?) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A believer wages Jihaad with his sword and with his tongue as well.”

The two branches of Imaan and hypocrisy

872. Hadhrat Abu Umamah narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Shame and modesty and controlling the tongue are two branches of Imaan and lewd talk and speaking a lot are two branches of hypocrisy.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

The best and worst people

873. Hadhrat Abu Tha’labah Khushani ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the closest to me from amongst you will be the one with the best character and the most hated and the furthest people from me will be those who have evil character and evil character means those people who speak useless things, speak a lot and do not speak clearly like the proud.” [Bayhaqi] It is mentioned in a narration of Tirmidhi that the companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, we know the meaning of ‘thathaaroon’ and ‘mutashaddiqoon’, what is the meaning of ‘mutafayhiqoon’?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Those who are proud.”

mmm

The evil of exaggeration without benefit in speech and lectures

874. Hadhrat Sa’d bin Abi Waqqaas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Qiyaamat will not take place until such a group is not created that eat with their tongues the way cows eat with their tongues.” [Ahmad]

875. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who shows eloquence and clarity in speech beyond limit in speaking and explaining is very disliked by Allaah and he moves his tongue quickly like a cow that moves eat when grazing.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

876. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the night of Me’raj I passed by such people whose tongues were being cut by scissors of fire. (Seeing this) I asked, “Jibreel, who are these people?” Jibreel ﷺ said, “These are those people of your ummah who used to give lectures and advises and they would not practice themselves.” [Tirmidhi]

877. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who learns different ways of speaking so that he could gain control over people’s hearts, Allaah ﷺ will not accept his optional or obligatory worship on the day of Qiyaamat.” [Abu Dawud]

878. Hadhrat Amr bin ‘Aas  narrates that one day he said when a person stood to give a lecture and (in order to show his clarity and eloquence) he spoke for very long (until the listeners became tired). Subsequently, (at the time) Hadhrat Amr said (to the person), “If you adopted balance and moderation (i.e. you spoke comprehensively and short) then indeed that (lecture) would have been better for the listeners. I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that I understood, or he said, I was commanded to adopt brevity in speech and lecturing because short lectures are better.”

[Abu Dawud]

mmm

Four things

879. Hadhrat Sakhr bin Abdullaah bin Buraydah .. narrates from his father and he narrates from the grandfather of Sakhr (Buraydah) that he said, “I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that some speeches are like magic and some knowledge is ignorance, some poetry is filled with wisdom and some speech is a calamity.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm
The virtue of Hadhrat Hassaan ..

880. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ kept a pulpit for Hadhrat Hassaan (a famous poet of Islaam) in Masjid an Nabawi upon which he stood (and recited poetry and in this poetry) he would make self honour from the side of Rasulullaah ﷺ apparent or he said he would defend Rasulullaah ﷺ and Rasulullaah ﷺ would say that may Allaah ﷻ help Hassaan through Hadhrat Jibreel as long as he defends Rasulullaah ﷺ or he said that as long as he made self honour apparent on behalf of Rasulullaah ﷺ.

[Bukhari]
Permissibility of Huda

881. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ had a person who would sing Huda whose name was Anjasha. He had a beautiful voice. (During a journey) Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, “Anjasha, herd the camels slowly and do not break the glass.” Hadhrat Qatadah (the narrator) says that Rasulullaah ﷺ meant the women by glass. [Bukhari, Muslim]

The ruling of poetry

882. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (once) poetry was mentioned before Rasulullaah ﷺ (and it was asked that is poetry good or bad?) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Poetry is a type of speech. Therefore, good poetry is good and evil poetry is evil.” [Daarqutni]

Emphasis to stay away from bad poetry

883. Hadhrat Abu Sa‘eed Khudri  narrates that we were going with Rasulullaah ﷺ on journey in Maqaam Arj when suddenly a poet came in front and began to recite poetry. (Looking at him) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Catch that devil.” Or he said, “Stop that devil (from reciting poetry), remember, it is better to fill the stomach of man with pus than it is to fill it with poetry.” [Muslim]

[631]
The evil of tunes and music

884. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Tunes and music grow hypocrisy in the heart like how water causes crops to grow.” [Bayhaqi]

Emphasis upon not listening to the sound of musical instruments

885. Hadhrat Naafi (tabi’i) narrates that (one day) I was with Hadhrat Ibn Umar  on the road (i.e. we were both going somewhere) when Hadhrat Ibn Umar heard the sound of flute and he immediately put his fingers into his ears. He also moved away from the path and went to the other side. After he moved away, he asked me, “Naafi’, can you hear anything?” I said, “No.” He then took his fingers out of his ears and said, “(One day) I was with Rasulullaah  when he heard the sound of a flute. He then did what I did now.” Hadhrat Naafi’ says that I was a small lad at the time (that is why Ibn Umar did not stop me from hearing the sound of the flute).” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]
Protecting the tongue, backbiting and speaking bad

Protect your tongue and private parts

886. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d said, “He who gives me guarantee of protection for that which is between his jaws and that which is between his legs (i.e. he gives protection of his tongue and private parts) then I give him guarantee of Jannah.” [Bukhari]

Emphasis upon staying away from incorrect speech

887. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullaah said, “The reality is that when a person takes out something from his tongue in which lies the pleasure of Allaah, then even though the servant does not know the importance of it but on account of it Allaah ﷺ raises his stages (i.e. even though the person is not aware of the importance of the speech and he feels it to be very easy or low but that speech has very high rank in the sight of Allaah). Similarly, when a person takes out something from his tongue that becomes a means of the displeasure of Allaah, then although the person does not know the importance of it (i.e. he thinks it to be small and does not feel it to be of any consequence what he said) but (in reality it is so dangerous that) on account of it, that person will fall into hell.” [Bukhari] in one narration it is mentioned that “The distance that lies between the east and west, even further than that a person falls into hell.”

The consequence of speaking ill to Muslims

888. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is a sin to speak ill to a Muslim and killing a Muslim is disbelief.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

889. Hadhrat Ibn Umar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who calls his Muslim brother a disbeliever, then one of the two returns with this word.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

890. Hadhrat Abu Dhar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “No one should level an accusation of Fisq (sinfulness), nor an accusation of disbelief, but that accusation returns to the person who levelled it if his companion is not like that.”

[Bukhari]

891. Hadhrat Abu Dhar Ṣ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whoever calls a person a disbeliever or the enemy of Allaah and in reality he is not like that then what was said returns to the one who said it (i.e. the person who said it becomes a disbeliever or the enemy of Allaah).”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

892. Hadhrat Anas Ṣ and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṣ narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Two people who speak ill against each other, the sin of whatever they say will go to the one who started as long as the oppressed does not overstep the limits.” [Muslim]

The evil consequence of cursing

893. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṣ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is not appropriate for a Siddeeq (i.e. a complete believer) to curse in abundance.” [Muslim]

894. Hadhrat Abu Darda Ṣ narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, “Those who curse a lot, they will not be made witnesses on the Day of Qiyaamat nor would they be able to intercede.” [Muslim]

mmm

895. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a person says that people have been destroyed (i.e. hell has become obligatory for them), then the person who said it will be destroyed the worst.” (Because he looks down on people and makes people hopeless of the mercy of Allaah). [Muslim]

mmm

The worst person

896. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the Day of Qiyaamat the worst person will be the one who is a two face (for the sake of causing fitnah). He comes to one group and says one thing and comes to another group and says something else.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

The evil of carrying tales

897. Hadhrat Hudhayfah  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “A tale carrier will not enter Jannah (i.e. he will not enter Jannah initially).”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

[636]
Emphasis upon speaking the truth and staying away from lies

898. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Make it necessary upon yourself to speak the truth because speaking the truth takes one towards good deeds and good deeds takes a person towards Jannah and a person always speaks the truth and always strives to speak the truth until he is written as a truthful person by Allaah. Moreover, you should refrain from lies because speaking lies takes one towards sinning and sinning takes one towards Jahanam-hell and a person continuously speaks lies and continues striving to speak lies until he is written to be a liar by Allaah.” [Bukhari, Muslim] in one narration of Muslim it states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Speaking the truth is piety and piety takes one to Jannah and lies is evil and evil takes a person to Jahanam-hell.”

The person who speaks contrary to reality in order to reconcile between two people is not a liar

899. Hadhrat Umm e Kulthum radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who reconciles between two people is not a liar and speaks good and conveys good (i.e. the person who says something contrary to reality in order to reconcile between two people is not a liar).” [Bukhari, Muslim]
Emphasis upon staying away from praising a person on his face

900. 900. Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you see those who praise then throw dust in their faces.” (i.e. close their mouths and stop them from praising). [Muslim]

901. 901. Hadhrat Abu Bakrah narrates that (one day) a person praised another (with exaggeration) in front of Rasulullaah ﷺ (and the praised person was present). Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ said (to the one praising), “Regret is upon you, you have cut the neck of your brother.” He repeated this thrice. He then said, “If any of you feel it necessary to praise someone, then he should say he has a particular thought about someone and Allaah ﷺ knows best and He is the One who will reckon his deeds. If the person praising has this thought that the one who is praised is definitely such and do not (make it necessary upon Allaah) and praise (i.e. he should not praise someone with certainty otherwise it will necessitate making something necessary upon Allaah).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

What is backbiting?

902. 902. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the companions, “Do you know what is backbiting?” the companions said, “Allaah and His Rasul know best.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Backbiting is that you mention your Muslim brother which if (he hears) he will dislike.” Some companions heard this and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, tell us that (the fault mentioned of the Muslim brother) if it is present in him, then is it also backbiting?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “If the bad trait is present in him then you have done backbiting of him and if the evil is not in him then you have slandered him.” [Muslim] One narration of Muslim states that when you have said this regarding your Muslim brother then you have done backbiting of him and when you say something that is not in him, then you have slandered him.

Stay away from lewd talk

903. 903. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) a person sought permission to come to Rasulullaah ﷺ so Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Permit him to come and this person is an influential person of his nation.” Then when the person came and sat then he met him with a smiling face and spoke to him smiling. When he went away then Hadhrat Ayesha said, “O Rasul of Allaah, you said regarding this person such and such (i.e. he is an influential person of his nation) but you met him with a smiling face and spoke to him smiling.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When did you find me to be lewd? (Remember), on the Day of Qiyaamat, the person with the worst status will be the one whom people left on account of being saved from his evil.” In one narration the words are, “He who people stay away from on account of his lewdness in speech.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

Emphasis upon hiding ones faults and sins

904. 904. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaha said, “My entire ummah is in safety except those who make their faults and sins apparent (i.e. my ummah will not be inflicted with a severe punishment except those who do sins openly – they will be inflicted with a severe punishment). Undoubtedly, this is something very shameful that a person does something evil at night, then in the morning when Allaah ﷺ has covered his faults, he goes around saying to people that o person, I did this and that at night whereas his Rabb hid his sins at night and the moment he found himself in the morning he opened the veil of Allaah ﷺ.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Virtue of three things

905. 905. Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaha said, “He who leaves out lies, and that (lies) are incorrect, then a palace is built for him on the edge of Jannah and the one who leaves out arguing despite being in the right, a palace is built for him in the centre of Jannah and the person who corrected his character, for him will be a palace will be built for him in the highest stages of Jannah.” [Tirmidhi]

Two things take a person to Jannah and two things take a person to Jahannam

906. 906. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaha said, “Do you know what generally enters a person into Jannah? It is Taqwa (i.e. fear of Allaah) and good character and do you know what generally takes people to Jahannam? It is the hollow things, i.e. the mouth and private parts.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

mmm

The consequence of speaking good and speaking bad

907. 907. Hadhrat Bilal bin Haarith  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A person says something good and he does not go so forward but Allaah ﷺ writes His pleasure for him on account of it until the day when he meets Allaah. Similarly, a person says something evil and he is not aware of its importance but Allaah ﷺ writes His anger for him on account of it until the day when he meets Allaah.”

[Sharh us Sunnah, Maalik, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

mmm

[641]
The consequence of speaking lies in order to make people laugh

908. Bahz bin Hakeem narrates from his father and he from the grandfather of Bahz (Mu’awiyah bin Haydah) that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Regret upon the one who speaks lies so that he may make people laugh, regret be upon that person, regret be upon the person.”

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, Daarimi]

909. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed a person says something and he only says it to make people laugh on account of it, so on account of it he falls (into Jahanam-hell) the distance of that between the earth and sky. And indeed the tongue of a person slips more than his feet.” [Bayhaqi]

The method of attaining salvation

910. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who remains silent will be saved.”

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Daarimi, Bayhaqi]

911. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir ﷺ narrates that I met Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “What is the means of salvation?” He said, “Keep your tongue under control, stay in your home (i.e. do not leave the home without necessity) and cry over your sins.”

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

All the limbs follow the tongue

912. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates in Marfu’ form from Rasulullaah  that he said, “When the son of Aadam awakes in the morning, then all his limbs lower themselves before the tongue and say that fear Allaah regarding us because we are with you. If you remain straight, then we shall also remain straight and if you stray then we shall also stray.” [Tirmidhi]

Emphasis upon staying away from useless talk

913. Hadhrat Ali bin Husayn, i.e. Hadhrat Zayn ul Aabideen says that Rasulullaah  said, “From the beauty of the Islaam of a person is that he leaves that which has no benefit.” [Maalik, Ahmad]

914. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that (one day) one of the companions passed away so another person said, “Glad tidings of Jannah for you.” Rasulullaah  heard this and said, “You are saying this whereas you are not aware of the reality, it could be that he said something useless or he was stingy regarding something which would not have decreased by spending.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

The most fearful thing

915. 915. Hadhrat Sufyaan bin Abdullaah Thaqafi  narrates that (one day) I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is the most fearful thing of the things you fear regarding me?” Hadhrat Sufyaan says that Rasulullaah ﷺ caught hold of his tongue and said, “This (i.e. the thing I fear the most regarding you is the tongue because most sins come from it. Therefore, beware of the trial of the tongue.).” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

The stench of lies

916. 916. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a person lies, then on account of the stench of those lies, the angels (who protect) move a mile away from him.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm
A great misappropriation

917. Hadhrat Sufyaan bin Asad Hadrami  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “It is great misappropriation that you say something to your brother and he takes what you say to be true when you lied in what you said.” [Abu Dawud]

The consequence of a two face

918. Hadhrat Ammaar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who is a two face in this world, on the Day of Qiyaamat there will be two tongues of fire in his face.” [Daarimi]

Recognition of a complete Mu’min

919. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A (complete) believer does not pick out faults, nor does he curse, nor is he lewd in speech, nor does he speak a lot.” [Tirmidhi, Bayhaqi]

920. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “That person cannot be a complete believer who curses a lot.” In one narration it states that it is not appropriate for a Muslim to curse a lot.” [Tirmidhi]

Emphasis to stay away from Du’aa’ for misfortune and cursing

921. Hadhrat Samurah bin Jundub ﷺ narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Amongst yourselves, do not make Du’aa’ of the curses of Allaah for each other, nor for the anger of Allaah, nor for the person going to Jahannam.” In another narration, “Do not make Du’aa’ of misfortune for the person to go into the fire.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

922. Hadhrat Abu Darda ﷺ narrates that he heard Rasulullah ﷺ saying, “When a person curses anything, i.e. any man or some creation besides man, then that curse goes to the sky so the doors of the sky are closed to that curse. Then the curse comes back to the earth and the doors of the earth are closed for it. Then it goes to the right and left (but it is also pushed from there). Subsequently, when it does not find a path then it goes to the thing towards which it was directed. If that thing deserves the curse, it will fall on it otherwise it returns to the one who said it.” [Abu Dawud]

923. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ narrates that (one day) the shawl of a person flew with the wind so he cursed the wind. Upon this Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Do not curse the wind because it follows a command. And there is no doubt that whoever curses such a thing which is not deserving of a curse, the curse will return to him.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]
An important counsel of Rasulullaah ﷺ

924. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “No one should come and tell me anything regarding my companions (through which some bad is made apparent i.e. no one should tell me regarding someone that he did a particular bad deed or he said something bad or he has a bad habit) because I like it that when I leave home and come to you, I come with a clean heart (i.e. that there should be no displeasure, anger and hatred towards any of you).” [Abu Dawud]

The evil of backbiting

925. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) she said when sitting by Rasulullaah ﷺ that Safiyyah is short. This was sufficient that she is such and such (short). Rasulullaah ﷺ (heard what I said and with displeasure) said, “You have said something that if it be mixed with the ocean water then undoubtedly it would overpower it.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

The evil of speaking bad and the goodness of speaking kindly

926. Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Evil talk and shamelessness is not in something except that it makes it blameworthy and shame and softness is not in something except that it gives it beauty.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

The evil consequence of picking out faults

927. Hadhrat Khalid bin Ma’daan narrates from Hadhrat Mu’aadh  that he said, “Rasulullaah ﷺ said, ‘He who makes the sin of his brother a fault (i.e. he picks out such a sin which he has repented from) then the person picking out the fault will get involved in that sin before he dies (in some way or the other).” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

The evil consequence of being happy upon the difficulty of a Muslim brother

928. Hadhrat Waathila  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not make happiness apparent at the difficulty of your Muslim brother, it could be that (upon your baseless happiness) Allaah ﷺ sends mercy upon him (i.e. He grants him salvation from that difficulty) and puts you into that calamity.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

[648]
The evil of imitating

929. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I do not ever like to imitate a person, even if I am given so much wealth (i.e. if someone gives me wealth for no reason, then too I would not tolerate imitating someone.)” [Tirmidhi]

The mercy of Allaah is wide

930. Hadhrat Jundub .. narrates that (one day) a Bedouin (mounted his camel and came to Madinah) and (reaching close to Masjid an Nabawi) he made his camel sit down and tied its legs and entered the Masjid. He then performed Salaah behind Rasulullaah ﷺ and after making Salaam (i.e. upon completing Salaah) he came to his camel (opened it) and mounted. He then said in a loud voice, “O Allaah, send Your mercy upon me and Muhammad and do not make anyone partner in our mercy.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said (upon hearing him making Du’aa’ in this way), “Can you tell me whether this Bedouin is more ignorant or his camel is?! Did you not hear what he said?” the companions said, “Yes, we heard.” [Abu Dawud]

Section Three

Do not praise an open sinner

931. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When an open sinner is praised then Allaah ﷺ is angry (upon the one who praised) and the divine throne shakes on account of his praising.” [Bayhaqi]

A Muslim cannot be a liar and one who misappropriates

932. Hadhrat Abu Umamah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A Muslim is created upon all characteristics besides lies and misappropriating.” (i.e. these characteristics cannot be in a complete believer).

[Ahmad]

933. Hadhrat Safwaan bin Sulaym narrates that it was asked of Rasulullaah ﷺ, “Can a believer be cowardly?” he said, “He could be.” It was then asked of him, “Can a believer be miserly?” he said, “He could be.” It was then asked of him, “Can a believer be a liar?” He said, “No.”

[Maalik, Bayhaqi]
The evil of Shaytaan

934. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that (sometimes it could happen that) Shaytaan adopts the form of someone and comes to a group and tells them some false news. Then when the people of that group spread around then one of them says that I heard from a particular person whose form I recognize, but I do not know his name, he says this.”

[Muslim]

The virtue of silence

935. Hadhrat Imraan bin Hittaan (tabi’i) narrates that (one day) I came to Hadhrat Abu Dhar Ghifari  and found him in the Masjid. At the time he was sitting alone wrapped in a black blanket. I said, “Abu Dhar, why have you adopted this solitude? (i.e. why are you sitting alone compared to benefitting other people?) Hadhrat Abu Dhar replied that I heard Rasulullaah  saying, “It is better to sit alone compared to evil company and sitting in pious company is better than sitting alone. Moreover, it is better to teach good than it is to remain silent and it is better to remain silent than it is to teach evil.” (and it is quite apparent that the thing which helps silence is sitting in solitude). [Bayhaqi]

936. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The status that a person can attain through silence is more virtuous than sixty years of worship.” [Bayhaqi]

A few important advises

937. Hadhrat Abu Dhar .. narrates that (one day) I came to Rasulullaah ﷺ. After this, (Abu Dhar .. or the narrator) narrates a long Hadith (that is not mentioned here but this last sentence is placed here), then Abu Dhar explained that I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, give me some advice.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I advise you to fear Allaah because Taqwa gives beauty to all your actions and matters (of the world and Aakhirat).” I said, “Give me more advice.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Make the recitation of the Qur’aan and remembrance of Allaah necessary for yourself because (recitation of the Qur’aan and Dhikr) is a cause of you being mentioned in the skies and a cause of light for you on earth.” I said, “Give me more advice.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Make lengthy periods of silence necessary for yourself because silence chases Shaytaan away and helps you in your matters of Deen.” I said, “Give me more advice.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Stay away from laughing in abundance because laughing a lot kills the heart and removes the beauty of the face.” I said, “Give me more advice.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Speak the truth even if it be bitter.” I said, “Give me more advice.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not fear the reprimand of anyone in making the Deen of Allaah apparent and in making the message of Allaah apparent and in supporting and aiding it.” I said, “Give me more advice.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “What you know of yourself should stop you from the faults of others (making them apparent).” (i.e. when you think of the fault of someone, then immediately look at your own faults and think that there are so many faults in my own being.

The virtue of lengthy silence and a happy countenance

938. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Abu Dhar, shall I not show you two actions which are light but in terms of weight, they are very heavy?” Hadhrat Abu Dhar said, “Yes, definitely tell me.” He said, “Lengthy silence and good character. By the being in whose control my life is, the servants have not done a better deed than these.” [Bayhaqi]

Do not speak badly to your slave and worker

939. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by Hadhrat Abu Bakr .. and he (Hadhrat Abu Bakr ..) was cursing a slave of his. Rasulullaah ﷺ turned to him and said, “Have you seen those who curse and the truthful? (i.e. can a Siddeeq curse?), no, by the Rabb of the Ka’bah, these two things can never be together in one person.” Subsequently, (as compensation) Abu Bakr freed some of his slaves that day. Then (to explain his excuse) he went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “I shall never do it again.” [Bayhaqi]
The destructive nature of the tongue

940. Hadhrat Aslam says that one day Hadhrat Umar came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and (saw that) Hadhrat Abu Bakr was stretching his tongue. Hadhrat Umar (looking at this) said, “Stop, do not do this. Allaah ☝️ will forgive you.” Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, “(This tongue deserves this punishment because) it put me in the places of destruction.”

[Maalik]

Emphasis to practise upon six things

941. Hadhrat Ubadah bin Saamit  narrates that Rasulullaah ☪️ said, “Give me guarantee of six things regarding yourselves (i.e. promise to practice upon six things), I take the responsibility of Jannah for you; when you speak, then speak the truth, when you promise, then keep it, if a trust is kept with you, then fulfil it, protect your private parts (stay away from Haraam), keep your gazes low (i.e. refrain from lustful glances) and stop your hands from oppression and overstepping the limits.”

[Ahmad, Haakim, Bayhaqi]

The best and worst slaves of Allaah

942. Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Ghanam .. and Asmaa’ bint Yazeed radhiyallaahu anha narrate that Rasulullaah ☪️ said, “The best servants of Allaah are those when they are seen, Allaah is remembered and the worst servants of Allaah are those who carry tales, they cause separation between friends and seek for sins among pure people.” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

Warning for backbiting

943. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas .. narrates that (one day) two people who were fasting performed Zuhr or Asr Salaah (behind Rasulullaah ﷺ) when Rasulullaah ﷺ completed Salaah, then he said (to them both), “Both of you repeat your Wudhoo’, repeat this Salaah and complete your fast and (out of caution) keep the fast of another day.” (They heard this) and said, “Why, O Rasul of Allaah?” (i.e. what is the cause for having to repeat Wudhoo’, Salaah and the fast?) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Because you were involved in backbiting about someone.” [Bayhaqi]

Backbiting is worse than adultery

944. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed .. and Hadhrat Jaabir .. both narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Backbiting is worse than adultery.” The companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, how can backbiting be worse than adultery?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a person commits adultery, then repents, then Allaah ﷺ accepts his repentence.” In one narration it is said, “Then he repents, so Allaah ﷺ forgives him but Allaah does not forgive the one who backbited as long as the person does not forgive him, the one who he backbited about.”

And the words of the narration of Hadhrat Anas  are that Rasulullaah  said, “A person who committed adultery repents and there is no repentance for one who was involved in backbiting.” [Bayhaqi]

Recompense for backbiting

945. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Some recompense for backbiting is that you seek forgiveness for the one you backbited about and make Du’aa’ in this way, ‘O Allaah, forgive us and him.’” [Bayhaqi]
Promises

The importance of the promises of the previous Khalifah

946. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that when Rasulullaah  passed away and wealth came from Hadrat ‘Ala bin Hadrami (who was appointed the governor of Bahrain by Rasulullaah ) to Hadrat Abu Bakr then Hadrat Abu Bakr said, “He who has a debt that was owed by Rasulullaah  or the one who Rasulullaah  promised (to give) should come to us. Hadhrat Jaabir says that (hearing this) I said, “Rasulullaah  promised to give me so much.” (Saying this) Hadhrat Jaabir  opened his hands thrice (i.e. Hadrat Jaabir opened his hands thrice and explained that Rasulullaah  promised me that when the wealth comes, then he will fill his hands thrice and give). Hadhrat Jaabir says [657] that Hadhrat Abu Bakr filled his hands (with Dirhams) and gave me. I counted to be 500 Dirhams. He then said, “Take twice this.” (i.e. count 1000 and take it so that there is no excess or too little). [Bukhari, Muslim]

The responsibility of those representing the Khalifah

947. Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah  narrates that I saw Rasulullaah ﷺ in the condition that his colour was white (inclining to red) and old age had become apparent upon him and Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali is very similar to Rasulullaah ﷺ. And Rasulullaah ﷺ commanded that our group be given 13 young camels. When we went to take the camels, then we came to know that Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away and we were not given anything. Then when Hadhrat Abu Bakr stood up (to deliver a sermon upon being appointed the first khalifah) and said, “He whom Rasulullaah ﷺ promised to give something should come to us.” (When I heard this from Hadhrat Abu Bakr) I stood up and went to him and told him (that Rasulullaah ﷺ promised to give us 13 camels).
Subsequently, Hadhrat Abu Bakr commanded us to be given 13 camels.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

A unique story of keeping ones promise

948. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Hamsa’ .. narrates that before Rasulullaah ﷺ proclaimed to be a Nabi (once) I bought something from him and there was a balance I had to pay. I promised him that I shall bring the balance and give it to him at the same place. However, I forgot about this promise and after three days I remembered (that I made a promise to Rasulullaah ﷺ that I shall bring the balance), so what I see, that Rasulullaah ﷺ was sitting at the same place and said (upon seeing me), “You have given me difficulty. I am sitting here for three days waiting for you.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

Delaying ones promise on account of some excuse

949. Hadhrat Zayd bin Arqam .. narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “When a person makes a promise to his brother and he intends to fulfil that promise, but (due to some reason) he could not fulfil the promise, and he did not come on time, then there is no sin on him.”

[Abu Dawud, Tirmidhi]

Promises made to children should also be kept

950. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir  narrates that one day Rasulullaah  came to our house and my mother called me to her and said, “Come, I shall give you something.” Rasulullaah  asked her, “What did you intend giving him?” She said, “I wanted to give him a date.” Rasulullaah  said to her, “Remember, if you did not give him anything, then a lie would be written in your record of deeds.” [Abu Dawud, Bayhaqi]

It is permissible to move from the place of promise on account of a need of the Shari’ah or ones nature

951. Hadhrat Zayd bin Arqam  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “If a person promises to meet someone and one of them did not come until the time of one Salaah and that person goes to perform Salaah – the person who came, then there is no sin on him.” [Razeen]
Happy nature

Rasulullaah ﷺ had a happy nature

952. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ would have a happy nature before us to the extent that he would say to my younger brother (to win his heart), “Abu Umayr, what happened to Nughayr?” (Hadhrat Anas .. says) my younger brother had a bird called Nughayr which he used to play with and that bird died. [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

In his good nature also, Rasulullaah ﷺ spoke the truth

953. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that (one day) the companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, you display a happy countenance with us?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Yes, even in this happy countenance) I speak the truth.” [Tirmidhi]

A few incidents of the happy nature of Rasulullaah ﷺ

954. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that (one day) a person asked Rasulullaah ﷺ for an animal for conveyance so he said, “I shall give you the child of a camel for conveyance.” That person said (in astonishment), “O Rasul of Allaah, what shall I do with the child of a camel?” (That cannot be used as a conveyance). Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Camels only give birth to camels.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

955. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, “O two eared one.” [Abu Dawud, Tirmidhi]

956. Hadhrat Anas  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that (one day an old woman requested Rasulullaah ﷺ to make Du’aa’ for Jannah for her, so) he said to the old woman, “Old women will not go to Jannah.” That woman said, “Why will old women not go to Jannah?” that woman was reciting the Qur’aan. Rasulullaah ﷺ said to her, “Have you not recited the verse of the Qur’aan?, ‘We have made the women of Jannah virgins.’ [Razeen]

957. Hadhrat Anas \(\tau\) narrates that there was a Sahabi who lived in the jungle by the name of Zaahir bin Haraam. He would bring items from the jungle as gifts for Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\) (i.e. such things which would grow in the jungle like greens, vegetables and cucumber etc.) and when he would intend to leave for Madinah Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\) would give him things of the city. (Regarding him) Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\) said that Zaahir is our representative of the jungle (that he brings things from the jungle for us) and we are representatives of the city for him (that we give him things of the city). Moreover, Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\) would have a lot of love for Zaahir although he did not have a handsome form. One day Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\) went to the market and saw that he was selling his goods. He \(\varepsilon\) came from behind in such a way that he did not see (i.e. he came and sat behind without Zaahir knowing and put his hands under his (Zaahir’s) armpits and covered his eyes so that he could not recognize). Zaahir said, “Leave me, who is this?” He then (made effort), saw and recognized Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\). He then tried to place his back on the chest of Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\) (to take blessings). On the other side, Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\) began calling out that who will buy this slave from me?” he said, “O Rasul of Allaah, by Allaah, you will find me to be cheap.” Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\) said, “But you are not cheap in the sight of Allaah.”

[Sharh us Sunnah]

958. Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik Ashja’i says that during the battle of Tabuk, (one day) I came to Rasulullaah \(\varepsilon\). At the time he was sitting in a leather tent. I greeted him. He replied and said, “Come inside.” I said, (out of good heartedness) “O Rasul of Allaah, shall I come inside fully? (i.e. with my entire body). He said, “Bring your entire body inside.” Subsequently, I entered the tent. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abu Atikah (a narrator of this Hadith) says that Hadhrat Auf said this “Shall I come inside fully?” was because the tent was small. [Abu Dawud]

959. Hadhrat Nu’maan bin Bashir says that (one day) Hadhrat Abu Bakr sought permission from Rasulullah (in order to come to him while standing at the door) when he heard the voice of Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha speaking loudly. When Abu Bakr entered the house he caught Hadhrat Ayesha with the intention of slapping her and said, “(Know well, in future) I should not see you raising your voice above that of Rasulullah.” On the other side, Rasulullah (stopped Hadhrat Abu Bakr (from hitting). Then Hadhrat Abu Bakr left in anger. After Hadhrat Abu Bakr went away, Rasulullah said to Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha, “Did you see how I saved you from the hands of that person i.e. Abu Bakr?” Hadhrat Ayesha says that (after this) Hadhrat Abu Bakr (based on anger for me or out of shame for Rasulullah) he did not come to Rasulullah for a few days. Then (one day) he came to the door and sought permission (to come in). (He came in) and saw that both (Rasulullah and Ayesha) had made up. He addressed them both and said, “Make me a partner in your reconciling just as you made me partner in your fight.” (Hearing this) Rasulullah said, “Indeed we have done so, indeed we have done so (i.e. made you a partner in reconciling).” [Abu Dawud]
Emphasis to refrain from three things

960. 960. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “Do not argue with your Muslim brother, nor mock him (through which he is given difficulty) and do not promise him something which you cannot complete.” [Tirmidhi]

Pride and tribalism

Who has the most respect?

961. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ was asked that which person has respect. He said, “According to Allaah, the person that has the most respect is the one who is the most abstinent.” The companions said, “We did not want to ask you that.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “From man, the most noble and honourable is Yusuf ﷺ who is a Nabi of Allaah and the son of a Nabi (Hadhrat Ya’qub ﷺ), the grandson of a Nabi (Hadhrat Ishaaq ﷺ) and the great grandson of the friend of Allaah (Hadhrat Ibraaheem ﷺ).” The companions said, “We also do not want to ask you regarding this.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do you wish to ask about the Arab families and tribes?” the companions said, “Yes.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Listen) those who were the best in the era of ignorance are the best in Islaam when he attains knowledge and understanding of Deen (i.e. those who were the best in ignorance in terms of their family honour and good habits and character, they are the best in the era of Islaam on condition they have understanding of Deen.)”

[Bukhari, Muslim]
The virtue of Hadhrat Yusuf □

962. Hadhrat Ibn Umar ▼ narrates that Rasulullaah ▲ said, “Son of the noble, son of the noble, son of the noble is Hadhrat Yusuf bin Ya’qub bin Is’haq bin Ibraahaam.” [Bukhari]

It is permissible to pride during battle

963. Hadhrat Bara bin Aazib ▼ narrates that on the day of the battle of Hunayn, Abu Sufyaan bin Haarith was holding the reins of the mule of Rasulullaah ▲. He was the cousin of Rasulullaah ▲. Subsequently, (during the battle) when the polytheists surrounded Rasulullaah ▲, he got off the mule and began saying, ‘I am the Nabi, there is no lie and I am the son of Abdul Muttalib.’ The narrator says that on that day no one was seen braver and bolder than Rasulullaah ▲. [Bukhari, Muslim]

The humility of Rasulullaah ▲

964. Hadhrat Anas ▼ narrates that (one day) a person came to Rasulullaah ▲ and addressed him, “O the one who is the best amongst creation.” He said, “The one who is the best among creation is Hadhrat Ibraaheem ▲.” [Muslim]

[668]
Do not overstep the limits in praising Rasulullaah ﷺ

965. Hadhrat Umar ر.ن. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not overstep the limits in praising me just as the Christians overstepped the limits in praising Ibn Maryam (Hadhrat Isa ﷺ) (that they call him god and the son of god). I am the servant of Allaah. Therefore, call me the servant and Rasul of Allaah.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Emphasis upon adopting meekness and humility

966. Hadhrat Iyaadh bin Himaar Mujashi’i narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ sent this revelation to me that you should adopt humility and be low to the extent that no one should have pride over another and no person should oppress another.” [Muslim]

Prohibition of priding over ones forefathers

967. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “People should leave priding over their forefathers that have died and undoubtedly they are the coals of hell, otherwise (if they do not stop priding over them) they are lower than that dung worm that moves dung with its nose. Undoubtedly, Allaah has removed the pride of ignorance and the pride over ones forefathers from you. (Remember), a person is a pious believer or an evil wretch. Mankind are the children of Aadam and Aadam  was created of sand. (Therefore, it is not appropriate for a person made of sand to claim his greatness and be proud).” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

Balance in praise

968. Hadhrat Mutarrif bin Abdullaah bin Shikheer narrates that (my father Hadhrat Abdullaah explained that) the delegation of Banu Aamir that came to Rasulullaah , I was part of it. Subsequently, (when we reached him) we said, “You are our master.” He said, “The master is Allaah.” We said, “In terms of goddness and excellence, you are the best among us and in terms of forgiving, you are the highest amongst us.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes, say in this way, in fact use lower words (i.e. do not exaggerate in praising me. Whatever you say regarding me, the last stage you can go in praising me, in fact, praise me to a lower level it will be better) and (look) Shaytaan should not make you his representative (i.e. do not become the representative of Shaytaan and exaggerate in praising me).” [Abu Dawud]

Who has respect?

969. Hadhrat Hasan Basri narrates from Hadhrat Samurah ﷺ that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Lineage is wealth and honour is Taqwa.” (i.e. according to people, the one who has wealth is honourable and the basis of honour and virtue according to Allaah is Taqwa.) [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The evil of priding over the era of ignorance

970. Hadhrat Ubayy bin Ka’b ﷺ narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that he who attributes his lineage to the era of ignorance out of pride; he should bite the private parts of his father off (i.e. say that he should take the private parts of his father in his mouth and bite) and he should resort to vague interpretations.” [Sharh us Sunnah]

971. Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Abi Uqbah narrates from Hadhrat Abu Uqbah and he (Hadhrat Abu Uqbah) from [671] a Persian slave. He explains that he participated alongside Rasulullaah ﷺ in the battle of Uhud. Subsequently, (during the war) I hit one of the polytheists with (a sword or spear) and said, ‘Take one from me, I am a Persian slave.’ Rasulullaah ﷺ (heard this sentence of mine) so he turned to me and said, “Why did you not say like this, ‘Take a blow from me, I am an Ansaari youngster.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

The example of the one who supports without right

972. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who helps his nation without right, he is like the camel that falls into a well, then it is pulled out by its tail.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

What is tribalism?

973. Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa’ .. narrates that I asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is tribalism?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Tribalism is that you help your nation in oppression and overstepping the limits.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

Until when is it permissible to support ones tribe?

974. Hadhrat Suraqah bin Maalik .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ delivered a sermon to us and said, “The best of you is he who defends his tribe as long as he does not get involved in sin.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

The evil of tribalism

975. Hadhrat Jubayr bin Mut’im  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He is not of us who calls towards tribalism (i.e. he readies others to support a matter unlawfully), nor is he amongst us who wages war based on tribalism. Similarly, he is not of us who dies in the condition of tribalism.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

Love blinds people and makes them deaf

976. Hadhrat Abu Darda  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Your love for something makes you blind and deaf.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

The reality of tribalism

977. Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Katheer Shami narrates from a woman called Faseela that she said, “I heard my father explaining that he asked Rasulullaah ﷺ, ‘O Rasul of Allaah, is love for ones nation tribalism?’ He said, ‘No, tribalism is that a person helps his nation and group in matters of oppression.’” [Ahmad, Ibn Maajah]

The evil of priding over ones lineage

978. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Lineage is not something due to which you can speak badly to someone about or find fault in him, all of you are the children of Aadam. Just as a Saa’ is equal to a Saa’ which you have filled. No one has virtue over another except on account of religiosity and abstinence. It is sufficient for the evil of a person to speak a lot, be lewd and be miserly.” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]
Good relations with ones parents and relatives

Who is most deserving of good relations?

979. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that a person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, who is most deserving of my good companionship (i.e. good treatment and service)?” he said, “Your mother.” He said, “Then who.” He said, “Your mother.” He said, “Then who?” He said, “Your mother.” He said, “Then who?” he said, “Your father.” In one narration it is stated that Rasulullaah said (in reply to the question of the person), “Your mother, then your mother, then your mother, then your father, then your other relatives that are close, then those that are close. (i.e. after one parents, the rights of the relatives are due stage by stage for good treatment).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Warning for not serving ones parents in old age

980. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullaah said, “May the nose of that person be covered in dust, may the nose of that person be covered in dust, may the nose of that person be covered in dust.” (i.e. he made Du’aa’ of misfortune thrice that he be disgraced and lowly). It was asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, who is that person? (for whom this Du’aa’ of misfortune was made)? He ﷺ said, “He who finds his parents or one of them in old age and then does not enter Jannah.” (i.e. he whose parents or one of them are old in age and he does not serve them and please them, he is wretched to the highest degree because serving ones aged parents earns great reward and is a cause of entry into Jannah).” [Muslim]

Good relations with ones non Muslim parents

981. Hadhrat Asma bint Abu Bakr radhiyallaahu anha narrates that my mother came to Madinah (from Makkah) in the state of polytheism when it was the era of the peace treaty. Subsequently, I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, my mother has come to me and she is free of Islaam, shall I treat her well?” He ﷺ said, “Yes, treat her well.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

Considering non Muslim relatives

982. Hadhrat Amr bin ‘Aas ﷺ narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “The children of Abu...are not my friends, my friends are Allaah and the pious believers. However, I am close to those whom I moisten with moist things.” (i.e. I treat them well) [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

Three impermissible and three disliked actions

983. Hadhrat Mughirah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ has made these things impermissible upon you; disobedience to your mothers and thereby hurting their hearts, burying daughters alive, miserliness and begging. These things are disliked for you; useless talk, asking many questions (in order to investigate people) and destroying wealth (i.e. extravagant spending).”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

Swearing ones parents

984. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ḥ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Swearing your parents is from the major sins.” The companions (heard this) and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, can a person swear his own parents?” he said, “Yes, a person swears the father of someone, so he swears his father and a person swears the mother of someone so he swears his mother.” [Bukhari]

Having good relations with the friends of one’s parents

985. Hadhrat Ibn Umar ḥ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “From among the greatest good deeds is that after the demise of a person’s parents, he treats their friends well in their absence.” [Muslim]
The benefits of having good relations with ones relatives

986. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who desires wide expanse in his sustenance and desires that his death be delayed (i.e. his lifespan be long) he should treat his family well and do good to them.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The virtue of mending ties and the evil of breaking ties

When Allaah ﷺ completed, family relations stood up and held onto the Rabb. The Rabb said, “What is the matter?” Family relations said, “This is the place where protection from cutting off relations is sought.” Allaah ﷺ said, “Does it not please you that whoever joins you (i.e. fulfils your rights) I shall join him (to My mercy) and he who cuts you off, I shall cut him off from My Mercy?” Family relations said, “Rabb, indeed I am happy with this.” The Rabb said, “Well, this promise is established for you.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

988. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Rahm (the word) comes from (the word) Rahmaan.

Subsequently, Allaah □ said to Rahm (i.e. family relations), “He who joins you (i.e. fulfils your rights) I shall join him (to My Mercy) and he who breaks you (i.e. does not fulfil your rights) I shall break him (i.e. I shall deprive such a person of My Mercy).” [Bukhari]

mmm

989. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Mercy (relations) is suspended from the Arsh and says, ‘He who joins me, Allaah □ will join him to His Mercy and he who breaks me, Allaah □ will separate him from His Mercy.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

990. Hadhrat Jubayr bin Mut’im  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who cuts off relations will not enter Jannah.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

Who is the one who mends relations totally?

991. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person who mends relations totally is not he who recompenses (i.e. he does good to the one who did good to him), in fact, the one who mends relations totally is he when relations are cut off from him, he mends them.” [Bukhari]

mmm
The benefit of mending relations totally

992. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that a person said (to Rasulullaah ﷺ), “O Rasul of Allaah, I have a few relatives with whom I mend relations and they cut off relations with me. I treat them well and they treat me badly. I overlook their faults and their act ignorantly to me (i.e. they speak ill to me and are displeased, hearing this) he said, “If you are as you say, then it is as though you are placing hot ashes in their faces. (i.e. through your treatment you are disgracing them) and there is a continuous helper to you from Allaah that pushes their harm and trouble back as long as they are in that condition.” [Muslim]

The benefits of Du’aa’ and good relations and the evil of sins

993. Hadhrat Thaubaan narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Nothing changes the predestination of Allaah but Du’aa’ and nothing lengthens ones age except treating ones parents well and a person is deprived of sustenance on account of the sins he commits.” [Ibn Maajah]
The virtue of having good relations with ones parents

994. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I went to Jannah and heard the sound of the recitation of the Qur’aan there. I asked (the angels), “Who is this person?” (who is engaged in reciting the Qur’aan). The angels said, “It is Haaritha bin Nu’maan.” (He then explained the cause of this that) this is the virtue and reward of treating ones parents well, this is the virtue and reward of treating ones parents well. And Haaritha bin Nu’maan was the one who treated his mother the best.” [Baghawi, Bayhaqi] in one narration it is mentioned that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I slept and saw myself in Jannah...”

995. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The pleasure of the Rabb lies in the pleasure of one’s parents and the displeasure of the Rabb lies in the displeasure of one’s parents.” [Tirmidhi]

The father is the best door to Jannah

996. Hadhrat Abu Darda  narrates that a person came to him and said, “I have a wife and my mother (or father) commands that I divorce her. Hadhrat Abu Darda  said to him that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that the father is the best door to Jannah, so if you want, protect this door or destroy it.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The Masnun method of having good relations

997. Hadhrat Bahz bin Hakeem narrates from his father and he from the grandfather of Bahz (Hadhrat Mu’awiyah bin Haydah ..) that he said that I mentioned, “O Rasul of Allaah, with whom should I deal well?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “With your mother.” I said, “Then with whom?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Then with whom?” “With your mother?” I then asked, “Then with whom?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “With your mother.” I then asked, “Then with whom?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Your father. And then with those who are close to you (after your parents), (like brothers and sisters) then those who are closest after them (like paternal and maternal uncles and in this sequence the children of one’s maternal and paternal uncles etc.) [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

The promise of Rahmaan with relations

998. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf .. narrates, “I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that Allaah ﷺ says, ‘I am Allaah, I am Rahmaan (i.e. I have the quality of Rahmah), I created Rahm i.e. family relations and I took its name out of My name i.e. Rahmaan. Therefore, he who joins family relations (i.e. he fulfils the rights of family relations) I shall join him (with My mercy) and he who breaks Rahm (i.e. he does not fulfil the rights of family relations) I shall also separate him (from My mercy).” [Abu Dawud]
The consequence of breaking ties and oppression

999. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Aufah  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that mercy does not descend upon that nation that breaks relations.

[Bayhaqi]

1000. Hadhrat Abu Bakra  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Besides the sins of oppression, overstepping the limits and breaking ties, there is no sin the doer of which Allaah ﷺ punishes quickly in this world and keeps punishment for him in the Aakhirat.”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

Three people will not enter Jannah

1001. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who does good to another and keeps a favour upon him will not enter Jannah nor he who is disobedient to his parents, nor the drunkard (who dies without repenting).” [Nasa‘i, Daarimi]
The benefits of mending ties

1002. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “You should learn those family relations through which you will be able to have good relations with your family because dealing well with family relatives is a cause of love and affection, a means of a lot of wealth and blessings and it gives chance for one’s life to be lengthened.” [Tirmidhi]

1003. Hadhrat Ibn Umar (رضي الله عنه) narrates that a person came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, a great sin happened from me, what is the method of repentance for me?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do you have a mother?” he said, “No.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do you have a maternal aunt?” He said, “Yes.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Treat her well.” [Tirmidhi]

The method of having good relations with deceased parents

1004. Hadhrat Abu Usayd Saa’idi narrates that one day we were sitting with Rasulullaah ﷺ when suddenly a person of Banu Salimah came to him and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, is there any share for me in dealing well with my parents that I can fulfil after their demise? (i.e. I used to deal well with my parents during their life. Now they have passed away, so now after their demise is there any way that I can deal well with them)?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes, make Du’aa’ for them (Janaazah Salaah is part of this), seeking forgiveness for them, fulfilling their bequest after their demise and joining those relations which are joined solely for the sake of one’s parents (i.e. deal well with the relations of one’s parents) and honouring the friends of one’s parents.”

[Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah]

The treatment to ones wet nurse shown by Rasulullaah ﷺ

1005. Hadhrat Abu Tufayl narrates that he saw Rasulullaah ﷺ in the place called Ji’irraanah distributing meat when suddenly a woman came. When she reached Rasulullaah ﷺ, he spread his shawl for her and she sat on it. I asked (looking at this good treatment of her being done by Rasulullaah ﷺ), “Who is this woman?” he said, “It is the wet nurse of Rasulullaah ﷺ.” [Abu Dawud]

The exemplary lesson of the people of the cave

1006. Hadhrat Ibn Umar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Once) three people were going together when (on the way) heavy rain caught them. They (in order to be saved from the rain) went into a cave. In this time, a boulder from the mountain fell into the mouth of the cave and prevented the path of the three. The three of them spoke amongst themselves (when in this case they were very worried and they saw no way of coming out) that now look at your actions which you did solely for the pleasure and happiness of Allaah and using these actions as a means ask Allaah. Probably Allaah will open a way of salvation for us. Subsequently, one of them said, “O Allaah, (you know very well that) my parents were very old and I had a few small children and I used to herd goats so that (by means of the milk) I could arrange (to fill the bellies of my parents and children). Subsequently, when I would return in the evening to my household and milked the goats, I would begin with my parents and would give them milk before my children. One day it so happened that the trees (for grazing) took me very far (i.e. herding the goats I went off very far) until it was evening and I could not come home. When night fell I reached home and found my parents sleeping. Then according to my habitual practice, I milked and took the utensil filled with milk to my parents and stood at the head side because I did not like to wake them and I could not tolerate to give my children milk to drink before them when my children were screaming at my feet. This remained mine and their condition until morning (i.e. the entire night passed in this condition that I stood with the milk at the head side of my parents and they slept and my children were screaming). So, O Allaah, if You know that I did this solely seeking Your pleasure and happiness then (giving this action as a means, we ask You that) You open this boulder enough so that we could see the sky.” Subsequently, Allaah (accepted his Du’aa’) and moved the stone so much that they could see the sky.

The second person said in a similar way, “O Allaah, my uncle had a daughter. I wanted her so much just as any man would want a woman. When I made it apparent to have relations with her she rejected until I give her 100 Dinars. Then (I made effort and collected 100 Dinars and) took those Dinars and went to her. When I sat between her legs in order to have relations with her she said, “O servant of Allaah, fear Allaah and refrain from breaking my seal of trust (i.e. she implored me telling me to fear Allaah and not to break her honour and do not break my virginity which is the trust of someone).” (The moment I heard this) I stood up from her. So, O Allaah, if You know that this action of mine was solely done seeking Your pleasure and happiness, then (giving this action as a means I ask You) to move this boulder and open the way for us.” Subsequently, Allaah [] (accepted the Du’aa’ of this person) and moved the boulder a little more.

Then the third person made Du’aa’ in a similar way, “O Allaah, I kept a worker in lieu of a Faraq of rice. When he completed his work, then he requested that give my wage. I presented his wage to him. However, out of independence he left it and went away. I then planted that rice until through that rice I collected oxen and their shepherds, then (after some time) that worker came to me and said, “Fear Allaah, do not oppress me and give me my right.” I said, “Go to those oxen and their shepherds (take them, they are all your right).” He said (hearing me, in astonishment he looked), “Fear Allaah and do not joke with me.” I said, “(Do not take what I say to be a lie), I am not joking with you. Go and take those oxen and their shepherds.” After this he took all of them and went away. So, O Allaah, if You know that this action of mine was done solely seeking Your pleasure and happiness, then (giving this action as a means I ask You that) You move this boulder whatever is left.”
Subsequently, Allaah ﷻ opened the rest of the mouth of the cave (and also accepted the Du’aa’ of this person).” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Jannah lies beneath the feet of the mother

1007. Hadhrat Mu’awiyah bin Jahimah narrates that (one day) Hadhrat Jahimah went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, I want to go in Jihaad and I have come to consult with you regarding it.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Is your mother alive?” he said, “Yes.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Then hold firm to your mother because Jannah lies under the feet of the mother.” [Ahmad, Nasa’i, Bayhaqi]

Emphasis upon obedience to ones father

1008. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that I married a woman whom I loved but (my father) Hadhrat Umar did not like her. Subsequently, he said to me (one day), “Divorce this woman.” I rejected so Hadhrat Umar went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and mentioned this. Then Rasulullaah ﷺ said to me, “Divorce this woman.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]
What are the rights of the parents upon the children?

1009. Hadhrat Abu Umamah  narrates that a person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what are the rights of the parents upon the children?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “They are your Jannah as well as your hell.” [Ibn Maajah]

The method of pleasing ones parents after they pass away

1010. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When the parents of a person pass away or one of them pass away and he was disobedient to them, then (after the demise) he continuously makes Du’aa’ and seeks forgiveness for them until Allaah ﷺ writes him to be one who dealt well with his parents.” [Bayhaqi]

The virtue of fulfilling the rights of ones parents

1011. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who is in the morning in the condition that he is obedient to his parents (i.e. he fulfilled the rights of his parents and obeyed the command of Allaah) then he finds the morning in the condition that two doors of Jannah are open for him and if any of his parents are alive, (and he obeyed them) then one door is open and he who is in the morning in the condition such that he disobeys Allaah ﷺ regarding the rights of his parents (i.e. he fell short in fulfilling the rights of his parents and disobeyed the command of Allaah), then he is in the morning such that two doors of Jahanam-hell are open for him and if one of his parents is alive (and he disobeyed them) then one door is open.” (Hearing this) a person said, “Even if his parents oppress him?” He said, “Yes, even if his parents oppress him, even if his parents oppress him, even if his parents oppress him.” [Bayhaqi]

The reward for looking at ones parents with love

1012. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who deals well with his parents, when he looks at his parents with the eyes of love, Allaah ﷺ writes the reward of an accepted Hajj in lieu of every gaze.” The companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, even if he looks 100 times at them during the day?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Yes, Allaah ﷺ is very Great and very Pure (i.e. in your view, that in lieu of every gaze, why is the reward of an accepted Hajj written, then this reward is not farfetched looking at the grandeur of Allaah and His wide mercy, if He wants, He can give even greater reward).” [Bayhaqi]

The retribution for disobedience to ones parents

1013. Hadhrat Abu Bakra  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Besides polytheism) all sins are such that Allaah ﷺ will forgive how much He wants except He does not forgive disobedience to parents, in fact, Allahpunishes those who are disobedient to their parents before their death.”

[Bayhaqi]

mmm

The rights of the elder brother

1014. Hadhrat Sa’eed bin Aas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The right of the elder brother upon the smaller brother is like the right of the father upon the son.” [Bayhaqi]

mmm
Having mercy and affection upon the creation of Allah

The evil consequence of not showing mercy to the creation of Allah 1015. Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allah ﷺ does not have mercy on the one who does not have mercy upon people.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Affection for children

1016. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) a Bedouin came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and (he saw that the companions kiss their children and show love to them), he said, “What, do you kiss your children?” we do not kiss our children.” (Hearing this), Rasulullaah said, “What, do I have the ability to stop the mercy and affection that has been taken out of your heart?” (i.e. I cannot stop the mercy and affection that Allaah ﷺ has removed from your heart).

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The virtue of being good with daughters

1017. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) a woman came to me. She had two children with her and was asking me for something. However, I did not have anything except a date. Subsequently, I gave her that date. She divided the date between her two children and did not eat anything herself. She then got up and went away. In this time Rasulullaah ﷺ came home. I related the incident of this woman to him so he said, “He who is tested by means of these children and he treats them well, then these children will be a veil from the fire for him.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

1018. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who nurtures two daughters until they are mature (or she gets married and goes to her husband) then on the Day of Qiyaamat he and I will be like this.” Saying this he joined his fingers. [Muslim]

[693]
The reward for looking after a widow and poor person

1019. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who looks after widows and the destitute, his example is like the person who strives in the path of Allaah (i.e. he who looks after the widows and destitute and fulfils their needs and treats them well, his reward is equal to the reward of the one who wages Jihaad in the path of Allaah and the one who goes for Hajj).” And I think that he also said, “The one who looks after the widow and destitute is similar to the one who stays awake at night in Salaah and worship and he does not display laziness in staying awake at night, he does not tolerate any difficulty and similar to the person who fasts who never makes Iftaar.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The reward for looking after an orphan

1020. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Myself and the one who nurtures an orphan, whether the orphan is his or anyone else’s, will be in Jannah like this.” Saying this, Rasulullaah ﷺ indicated with his index and middle finger and kept a small space between them. [Bukhari]

The importance of helping one another and mutual relations

1021. Hadhrat Nu’man bin Bashir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “You should deal mercifully with the Muslims, keep affection and love amongst yourselves and adopt beneficence and help each other, you will find in this like the condition of the body that when a limb of the body pains, then the rest of the limbs call on each other due to the difficulty of this limb and the entire body participates in staying awake and fever.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

1022. Hadhrat Nu’man bin Bashir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “All the Muslims are like a single body. If the eye pains then the entire body is restless and if the head pains, then the entire body feels the difficulty. (Similarly, the difficulty of one Muslim should be felt by all).” [Muslim]

1023. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “A Muslim is like a building for another Muslim (i.e. all the Muslims are like a building) one part of it strengthens the other.” Saying this he placed the fingers of one hand into the fingers of the other hand. [Bukhari, Muslim]
Emphasis upon intercession

1024. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates from Rasulullaah  that when a person in need or someone asking came to him then (the companions) would say (to me) that intercede for that person so that we can get the reward of intercession and execute the command of Allaah that comes on the tongue of His Rasul. [Bukhari, Muslim]

The method of aiding the oppressed

1025. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Help your Muslim brother whether he is the oppressor or the oppressed.” A companion said (upon hearing this), “O Rasul of Allaah, I have to help a Muslim that is oppressed (and I know that how he should be helped) but how can I help the Muslim that is oppressing? Rasulullaah  said, “Stop him from oppression and this (i.e. stopping him from oppression) is helping him.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The rights of Muslim brothers

1026. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “A Muslim is a religious brother unto another Muslim, he does not oppress him, nor does he hand him over to the enemy (but he helps him against the enemy) and (remember) he who strives to fulfil the need of his Muslim brother, Allaah  fulfils his need. Moreover, he who removes the difficulty and worry of a Muslim (whether that difficulty and grief is a lot or little) Allaah ﷺ will grant him salvation from the great difficulties of the Day of Qiyaamat and he who hides the fault of his Muslim brother, Allaah ﷺ will hide his fault on the Day of Qiyaamat.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

1027. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A Muslim is a religious brother to another Muslim.
(Therefore), a Muslim should not oppress another Muslim and he should not leave out helping and aiding him and he should not take him to be lowly.” Then Rasulullaah ﷺ indicated thrice towards his chest and said, “Abstinence is here.” He also said, “It is sufficient for the evil of man that he takes his Muslim brother to be lowly and despised and (remember) everything of a Muslim is forbidden upon a Muslim, i.e. his blood, his wealth and his respect and honour.” [Muslim]

Three types of dwellers of Jannah and five types of dwellers of Jahannam

1028. Hadhrat Iyaadh bin Himaar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There are three types of dwellers of Jannah; one is the ruler who is just and equitable and does good to people and he has been granted the ability to do good and pious actions. The second is the one who is beneficent (upon young and old) and he is soft hearted towards his relatives and Muslims. The third is the one who stays away from (impermissible things) he abstains (from stretching his hands before others) and he is a family person (i.e. although he is needy, he stays away from impermissible and does not stretch his hands before anyone but Allaah).

And the dwellers of Jahannam are of five types; one is the weak person who does not have the courage to stay away from sins and he follows you, he does not seek a wife (so that he can fulfil his desires in a permissible way), he does not have concern for earning (but he lives on the hand outs of others and does wrong actions), the second is the one who misappropriates and is irreligious who seeks hidden things and misappropriates in them, even if the thing he covets is small, the third is the person who remains in the worry of deceiving you regarding you home and wealth and (regarding the fourth person, the narrator did not remember that how he mentioned it. Therefore the narrator says that) Rasulullaah ﷺ mentioned miserliness or lies and the fifth is a person with evil character and is lewd in speech.” [Muslim

Who is a complete Mu’min?

1029. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By the Being in Whose control my life is, a person can never be a complete believer until he desires for his brother what he desires.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The one who causes difficulty to his neighbours is not a complete Mu’min 1030. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By Allaah, he is not a (complete) believer, By Allaah, he is not a (complete) believer, By Allaah, he is not a (complete) believer.” (When he repeated this and he did not clarify then) the companions asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, who is that person?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He whose neighbours are not safe from his evil.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

The evil consequence of causing harm to ones neighbours

1031. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He cannot enter Jannah (with the saved ones), he whose neighbours are not safe from his evil.” [Muslim]

Emphasis to fulfil the rights of neighbours

1032. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha and Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrate from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Hadhrat Jibreel always emphasized upon me regarding the rights of neighbours to the extent that I thought that soon Hadhrat Jibreel ﷺ will stipulate (through the command of Allaah) that the neighbour be made an inheritor.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The reason for prohibition of whispering

1033. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When three people gather, then two of them should not converse such that the third one cannot hear until they do not join many people and this prohibition is because the two people speaking on their own is a cause of grief to the third person.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Deen is well wishing

1034. Hadhrat Tameem Daari  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Deen is well wishing.” He said this thrice. We (the companions) asked, “With whom (is Deen well wishing)?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “With Allaah, with the Book of Allaah, with the Rasul of Allaah, with the leaders of the Muslims (i.e. the leaders of the Islaamic government and the scholars) and with all Muslims (Deen is well wishing, i.e. Deen is to fulfil the rights of Allaah, the rights of the book of Allaah, the rights of the Rasul of Allaah, the rights of the leaders of the Muslims and the rights of all Muslims.)” [Muslim]

Well wishing for every Muslim 1035. Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah  narrates that I pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah ﷺ upon this that I shall perform Salaah punctually, I shall give Zakaat and I shall be a well wisher for every Muslim.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Who is wretched?

1036. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ر. ن. narrates that he heard Abul Qaasim و who is truthful and about whom Allaah has given news of him being truthful saying, “Mercy and beneficence is not removed from the heart of anyone but a wretched person.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

The virtue of showing mercy to the creation of Allaah

1037. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The one who is merciful and beneficent upon creation, the mercy of Rahmaan descends upon him. Therefore, have mercy upon those on earth, those in the heavens will have mercy upon you.”

[Abu Dawud, Tirmidhi]

Warning for not showing affection to the young and honouring the elders

1038. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He is not of our followers who does not have mercy upon our young, does not honour our elderly, does not command the good and forbid the evil.”

[Tirmidhi]

The result of honouring the elderly

1039. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whichever young person honours a person on account of his old age, Allaah ﷺ will appoint a person in his old age who will honour him and serve him.” [Tirmidhi]

Emphasis upon honouring three people

1040. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is from honouring Allaah to respect an old Muslim and to honour such a bearer of the Qur’aan that does not exaggerate in the noble Qur’aan (in its recitation and exegesis and practice), nor is he deficient in the same and honouring a just king (i.e. honouring him is in reality honouring Allaah ﷺ).” [Abu Dawud, Bayhaqi]

The best house and the worst house

1041. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “From the houses of the Muslims, the best house is the one in which there is an orphan and he is treated well and the worst house from the houses of the Muslims is the one in which there is an orphan and he is ill treated.” [Ibn Maajah]

The reward for being good to orphans

1042. Hadhrat Abu Umamah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who passes his hand over the head of an orphan (boy or girl) solely for the pleasure of Allaah (out of love and affection), in lieu of every hair over which his hand passes, good deeds are written for him. Also, he who treats the orphan in his care well, that person and I will be like this in Jannah.” Saying this Rasulullaah ﷺ joined his two fingers (i.e.

his index finger and middle finger he joined and showed that just as these two fingers are close to each other, similarly, that person and I will be close in Jannah.

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

A deed that makes Jannah compulsory

1043. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “He who lets an orphan join in his food and drink, indeed Allaah  makes Jannah compulsory for him. However, if he does something that is not worthy of forgiving (then Jannah does not become compulsory for him). And he who nurtures 3 daughters or 3 sisters, then he brings them up well and is affectionate towards them until Allaah makes them independent (i.e. until they grow old and are married) Allaah  also makes Jannah compulsory for him.” Hearing this, a companion said, “Will this reward also be for the one who brings up two daughters or two sisters?” Rasulullaah  said, “Yes, for two, a person will get this reward.” (The narrator says) if the companions enquired about one daughter or one sister, then too he would have given the reply that yes, one will get this reward for one as well. Then Rasulullaah  said, “The person from whom Allaah  takes his two beloved things, for him Jannah becomes compulsory.” It was asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, what is meant by two beloved things?” He said, “Both his eyes.” [Sharh us Sunnah]

mmm
The virtues of teaching children manners

1044. Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah Ṣ. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By Allaah, teaching ones child one aspect of respect is better than giving a Saa’ of grain in charity.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

1045. Hadhrat Ayyub bin Musa narrates from his father and he narrates from the grandfather of Ayyub (Hadhrat Amr bin Sa’eed) that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A father does not give a better gift to his child than good manners.” [Tirmidhi, Bayhaqi]

mmm

The reward for sacrificing ones life and wealth upon ones children 1046. Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik Ashja’i Ṣ. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The woman whose cheeks have become black (on account of bringing her children up and looking after them) will be like this on the day of Qiyaamat.” The narrator of this hadith, Yazid bin Zuray’ indicated with his index finger and middle finger after saying this (that just as these two fingers are so close, similarly, on the Day of Qiyaamat, Rasulullaah ﷺ and that widowed woman will be so close) and (he explained regarding the meaning of a woman with black cheeks is that) the woman who was widowed due to the demise of her husband or being divorced and despite being beautiful and being noble, only for the sake of bringing her orphaned children up, she stayed away from a second marriage until those children separated (i.e. they did not need their mother on account of maturing) or they pass away.”

[Abu Dawud]

mmm

The reward for being good to ones sister and daughter

1047. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who has a sister or daughter and does not bury them alive (as was the custom of the era of ignorance that the moment a girl was born, she was buried alive out of fear of poverty or ridicule), nor does he look at them with disgrace and he does not give preference to his sons over them in giving, then Allaah ﷺ will enter him into Jannah (with those ahead and the pious).” [Abu Dawud]

The virtue of helping the Muslim about whom backbiting is done and the consequence of not helping him

1048. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whichever person before whom the backbiting of a Muslim brother is done and he helps his Muslim brother, on condition that he has the ability to help, then Allaah ﷺ will help him in this world and in the Aakhirat. And despite having the ability to help him, he does not help, then Allaah ﷺ will take him to task in this world and in the Aakhirat.”

1049. Hadhrat Asma bint yazid radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who refrained from eating the flesh of his Muslim brother in his absence (i.e. a person was speaking ill and backbiting of a Muslim in front of him, and he stopped this action), then it is a right upon Allaah to free him from the fire of Jahanam-hell.” [Bayhaqi]

1050. Hadhrat Abu Darda .. narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that whichever Muslim stops the honour of his brother, i.e. backbiting about him, then it is compulsory upon Allaah to save him from Jahanam-hell fire on the day of Qiyaamat. Then Rasulullaah ﷺ recited this verse (in order to prove ‘it is compulsory upon Allaah’), ‘And it is a right upon Us to help the believers.’ [Sharh us Sunnah]

1051. Hadhrat Jaabir .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Whichever Muslim who does not help another Muslim where he is dishonoured Allaah ﷺ will not help him on such an occasion where he will hope for the Mercy of Allaah. And whichever Muslim helps another Muslim when he is being dishonoured, then Allaah ﷺ will help him on such an occasion where he is in hope of the Mercy of Allaah.”

[Abu Dawud]
The reward for hiding the faults of Muslims

1052. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “He who sees a fault in any Muslim, then he hides it, then his status is equal to the one who saved a girl that was buried alive.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

A Muslim is a mirror for another Muslim 1053. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Each of you is a mirror for his brother. Therefore, if you bad in him, then remove this bad from him (i.e. whichever Muslim you see bad in, make every effort to show him the straight path).” [Tirmidhi] another narration of Tirmidhi and one narration of Abu Dawud states that a Muslim is a mirror to another Muslim and a Muslim is a brother to another Muslim who removes that which will cause harm to him away and in his absence he protects him (his rights and belongings)

Note:
The meaning of this Hadith is that just as a mirror shows only the faults of the person looking, it does not let others see, similarly, a Muslim informs another Muslim in solitude with the desire of counsel of his faults and in his absence he does not backbite about him.
The result of stopping backbiting and the evil end of accusing

Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who saves the honour of a Muslim from the evil of a hypocrite Allaah ﷺ will send an angel for him that will save his flesh from the fire of Jahanam-hell on the Day of Qiyaamat. And he who accuses a Muslim – the objective of which is to pick fault with the being of a Muslim (and to cause him harm), then Allaah ﷺ will stop him on the bridge of Jahanam-hell until he comes out of the calamity of the one who levelled the accusation.” [Abu Dawud]

The best friend and best neighbour

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “According to Allaah (in terms of reward and virtue) the best among friends is the one who is the best (advisor) unto his friends and according to Allaah, the best neighbour among neighbours is the one who is the best in counsel to his neighbours.” [Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

Recognition of being good and bad

Hadrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that a person said to Rasulullaah ﷺ, “O Rasul of Allaah, in what way can I come to know if I am good or bad?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you hear your neighbours saying that you did good, then undoubtedly you are good and when you hear your neighbours saying that you have done evil, then definitely you are evil (i.e. if your neighbour says that you are good then you are good and if your neighbour says that you are bad then you are bad).” [Ibn Maajah]

Considering the different levels of people

1057. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Keep people according to their status.” (i.e. treat people in such a way considering their status). [Abu Dawud]

mmm
Emphasis upon having good relations with ones neighbours

1058. Hadhrat Abdur Rahman bin Abi Quraad narrates that one day Rasulullaah made wudhu so the Sahabah rubbed the water of wudhu on their bodies. (Looking at this) Rasulullaah said, “What is the cause behind what you are doing?” they said, “It is on account of the love of Allaah and His Rasul.” Rasulullaah said, “He who likes to love Allaah and His Rasul or Allaah and His Rasul love him, then when he speaks he should speak the truth. When a trust is kept by him, he should fulfil it and treat his neighbours well.” [Bayhaqi]

1059. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas narrates that he heard Rasulullaah saying, “He is not a (complete) believer who eats to his fill and his neighbour goes hungry.” [Bayhaqi]

1060. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that (one day in the gathering of Rasulullaah) a person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, there is a big hue about the Salaah, fasting and charity of a woman (i.e. people are saying that a particular woman does a lot of worship and gives a lot of charity), but she gives difficulty to her neighbour. (Hearing this) Rasulullaah said, “She will go to Jahanam-hell.” A person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, it is said regarding a woman that she keeps very few optional fasts, gives very little charity and performs very little Salaah and her charity is not more than a few pieces of cheese but she does not give trouble to her neighbours by means of her tongue.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “That woman will go to Jannah.”

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

mmm

The best person and the worst person

1061. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ stood before a few companions who were seated and said, “Shall I separate the best among you from the worst among you explaining them? (i.e. shall I tell you who is the best among you and the who is the worst among you?)” Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says, “(The companions heard this) and remained silent. When Rasulullaah ﷺ repeated this thrice then a companion said, “Yes, O Rasul of Allaah, explain to us separating the best of us from the worst of us.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The best among you is he about whom people have hope of goodness and being protected from his evil and the worst person among you is he about whom people do not have hope of goodness, nor are they protected from his evil.” [Tirmidhi, Bayhaqi]

Who is the friend of Allaah?

1062. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  said, “Allaah  has distributed your character among you in this way just as He has distributed your provision amongst you and there is no doubt that Allaah  gives the world to the one whom He takes as a friend and He also gives it to one whom He does not take as a friend but He only gives Deen (the treasure of good character) to the one whom He takes as a friend. Therefore, he whom Allaah has blessed with the treasure of Deen, he is the friend of Allaah. By the Being in Whose control my life is, a person cannot be a complete believer until his heart and tongue is not a Muslim and a person cannot be a complete Mu’min until his neighbours are not safe from his evil.” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

Who is a good Mu’min?

1063. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “A Mu’min is a place of love and affection and there is no goodness in the one who is not affectionate and affection is not shown to him (i.e. he who does not show love and affection to people, nor do people show affection to him is not a good person).” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]
The reward for fulfilling the needs of a Muslim

1064. Hadhrat Anas \( \text{} \) narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person of my Ummah who fulfils the need of a person (of this world or religious) and his objective is to please the needy, then he has pleased me and he who has pleased me has pleased Allaah and he who has pleased Allaah, Allaah will enter him into Jannah.” [Bayhaqi]

The reward for helping one in worry

1065. Hadhrat Anas \( \text{} \) narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who helps a person in need, Allaah writes 73 bounties for him. One bounty of these is sufficient to correct his affairs (of this world and the Aakhirah) and the rest (72) bounties will be a means of raising his status on the Day of Qiyaamat.” [Bayhaqi]

The creation is the tribe of Allaah

1066. Hadhrat Anas \( \text{} \) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood \( \text{} \) both narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The creation is the tribe of Allaah. Therefore, the best among creation according to Allaah is the one who deals well with the tribe of Allaah.” [Bayhaqi]

[714]
The importance of the rights of neighbours

1067. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the first two people that will argue will be two neighbours.” [Ahmad]

The treatment for hard heartedness

1068. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) a person complained of hard heartedness to Rasulullaah  (and asked about the treatment) so he said, “Pass your hands over the head of an orphan and feed the destitute.” [Ahmad]

The virtue of spending upon ones widowed daughter

1069. Hadhrat Suraqah bin Maalik  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Shall I not tell you the best charity?” (then he explained that the best charity) is to treat ones daughter well who was returned to one and besides you there is none to earn (i.e. due to divorce or her husband passing away your daughter comes home and there is no support for her but you, the best charity is to treat her well and spending on her).” [Ibn Maajah]

Loving for the sake of Allaah and loving Allaah

The secret of mutual love and hatred

1070. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The souls (before entering the body) are like an army were gathered (in one place). (Then they were separated and placed into each body). Subsequently, (before entering the body) those souls that were affiliated to each other on account of similar qualities, they have love for each other (after going into the bodies, in this world as well) and those souls that differed with each other, they (in this world) also had differences.” (Therefore, the pious love the pious and the evil love the evil and the pious hate the evil and the evil hate the pious). [Bukhari]

The secret of being loved or hated

1071. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When Allaah ﷺ loves a person, then He calls Jibreel ﷺ and says, ‘I love a particular servant, you also love him.’ [716]
Rasulullaah ﷺ said, ‘(Hearing this) Jibreel ﷺ begins to love that person. Then through the command of Allaah, Jibreel ﷺ makes this announcement in the heavens that Allaah ﷺ loves a particular servant. Therefore, you also love him. Subsequently, the inhabitants of the heavens also begin to love him. Then acceptance for that person is placed in the world (i.e. love for him is placed in the hearts of those living in the world) and when Allaah ﷺ has hatred for a person then He calls Jibreel ﷺ and says, ‘I hate a particular person, you also hate him.’ Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Hearing this) Jibreel ﷺ begins to hate this person. Then he announces in the heavens that Allaah ﷺ hates a particular person, therefore you also hate him. Subsequently, the inhabitants of the heavens also begin to hate him. Then enmity and hatred for him is placed in the world (due to which the people on earth also begin to hate him).” [Muslim]

The virtues of loving for the sake of Allaah

1072. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, Allaah ﷺ will say (in order to make the grandeur of some of His servants apparent before all people), “Where are those who had love for each other for the sake of My greatness and My honour? (or, where are those who had love for each other for the sake of My pleasure in order to attain reward?) Today I shall give them shade in My shade when today there is no shade besides Mine’s.” [Muslim] 1073. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that a person went to meet his Muslim brother that lived in another locality. Allaah ﷻ placed an angel on his way awaiting him (when the person reached the place, then) the angel asked, “Where do you intend going?” The person replied, “I am going to meet a Muslim brother of mine that lives in this locality.” The angel asked, “Did he do any favour to you for which you owe him a right, and due to attaining it you are going (i.e. the person whom you are going to, did he do a favour for you and in order to get the recompense you are going to him?). The person said, “No, I only have a relationship with him for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah.” The angel said, “(Then listen), Allaah ﷻ sent me to you so that I can give you the glad tidings that Allaah ﷻ loves you just as you love this person and have a relationship with him solely for the sake of Allaah ﷻ.” [Muslim]

1074. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ﷺ narrates that (one day) a person came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, what do you say regarding the person who has love and faith in a particular group (i.e. the scholars and pious), but he does not get the chance to be with them? (or he does not reach their knowledge and practice). Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “That person will be with whom he loves.” (i.e. on the Day of Qiyaamat he will be resurrected along with those whom he loves). [Bukhari, Muslim] 1075. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that (one day) a person asked, “O Rasul of Allaah, when will Qiyaamat come?” Rasulullaah  said, “Regret be upon you, have you prepared anything for Qiyaamat?” the person said, “I have not prepared anything. However, I have love for Allaah and His Rasul.” He said, (On the day of Qiyaamat) he will be with whom he loves.” Hadhrat Anas  says, ‘After Islaam, I have never seen the Muslims so happy as they were with this statement of Rasulullaah .’” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The example of a good and bad companion

1076. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The example of good and bad company is like a musk carrier and one who blows into the furnace. The musk carrier will either give you musk for free or you will buy it from him or you will definitely get its scent and the one blowing into the furnace will either burn your clothes or you will get smoke.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
A servant worthy of emulation

1077. Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Allaah ﷺ says, ‘my love has become necessary for those who mix and love for My sake and they sit with each other for the sake of My pleasure. Also, they meet one another for the sake of My pleasure and they spend their wealth only for My pleasure.’” [Maalik] in the narration of Tirmidhi it states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ says, ‘those who mix and have love for each other for the sake of my honour and grandeur for them will be pulpits of light (in the Aakhirat) upon which the Ambiyaa’ and martyrs will covet.”

1078. Hadhrat Umar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “How many servants of Allaah are there who although not being Ambiyaa or martyrs, but on the day of Qiyaamat, looking at the status and levels, the Ambiyaa and martyrs will covet it.” The companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, tell us who are they?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “They are those who love each other for the sake of the soul of Allaah (the Qur’aan) when there is no family relation between them, nor do they have any monetary transaction between them. By Allaah, (on the day of Qiyaaamat) their faces will be illuminated (or they will be embodiments of light) and they will be sitting on pulpits of light, they will not be fearful at that time when others will be in fear and they will not grieve when others will be grieving.” Rasulullaah ﷺ then recited this verse, ‘Know well, there will no fear upon the friends of Allaah nor will they grieve.’” [Abu Dawud, Baghawi, Bayhaqi]

A firm branch of Imaan

1079. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Abu Dhar, “Abu Dhar, do you know which branch of Imaan is the most firm?” Hadhrat Abu Dhar said, “Allaah and His Rasul know best.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Mixing and having mutual love for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah and having friendship for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah and hating for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah.” [Bayhaqi]

mmm

The virtue of visiting ones Muslim brother and visiting his grave after his death

1080. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a Muslim goes to visit his Muslim brother or for the sake of meeting him he goes to him, then Allaah ﷺ
Selected Chapters (MunTakhab Abwaab) Part 1

says, ‘(In this world and in the Aakhirat) your life will be good and your walking is good and you have attained a grand place in Jannah.’” [Tirmidhi]

Inform your friend of your friendship

1081. Hadhrat Miqdaam bin Ma’dikarib .. narrates from Rasulullah ﷺ that he said, “When a person has friendship and love for his Muslim brother, he should inform him that he has love for him.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

1082. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that (one day) a person passed before Rasulullah ﷺ when many people were sitting with him. One of them said, “I love him solely for the pleasure of Allaah.” (Hearing this) Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Did you inform him that you love him?” he said, “No.” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Get up, and go him and inform him.” Subsequently, that person got up (from the gathering), went to him and told him that I have love for you. That person said, (in Du’aa’), “May the Being for the sake of Whose pleasure you love me, love you.” Hadhrat Anas .. says that the person returned so Rasulullah ﷺ asked, “What did the person say in reply?” he mentioned the reply that the person gave. Rasulullah ﷺ said, “You will be with the person whom you love (in the Aakhirat) and (upon this love) the reward that you hope for, you will definitely get.” [Bayhaqi] in the narration of Tirmidhi the words are that the person will be with the one he loves and the good deed he did, he will now definitely get the reward of it.

Only make pious Muslims your friend

1083. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed \( \text{\textsuperscript{\(\textbullet\)}} \) narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Do not make anyone besides a Muslim your friend (or it means that do not befriend anyone but a pious Muslim, leaving out sinners and transgressors) so that none but the abstinent eats your food.”

[Haididhi, Abu Dawud, Daarimi]

A means of making friendship strong

1085. Hadhrat Yazeed bin Na’amah narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a person establishes brotherhood with someone then he asks his name and his father’s name and he should ask which tribe he is related to because this enquiry is a means to make the friendship and relationship very strong.” [Tirmidhi]
A beloved action in front of Allaah

1086. Hadhrat Abu Dhar \( \tilde{\tau} \) narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ came out (of his home) and came to us and said, “Do you know what is a beloved action before Allaah?” a person said, “Salaah or Zakaat.” Someone said, “Jihaad.” (Hearing this) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “According to Allaah ﷺ, a very beloved action is to love someone for the pleasure of Allaah and hating someone for the pleasure of Allaah.”

[Ahmad, Abu Dawud]
The virtue of having mutual love and friendship for the sake of Allaah

1087. Hadhrat Abu Umamah Ḥ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who has made friendship solely for the pleasure of Allaah, in reality he has honoured Allaah.” [Ahmad]

Who are the best people?

1088. Hadhrat Asamaa’ bint Yazeed radhiyallaahu anha narrates that she heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Shall I not tell you who are the best people?” the companions said, “Yes, definitely tell us.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The best among you are those when they are seen Allaah is remembered.”

The fruit of having mutual love for the sake of Allaah

1089. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ḥ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “If two people have love for each other for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah, whether one is in the east and the other is in the west, then undoubtedly on the Day of Qiyaamat Allaah will gather them and Allaah ﷺ will say to the angels, “This is my servant who used to love for My sake.” [Bayhaqi]
What is the root of Deen?

1090. Hadhrat Abu Razeen  narrates that Rasulullaaah  said, “Shall I not tell you the root of this matter, i.e. Deen, through which you will be able to attain the goodness of this world and the Aakhirat?” (He then said), “You should definitely sit in the gatherings of the people of Dhikr (so that you could also attain the fortune of the ability to remember Allaah) and when you are in solitude, then as much as possible keep your tongue moving in the remembrance of Allaah (i.e. remember Allaah when sitting with others and remember Allaah when in solitude). Also, love for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah and hate for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah.” (After this he also said), “Abu Razeen, do you know that when a person leaves his home with the intention of visiting his Muslim brother, then 70000 angels walk behind him and (all the angels) seek forgiveness for him and they say, ‘O our Rabb, this person has met solely for your pleasure, so link him to Your mercy and forgiveness.’ Therefore, if you can do these deeds, then definitely do them.” [Bayhaqi]

Honouring and respecting those who love for the sake of Allaah

1091. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) I was with Rasulullaaah  when he said, “There are pillars of emerald in Jannah upon which balconies of topaz are built. Their doors are open and these balconies shine like shining stars.” (Hearing this) the companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, who will live in them?” Rasulullaaah  said, “Those who had mutual love for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah and they met and sat for the sake of the pleasure
Prohibition of abandoning meeting one another, cutting off relations and picking out faults
It is not permissible to cut off relations for more than three days 1092. Hadhrat Abu Ayyub Ansaari  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “It is not permissible for a person to abandon meeting his Muslim brother for more than 3 days (and when they come across each other) this one turns his face away and the other turns the other way (i.e. they both refrain from greeting, speaking and meeting and the best among them both is the one who (in order to remove the estranged condition) begins with Salaam.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Emphasis to stay away from those things that destroy society

1093. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “(Regarding any person) refrain from having evil thoughts because evil thoughts are the worst lie and do not remain behind the condition of someone, nor investigate the conditions of someone, do not make apparent a deal upon the deal of another, do not be jealous of each other, do not hate each other, do not backbite each other and you remain the servants of Allaah and as brothers unto each other.” [Bukhari, Muslim]
The consequence of malice and enmity

1094. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The doors of Jannah are opened on Mondays and Thursdays, then every servant is forgiven who did not ascribe partners to Allaah except the one who has malice and enmity for his brother. Regarding them it is said to the angels, ‘Give them chance until they reconcile.’”

[Muslim]

mmm

1095. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Every week, twice, on a Monday and Thursday, actions are presented to the Rabb. Then every believing person is forgiven except for the one who has malice and enmity for his Muslim brother. Regarding them it is said to the angels, ‘Leave them both until they stop (their enmity).’”

[Muslim]

mmm
1096. Hadhrat Umm e Kulthum bint Uqbah radhiyallaahu anha narrates that she heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “He is not a liar who reconciles between people (by mentioning something contrary to reality) and says good things (to each of them with the intention of reconciling) and gives a good message (from one to another).”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

In the narration of Muslim there is the addition that Umm e Kulthum radhiyallaahu anha said, “I did not hear Rasulullaah ﷺ gave permission which people call lies except for three things; (he permitted a person to say something contrary to reality); in battle, in reconciling people and for the husband to his wife and the wife to the husband when speaking,
Three places in which there is scope to speak contrary to reality

1097. Hadhrat Asma bint Yazeed radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is not permissible to speak lies except on three occasions; for a man to lie to please his wife, lying on the occasion of a battle and speaking lies in order to reconcile between two people.”

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

mmm

The sin of cutting off mutual relations for more than three days

1098. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is not permissible for a Muslim to leave out meeting his Muslim brother for more than three days. Then when he meets the Muslim he is displeased with and greets him thrice and every time he did not reply, then the one who did not reply to the Salaam will return with the sin of abandoning meeting.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

1099. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is not permissible for a Muslim to abandon meeting his Muslim brother for more than 3 days. Therefore, the one who left meeting for more than 3 days, then (without repentance) he died, he will go to hell.”

[Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

The sin of cutting off relations for a year

1100. Hadhrat Abu Khaaraash Sulami narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “He who abandons meeting his Muslim brother (on account of anger) for a year, then it is as though he shed his blood (i.e. the sin of leaving out meeting for a long time and killing unjustly is close).” [Abu Dawud]

Emphasis to straighten out relations

1101. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is not permissible for a believer to abandon meeting another believer for more than three days. Therefore, if three days pass upon this (abandonment of meeting), then (the one who he left meeting), meets him and greets him, if he replies then both will be partner in the reward and if he did not reply then he will return with sin (of abandoning meeting) and the one who greeted is free of the sin of abandoning meeting.” [Abu Dawud]

The virtue of reconciling and the evil of spreading corruption 1102. Hadhrat Abu Darda ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Shall I not tell you of an action whose status (and reward) is higher than the status (and reward) of fasting, charity and Salaah?” Abu Darda says that we said, “Definitely tell us.” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Reconciling between those who have enmity.” (After this he said, “And spreading corruption is such a characteristic that shaves and destroys.” [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

mmm

The evil of jealousy and hatred

1103. Hadhrat Zubayr  narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “The sickness of the previous nations (Jews and Christians), jealousy and burning has come to you and hatred and enmity shaves. I do not say that it shaves hair but it shaves Deen and destroys it.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

1104. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Stay away from jealousy and burning because jealousy and burning eats up good deeds like how fire eats wood.” [Abu Dawud]

mmm

The evil consequence of spreading corruption

1105. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates from Rasulullah ﷺ that he said, “Refrain from spreading evil amongst yourselves because this action shaves (Deen) and destroys it.” [Tirmidhi]

[733]
The evil consequence of harming someone and putting them into difficulty

1106. Hadhrat Abu Sirmah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who causes harm and difficulty to someone, Allaah ﷺ will definitely put him to harm and difficulty (i.e. He will punish him for this evil deed) and he who puts someone into difficulty, Allaah ﷺ will involve him in difficulty.” [Ibn Maajah]

The one who harms a Muslim and deceives him is cursed 1107. Hadhrat Abu Bakr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He is cursed who harms a Muslim or plots and plans with him.” [Tirmidhi]

The evil consequence of picking out faults

1108. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ stood on the pulpit and addressed the people in a loud voice, “O those who have accepted Islaam with the tongue and Imaan has not reached their hearts, do not harm a (complete) Muslim, nor mock him or pick out his fault. Remember, he who looks for the faults of his Muslim brothers, Allaah ﷺ will seek out his faults and he whose faults Allaah ﷺ seeks, He will definitely disgrace him even if he is in his home (hiding).” [Tirmidhi]
What is the worst usury?

1109. Hadhrat Sa’eeed bin Zaid  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “The worst usury is that a person speaks a lot about the honour of a Muslim.” (i.e. to destroy the honour of a Muslim is the worst usury) [Abu Dawud, Bayhaqi]

The punishment for backbiting

1110. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When Allaah ﷺ took me up (on the night of Me’raaj) then (in the upper world) I passed such people whose nails were of copper and they were scratching their faces with those nails. (Looking at this condition of theirs) I asked, “Jibreel, who are these people?” he replied that these are the people who used to eat the flesh of people (i.e. they used to backbite about people) and they used to remain behind their honour.” [Abu Dawud]
The consequence of mentioning the bad of others and the good of oneself

1111. Hadhrat Mustaurid \( {}^{\tau} \) narrates from Rasulullaah \( {}^{\varepsilon} \) that he said, “He who backbites about a Muslim and does evil and eats a morsel, equal to that morsel Allaah \( {}^{\varepsilon} \) will feed him from the fire of Jahanam-hell and he clothes a person as belittling, Allaah \( {}^{\varepsilon} \) will clothe him of the fire of Jahanam-hell equal to that clothing (or he who clothes a Muslim out of belittling him, Allaah \( {}^{\varepsilon} \) will clothe him of the fire of Jahanam-hell equal to those clothes) and he who makes someone stand up in order to show him off or make him known, for him on the day of Qiyaamat, Allaah \( {}^{\varepsilon} \) will make him stand at a place of being shown (i.e. in order to attain fame, if a person falsely explains his own or the good qualities of another, Allaah \( {}^{\varepsilon} \) will punish him for show on the Day of Qiyaamat.) [Abu Dawud]

Good thoughts is good worship

1112. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah \( {}^{\tau} \) narrates that Rasulullaah \( {}^{\varepsilon} \) said, “Regarding Allaah (or people) having good thoughts is good worship.” [Ahmad, Abu Dawud]

It is permissible to cut off relations for more than three days for some Deeni shortcoming

1113. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (once) the camel of Hadhrat Safiyya radhiyallaahu anha was ill. At the time, Hadhrat Zaynab had a conveyance that was over and above her needs (i.e. she had more than one camel). Therefore, Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Zaynab, “Give that camel of yours to Zaynab (that is more than your needs).” Zaynab replied, “What, shall I give my camel to this Jew?” Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ was greatly displeased with her to the extent that he did not go to her for Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and a few days of Safar. [Abu Dawud]
Hiding faults

1114. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Once) Hadhrat Isa bin Maryam ﷺ saw a person stealing. So Hadhrat Isa bin Maryam ﷺ said to him, “You stole.” The person said, “Never, by the being besides Whom there is no deity.” Hadhrat Isa ﷺ said (upon hearing him take an oath in this way), “I believe in Allaah and belie my carnal self.” [Muslim]

The evil of being hard hearted and jealousy

1115. Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is close that poverty becomes kufr (a means of becoming involved in it) and it is close that jealousy overpowers predestination.” [Bayhaqi]
The sin of not accepting the excuse of a person

1116. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “Whichever person presents his excuse to his Muslim brother (for some shortcoming) and that Muslim does not excuse him, or (understands his excuse) but does not accept, then he will get the sin of a person of ‘Maks’.” Bayhaqi said, “Maks refers to one who collects the Ushr (tenth).” [Bayhaqi]
Adopting softness in work and remaining aware

Emphasis to remain aware

1117. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A believer is not bitten from the same hole twice.” (i.e. a Muslim should remain so aware that if someone deceived him once, then the second time he will not be deceived) [Bukhari, Muslim]

The virtue of being tolerant and soft 1118. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the leader of the Abd Qays tribe, “You have two good qualities which Allaah loves, one is tolerance and the other is being soft.” [Muslim]

mmm
The virtue of being soft and the bad in being quick

1119. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d Sa’idi  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Being soft/slow is from Allaah and being quick/hurried is from Shaytaan.” [Tirmidhi]

A complete tolerant person and a completely wise person

1120. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A tolerant person is not but falls short and a wise person is not but an experienced (i.e. he from whom mistakes occur, he is completely tolerant and he who has experience, he is completely wise).” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

Look at the consequence and then do the action

1121. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that a person said to Rasulullaah ﷺ, “Give me a bequest.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Look at the consequence and work. Therefore, if you see some goodness in any action, then do it and if there is danger of destruction then stop.” [Sharh us Sunnah]

In which work is it better to delay

1122. Hadhrat Mus’ab bin Sa’d narrates from his father Sa’d that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It is best to delay in everything except the works of the Aakhirat (it is better to hurry in them).” [Abu Dawud]

Qualities that have a relationship with Nubuwwat

1123. Hadhrat Abd bin Sirjis ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A good characteristic is to be slow and moderation is a twenty fourth part of Nubuwwah.” [Tirmidhi]

1124. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A good way is a good characteristic and moderation is a twenty fifth part of Nubuwwah.” [Abu Dawud]

What is trust?

1125. Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah ﷺ narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “When a person speaks and looks here and there, then that talk is a trust.” (He does
Counsel to give the best view

1126. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ asked Hadhrat Abu Haytham bin Tayyihaan, “Do you have a servant?” he said, “No.” He said, “When slaves come to us from somewhere then come to us (I shall give you a slave).” Subsequently, (after some time) when two slaves came to Rasulullaah ﷺ then Abu Haytham came to him. Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, “These are two slaves. Take one of them for you.” Abu Haytham said, “O Nabi of Allaah, you choose a slave for me.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The person from whom counsel is sought should be trustworthy.” (i.e. the consultant should look at the goodness and profit and he should give that counsel which is best for him and which is most appropriate, after this, Rasulullaah ﷺ indicated to a slave and said), “Take this slave because I saw him performing Salaah and accept my bequest to treat him well and do good to him.” [Tirmidhi]

Besides three gatherings, the speech of a gathering is a trust

1127. Hadhrat Jaabir ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Gatherings are linked to trust (i.e. the talk of special gatherings are a trust, one should not make them apparent before others) [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud] before all) except three gatherings (are such that it is necessary to make apparent the talk therein) one is a gathering of shedding unlawful blood the second is that of impermissible (actions) and sin and the third gathering is a gathering in which the wealth of someone is snatched without right.” [Abu Dawud]

The importance and virtue of intellect

1128. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “When Allaah ﷺ created intellect then He said to it, “Stand.” It stood. He then said, “Turn around.” It turned around. He then said, “Face Me.” It turned to Allaah. Then He said, “Sit.” It sat. Then He said, “I have not created a creation that is better than you, and that is greater than you in virtue and perfection and that is better than you in good characteristics. On account of you I take (i.e. on account of you I accept the worship of servants or on account of you I snatch the blessings of servants) and on account of you I give (servants blessings) and on account of you I am recognized and on account of you I punish and on account of you I reward and on account of you I take to task (i.e. the blessings and punishments of the world and the Aakhirat is dependent upon the intellect).” [Bayhaqi] there is debate regarding the authenticity of this narration.

1129. Hadhrat Ibn Umar narrates that Rasulullaah said, “A person is among those who perform Salah, those who fast, those who give Zakaat, those who perform Hajj and Umrah until he mentioned all the good works and said, “But on the Day of Qiyaamah he will get reward and recompense according to the level of his intelligence.” [Bayhaqi]

The virtue of planning, happy countenance and refraining from sin

1130. Hadhrat Abu Dhar narrates that Rasulullaah said, “Abu Dhar, (know well) there is no intelligence like planning (i.e. there is no intelligence like thinking, pondering and thinking over the consequences) and there is no abstinence like staying away (i.e. staying away from giving harm to people or staying away from saying useless things is the greatest abstinence) and there is no honour like a happy character (i.e. the greatest honour and virtue is happy character).” [Bayhaqi]

The importance of moderation, mixing and loving and good questions

1131. Hadhrat Ibn Umar narrates that Rasulullaah said, “Half of social life is adopting moderation in spending and mixing and loving people is half of intelligence and a good question is half of knowledge.” [Bayhaqi]
Softness, shame and good character

Section One

The goodness of being soft

1132. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Undoubtedly Allaah ﷺ is soft and He loves softness and what He gives upon softness He does not give upon harshness and He does not give upon anything but softness.” [Muslim] In one narration of Muslim it states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha, “Hold firm to softness, and stay away from harshness and lewdness. Indeed softness is not in anything except that it beautifies it and softness is not removed from anything but it makes it blameworthy (i.e. the person in whom there is softness, people praise him and the one in whom there is no softness people take him to be bad).
1133. Hadhrat Jareer  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “The person deprived of softness is also deprived of goodness.” [Muslim]

The goodness of shame and modesty

1134. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  passed by an Ansaari companion who was advising his brother about shame and modesty (i.e. he was saying that do not have so much shame because a person is deprived of blessings and perfections on account of having a lot of modesty), so Rasulullaah  said to him, “Do not say anything to him because modesty is a branch of Imaan.”

[Bukhari, Muslim]

1135. Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Through shame and modesty goodness comes into existence.” In one narration it states, “All the forms of modesty are best.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

1136. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “The talk that people found in the speech of the messengers of before was this, ‘When you become immodest, then do what you want.’” [Bukhari]
The virtues of a happy countenance

1137. Hadhrat Nawwaas bin Sam’aan  narrates that he asked Rasulullaaah ﷺ regarding piety and sins (that what is piety and sins?) so he said, “Piety is good character (i.e. a good form of piety is good character) and sin is that which creates uneasiness in your heart and you do not like that people would come to know of it.” [Muslim]

1138. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaaah ﷺ said, “The one among you is most beloved to me who has the best character among you.” [Bukhari]

1139. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaaah ﷺ said, “The best among you is he who has the best character.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

[748]
Section Two

The virtue of softness

1140. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who has been given a share of softness, he has been given a share of the goodness of this world and the Aakhirat and he who has been deprived of his share of softness has been deprived of his share of goodness (of this world and the Aakhirat).” [Sharh us Sunnah]

mmm

The virtue of shame and the evil of being bad

1141. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Shame (i.e. shame for evil things) is a part of Imaan and Imaan (i.e. a person of Imaan) will go to Jannah and evil (a foul mouth) is a part of evil character and evil character will go to hell.”

Good character: the best characteristic

1142. A person of the Muzaynah tribe narrated that the companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, What is the best of all the things man has been given?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Good character.” [Bayhaqi]

The consequence of an uncouth nature and evil character

1143. Hadhrat Haaritha bin Wahb  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A person of an uncouth nature will not enter Jannah, nor will a person of evil character.”

[Abu Dawud, Bayhaqi]

The goodness of good character

1144. Hadhrat Abu Darda  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, that which will be placed in the scale of a person’s deeds, the heaviest thing will be good character and Allaah ﷺ has severe hatred and enmity for a lewd person who speaks nonsense.” [Tirmidhi]
1145. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that she heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “A believer will attain through good character the status of a person who performs Salaah the entire night and fasts every day.” [Abu Dawud]

Emphasis upon three things

1146. Hadhrat Abu Dhar .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, “Fear Allaah wherever you are and if a bad deed comes from you then you must do a good deed thereafter so that the good deed will wipe the bad deed away and display good character to people.”

[Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Daarimi]

A soft natured person will not go to Jahannam

1147. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Shall I not tell you of the person forbidden for the fire and the fire is forbidden for him? (Listen) the fire of Jahanam-hell is forbidden for every such person who is soft natured, close to people and soft.”

[751]
The grandeur of a Mu’min and the condition of an evil person

1148. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “A believer is soft and noble and an evil person plots and is lowly.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

The people of Imaan have a soft nature and are obedient 1149. Hadhrat Makhool narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “People of Imaan have soft natures and they are obedient like a camel that has a bridle in its nose, if it is pulled, it will move and if it is made to sit on stones, it will sit.” [Tirmidhi]

Which Muslim is the best?

1150. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “The Muslim that meets and mixes with people and is patient upon their difficulties, is better than that Muslim that does not meet with people or exercises patience upon their difficulties.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]
The virtue of gaining control over one's anger

1151. Hadhrat Sahl bin Mu'aadh narrates from his father that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who drinks his anger despite having the ability to vent it, on the Day of Qiyaamat Allaah ﷺ will call him before the entire creation and will give him the choice to take whichever damsel he likes.”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

Section Three

Shame is the special quality of Islaam

1152. Hadhrat Zayd bin Talha  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In every Deen-religion there is a good quality (i.e. the people of every religion have such a quality and characteristic that overpowers all their others and it is higher than all the other qualities) and that good quality of Islaam is shame.” [Maalik]

Shame and Imaan are companions of each other 1153. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Shame and Imaan are companions of each other. Therefore, when one of them is lifted then the other will also be lifted (i.e. when shame is snatched from a believer then Imaan will also leave him). The narration of Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas  states that “When one of them is snatched the other follows behind it.” [Bayhaqi]

Emphasis to straighten out character

1154. Hadhrat Mu’aadh  narrates that Rasulullaah  (when he sent me to Yemen as the governor and judge, then he gave me many advises, from among them) the final bequest he gave me when (in order to mount) I placed my foot in the saddle was that, “O Mu’aadh, show good character with people.” [Maalik]

One great objective of the deputation of Rasulullaah 

1155. Hadhrat Imaam Maalik says that this Hadith reached him that Rasulullaah  said, “I was sent to complete good character (i.e. one of the great objectives of my coming to the world was to take good character to a complete level).” [Mu’atta]

Gratitude for the bounties of Allaah

1156. Hadhrat Ja’far bin Muhammad narrates from his father Baaqir that he narrates that when Rasulullaah  would look into the mirror, he would say, “All praise is due to Allaah Who has made my form and way beautiful and the things that are faults and deficiencies in others, He has made them beautify my being.” [Bayhaqi]

Du’aa’ for good mannerisms

1157. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ used to say (when looking into the mirror), “O Allaah, You have made my form good, so make my mannerisms good as well.” [Ahmad]

Who are the best people?

1158. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said (to the companions), “Shall I not tell you who is the best among you? The companions said, “Tell us.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The best among you is he whose age is long and whose character is good.” [Ahmad]

Who are those who have complete Imaan?

1159. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The complete people in Imaan are those whose character is the best.” [Abu Dawud, Daarimi]

[755]
1160. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ came when one person began to speak ill towards Hadhrat Abu Bakr. (Rasulullaah ﷺ heard his talk), was surprised and smiled. When the person began to speak ill (to Hadhrat Abu Bakr) in abundance, then Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied to some of his talk. Upon this Rasulullaah ﷺ became angry and got up and went away. Hadhrat Abu Bakr went behind Rasulullaah ﷺ and came to him and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, when that person was speaking ill to me, then you remained seated there but when I replied to some of his talk, you became angry and got up and went away (what was the wisdom behind this?)” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There was an angel with you that (on your behalf) was replying him but when you replied for yourself then Shaytaan jumped in between (that is why I stood up and went away).” He then said, “Abu Bakr, three things are true; whichever person is oppressed, then that oppressed person hides that oppression (for the sake of the pleasure of Allaah), then (on hiding it) Allaah ﷺ helps him fully. He who opens the doors of giving so that through it he can treat his relatives and the destitute well, then Allaah ﷺ will increase his wealth (on account of him giving). And the person who opens the doors of asking and begging so that he could increase his wealth through it, Allaah ﷺ will lessen his wealth on account of it (asking).”

[Ahmad]

mmm
The benefit of softness and the harm of harshness

1161. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ does not intend softness for a household except that He benefits them and He does not deprive them of softness except that harm reaches them (i.e. Allaah ﷺ loves softness for a family that He wishes to benefit and the family He wishes to harm, He deprives them of softness.)” [Bayhaqi]

Anger and Pride

Section One

Do not be angry

1162. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that a person said to Rasulullaah ﷺ, “Advise me.” He said, “Do not be angry.” The person repeated this number of times and he said this each time, “Do not be angry.” [Bukhari]
Who is a wrestler?

1163. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullah said, “A powerful and brave person is not one who would floor people, but a powerful and brave person is he who at the time of anger (floors his anger) and controls himself.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

People of Jannah and Jahannam

1164. Hadhrat Haaritha bin Wahb narrates that Rasulullah said, “Shall I not tell you of the dwellers of Jannah? (i.e. shall I tell you who will dwell in Jannah?). Every weak person (is a dweller of Jannah) whom people understand to be weak and lowly (and on account of his weakness they actly proudly and oppressively but that weak person has such a high status by Allaah that) if he relies upon Allaah and takes an oath, then Allaah will make that oath true. And shall I not tell you of those who will dwell in Jahannam? (Listen) every such person (will dwell in Jahannam) who argues and his arrogant and does not accept the truth on account of pride and stubbornness.” [Bukhari, Muslim] In one narration of Muslim it is mentioned (every such person will dwell in Jahannam) that has an arguing nature and is illegitimate and on account of pride and stubbornness he does not accept the truth.
1165. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “That person in whose heart there is Imaan equal to a mustard seed will never remain forever in Jahannam and he in whose heart there is pride equal to a mustard seed will not enter Jannah with (the foremost ones).” [Muslim]

mmm

The reality of pride

1166. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “That person who has the slightest amount of pride will not enter Jannah.” (Hearing this) a person said, “A person loves his clothing to be nice and his shoes to be nice (and according to this liking of his, he wears good clothing and good shoes, so is this also pride?) Rasulullaah  said, “Allaah ﷺ is beautiful and He loves beauty and pride is to reject the truth and to look down upon people.” [Muslim]

mmm

There is painful punishment for three people

1167. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “There are three people with whom Allaah ﷺ will not speak to on the day of Qiyaamat, nor will He purify them of sins, in one narration the words are, ‘Nor will He look at them (with the gaze of Mercy) and there will be a painful punishment for them; an old person who commits adultery, a lying king and a poor person who has pride.” [Muslim]

The punishment of pride

1168. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Ṭ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah ﷺ says, ‘greatness is My shawl and grandeur is My loincloth. Therefore, the person who snatches any of them from me (he who is proud) I shall enter him into Jahanam-the fire.” in one narration, “I shall throw him into Jahanam-the fire.” [Muslim]

Section Two

The evil consequence of pride

1169. Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa Ṭ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A person carries on making himself big (i.e. he continues having pride) until (his name) is written

[760] among the obstinate (i.e. the oppressors and proud). Then the calamities that come upon the obstinate, the same will come upon that person.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

1170. Hadhrat Amr bin Shu’ayb narrates from his father from his grandfather that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the proud will be gathered in the form of small ants (i.e. their form will be like people but their bodies will be the size of ants) and they will be surrounded by disgrace and lowliness from all sides then they will be dragged to a prison of Jahannam called Baulas. There they will be covered by fire and they will be given the blood flowing from the bodies of the dwellers of Jahannam.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

Treatment of anger

1171. Hadhrat Atiyyah bin Urwah Sa’di ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Anger is from Shaytaan (i.e. becoming angry without right is a result of being prompted by Shaytaan) and Shaytaan was created of fire and fire is extinguished by water. Therefore, when any of you become angry he should perform wudhoo’.” [Abu Dawud]

1172. Hadhrat Abu Dhar ﷺ narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ, “When any of you become angry then he should immediately sit if he is standing, if his anger subsides, then it is good, otherwise he should lie down.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

mmm

A few bad servants

1173. Hadhrat Asma bint Umays radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Bad is that servant who thinks himself to be better than others and was proud and he forgot Allaah the High and Great (i.e. he overlooked the fact that greatness and glory is special to Allaah ﷺ alone) or he forgot that in this world, leaving the path of caution and Taqwa and the evil path adopted, he will have to answer for it in the Aakhirat and he will have to face the punishment of Allaah there). Bad is the servant who oppressed people and he overstepped the limits in oppression and corruption and he forgot Allaah the Powerful and Mighty Whose power and honour is the greatest. Bad is the servant who forgot the works of Deen and got involved in the world and he overlooked the graves and getting decomposed in the soil (i.e. he did not take lesson from this that how people are buried under thousands of kilograms of soil and their bodies become the provision of the insects and worms). Bad is the servant who caused corruptions and trials and overstepped the limits and forgot his beginning and end (i.e. he did not remember from what a lowly thing he was created and initially how helpless he was nor did he remember his end that finally he will become part of the earth). Bad is the servant who earns the world through Deen (i.e. he makes Deen a means of earning the world or it could mean that he adopts the form of the pious, taking the form of Deen and deceives the people of the world so that they could believe him and praise him and he could get wealth from them). Bad is the servant who destroyed Deen by getting involved in doubtful things. Bad is the servant that placed hopes in creation and greed and desire made him lie at the doors of the people of the world and wherever it takes him, he goes. Bad is the servant whose desires of the carnal self make him go astray. Bad is the servant who desire for the world, greed to attain the world and hope for abundant wealth disgraces him and makes him low.” [Tirmidhi, Bayhaqi]

mmm

Section Three
The virtue of swallowing anger

1174. Hadhrat Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A person has not swallowed a sip that is better according to Allaah than the sip of anger which a person takes solely for the pleasure of Allaah.” [Ahmad]

mmm

Face anger with patience and courage

1175. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas رضي الله عنه says regarding the Tafseer of the verse, ‘Push back evil by means of good’ that the meaning of this verse is to be patient at the time of anger and to forgive and overlook at the time of evil. So when people are patient and overlook, then Allaah ﷺ will protect them from the difficulties of creation and He will lower the enemy before them in this way like they are a close friend (and not the enemy).” [Bukhari]

mmm

Anger destroys Imaan

1176. Hadhrat Bahz bin Hakeem narrates from his father and he narrates from the grandfather of Bahz Hadhrat Mu’awiyah bin Haydah Qushayri رضي الله عنه that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed anger destroys Imaan like how aloe destroys honey.” [Bayhaqi]

mmm

The virtue of humility and the evil of pride and haughtiness

1177. Hadhrat Umar .. narrates that (one day) he stood on the pulpit and said (in a sermon), “People, adopt humility and lowliness because I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that he who adopts humility and lowliness for (the pleasure of) Allaah, Allaah raises his rank. Subsequently, he is low in his own eyes but he has a high rank among people and the person who is proud and haughty, Allaah will lower him. Subsequently, he is low in the eyes of people but he is high in his own eyes to the extent that he is worse than a dog and pig in the eyes of people.” [Bayhaqi]

Which servant is the most honourable?

1178. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Hadhrat Musa bin Imran ﷺ said, ‘My Rabb, who is the most honourable of Your servants?’ Allaah said, “That person who despite being powerful forgives and overlooks.” [Bayhaqi]

The virtue of three things

1179. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who closes his tongue, Allaah covers his faults (i.e. he who does not mention the faults and evils of people despite knowing them, Allaah ﷺ will hide his faults and sins from people) and he who controls his anger (and refrains from venting it) Allaah ﷺ will save him from punishment on the Day of Qiyaamat and he who seeks forgiveness from Allaah ﷺ (having regret over his sins) Allaah ﷺ will accept his repentance.” [Bayhaqi]

mmm

Three things that grant salvation and three things that destroy

1180. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Three things grant salvation and three things destroy. The things that grant salvation; one is to fear Allaah externally and internally (i.e. in every action, private or public, the fear of Allaah overpowers him). The second thing is to speak the truth in happiness and sadness, the third thing is to adopt moderation in poverty and prosperity. And the three things that destroy, one of them is the desiring carnal self that is followed, the second thing is that greed and miserliness which man becomes the slave of and the third thing is to have trust in ones carnal self (i.e. a person thinks himself to be pious and good and to pride over it) and this third thing is the worst characteristic of them all.” [Bayhaqi]

mmm

[766] Oppression

Section One

The consequence of oppression

1181. Hadhrat Ibn Umar . narratives that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Oppression will be a cause of darkness on the Day of Qiyaamat.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The tumult of the oppressor

1182. Hadhrat Abu Musa . narratives that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Indeed Allaah ﷺ gives an oppressor chance (i.e. he lengthens his life in the world so that he continues to oppress and in the Aakhirat He gives him a sever punishment) until when He catches him, then He does not leave him. After this Rasulullaah ﷺ recited this verse as proof ‘Such is the grasp of your Rabb when He seized a town that is oppressive. Indeed His grasp is painful and and severe.’ [Surah Hud, 102]. [Bukhari, Muslim]

The way of passing the locality of oppressors

1183. Hadhrat Ibn Umar . narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by the place of Hijr (the locality of the nation of Thamud) and he said to the companions, “Do not step into the places of those who oppressed themselves except that you are crying. Possibly the calamity that came upon them could fall upon you (because passing these places in neglect and not taking lesson is a sign of hard heartedness and not having the fear of Allaah and this could become a means of the punishment of Allaah descending).” After this Rasulullaah ﷺ covered his head with his shawl and quickly passed that locality.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

mmm

How will rights be fulfilled on the Day of Qiyaamat?

1184. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who has a right of a Muslim, whether it be a right dealing with honour or anything else, then he should forgive that right today (i.e. in this world) before he will not have Dirhams and Dinars. If he has good deeds, then equal to his oppression, his good deeds will be taken from him (and will be given to the deserving) and if he does not have good deeds then the sins of the deserving (equal to his oppression) will be placed upon the oppressor.” [Bukhari]

mmm

Who is bankrupt?

1185. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the companions, “Do you know who is bankrupt?” some companions replied that a bankrupt person is he who does not have Dirhams and Dinars, no possessions. Then he said, “In my Ummah a bankrupt person in reality is he who on the Day of Qiyaamat will come with Salaah and Zakaat (and other accepted forms of worship) but in the condition that he swore someone, accused someone else, he ate another person’s wealth, he shed the blood of someone without right, and hit someone without right, then his good deeds will be given to the deserving (i.e. the deserving will be given these good deeds according to their right in deeds) and if his deeds are finished before their rights can be given that was responsible for him to give, then the sins of the deserving will be taken and thrown upon him, then he will be flung into hell.” [Muslim]

On the Day of Qiyaamat every right will be given

1186. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the deserving will be given their rights to the extent that a goat without horns will take recompense from a horned goat.” [Muslim]
Section Two

Do not become the call of the dome

1187. Hadhrat Hudhayfah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Do not become Imma’ah, i.e. do not say that if people treat us well we will be good to them and if people oppress us then we shall oppress them, but you should establish yourself upon this that if people treat you well, you will treat them well and if people treat you badly you will not oppress.” [Tirmidhi]

mmm

A concise and comprehensive advice

1188. Hadhrat Mu’awiyah  narrates that he wrote to Umm al Mu’mineen Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha that write some advice and send it to me and it should not be long (but comprehensive and short). Subsequently, Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha wrote this, ‘Peace be upon you, I heard Rasulullaah  saying that he who displeases people and searches for the pleasure of Allaah, Allaah  will be sufficient for him from the people (i.e. if a person does something on account of which Allaah is pleased and people are displeased then Allaah  is pleased with him on account of that deed and He will please the creation with him and protect him from the evil and corruption of people) and the person who displeases Allaah and searches for the pleasure of people then Allaah\\(\\textit{\\textsuperscript{will}}\\)\ will hand him over to them. Peace be upon you.” [Tirmidhi]

Section Three

The greatest oppression

1189. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood \\
\(\\textit{\\textsuperscript{.}}\\) narrates that when this verse was revealed, ‘those who believe and do not mix their faith with oppression’ then the companions of Rasulullaah \\
\(\\textit{\\textsuperscript{.}}\\) felt it a great burden. Subsequently, they said, “O Rasul of Allaah, who among us is there who does oppress himself?” Rasulullaah \\
\(\\textit{\\textsuperscript{.}}\\) said, “This is not so (i.e. oppression does not mean sin as you have understood), but oppression refers to polytheism. Did you not hear the advice of Hadhrat Luqmaan that he gave to his son that o my son, do not ascribe partners to Allaah because polytheism is a great oppression.” The words of one narration state that “Oppression does not mean that what you have thought, but it means that which Hadhrat Luqmaan told his son.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

In order to make the world of another do not destroy your own Aakhirat

1190. Hadhrat Abu Umamah \\
\(\\textit{\\textsuperscript{.}}\\) narrates that Rasulullaah \\
\(\\textit{\\textsuperscript{.}}\\) said, “The worst person in terms of status on the Day of Qiyaamat will be the person who destroyed his Aakhirat in order to make the world of others (like what the aides of an oppressive ruler do).” [Ibn Maajah]

Three types of registers of deeds

1191. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There are 3 types of registers of deeds; one is the one which Allaah ﷺ will never forgive, and that is to ascribe partners to Allaah (i.e. he in whose register of deeds polytheism is recorded, he will not be forgiven). Allaah ﷺ says, ‘Verily Allaah does not forgive polytheism.’ The second register of deeds is the one which Allaah never leaves. And that is the oppression servants do amongst themselves, until one servant does not take recompense from the other and the third register of deeds is the one which Allaah does not care about, and that is where the servants fall short in their rights towards Allaah. This register of deeds is in the control of Allaah, if He wants, He can punish and if He wants, He can overlook.” [Bayhaqi]

Save yourself from the Du’aa’ of the oppressed

1192. Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Save yourself from the Du’aa’ of the oppressed (i.e. do not oppress anyone such that he makes Du’aa’ of misfortune for you) because he will ask his right from Allaah and Allaah ﷺ will not stay away from giving the deserving his right (i.e. He will definitely give the deserving his right).” [Bayhaqi]
The end of the power and support of the oppressor

1193. Hadhrat Aus bin Shurahbeel  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah  saying that he who walks with an oppressor in order to lend support and power to him (i.e. he aids and helps him) and he knows that (the person he helps) is an oppressor then that person leaves the fold of Islaam (i.e. he is deprived of complete Imaan).” [Bayhaqi]

The evil of oppression

1194. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that he heard a person saying that in reality, an oppressor harms himself (the effects of his oppression do not reach others). (Hearing this) Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  said, “Why not, by Allaah, (an oppressor harms others through his oppression) until the Hubara bird becomes thin and dies in its nest through the oppression of the oppressor.” [Bayhaqi]
Commanding the good

Section One

Make every possible effort to change the actions that are against the Shari’ah

1195. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “If any of you see any deed contrary to the Shari’ah being done, then he should change it with his hand (i.e. he should stop the person doing that action with strength) and if he does not have the ability to change it with his hand, then he should strive to change it with his tongue (i.e. he should advise and warn them of the punishment of Allaah) and if he does not have the ability to change it with his tongue, then he should change it with his heart (i.e. he should think it bad and make the resolution to change it) and this (final stage) is the weakest stage of Imaan.” [Muslim]

The consequence of not stopping forbidden actions

1196. Hadhrat Nu’man bin Bashir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The condition of those who are negligent regarding those things which Allaah ﷺ has made impermissible and who get involved in impermissible actions is like the condition of those people who drew lots in order to sit in a ship and (according to the lots drawn) some people sat on the lower deck and some people sat on the upper deck. Then the people of the lower deck (came repeatedly to the top to get water and) pass by those of the upper deck due to which those on the upper deck are given difficulty. Therefore, a person of those of the lower deck took an axe and began to dig the bottom (in order to make a hole and get water). Then the people of the upper deck come and say that what happened to you? He says that on account of me you have to tolerate difficulty and I cannot do without water (therefore I am making a hole in order to get water). In summary, people will catch his hand (and will stop him from this action), so they will be saved from drowning and he will be saved himself. And if the people leave him, then he will throw them into destruction and he will be destroyed himself.” [Bukhari]

The end of the lecturer and advisor who does not practise

1197. Hadhrat Usamah bin Zayd  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, a person will be brought and will be thrown into the fire and the moment he reaches the fire, his intestines will come out. Then he will move around his intestines and will crush them like the donkey of the mill moves around the mill and crushes the flour. (Looking at the condition of this person) the dwellers of hell (i.e. the sinners of his time) will gather around him and say, “O person, what is your condition? You used to advise us to do good deeds and used to forbid us from evil.”
The person will reply, “Indeed I used to advise you to do good deeds but I never used to do it myself and I used to forbid you from evil deeds but I used to do the evil deeds myself.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Section Two

The evil consequence of not fulfilling the obligation of commanding the good and forbidding evil

1198. Hadhrat Hudhayfah ` narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “By the being in Whose control my life is, you will emphasise upon the good with conviction and stop from evil or soon Allaah ﷺ will send a punishment upon you then you will make Du’aa to Allaah ﷺ but your Du’aa’ will not be accepted.” (i.e. if you do not fulfil the responsibility of commanding the good and forbidding evil then Allaah ﷺ will send a calamity from His side, then after the calamity is sent you will make Du’aa’ but your Du’aa will not be accepted and the calamity will not be removed.) [Tirmidhi]

The consequence of being pleased with actions of sin

1199. Hadhrat Urs bin Amirah ` narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “In whichever place evil is taking place, and the person present there takes it as evil is like the person who was not there and the person who is not present there and is pleased with that evil deed is like the person who is present there (i.e. a person goes to a place and suddenly without intending, evil takes place and he takes it as evil, then that person is free from sin and the person who did not go there but takes it as good, he will be a sinner).” [Abu Dawud]

The consequence of not holding the hand of the oppressor

1200. Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ narrates that (one day) he said, “People, you recite this verse, ‘O you who believe, worry about yourselves, the person who has gone astray will not harm you when you are guided.’ (and you understand the purport of this verse to be that commanding the good and forbidding the evil is not compulsory whereas this understanding of yours is not correct) because I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that when people see an action that is contrary to the Shari’ah and they do not strive to reform it, then it is close that Allaah ﷺ will inflict a punishment upon them.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The narration of Abu Dawud states that when people oppress someone and they do not catch his hand (i.e. they do not stop him from oppression) then it is close that Allaah ﷺ will inflict a punishment upon them all.

Another narration of Abu Dawud states that “In whichever nation sins are done and the people of that nation have the ability to reform it but despite this they do not strive to reform then Allaah ﷺ will inflict a punishment upon them all.”

Another narration of Abu Dawud states that “In whichever nations sins are done and those who do not do the sins are greater in number than the sinners.”

1201. Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who does sins in a nation and the people of the nation have the ability to reform him but despite this they do not reform, then Allaah will inflict a punishment upon them before they die.” [Abu Dawud, Ibn Maajah]

The reward for remaining steadfast on Deen in the end times

1202. Hadhrat Abu Tha’labah  says regarding the verse of Allaah ﷺ ‘worry about yourselves, the person who has gone astray will not harm you when you are guided.’, listen, by Allaah, I asked Rasulullaah ﷺ about this verse (in accordance to this verse, should we worry and not say anything to people?). So Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(Do not do this) but emphasize goodness and continue to stop evil until you see that people follow miserliness and follow their desires and give preference to the world (over the Aakhirat) and each person of an opinion will think his opinion to be good and (on being helpless) you will take silence and being away necessary then (at that time) worry about yourself and leave people on their condition because such a day will come in which patience is absolutely important. Therefore, he who is patient in those days (i.e. he remains firm on Deen) he will be holding coals in his hands (i.e. to remain firm upon Deen in those days will cause so much worry and difficulty like holding upon coals) and the one who practises Deen in those days will get the reward equal to 50 people who do those deeds in an environment of Deen.” The companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, will he get the reward equal to 50 people?” He said, “(No, but) he will get the reward of 50 amongst you.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

An important sermon of Rasulullaah ﷺ

1203. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri ﷺ narrates that (one day) after Asr Rasulullaah ﷺ stood before us to deliver a sermon. In this sermon he did not leave anything important about the things to happen until Qiyaamat. Those who could remember remembered and those who forgot, forgot. What Rasulullaah ﷺ said at the time, amongst those things were that “This world is very sweet and lush and definitely Allaah ﷺ has made you vicegerants on earth. Therefore, He sees how you act. So, know well, be warned about the world and stay far from women.” Rasulullaah ﷺ also said that “On the day of Qiyaamat there will be a sign (flag) erected for those who broke their promise that will be equal in size to the promises they broke and the leader breaking a promise is not any less severe than a common person breaking his promise. Subsequently, the sign will be placed close to his buttocks (so that he can be disgraced even more).” Rasulullaah ﷺ also said that “The fear and awe for someone should not stop you from speaking the truth when he knows the truth.”

In one narration it is stated that, “If any of you see anything contrary to the Shari’ah then awe for people should not stop you from reforming that which contradicts the Shari’ah” (explaining this) Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri cried and said that we saw something contradictory to the Shari’ah (with our eyes) and through the fear of people we could not say anything.

(After this Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed explained that) Rasulullaah ﷺ also said, “Know well, mankind has been created in different groups and in opposing types and status. Subsequently, some of them were created believers, live in the state of Imaan and their end is upon Imaan, some of them are such that they were created disbelievers, they live in the state of disbelief and their end is upon disbelief, some of them are such that are created as believers, they live in the state of Imaan but their end is upon disbelief, some of them are such that they were created upon disbelief, they live in a state of disbelief but their end is upon Imaan.”

Hadrat Abu Sa’eed narrates that (at this juncture) Rasulullaah ﷺ also mentioned the types of anger. Subsequently, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Some people get angry quickly but their anger subsides quickly. So one becomes the recompense for the other (i.e. this person is neither good or bad). Some people are such that it takes long for them to become angry and it goes away after long. So one becomes the recompense for the other (i.e. this person is neither good or bad), the best among you is he who takes long to become angry and it subsides quickly and the worst among you is he who gets angry quickly and it takes long to subside.” (After Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Beware of anger because anger is a burning coal on the heart of the son of Aadam. Do you not see that (when a person gets angry then) the veins on his neck blow up and his eyes become red. Therefore, he who finds the effects of anger he should immediately lie down and touch the ground.”

Rasulullaah ﷺ also mentioned loans, subsequently, he said, “Some of you are good in paying (their loans) but they are severe in collecting them. So one characteristic goes in exchange of the other. Some people prove to be bad in paying loans but they are good in collecting theirs’ from others. So from these two characteristics, one serves as exchange for the other. The best among you is he who is good in paying his loan and he is also good in taking from others and the worst among you is he who is bad in paying his loan and is also bad in taking his loan from others.”

Rasulullaah ﷺ delivered these advises until when the sun came upon the edges of the tree tops and walls (i.e. until the end of the day), then he said, “Remember, the time of this world that has passed, now what remains comparatively is like what has passed of this day that this is the final time (i.e. just as this day will soon be completed and a small part remains, similarly, most of time has passed. Now a small era remains).” [Tirmidhi]
The end result of abundant sins

1204. Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari narrates from a companion of Rasulullah ﷺ that he explained that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “People will never be destroyed until their sins become abundant.” [Abu Dawud]

The end result of not striving to reform

1205. The grandfather of Hadhrat Adi bin Adi Kindi, Hadhrat Amirah Kindi ﷺ narrates that he heard Rasulullah ﷺ saying, “Allaah ﷺ does not destroy a nation on account of the evil actions of a few people among them until people see actions contrary to Shari’ah among them and they have the ability to address it and yet they do not. In summary, when people do this (i.e. despite having the ability, they do not strive to reform) then Allaah ﷺ will inflict a general punishment, upon them all.” [Sharh us Sunnah]

1206. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood ﷺ narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ said, “When the Bani Israa’eel got involved in sin, then their scholars stopped them. When they did not stop then the scholars began to mix with them, eat and drink with them. Then Allaah mixed their hearts (i.e. just like the sinners, the evil of sin did not remain in the hearts of the scholars) then Allaah ﷺ cursed them upon the tongue of Hadhrat Dawud ﷺ and Hadhrat Isa ﷺ and this curse was given for this reason that these people overstepped the limits of sin.

Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood says that Rasulullah ﷺ was sitting while leaning on a pillow, he then sat upright (i.e. he left the pillow and sat in such a way like he intended to say something important). Subsequently, he said, “By the being in Whose control my life is, you will find salvation from the punishment of Allaah until you do not stop the oppressors from oppression and the sinners from sin.”

[Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud]

Another narration of Abu Dawud states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “You will never find salvation from punishment, by Allaah, it is necessary for you to command people to do good and to stop them from evil, hold the hand of the oppressor, pull him towards the truth and establish him upon the path of justice and equity. If you do not do this, then Allaah ﷺ will mix your hearts (i.e. like the sinners, the evil of sins will be removed from your hearts) then you will be cursed like the Bani Israa’eel were cursed (on account of their sins).”

The punishment of the lecturer who does not practise

1207. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “On the night of Me’raaj I saw some people that their lips were being cut with scissors of fire.” I asked, “Jibreel, who are these people?” he replied, “These are the lecturers and advisors of your Ummah who would advise them to do good but they would overlook themselves.” [Baghawi]

The narration of Bayhaqi states that these people are the lecturers and advisors of your Ummah who would explain such things which they would not practise themselves and they would recite the Book of Allaah but they would not practise on it.
The calamity of misappropriating the blessings of Allaah

1208. Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “A food cloth of bread and meat from the sky (came upon the nation of Hadhrat Isa ﷺ), and they were commanded that they should not misappropriate nor to store for coming days but they misappropriated and they stored as well that they kept for coming days. Subsequently, their forms were changed into that of monkeys and pigs.” [Tirmidhi]

Section Three

The path of salvation from the harshness of the oppressive ruler

1209. Hadhrat Umar bin Khatthaab  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Verily in the final times, difficulties and calamities will come upon my Ummah from their leaders. Those who would be saved from their difficulties, one of them will be the one who recognized the Deen of Allaah well, then in order to raise the Deen he waged Jihaad with his tongue, hands and heart. So the fortunes of the world and the Aakhirat will come to him. The second will be the person who recognized the Deen of Allaah, then he verified it with his tongue and heart (i.e. he only waged Jihaad with his tongue and heart, not striving otherwise). And the third will be the person who recognised the Deen of Allaah, then he adopted silence. Subsequently, when he saw someone doing good then he befriended him and he saw someone doing wrong and he hated him and this person also loves good and hates sin. On account of hiding this he will get salvation.” [Bayhaqi]

Divine punishment for not striving to reform

1210. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Allaah  commanded Hadhrat Jibreel  through revelation that a particular city where the conditions are such, turn the inhabitants upside down. Hadhrat Jibreel  said, “My Rabb, in this city there is a servant of yours that did not disobey You for even a moment.” Rasulullaah  said that (when Hadhrat Jibreel  said this, then) Allaah  said, “Turn the city over on him and upon the inhabitants because the colour of his face did not change for even a moment for My sake (looking at the sins of the people of the city).” [Bayhaqi]

Forgiveness for those who do not worry about reformation out of fear for people

1211. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Allaah the High and Great will ask His servants on the Day of Qiyaamat, “What happened to you that when you saw actions contrary to the Shari’ah, then why did you not stop it?” Rasulullaah  said, “Then he is taught proof. Subsequently, he will say, “My Rabb, I feared people and hoped for Your forgiveness.” [Bayhaqi]

Glad tidings of good and warning about evil

1212. Hadhrat Abu Musa Ash’ari narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By the being in Whose control is the life of Muhammad, indeed on the day of Qiyaamat, good deeds and evil deeds will be created (in the forms and shapes of living things) and they will be made to stand before people. Subsequently, good deeds will give their companions glad tidings and will promise them goodness and evil deeds will say that get away from me, Get away from me, and the person who did the evil deeds will have no power but to hold onto it.” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

Things that soften the heart (Hadith 1213 – 1430)

Section One

Value health and free time

1213. Hadhrat Ibn Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “There are two bounties of Allah regarding which people are deceived about. One is good health and the other is free time.” [Bukhari]
The example of the world and the Aakhirat

1214. Hadhrat Mustaurid bin Shaddaad  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “By Allaah, in comparison to the Aakhirat (its blessings and time), the (blessings and time) of the world, its example is such like if one of you has to place his finger into the ocean, then he sees how much water his finger returns with.” [Muslim]

How lowly and despised is the world?

1215. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that (once) Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by a dead kid with small ears or they were cut. Subsequently, (looking at it) he said (to the companions), “Is there any among you who would take this (dead kid) in lieu of a Dirham?” the companions replied, “We do not like to have it in lieu for anything.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By Allaah, how low, despised and valueless this world is before you, much more than that is the world low, despised and valueless in the sight of Allaah.” [Muslim]

The world is a jail for a Mu’min

1216. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The world is a jail for the believer and it is a Jannat-paradise for the disbeliever.” [Muslim]

The reward of a Mu’min and recompense of the disbeliever

1217. Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Allaah  does not destroy the reward of a believer, he is given in this world on account of his good deeds and he is also rewarded in the Aakhirat. And whatever good deeds the disbeliever does for the pleasure of Allaah, he is given the reward in this world and when he reaches the Aakhirat, then there will be no good deeds for him there whose reward could be given to him.” [Muslim]

Jannah has been covered by difficulty and Jahannam has been covered by luxuries

1218. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Jahannam-Hell has been covered with desires and enjoyments and Jannah has been covered with difficulties and hardship.” (i.e. he who undertakes to fulfil his desires, he will go to Jahannam-hell and he who remains firm upon Deen undergoing difficulty, he will inherit Jannah.) [Bukhari, Muslim]

The condition of the person of Deen and the person of the world

1219. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Destruction be for the one who is a slave of the Dinaar, the slave of the Dirham and the slave of cloth (i.e. destruction in the Aakhirat is written for the person who has made wealth and treasure the objective of his life and his condition is such that) if he gets wealth then he gets happy and if he does not get then he gets angry.” Rasulullaah  said again, “Destruction and disgrace be for that person and when a thorn presses him then is should not come out.” (i.e. when such a person gets involved in a calamity, then the calamity should not go away).

And good conditions be for that servant who keeps his horse ready to run in the path of Allaah, his hair is dusty and his feet is dusty. If he is appointed as the supervisor of the army, then he supervises properly and if he is kept behind the army then he remains behind the army (i.e. he follows the Muslims properly and he fulfils his duty at the place he is commanded to stay at) and (he has no value in the eyes of people because of having no wealth and status) if he wants to take part in gatherings of people then he is not given permission to join and if he intercedes then his intercession is not accepted.”

[Bukhari]

Abundance of wealth is good for whom and bad for whom?

1220. Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri \( \varepsilon \) narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah \( \varepsilon \) said, “The things that I fear for you after my death, one of them is the lushness and beauty of the world which you will get.” Hearing this one person said, “O Rasul of Allaah, will goodness bring bad with it? (i.e. the wealth that the Muslims will get through conquest is a blessing of Allaah for you, why will this be a means of bad?) Rasulullaah \( \varepsilon \) remained silent (when he heard this) to the extent that we thought that revelation is coming upon him.

Hadhrat Abu Sa’eed Khudri says that (after a little while) Rasulullaah \( \varepsilon \) wiped the sweat off his face (that would come at the time of revelation) and then said, “Where is the person that asked?” it was as though he thought good of the question.

The he said, “The reality is that goodness does not bring bad with it (i.e. wealth through permissible means is goodness and the bounty of Allaah. Nothing evil comes from it. Yes, those who do not fulfil its rights and use it in other ways, the amssing of wealth becomes a means of destruction for him like) the spring season that grows greenery (it is beneficial for animals but) that animal fills its belly and dies or reaches close to death (i.e. the animal that eats that greenery beyond limit, not on account of the greenery but it gets destroyed by over eating). However, the animal that eats that greenery in such a way that when its hips expand then it sits in the sun. Then it excretes and urinates (when its stomach is light) then it goes once again to the grazing field and grazes on greenery (it is not destroyed).”

After this, Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Indeed this wealth is green and lush. Therefore, he who acquires it through permissible means and spends it in permissible ways, for him this wealth is the best helper and the person who gets it in an impermissible way is like the one who eats and does not get satiated and that wealth and treasure will be a witness against him on the day of Qiyaamat.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The cause of destruction

1221. Hadhrat Amr bin Auf   narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “By Allaah, I do not fear your poverty and being bankrupt but I fear that the world opens upon you like how it was opened up to those before you that passed before you. Then you will incline to the world like the people before you inclined towards it, then this world will destroy you like how it destroyed them.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Provision according to that which is sufficient is better

1222. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah   narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ made this Du’aa’, “O Allaah, You bless the family of Muhammad with provision that is equal to sustenance.” And [790] in one narration, “Grant them sustenance according to what is sufficient.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

The keys of success

1223. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr .. narrates that Rasulullaah ☪ said, “He is successful who accepted Islaam and he has been given sustenance sufficient for him (i.e. he is given sustenance sufficient for his needs and he does not need to stretch his hands before anyone other than Allaah) and Allaah ☪ grants him contentment upon that given to him.” [Muslim]

The real capital of man

1224. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ☪ said, “A person says ‘my wealth, my wealth’ (i.e. he who is wealthy is proud over his wealth and he tries to show other people how much he has) and the reality is that he has three things from that wealth (and from the three only one is such that he can benefit from it completely and it remains, whereas the other two are related to the world and will be destroyed); one is that which he has eaten and it will be destroyed the second is that which he wears and makes old and the third thing is that which he gave in the path of Allaah and (for the Aakhirat) and made a treasure (in the Aakhirat. Whatever else there is besides these three, leave it for those people who are to depart from the world.” [Muslim]

Companion of the deceased

1225. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that Rasulullaah ☪ said, “Three things go with the deceased (to the grave). Two of them return and one remains with him. Subsequently, his family and relatives (like his children, relatives, friends etc.) and his wealth (like his slaves, animals, vehicle etc.) and his actions go with him. From the three, his family and wealth return and his actions remain with him.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Which is your wealth?

1226. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  (addressed the companions) and said, “Who of you like that loves the wealth of his heirs more than his own wealth?” the companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, there is none among us who loves the wealth of his heirs more than his own wealth.” Rasulullaah  said, “(Listen), in reality, his wealth is that which he sends forward (by giving charity etc.) and the wealth of his heirs is that which remains behind.” [Bukhari]

1227. Hadhrat Mutarrrif narrates from his father Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Shikheer .. that he said, “One day I went to Rasulullaah  while he was reciting Surah Takaathur (which means, ‘O people, you have become neglectful of the fear of the Aakhirat on account of priding over wealth). Subsequently, Rasulullaah  said, “The son of Aadam says, ‘my wealth, my wealth.’ (i.e. he who has more wealth he shows off to people that I am so rich, I have so much) then Rasulullaah  said, “O son of Aadam, your wealth is only that which you have eaten and finished, or that which you have worn and it has become old, or you have given charity in the path of Allaah and sent it to the Aakhirat.” [Muslim]

Real wealth and opulence

1228. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Real wealth and opulence is not having a [792] lot of wealth and provision but real wealth and opulence is richness of heart.” [Bukhari, Muslim]

Section Two

Emphasis upon five things

1229. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah  said, “Who is there who will learn five things from me, then practice on them or teach someone who will practice them.” (Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says that) I said, “O Rasul of Allaah, that person is me.” Rasulullaah  held my hand and counted the five things and explained them in this way, “(1) stay away from those things that the Shari’ah has forbidden, if you stay away from them, then you will be the greatest worshipper among people (2) be happy and grateful upon that which Allaah has decreed for you, if you remain pleased and contented with the decree of Allaah then you will be counted amongst the wealthiest (3) treat your relatives well (even though they treat you badly), if you do this you will be taken to be a complete believer (4) love for others what you love for yourself, if you do this, you will be taken to be a complete Muslim (5) stay away from laughing a lot because laughing a lot kills the heart (and makes it neglect the remembrance of Allaah).” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

The virtue of worship

1230. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “Allaah  says that O son of Aadam, free yourself for My worship, I shall fill your bosom with independence (i.e. I shall grant you the treasure of knowledge and recognition, due to which you will become independent of those other than Allaah) and I shall close the path of poverty and bankruptcy for you. If you do not do this, then I shall fill your hands with different types of engagements and I shall not remove your engagements.” [Ahmad, Ibn Maajah]

The importance of refraining

1231. Hadhrat Jaabir  narrates that a person was mentioned before Rasulullaah  who would remain engaged in abundant worship and obedience and he would make great effort and grant importance to it (although he refrained from sins very little) and another person was mentioned who would refrain so Rasulullaah  said that (without abstinence) abundant worship and striving in it and giving it importance should not be equalled to abstinence (although together with that abstinence, such an amount of worship and obedience is not part of it). [Tirmidhi]

Value five things before five

1232. Hadhrat Amr bin Maymun Audi narrates that Rasulullaah  said while advising a person, “Value five things before five. Youth before old age, health before sickness, wealth before poverty, free time before becoming involved and life before death.” [Tirmidhi]

Value the present condition

1233. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “You are waiting for wealth that will involve you in being obstinate, or you are waiting for poverty that will make you forget obedience to the truth or you are waiting for sickness that will destroy your body or you are waiting for old age that will make you lose your intellect or you are waiting for death that finishes everything or you are waiting for Dajjaal and the worst awaited thing is Dajjaal, or you await Qiyaamat that is the worst in terms of events and calamities.” [Tirmidhi, Nasa’i]

Note:
the meaning of this Hadith is that man does not value his free time, health and youth and he does not value his life. He continues waiting for disliked things, calamities and death.

The world is accursed

1234. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Remember, the world is accursed (i.e. the world is pushed out of the court of Allaah because it takes people far from Allaah) and whatever is in the world is accursed (i.e. the things of the world that make a person negligent of the Dhikr of Allaah has also been cursed) except the Dhikr of Allaah and that which Allaah loves and the teacher of Deen and the student (each one is accepted).” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

According to Allaah, the world is not equal to the wing of a mosquito

1235. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “If this world had the value of a wing of a mosquito before Allaah, then Allaah would not have given a disbeliever a sip of water.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]
It is not appropriate to become greatly engaged in the works of the world

1236. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Do not adopt such a profession that will be a cause for you inclining towards the world.” [Tirmidhi, Bayhaqi]

Give the Aakhirat preference over the world

1237. Hadhrat Abu Musa  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who makes his world his friend harms his Aakhirat and he who makes the Aakhirat his friend he harms his world. Therefore, that which will be destroyed, give preference to that which will remain (i.e. give preference to the Aakhirat over the world).” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

The slaves of wealth are accursed

1238. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Cursed be the one who becomes a slave of the Dinar and the slave of the Dirham.” [Tirmidhi]

How harmful is the greed for wealth and fame?

1239. Hadhrat Ka’b bin Maalik  narrates from his father that he said that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Two hungry wolves that are left in a flock of goats, do not cause so much harm to the goats equal to the harm that the greed of a person
The despicability of spending on unnecessary building

1240. Hadhrat Khabbaab ṭ. narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Whatever a Muslim spends, he will be rewarded except for the expenditure on sand (i.e. in building).” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

1241. Hadhrat Anas ṭ. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “All the avenues of expense (for the necessities of life) are in the path of Allaah (i.e. whatever a person spends upon himself and his relatives will be counted as reward). However, spending upon building holds no virtue or reward (that is more than necessary).” [Tirmidhi]

1242. Hadhrat Anas ṭ. narrates that one day Rasulullaah ﷺ came out (to go somewhere). A group of us companions were with. He saw a high dome on the road and said, “What is this?” (i.e. who built this high building?) the companions replied, “This dome was built by a particular Ansaari companion.” He remained silent and kept this in his heart until when the owner of the dome came to him and he greeted with Salaam in the presence of others, so he turned away. Rasulullaah ﷺ did this a number of times (that the person greeted and he did not reply and turned away). Finally, that person saw the effects of anger on his face and learnt of his turning his face away (on account of his dislike). Subsequently, this companion complained of this to the companions (that were especially with Rasulullaah ﷺ) that by Allaah, I see that it is as though Rasulullaah ﷺ is angered by me. Those companions told him that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ passed by (your side) and saw your dome. That person went to his dome and razed it to the ground. (After this) Rasulullaah ﷺ went that way again and he did not see the dome so he asked that what happened to the dome? The companions said, “The person who built the dome complained of your turning away and anger (he asked about the cause) so we explained to him. Subsequently, he razed it. Then Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Remember, this building will be a cause of the punishment for its builder except the building one cannot do without, except the building one cannot do without.” [Abu Dawud]

How much wealth and possessions is sufficient?

1243. Hadhrat Abu Hashim bin Utbah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him as a bequest, “For you, to gather one servant and one conveyance that will help you in the path of Allaah is sufficient (i.e. if you want to keep something of the world, then keep these two, do not keep anything else).” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Nasa’i, Ibn Maajah]

Upon what things does man have rights?

1244. Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “The son of Aadam has no right upon anything besides these things, one is a house in which he lives, second is clothing with which he covers his private parts, third is bread without gravy (with which he could push his hunger back) and fourth is water (with which he could quench his thirst).” [Tirmidhi]
The method of becoming beloved in the eyes of Allaah and the creation

1245. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d .. narrates that a person came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “O Rasul of Allaah, tell me of such an action which if done, Allaah will love me and people will also love me?” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Hate the world, Allaah ﷺ will love you and do not incline to that which is with people (i.e. fame and wealth) people will love you.” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The disinclination of Rasulullaah ﷺ to the world

1246. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ slept on a mat and when he awoke there were the marks of the mat on his body (looking at this), Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood .. said, “O Rasul of Allaah, if you permit, then we shall spread a soft bedding for you and arrange good clothing for you.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “What do I have to do with this world and what has the world to do with me? My example and that of the world is like that of a rider who comes searching for the shade beneath a tree and he stops there (to take benefit from the shade for a little while), then he leaves the tree and goes to his destination.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

A servant worthy of emulation

1247. Hadhrat Abu Umamah .. narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “Among my friends, the one worthy of emulation is that believer who is unencumbered, he is the best in Salaah and he worships his Rabb well (and just as he does apparent worship, similarly) he is engaged in the obedience of Allaah in solitude. He is not known among people that fingers are not pointed to him. Moreover, his sustenance is sufficient and he is patient and content with it.” Saying this he snapped his fingers and said, “His death finishes his work and the women crying over him are also few and his inheritance is also little.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

The desire of Rasulullaahﷺ

1248. Hadhrat Abu Umamah ṭ narrates that Rasulullaahﷺ said, “My Rabb has presented this to me that the mountains of Makkah be turned to gold but I said, “My Rabb, I do not have desire for this at all. I only want this that one day I eat to my fill and one day I remain hungry that when I remain hungry I can bow before You, explain my helplessness and remember You. And when I am satiated I can praise You and be grateful to You.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi]

With whom lies all the blessings of the world?

1249. Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Mihsan ṭ narrates that Rasulullaahﷺ said, “He who awakes in the morning in the condition that he has no fear for his life (apparently and hiddenly), his body is intact and healthy and he has provision for the day, then it is as though he has gathered the blessings of the entire world.” [Tirmidhi]
The despicability of being satiated

1250. Hadhrat Miqdaam bin Ma’dikarib  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “Man has not filled a utensil worse than his belly (because the evils and bad that come out from filling the belly are countless) a few morsels are sufficient for the son of Aadam that will keep his back straight and him standing, yes, if necessary (i.e. if someone cannot be content on the minimum amount of food, then) he should divide his belly into three parts. One part for food, one part for water and one part for air (should be left for it to move).” [Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah]

1251. Hadhrat Ibn Umar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ heard a person burping so he said that stop your burp (i.e. do not eat so much that you burp so long) because on the day of Qiyaamat the worst hungry person will be the one with the biggest belly (i.e. the one who eats a lot in this world, on the day of Qiyaamat he will have a lot of hunger due to which he will be in great worry).” [Baghawi, Tirmidhi]

The special test of the ummah of Rasulullaah ﷺ

1252. Hadhrat Ka’b bin Iyaadh  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying that (from Allaah ﷺ), there is some fitnah and test (in which the people of the ummah are placed and tested). Subsequently, the thing that is a test for my ummah is wealth and riches (i.e. Allaah ﷺ gives the people of my ummah wealth and riches and wants to test them whether they remain firm on the straight path or not).” [Tirmidhi]
The consequence of gathering wealth and not spending it in the path of Allaah

1253. Hadhrat Anas ṭ narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the son of Aadam will be presented in this way (with disgrace and lowliness) as though he is the kid of a goat. Then he will be made to stand before Allaah and Allaah ﷺ will say to him that I gave you (life, senses, health, peace and safety) in the world and I gave you wealth and gave you this (bounty), (that I revealed the Book, sent My Nabi-messenger and spread the light of guidance), so what did you do?” (i.e. did you fulfil the rights of these things and were you grateful for these things?) The son of Aadam will say, “My Rabb, I remained involved in getting wealth and increasing it (through trade) and (at the time of dying) I left the world with more than what I started with and now send me back to the world once again so that I could take all that wealth and come to you with it (by spending in Your path and with its reward).” Allaah ﷺ will say to him that (it is not possible to send you back to the world and whatever wealth you left in the world, now it is of no use to you, yes if) you sent it forth (by giving charity from it and attained the reward) then show it to Me.” (But because he did not send anything forth in the form of charity, which is why) he will be greatly ashamed upon Allaah saying this and he will say, “I remained engaged in gathering wealth and increasing it and I left it more in the world than what it was and now send me again into the world so that I could bring all that wealth to you.” Then when it will become apparent that he did not send anything good forth, then he will be commanded to go to Jahanam-hell.” [Tirmidhi]
Two great bounties: health and cold water

1254. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah  said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the first bounty about which a person will be asked will be, ‘Did we not grant your body health and did we not give you cold water to be satiated?’” [Tirmidhi]

On the day of Qiyaamat one will definitely be questioned about five things 1255. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates from Rasulullaah  that he said, “On the day of Qiyaamat, the feet of the son of Aadam will not move until he is not asked about five things. Subsequently, he will be asked that what did he use his life in (especially) in what did he destroy his youth, why did he earn? (i.e. all the wealth that he earned in this world, was it through permissible or impermissible sources). Where did he spend his wealth? (i.e. did he spend it in good avenues or evil avenues) and did he act in accordance to his knowledge.” [Tirmidhi]

Section Three

What is worthy of being proud about?

1256. Hadhrat Abu Dhar  narrates that Rasulullaah  said to him, “(Abu Dhar), you are not better than a red person or a black person except in Taqwa and abstinence, if you excel them in one of the two.” [Ahmad]

The virtue of disinclination towards the world

1257. Hadhrat Abu Dhar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who adopted disinclination towards the world, Allaah ﷺ will create the treasure of wisdom, i.e. recognition and conviction, in his heart, He will let it flow from his tongue and He will inform him of the faults of the world, its illnesses and cures, and Allaah ﷺ will make him reach the house of peace taking him through this world with peace.” [Bayhaqi]

Who is a successful person?

1258. Hadhrat Abu Dhar  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He is successful who heart has been made sincere for Imaan (by purifying it from the mixture of hypocrisy) and protected his heart (from hatred, jealousy and all evil traits), he made his tongue straight, he made his carnal self contented (through the remembrance of Allaah and out of his love), and kept his nature straight (from extremism), he made his ears hear (the truth) made his eyes see (the proofs of Tauheed and witness to the system of Allaah) and he made his eyes establish that which the heart protected and there is no doubt that the person is successful whose heart Allaah has made protective (of the truth).” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]
How does Allaah catch the evil ones?

1259. Hadhrat Uqbah bin Aamir  narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “When you see that Allaah ﷺ gives a person that which is beloved to him (wealth, fame etc) despite his sinning then understand that (giving him those beloved things) is Istidraaj (a chance).” After this Rasulullaah ﷺ recited this verse, ‘when the disbelievers forgot this advice that they were given then we opened the doors of everything (the bounties of the world) upon them until when they prided over that which they were given, then we caught them (in Our punishment) and they were astonished.”
[Ahmad]

Wealth is the brand of the world

1260. Hadhrat Abu Umamah  narrates that a person of the companions of the Suffah passed away and left 1 Dinaar as his inheritance. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This Dinaar is a brand.” Hadhrat Abu Umamah  says that another person of the companions of the Suffah passed away and he left 2 Dinaars as inheritance. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “These 2 Dinaars are 2 brands.” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

The crying of a Sahabi upon collecting abundant wealth

1261. Hadhrat Mu’awiyah bin Sufyaan  narrates that (one day) he went to his uncle Hadhrat Abu Hashim bin Utbah to visit so Hadhrat Abu Hashim (looked at him) and cried. Hadhrat Mu’awiyah asked, “Uncle, why are you crying? Has the sickness made you restless? Or has the greed and hope for the world?” He said, “It is not such, but Rasulullah ﷺ made a bequest to us and I have fallen short in practising upon it.” Mu’awiyah asked, “What was that bequest?” he said, “I heard Rasulullah ﷺ saying that it is sufficient for you to collect so much of the world that you have one servant and one conveyance to fight in the path of Allaah and I think that (much more than these two things) I kept wealth with me.” [Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Nasa’i, Ibn Maajah]

The benefit of not collecting wealth

1262. Hadhrat Umm Darda radhiyallaahu anha narrates that (one day) I said to Hadhrat Abu Darda .. that what happened to you that you do not ask for wealth, provision and position (from Rasulullah ﷺ or the companions) like other people?” (Hearing this) Hadhrat Abu Darda .. said that (I stay away from desiring wealth and gathering it because) I heard Rasulullah ﷺ saying, “Before you is a difficult valley, those people will not cross it (easily) who have loads.” Subsequently, I like to remain light (by staying away from seeking wealth and remaining patient and content with a little) so that I can pass the valley (easily).” [Bayhaqi]

A person of the world is not safe from sin

1263. Hadhrat Anas .. narrates that (one day) Rasulullah ﷺ asked (the companions sitting in his gathering), “Can anyone walk on water without his feet getting wet?” the companions replied, “O Rasul of Allaah, it is not possible.” Rasulullah ﷺ said, “Similar is the case of the people of the world that they do not remain safe and protected from sin.” [Bayhaqi]
The virtue of worship compared to trade

1264. Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr narrates in Mursal form that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “It has not been revealed to me to gather wealth and become a trader but it has been revealed to me that praise your Rabb and glorify Him and become of those who prostrate. Also, remain engaged in the worship of your Rabb until death comes to you.” [Baghawi, Abu Nu’aym]

The virtue of attaining the world for pious objectives

1265. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “He who earns the world through permissible means in order to save himself from stretching his hands before others, and to fulfil the needs of his family and to do good to his contemporaries, on the day of Qiyaamat he will meet Allaah in the condition that his face will be like the fourteenth moon (bright) and he who increases wealth, prides and through impermissible means earns the possessions of the world, he will meet Allaah in the condition that Allaah ﷺ is angry with him.” [Bayhaqi]

1266. Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa’d ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “This goodness is treasure and there are keys for the treasure. So good conditions is for that person who Allaah has made the key to goodness and the lock of evil and destruction is for that servant whom Allaah has made the keys of evil and the lock of good.” [Ibn Maajah]
Wealth is deprived of blessing

1267. Hadhrat Ali ‏  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When there is no blessings in a person’s wealth, then he mixes that wealth in water and sand (i.e. wealth that is more than his needs he spends in building and beautifying it).” [Bayhaqi]

The root of evil

1268. Hadhrat Ibn Umar ‏  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(People), stay away from placing Haraam wealth in buildings because putting Haraam wealth in buildings is the root and foundation of evil.” [Bayhaqi]

Emphasis to give preference to the Aakhirat over the world

1269. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates from Rasulullaah ﷺ that he said, “The world is a home for the one who has no home (in the Aakhirat) and wealth is for the one who has no wealth (in the Aakhirat). Also, the person who has no intelligence gathers wealth.” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

The despicability of three things

1270. Hadhrat Hudhayfah ‏  narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying during a sermon, “(Remember), drinking is a conglomeration of sin (i.e. drinking is the root of all sins) and women are the traps of Shaytaan and love of the world is the head of all sins.”
Hadhrat Hudhayfah says that he also heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, “Delay women because Allaah ﷻ has put them back” (i.e. wherever women are mentioned in the Qur’aan, they are mentioned after men, similarly, in testimony, virtue, they have been placed after men. Therefore, in these things do not put them before men and do not give them virtue over men).” [Razeen, Bayhaqi]

Do not become a son of the world

1271. Hadhrat Jaabir ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “I fear for my Ummah regarding two things. One is the desire of the carnal self and the second is hope for long life. The desire of the carnal self stops one from accepting the truth and desire for long life makes one forget the Aakhirat. And (remember) the world is to depart and the Aakhirat is to come. Also, they both have sons. Therefore, if it can come from you then do not become a son of the world, then do so because today you are in the world of actions where you will not be taken to account when tomorrow you will go to the house of Aakhirat where there is no chance of doing deeds (there will only be reckoning there).” [Bayhaqi]

Become a son of the Aakhirat

1272. Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates in Mauquf form that he said, “This world has turned away and is going and the Aakhirat is facing us and coming and both of them have sons. So become a son of the Aakhirat (by doing good deeds and turning to the Aakhirat) and do not become a son of the world (by neglecting the Aakhirat and turning to the world). Remember, today is for deeds, not for reckoning and tomorrow, the day of Qiyaamat is for reckoning, not for actions.” [Bukhari]

The world is goods of deception

1273. Hadhrat Amr .. narrates that one day Rasulullaah ﷺ delivered a sermon and said, “(People), remember, the world is a profitless provision. The pious eat in it and the evil as well (i.e. in this world Allaah ﷺ gives every person provision whether he is a believer or a disbeliever or he is obedient or a sinner). Know well, the Aakhirat is a real time that is true and in this (Aakhirat) the king that has every type of power (Allaah ﷺ) will decide. Know well, goodness with all its types is present in Jannah. Know well, every evil with all its types are in Jahannam. Know well, do good deeds in the condition that the fear of Allaah and reckoning overpowers you (or it means that do good deeds and fear Allaah regarding whether your deeds will be accepted or not) and remember that you will be presented to Allaah with your deeds. So he who does a minute amount of good he will get the reward and he who does a minute amount of evil will get its punishment.” [Shafi’i]

The reality of the world and the importance of the Aakhirat 1274. Hadhrat Shaddaad .. narrates that he heard Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, “People, indeed this world is a profitless provision in which the pious and sinful eat and undoubtedly the Aakhirat is a true and definite promise to occur. In it the king with every type of power (through his decision) will prove the truth and wipe out evil (i.e. through reward and punishment the people of truth and the people of falsehood will be separated from each other), become a son of the Aakhirat and do not become a son of this world because the son of every mother follows its mother.” [Abu Nu’aym]

Which wealth is better?

1275. Hadhrat Abu Darda .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When the sun rises, then there are two angels on the side of it that call and the entire creation besides man and jinn hear it (i.e. the call is not heard by men and jinn, the rest of the creation hear, and the call is) people, come towards your Rabb (i.e. follow the laws of your Rabb) and know that wealth which is little and sufficient is better than that which is a lot and stops you from worshipping Allaah.” [Abu Nu’aym]

When a person dies then what do the angels and the people say?

1276. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah .. narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When a person dies, then the angel says that what has this person sent forth to the Aakhirat (in the form of good deeds)? And the people (the heirs) ask that what has he left (in his estate)? (As though the gaze of the angels is upon deeds and the gaze of people is fixed upon wealth and possessions). [Bayhaqi]
People are moving rapidly towards the Aakhirat

1277. Hadhrat Imam Maalik narrates that Hadhrat Luqmaan said to his son, “My son, whatever was promised to people, the time for it has become long whereas people are going to the Aakhirat very fast. And my son, from the time you were born, your back was to the world and you were facing the Aakhirat (i.e. on the day of your birth, it was as though you are leaving the world and going to the Aakhirat) and there is no doubt that the house you are going to is closer to you compared to the one you are leaving.” [Razeen]

Which person is better?

1278. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ was asked that which person is the best. He said, “He whose heart is Makhmoom and his tongue is truthful.” (Hearing this) the companions said, “We know what the tongue being truthful means, but what is the meaning of a Makhmoom heart?” He said, “A person with a Makhmoom heart is he whose heart is clean and abstinent, there is no sin in it, or any oppression, it does not overstep limits, it does not have the basis of malice and jealousy in it.” [Ibn Maajah, Bayhaqi]

Virtue of four things

1279. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(People), four things are such that if they are found in you, then you will not grieve over losing the world. One is protecting trusts (i.e. protecting rights and fulfilling them whether they are related to Allaah or to man or to one’s life), the second is speaking the truth, and the third is good character and the fourth is caution in food (i.e. to stay away from Haraam food and to remain content upon that which is sufficient).” [Ahmad, Bayhaqi]

[812]

The method of becoming honourable

1280. Hadhrat Imam Maalik narrates that this narration has reached me that when Hadhrat Luqmaan Hakeem was asked that the stage upon which we see you, what made you reach there? So Luqmaan Hakeem said, “Speaking the truth, fulfilling trust and leaving that which has no benefit for me (has taken me to this stage).” [Muwatta]

Intercession of good deeds on the Day of Qiyaamat

1281. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “(On the day of Qiyaamat) actions will come (before Allaah). So (first) Salaah will come and say, “O Rabb, I am Salaah.” Allaah  will say, “Indeed you are upon goodness.” Then Zakaat and Sadaqah will come and will say, “O Rabb, I am Sadaqah.” Allaah  will say, “Indeed you are upon goodness.” Then fasting will come and say, “O Rabb, I am fasting.” Allaah  will say, “Indeed you are upon goodness.” In this way, (one after the other) other actions (like Hajj, Jihaad and seeking knowledge etc) will come (and each of them will introduce themselves in the above mentioned words) and Allaah  will say that you are upon goodness. (As though each action will intercede for the servants through introducing themselves, Allaah will suspend its acceptance and will put back its request very kindly and softly) then (finally) Islaam will come and say, “O Rabb, Your name is Salaam (that Your Being is pure from every fault, defect and You grant peace to all the difficulties and calamities of the servants) and I am Islaam.” So Allaah ﷺ will say, “Indeed you are upon goodness, on account of you will I take to account today and through you I shall reward.”

Subsequently, Allaah ﷺ says in his book, ‘He who adopts any Deen-religion besides Islaam, that Deen-religion will never be accepted from him and in the Aakhirat he will be from the losers.’”

[Ahmad]

Stay away from things that incline you to the world

1282. Hadhrat Ayesha radhiyallaahu anha narrates that there was a curtain with us. It had pictures of birds on it. Subsequently, (one day) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “Ayesha, change that curtain because when I look at it, I remember the world.”

[Ahmad]

Three advises of Rasulullaah ﷺ

1283. Hadhrat Abu Ayyub Ansari  narrates that a person came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, “(O Rasul of Allaah), give me advice that is comprehensive and short.” Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you stand up for Salaah, then perform Salaah like that person who is leaving and departing (i.e. when you perform Salaah then turn your attention away from the things of the world and with complete sincerity and devotion turn to Allaah). Also, do not say something due to which tomorrow you will have to present excuses and make a firm resolution not to have hope in that which is in the hands of people (i.e. [814] whatever Allaah has written for you and whatever you are given, be content with it and do not place your hopes in the wealth and possessions of people).” [Ahmad]

The virtue of abstinence

1284. Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal  narrates that when Rasulullaah  sent him to Yemen (as judge and governor) then he went with him (in order to bid him farewell) and in this time he advised him. Also, Hadhrat Mu’aadh  was mounted on his conveyance and Rasulullaah  was walking at his side. When he completed advising him then he said, “Mu’aadh, after a year of my life you will probably not meet me and possibly (when you return from Yemen, then instead of meeting me) you will pass my Masjid and grave.” (Hearing this) Mu’aadh  began to cry upon separation from Rasulullaah  and Rasulullaah  turned and headed to Madinah. Then he said, “Those who are closest to me are the ones who are the most abstinent, no matter who they are or where they are.” [Ahmad]

Who is a guided Muslim?

1285. Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  recited this verse, ‘Whoever Allaah intends to guide, He widens his chest to Islaam.’ Then (in explanation of the verse) he said, “When the light of guidance enters the chest, then the chest is widened.” The companions said, “O Rasul of Allaah, is there any sign through which this condition can be recognized?” Rasulullaah  said, “Its sign is to be far away from the house of deception (i.e. the world) and returning to the eternal home (i.e. the Aakhirat) and concentrating fully and preparing for death before it comes.” [Bayhaqi]
The virtue of disinclination to the world and speaking less of it

1286. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  and Hadhrat Abu Khallad  narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, “When you see that a person has been given disinclination to the world and less speech then adopt closeness to him and his companionship because he has been given the treasure of wisdom.” [Bayhaqi]
